(73) ZACH BANNER—Offensive Tackle, 6-9, 360, Sr.*/Sr., Tacoma, WA (Lakes HS)

CAREER: He has 38 starts in his career.

2016: Banner, USC's biggest player who also played basketball at USC earlier in his career, started for his third season at left offensive tackle. He appeared in 11 games in 2016 (he missed the Arizona State and Colorado games after spraining his ankle at Utah). At Utah, he took a lateral 3 yards. He made the 2016 CollegeSportsMadness.com All-American first team, Senior CLASS Award All-American first team, All-Pac-12 first team, Phil Steele All-Pac-12 first team and was among 10 finalists for the Senior CLASS Award (given to the nation's top senior excelling in community/classroom/character/competition). He made the 2016 AP All-Bowl Team honorable mention for his performance against Penn State. He won USC's 2016 Co-Offensive Lineman of the Year Award and Community Service Award. He was a USC captain in 2016. He was invited to the 2017 Senior Bowl.

2015: Banner started for his second season at offensive tackle as a junior in 2015. He started 12 times at right tackle and twice (Utah and Wisconsin) at left tackle. He made the 2015 CollegeSportsMadness.com All-American third team and All-Pac-12 first team, as well as AP All-Pac-12 second team and Phil Steele All-Pac-12 second team. He won USC's Offensive Lineman of the Year Award. He had 1 tackle in 2015.

2014: Banner started all of 2014 at right offensive tackle as a sophomore. He made 2014 CollegeFootball News Sophomore All-American honorable mention. He had 1 tackle in 2014.

2013: Banner played briefly as a backup offensive tackle as a redshirt freshman in 2013, appearing in 2 early-season games (Hawaii, Boston College), then was sidelined the rest of the year with an injury that required surgery on both hips.

2012: Banner redshirted as a freshman offensive tackle in 2012, his first year at USC.

BASKETBALL: He joined the 2013 USC men's basketball team after the conclusion of the 2012 football season, but did not see any action.

HIGH SCHOOL: His 2011 honors included USA Today All-USA first team, Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, SI.com All-American first team, Max Preps All-American second team, Max Preps All-American Medium Schools first team, Prep Star Top 150 Dream Team, ESPNU 150, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Seattle Times All-State, Orange County Register Fab 15 first team, Tacoma News Tribune Northwest Nuggets and Tacoma News Tribune All-Area first team as a senior offensive lineman at Lakes High in Lakewood (Wash.). He was a finalist for the 2012 Watkins Award, given to the nation's top African-American high school scholar-athlete.

As a junior in 2010, he made USA Today All-USA first team, Max Preps All-American second team, Max Preps All-American Medium Schools first team, Max Preps Junior All-American first team and All-State 3-A first team.

He also played basketball at Lakes, helping the team to the 2011 state 3A title.

PERSONAL: He received his bachelor's degree from USC in communication and is now working on a second bachelor's in sociology. He received the 2017 Southern California Sports Broadcasters Post-Graduate Scholarship.

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING ABOUT ZACH BANNER

Kyle Bonagura, ESPN.com: "At 6-foot-9, 360 pounds, Banner is a mountain of a man and one of the most imposing figures in college football. After briefly toying with the idea of leaving for the NFL draft, Banner returns to anchor an experienced offensive line that will be essential in establishing the physical brand of football coach Clay Helton is hoping to instill."

(22) JUSTIN DAVIS—Tailback, 6-1, 200, Sr./Sr., Stockton, CA (Lincoln HS)

CAREER: He has 2,465 yards on 461 carries (5.3 avg) with 19 TDs, plus 46 receptions for 400 yards (8.7 avg) with 2 TDs and 7 kickoff returns for 211 yards (19.2 avg) in his career. His 2,465 career rushing yards is 12th on USC's all-time list. He has 5 100-yard rushing games in his career. He has 15 career starts.

2016: The experienced Davis, a quick, darting runner, started the first 6 games at tailback as a senior in 2016, but an ankle injury in the sixth game (Colorado) sidelined him for the next 3 games (Arizona, California, Oregon) and he has saw as a backup since until starting versus Penn State in the Rose Bowl. Overall in 2016 while appearing in 10 games (with 7 starts), he has 607 yards on 110 carries (5.5 avg) with 2 TDs and 14 receptions for 112 yards (8.0 avg). He won USC's 2016 Trojan Commitment Award and Lifter of the Year Award. He was invited to the 2017 East-West Shrine Game.

He had 2 yards on 7 carries and caught 2 passes for 5 yards against Alabama, then a game-best 70 yards on 16 carries and 2 receptions for 36 yards against Utah State. He rushed for 63 yards on 14 carries and 4 catches for 10 yards at Stanford. He had a game-best 216 yards on 10 carries (12.6 per rush) with a 14-yard TD at Utah. He had a game-high 123 yards on 14 carries with a 37-yard TD run and he caught 2 passes for 38 yards against Arizona State. He had a game-best 92 yards on 13 carries against Colorado before leaving in the third quarter with an ankle injury. He had 4 yards on 5 carries and 2 catches for 1 yard at Washington. He had 48 yards on 15 tries and he had an 8-yard catch at UCLA. He ran for 36 yards on 10 tries against Notre Dame. He had 43 yards on 6 carries and a 14-yard reception versus Penn State.

2015: Davis started the last 8 games of 2015 at tailback as a junior. Overall while appearing in 13 games (all but Arkansas State), he ran for 902 yards on 169 carries (5.3 avg) with 7 TDs, caught 18 passes for 189 yards (10.5 avg) and had 11 kickoff returns for 211 yards (19.2 avg). He made 2015 All-Pac-12 honorable mention and Phil Steele All-Pac-12 third team. He missed the Arkansas State opener with hamstring and rib injuries.

Against Idaho, he had 74 yards on 5 carries (14.8 average) with 2 short TDs (he also had a 43-yard non-scoring run). He had 46 yards on 8 tries and 3 catches for 23 yards against Stanford. He had 24 yards on 7 carries and another 35 yards on 2 receptions at Arizona State. He had 31 yards on 8 carries and another 36 yards on 2 catches against Washington. He had 52 yards on 7 carries and 3 catches for 33 yards at Notre Dame. He had 66 yards on 19 tries (with a 9-yard scoring run) versus Utah. He had 42 yards on 15 carries and 2 kickoff returns for 53 yards at California. He had 85 yards (with TDs of 9 and 16 yards) on 16 carries and he had a 7-yard kickoff return versus Arizona. He had a game-best 85 yards on 14 carries along with 3 catches for 28 yards and a 27-yard kickoff return at Colorado. He ran for a career-best 141 yards on 16 carries and he also had 3 catches for 24 yards and 2 kickoff returns for 59 yards at Oregon. He had 130 yards on 25 carries (100 in the fourth quarter on 15 rushes) against UCLA to win USC's Player of the Game Vs. UCLA Award. He had 99 yards on 17 carries (1 yard shy of his third consecutive 100-yard rushing outing), caught 2 passes for 20 yards and returned a kickoff for no yards against Stanford in the Pac-12 Championship Game. He had 27 yads on 12 carries with 2 short TDs and also returned 4 kickoffs for 65 yards versus Wisconsin.

2014: Davis was the backup tailback as a sophomore in 2014. Overall in 2014 while seeing action in all 13 games, he had 129 carries for 595 yards (4.6 avg) with 4 TDs, plus 13 receptions for 92 yards (7.1 avg) with 2 TDs. He sat out 2014 spring practice while recovering from a 2013 ankle injury.

He had 30 yards on 12 tries and he also had 2 receptions for 21 yards against Fresno State. He added 20 yards on 8 carries with a 1-yard TD and he also caught a 10-yard pass at Stanford. He had 10 yards on 6 rushes at Boston College. He had 15 carries for 82 yards with a 21-yard score and 3 catches for 30 yards with a 16-yard TD against Oregon State. He added 67 yards on 14 tries and also had a 5-yard TD at Arizona State. At Arizona, he had 28 yards on 7 rushes and caught a 2-yard pass, then had 97 yards on 11 carries against Colorado, 9 yards on 4 tries at Utah and 44 yards on 9 tries (along with a catch for minus 1 yard) at Washington State. He had 45 yards on 11 tries with a TD against California, added 37 yards on 9 rushes and caught 4 passes for 25 yards with a short TD at UCLA and 81 yards on 19 carries with a 16-yard TD run against Notre Dame. He ran for 45 yards on 4 carries against Nebraska.

2013: Davis, who enrolled at USC in the spring of 2013 after graduating a semester early from high school, made an immediate impression as a backup tailback as a first-year freshman in 2013 before suffering a season-ending ankle injury that ended his campaign. Overall in 2013 while appearing in the first 7 games (Hawaii, Washington State, Boston College, Utah State, Arizona State, Arizona, Notre Dame), he ran for 361 yards on 53 carries (6.8 avg) with 6 TDs, plus he had a 7-yard catch (7.0 avg).

He had 74 yards on 14 rushes with a 3-yard TD at Hawaii, then 2 yads on 2 carries against Washington State. He added 96 yards on 10 carries with a 17-yard TD against Boston College, then 17 yards on 6 carries against Utah State. He had 122 yards on 10 carries with 3 TDs (26, 15 and 58 yards) at Arizona State. He then had 38 yards on 9 carries (with an 11-yard TD) against Arizona. He had 12 yards on 2 carries and caught a 7-yard pass at Notre Dame before suffering an ankle injury at Notre Dame that sidelined him for the rest of the season.

2016: Hutchings started all of 2016 at inside linebacker as a senior and performed solidly. Overall while starting all 13 games, he had 66 tackles (second on USC), including 8 for losses of 43 yards (with 3 sacks for minus 22 yards), plus he had 2 deflections. He made 2016 All-Pac-12 honorable mention. He won USC's 2016 Chris Carlisle Courage Award. He was a USC captain in 2016.

He had 5 tackles (2.5 for losses, with 1.5 sacks) against Alabama, 5 tackles and a deflection versus Utah State, a game-best 7 tackles at Stanford, 6 tackles at Utah, 4 tackles (0.5 for a loss) against Arizona State, 6 tackles (0.5 sack) against Colorado, 4 tackles (including 1 for a loss) at Arizona, 6 tackles against California, 5 tackles against Oregon, a game-best 9 tackles (0.5 for loss) at Washington, 2 stops at UCLA and 5 tackles (1 for a loss) against Notre Dame. Both of his tackles against Penn State were for losses and he also had a deflection.

2015: Hutchings served as a backup inside linebacker as a junior in 2015. Overall in 2015 while appearing in 12 games (all but Utah and California) and starting once (UCLA), he had 13 tackles. He had 4 tackles against Oregon and UCLA, 3 versus Idaho and 2 against Arkansas State. He missed the Utah game because he was sick.

2014: Hutchings was a backup inside linebacker and played on special teams as a sophomore in 2014. Overall in 2014 while appearing in all 13 games (he started against Boston College), he had 20 tackles and an interception. He dislocated his left elbow during 2014 spring practice.

He had 3 tackles and an interception against Fresno State, then added a tackle at Stanford. He had 5 tackles at Boston College while starting. He had 1 tackle against Arizona State and at Arizona, then added 4 tackles against Colorado and 2 against Washington State. He had 3 tackles against Nebraska.

2013: Hutchings showed promise while serving as a backup linebacker and played on special teams as a first-year freshman in 2013. Overall while appearing in all 14 games, he had 19 tackles. He had 2 tackles against Boston College, 4 at Arizona State, 1 each against Arizona and Notre Dame, 5 at California and 6 at Colorado.

HIGH SCHOOL: His 2012 honors included Prep Star All-American Dream Team, Max Preps All-American first team, USA Today All-USA second team, ESPN 150, Rivals 100, Scout 100, Orange County Register Fab 15 first team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Cal-Hi Sports California Mr. Football (the first linebacker selected since 1973), Max Preps All-State Division I Player of the Year, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, San Francisco Chronicle All-Metro first team, Contra Costa Times All-East Bay first team and All-East Bay Athletic League MVP as a senior linebacker, running back and wide receiver at De La Salle High in Concord (Calif.). (2) ADOREE' JACKSON—Cornerback-Wide Receiver-Returner, 5-11, 185, Jr./Jr., Belleville, IL (Serra HS)

CAREER: In his career, he has 139 tackles (6 for losses), 29 deflections, 6 interceptions (1 for TD), 3 fumble recoveries and 2 forced fumbles on defense, 39 receptions for 628 yards (16.1 avg) with 6 TDs and 15 carries for 92 yards (6.1 avg) on offense and 79 kickoff returns for 2,141 yards (27.1 avg) with 4 TDs and 46 punt returns for 578 yards (12.6 avg) with 4 TDs on special teams. In his career, he has scored 15 touchdowns in 4 different ways: via reception (6), interception (1), punt return (4) and kickoff return (4). He tied NCAA records for most career TDs on kick returns (8) and all runbacks (9). He owns the USC career records for kickoff return yardage (2,141 yards) and returns (79) and his 27.1 career kick return average is second on the USC chart behind Anthony Davis' 34.0. Among his 4 scoring kickoff returns, he has a USC record-tying 2 of 100 yards. He is fifth on USC's all-time punt return ladder (578 yards). His 4 career punt return TDs ties the USC record (with Nelson Agholor). He has 37 career starts (34 at cornerback, 1 at safety, 1 at wide receiver and 1 concurrently at cornerback and wide receiver).

2016: Jackson, perhaps the most exciting player in college football, returned as a junior in 2016 for his third year as a starting cornerback and also made an impact as a returner and on offense. USC's first 3-way player in nearly 20 years, he drew comparisons with former Michigan Heisman Trophy winner Charles Woodson (they have posted comparable statistics). Jackson also is the 2-time defending (2015 and 2016) Pac-12 long jump champion for USC's track team and he was fifth at both the 2015 and 2016 NCAA Meets to twice earn All-American status. He missed 2016 spring football practice while focusing on track.

Overall in 2016 while starting all 13 games at cornerback, he had 55 tackles (including 2 for losses of 4 yards), a team-best 11 deflections, a team-high 5 interceptions and a team-best 2 fumble recoveries on defense, he returned 26 kickoffs for 767 yards (29.5 avg) with 2 TDs and 20 punts for 315 yards (15.8 avg) with 2 TDs on special teams and he had 7 carries for 51 yards (7.3 avg) and 2 receptions for 76 yards (38.0 avg) with a TD while playing 18 plays on offense. He was second nationally in punt return TDs (2, first in Pac-12), second in kickoff return TDs (2, first in Pac-12), third in punt returns (15.8, first in Pac-12), sixth in kickoff returns (29.5, first in Pac-12), 18th in interceptions (0.4, third in Pac-12) and 19th in passes defended (1.2, third in Pac-12).

He won the 2016 Thorpe Award and was among 4 finalists for the Hornung Award and 4 finalists for the Lott IMPACT Trophy. He was named a 2016 consensus All-American first teamer by AP (as a cornerback), Football Writers (as punt returner), Football Coaches (as an all-purpose player), Walter Camp (as defensive back; also second team as kick returner), Sporting News (as cornerback), ESPN (as an all-purpose player), Sports Illustrated (as an all-purpose player; also second team as a returner), CBS Sports (as a cornerback and punt returner; also second team as an all-purpose player and kick returner), Phil Steele (as punt returner; also second team as all-purpose player and third team as defensive back and kick returner), Campus Insiders All-American first team (as all-purpose player) and CollegeSportsMadness.com (as defensive back; also third team as kick returner and as punt returner) and a second teamer by USA Today (as a returner). He was the 2016 Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Year and made the All-Pac-12 first team at 2 positions (defensive back and return specialist), as well as Phil Steele All-Pac-12 first team (as a defensive back, kick returner and punt returner). He was named USC's 2016 Most Valuable Player (the first Trojan to repeat as team MVP since 2004-05 and only the ninth to win the honor twice since the award was first presented in 1967), as well as USC's Special Teams Player of the Year, Defensive Perimeter Player of the Year and Player of the Game Versus Notre Dame. He was a USC captain in 2016.

He had 4 tackles (while limiting 2015 Freshman All-American WR Calvin Ridley to just 2 receptions for 9 yards) and he returned 4 kickoffs for 112 yards against Alabama (he also had 1 snap on offense). He had 2 tackles on defense and returned a punt for a 77-yard TD against Utah State to earn Pac-12 Special Teams Player of the Week. He had 6 tackles (1 for a loss), an interception and a deflection, along with 2 kickoff returns for 37 yards and a 25-yard punt return, at Stanford (he also had 1 snap on offense). At Utah, he had 7 tackles, 2 deflections and a fumble recovery, along with a 100-yard kickoff return for a TD (his third career scoring kick runback, including a USC record-tying second for 100 yards, joining his 100-yarder at Utah in 2014) and an 11-yard rush on his only offensive play. Against Arizona State, he had 5 tackles and a deflection, returned 3 kickoffs for 62 yards and had 3 punt returns for 16 yards. Against Colorado, he had 6 tackles and a spectacular tip-toe-the-sideline interception (as the Buffaloes were driving in USC territory), he had a 38-yard kickoff return to tie the USC career kick return yardage record and he added 4 punt returns for 50 yards (including a 47-yarder) and he played 1 snap on offense to earn Hornung Award Honor Roll and Lott IMPACT Player of the Week notice. He had 4 tackles and returned a fumble 26 yards to set up a USC TD, plus he had 2 punt returns for 3 yards at Arizona (he also had 1 snap on offense). Against California, he had 6 tackles and a deflection, plus 2 kickoff returns for 56 yards, 2 punt returns for 33 yards and a rush for 1 yard (while getting 2 snaps on offense). Against Oregon, he had 2 tackles and a deflection, plus 2 punt returns for 16 yards (he also played 3 snaps on offense). At Washington, he picked off a pair of passes to go along with 3 tackles and a deflection on defense, plus he returned 3 kickoffs for 59 yards and had an 8-yard third down rush to pick up a key first down on USC's final scoring drive to earn CollegeSportsMadness.com Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Week, Hornung Award Honor Roll, Scout.com Pac-12 Player of the Week and Lott IMPACT Player of the Week honors. At UCLA, he had 4 tackles (1 for a loss) and 2 deflections, a 17-yard rush, 2 kickoff returns for 46 yards and a 16-yard punt return. He scored 3 touchdowns against Notre Dame (a 55-yard punt return, 97-yard kickoff return in which he hurdled an Irish defender and 52-yard pass reception) to become the first Trojan since records were available in 1953 to have scoring punt and kick runbacks in a game; overall, he had 2 tackles and 2 deflections on defense, returned 3 punts for 66 yards and 4 kickoffs for 161 yards and had the 52-yard reception and a 12-yard rush for a first down among his 5 offensive snaps to earn Pac-12 Special Teams Player of the Week, Rose Bowl Game Pac-12 Player of the Week, Scout.com Pac-12 Player of the Week and Lott IMPACT Player of the Week honors. Against Penn State, he had 4 tackles and an interception on defense, returned 4 kickoffs for 96 yards and had a 13-yard punt return on special teams and had a 20-yard reception and 2 carries for 2 yards while playing 5 plays on offense (he sat out the fourth quarter with an ankle injury).

2015: Jackson returned in 2015 as a starting cornerback and a dangerous kickoff returner, plus he saw significant action at wide receiver. Overall in 2015 while starting 12 times at cornerback (all but Utah and UCLA), once at safety (versus UCLA) and once at wide receiver (versus Utah), he had 35 tackles, 8 deflections, a forced fumble and an interception for a TD on defense, 27 receptions for 414 yards (15.3 avg) with 2 TDs and 7 carries for 36 yards (5.1 avg) on offense and 30 kickoff returns for 690 yards (23.0 avg) and 24 punt returns for 251 yards (10.5 avg) with 2 TDs on special teams. He was the only player nationally with at least 400 yards receiving, 600 in kickoff returns, 200 in punt returns and 30 tackles. He was second nationally in punt returns TDs (2, first in Pac-12) and 25th in punt returns (10.5, third in Pac-12). He had 157 plays on offense, 657 on defense and 157 on special teams in 2015.

He was a finalist for the 2015 Hornung Award. He made Phil Steele All-American third team (as a defensive back and all-purpose player) and SI.com All-American honorable mention. He made the 2015 All-Pac-12 first team (as a defensive back) and second team (as a return specialist), AP All-Pac-12 first team (as a defensive back) and Phil Steele All-Pac-12 first team (as a defensive back) and second team (as a punt returner). He was USC's MVP.

He had 2 punt returns for 40 yards and a 23-yard kickoff return against Arkansas State while getting 2 plays on offense, 6 on defense and 4 on special teams before being sidelined in the second quarter with an abdominal strain. He had 3 tackles and a deflection along with 4 catches for 62 yards (including a zigzagging 30-yard pickup) and 3 punt returns for 7 yards versus Idaho (he had 6 plays on offense, 32 on defense and 9 on special teams). He had 5 tackles, 5 kickoff returns for 118 yards and a punt return for no yards against Stanford (he played 9 plays on offense, 57 on defense and 12 on special teams). At Arizona State, he had 2 tackles along with 184 all-purpose yards on just 5 touches (3 receptions for 131 yards, including taking a swing pass a career-long 80 yards for a TD to open the game's scoring and also grabbing a 45-yarder on third-and-6 to keep a TD drive alive, and 2 punt returns for 53 yards, including a ridiculous 45-yarder where he juked, jumped and slipped defenders while playing 4 plays on offense, 48 on defense and 9 on special teams) to earn Hornung Award Honor Roll notice. He had a tackle, 3 catches for 3 yards, 3 punt returns for 3 yards and 3 kickoff returns for 66 yards against Washington while playing 30 plays on offense, 54 on defense and 10 on special teams. At Notre Dame, he had 3 tackles and forced a fumble that USC recovered in the end zone (he also caught a short pass and turned it into an 83-yard score, had 4 kickoff returns for 101 yards and rushed for 9 yards on 2 carries getting 26 plays on offense, 38 on defense and 15 on special teams) to earn Hornung Award Honor Roll notice. He had 6 catches for 37 yards, 2 kickoff returns for 33 yards, 2 punt returns for minus 1-yard and 2 rushes for minus 1-yard against Utah while getting 40 plays on offense, 2 on defense and 10 on special teams. At California, he made 2 tackles, returned his first career interception for a 46-yard TD, had 2 catches for 18 yards, returned a kickoff for 31 yards and had a 9-yard punt return while getting 6 plays on offense, 45 on defense and 9 on special teams to earn CollegeSportsMadness.com Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Week and Hornung Award Honor Roll honors. He had 2 tackles, 4 catches for 45 yards, 4 punt returns for 28 yards and 3 kickoff returns for 57 yards against Arizona while getting 7 plays on offense, 73 on defense and 12 on special teams to earn Hornung Award Honor Roll notice. He had a tackle, a deflection, a 3-yard reception, 3 kickoff returns for 70 yards and an 11-yard punt return at Colorado while getting 1 play on offense, 56 on defense and 10 on special teams. He had 4 tackles, returned 2 punts for 45 yards (with a 41-yard TD) and picked up a kickoff fumbled by USC and returned it 26 yards at Oregon while getting 5 plays on offense, 63 on defense and 14 on special teams. Jackson had a team-best 6 tackles and 2 deflections (starting at safety) and also returned 3 kickoffs for 53 yards and 2 punts for 46 yards (with a 42-yard TD) against UCLA while seeing 2 plays on offense, 62 on defense and 10 on special teams. Against Stanford in the Pac-12 Championship Game, he had 2 tackles and 2 deflections on offense, returned 4 kickoffs for 86 yards and had a 27-yard run while getting 5 plays on offense, 55 on defense and 16 on special teams. Against Wisconsin, he had 4 tackles and 2 deflections, 3 catches for 32 yards, a 1-yard rush, a 26-yard kickoff return and a 1-yard punt return while playing 66 plays on defense, 14 on offense and 17 on special teams 2014: Jackson made quite an impact on defense, offense and special teams as a first-year freshman cornerback, wide receiver and returner/coverage man in 2014. Overall in 2014 while appearing in all 13 games and starting 10 times at cornerback (at Stanford and then in USC's last 9 games) and once concurrently at wide receiver (Notre Dame), he had 49 tackles, including 4 for losses, 10 deflections, 1 forced fumble and 1 fumble recovery on defense, plus 10 receptions for 138 yards (13.8 avg) with 3 TDs and 1 carry for 5 yards (5.0 avg) on offense and 23 kickoff returns for 684 yards (29.7 avg) with 2 TD and 2 punt returns for 12 yards (6.0 avg).

He was used as a 3-way player in 8 games in 2014 (the first 4 and the last 4). The last Trojan to see a significant amount of time on offense/defense/special teams in a game was Chad Morton, who did so for several games in both his 1996 redshirt freshman and 1997 sophomore seasons when he played tailback, wide receiver, cornerback, safety and punt returner. Against Notre Dame in 2014, Jackson became the first Trojan to start on offense (wide receiver) and defense (cornerback) in a game since at least the late 1960s when starting records were first reliably kept during the 2-platoon era. Jackson's 2014 statistics were comparable to those of Michigan's 3-way star Charles Woodson when he won the Heisman in 1997.

He made the 2014 CollegeSportsMadness.com All-American second team (as a kickoff returner), as well as Football Writers Freshman All-American first team, Sporting News Freshman All-American first team, USA Today Freshman All-American first team, Scout Freshman All-American first team, Phil Steele Freshman All-American first team, CollegeFootballNews.com Freshman All-American first team, ESPN.com True Freshman All-American first team and 247Sports True Freshman All-American first team. He was named the 2014 Pac-12 Defensive Freshman of the Year and made All-Pac-12 honorable mention, as well as the Athlon All-Pac-12 first team (as an all-purpose player), CollegeSportsMadness.com All-Pac-12 first team and Phil Steele All-Pac-12 second team (as a kickoff returner). He is second nationally in kickoff return TDs (2, first in Pac-12) and fifth in kickoff returns (29.7, second in Pac-12).

He had a tackle along with 3 receptions for 36 yards (with an 18-yard TD) and a 10-yard punt return against Fresno State while playing 52 plays (13 offense, 25 defense, 14 special teams). At Stanford, he played 36 plays (23 defense, 9 offense, 4 special teams), but did not have any statistics. He had 2 tackles for loss, plus he caught a pass for minus 4 yards and returned 3 kickoffs for 81 yards at Boston College while playing 45 plays (2 offense, 30 defense, 13 special teams). Against Oregon State, he had a tackle and 2 deflections (including one that he tipped to teammate Leon McQuay, who made the interception) along with 2 kickoff returns for 58 yards while playing 44 plays (4 offense, 28 defense, 12 special teams). He had 5 tackles and returned 2 kickoffs for 56 yards against Arizona State. At Arizona, he had 7 tackles and returned a kickoff 34 yards. He had a 15-yard kickoff return and made a tackle before being sidelined with a hip injury against Colorado. He had 4 tackles (1 for a loss), a deflection, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery (on the same play) plus he returned 2 kickoffs for 127 yards (with a school record-tying 100-yarder for a TD) and a punt for 2 yards at Utah to earn College Football Performance Awards National Kickoff Returner of the Week and Pac-12 Special Teams Player of the Week honors. He had 8 tackles (1 for a loss) and 2 deflections, plus 3 kickoff returns for 67 yards, at Washington State. He had 5 tackles and 2 deflections on defense and 2 receptions for 17 yards on offense against California while playing 101 plays (75 on defense, 22 on special teams, 4 on offense). He had 5 tackles and a deflection and also returned 3 kickoffs for 54yards and had a 5-yard rush at UCLA while playing 97 plays (74 on defense, 22 on special teams and 1 on offense). He had 3 tackles and a deflection and caught a 16-yard TD against Notre Dame as he became the first Trojan to start on offense (wide receiver) and defense (cornerback) in a game since at least the late 1960s when starting records were first reliably kept during the 2-platoon era while playing 49 snaps (35 on defense, 6 on offense, 8 on special teams) before being sidelined late in the first half with a concussion. Against Nebraska, he made 7 tackles and a deflection, caught 3 passes for 73 yards with a 71-yard TD and returned 3 kickoffs for 130 yards with a Holiday Bowl-record 98-yard TD while playing 103 plays (78 on defense, 21 on special teams, 4 on offense) to earn USA Today All-Bowl Team, CBSSports.com All-Bowl Team and ESPN.com Pac-12 All-Bowl Team honors.

TRACK: He was a long jumper and sprinter on USC's track team in the springs of 2015 and 2016, winning the Pac-12 outdoor long jump title both years (and placing second in the Pac-12 100 meters in 2016) and earning All-American status both years after twice placing fifth in the NCAA long jump.

In 2015 outdoor while becoming the first USC football letterman to earn track All-America honors in an individual event (long jump) since Sultan McCullough in 2000 (100 meter dash) and in a field event since long jumper Luther Hayes in 1961, he had legal bests of 10.48 (a then-personal best) in the 100 meters while placing seventh at the Pac-12 Meet (he went 10.53 in the prelims) and 25-11.50 (a personal best and eighth on the USC career list) in the long jump to place fifth at the NCAA Meet. In his other 100 meter outing in 2015, he was sixth at the UCLA Dual (10.54). In his other long jumps, he won the Pac-12 title with a leap of 25-3.50 and also won at the UCLA Dual meet (25-2 wind-aided) and the Trojan Invitational (24-4.15), plus he was seventh at the Mt. SAC Relays (24-4.25) and the NCAA West Prelims (25-8 wind-aided). He occasionally ran a leg on USC's 400-meter relay team, even helping the quartet at the NCAA West Prelims advance to the NCAA Meet, where he then anchored the 400-meter relay team that finished fourth in 38.75 (second fastest in USC history). He was named USC's Most Valuable Athlete.

In 2016 outdoor while repeating as an All-American, he had legal bests of 10.38 (career best) in the 100 meters while winning the UCLA Dual (he also had a wind-aided 10.35 while running ninth at the Mt. SAC Relays), 21.08 (career best) in the 200 meters while placing second at the UCLA Dual and 25-8.25 in the long jump to place 10th in the U.S. Olympic Trials (he also had wind-aided jumps of 25-10.75 in the U.S. Olympic Trials qualifying round and while winning the Cardinal & Gold Challenge). He also had 100 times of 10.41 to run second at the Cardinal & Gold Challenge and 10.44 to place second at the Pac-12 Championship (he went 10.48 in the prelims) and long jump marks of 25-8 in the Cardinal & Gold Challenge and while placing fourth at the Mt. SAC Relays, 25-5.25 (wind-aided) to place third at the NCAA West Prelims (to qualify for the NCAA Meet), 25-4.75 while winning the UCLA Dual, 25-3.50 while winning the Pac-12 Championships, 25.2 while placing second at the Pepsi Invitational and 25-1.75 for fifth at the NCAA Meet (the first USC long jumper to score in consecutive NCAA Meets since Ed Tave in 1983-84). He also ran often on USC's 400-meter relay team (usually the anchor or third leg), including helping the quartet clock a season-best 39.74 for second at the Pac-12 Championships, and occasionally ran a leg on the 1600-meter relay squad, including on the team that placed fourth at the Pac-12 Championships in 3:10.46.

In 2016 indoor, he had bests of 6.75 in the 60 meters in a heat at the MPSF Championships, 21.28 in the 200 meters while finishing fourth at the New Mexico Classic and 25-1.75 in the long jump while placing second at the MPSF Championship. He also ran a leg on USC's 1600-meter relay team that set a school indoor record of 3:07.32 in winning the MPSF Championships title and also went 3:10.13 while placing second at the New Mexico Classic.

HIGH SCHOOL: He made 2013 USA Today All-USA first team, Parade All-American first team, Prep Star All-American Dream Team, Max Preps All-American first team, Student Sports All-American first team, ESPN 300, Max Preps All-American Medium Schools first team, Cal-Hi Sports California Mr. Football, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, Max Preps All-State Division II first team, All-CIF Western Division Defensive Player of the Year, Los Angeles Times All-Area, Orange County Register Fab 15 first team, South Bay Daily Breeze All-South Bay Player of the Year, Wave Newspapers All-West Region Player of the Year and All-Mission League MVP as a senior wide receiver, running back, defensive back and return specialist at Serra High in Gardena (Calif.). He ran for 639 yards on 66 carries (9.7 avg) with 5 TDs and caught 38 passes for 812 yards (21.4 avg) with 7 TDs on offense in 2013, plus he had 36 tackles, 6 interceptions (3 for touchdowns), 8 deflections and a forced fumble on defense and he had 3 TDs on returns. Serra played in the 2013 CIF Western Division final (he had a 92-yard punt return and a 93-yard kickoff return in the game).

As a 2012 junior, he made Max Preps All-American Medium Schools second team, Max Preps All-American Junior second team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State Junior first team, All-CIF Western Division Defensive Player of the Year, Los Angeles Times All-Area, South Bay Daily Breeze All-South Bay Player of the Year, Los Angeles Wave Player of the Year and All-Mission League Defensive MVP. He had 33 receptions for 546 yards (16.6 avg) with 5 TDs and 175 yards on 7 carries (25.0 avg) with 5 TDs on offense, plus he had 56 tackles, 5 interceptions, 7 deflections, 2 forced fumbles and a fumble recovery on defense and averaged 37.8 yards on 12 punts. Serra won the 2012 CIF Western Division (he had a 78-yard TD run on a fake punt in the game) and CIF state championship Division II bowl game (he had a 95-yard run on a fake punt in the game).

As a sophomore in 2011, he made Cal-Hi Sports All-State Sophomore first team, South Bay Daily Breeze All-South Bay first team and All-Mission League first team as he had 2 receptions for 39 yards (19.5 avg) and made 23 tackles, 6 interceptions and 10 deflections.

He also was on a guard on Serra's basketball team and was on its track team, with career bests of 10.68 in the 100 meters, 21.59 in the 200 and 25-5.25 in the long jump. Serra won the 2013 CIF state championship while he placed second in the long jump at 24-7. He won the 2012 state long jump title at 20-0.5. He was named the 2012 Cal-Hi Sports California Sophomore Athlete of the Year and 2013 Cal-Hi Sports California Junior Athlete of the Year. Current Trojans Jalen Greene, Olajuwon Tucker, Jalen Jones, Rasheem Green, John Houston Jr., Deontay Burnett, Oluwole Betiku and C.J. Pollard also prepped at Serra.

PERSONAL: He is a communication major at USC. He grew up in Illinois, then moved to California before his sophomore year at Serra.

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING ABOUT ADOREE' JACKSON

Tee Martin, USC offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach: "He has an unbelievable amount of talent. He can handle the installation on offense and defense and it's seamless. The one thing that stands out is how smart and productive he is."

USC quarterback Max Browne: "I'm just impressed with the way he moves back and forth between offense and defense."

USC head coach Clay Helton: "Whether it's defense, offense--we fight over him every day. I've been fortunate enough to be around here and in other years it's, 'There's Robert Woods, there's Marqise Lee, there's Nelson Agholor.' Who is the next superstar? This guy is. He's an ultra-special talent and I don't care if it's wideout, running back, corner. He's just really special…Every time he touches the ball, you hold your breath because he can take it 80 yards. He's electric. He's such an offensive weapon that I'm glad we're allowed to borrow him at times."

Jake Davidson, Daily Trojan: "Jackson already is the best cover corner in the secondary. His return skills are so feared that teams are already kicking away from him. Not to mention the fact that though he has touched the ball sparingly on offense, he is a threat to score every time he gets his gloves on the pigskin."

Lindsey Thiry, Los Angeles Times: "There's no dream too big for Adoree' Jackson. He is intent about winning the Thorpe Award, Heisman Trophy and a medal in track and field at the 2016 Olympics."

Michael Lev, Orange County Register: "If you're looking for something to feel good about regarding the present and future of USC football, look no further than Adoree' Jackson. What a player. What a playmaker…It's safe to say no one on the Trojans' roster impacts more elements of the game than Jackson. Besides his God-given tools–speed, quickness, leaping ability–Jackson has terrific instincts for the cornerback position and a relentless competitive drive. He simply refuses to allow opponents to beat him."

Tom Fornelli, CBSSports.com: "Oh how I adore Jackson…He could easily wind up being the country's most exciting player. Jackson is the kind of talent who could cause a coaching staff civil war as offensive and defensive coaches battle to keep Jackson to themselves. While it'd be understandable to want to limit Jackson to one side of the ball, USC is probably better served just getting him on the field as often as possible, because good things happen when he is."

Vincent Bonsignore, Los Angeles Daily News: "Jackson isn't just fast, he's really fast. Mix that with uncanny football skills, Floyd Mayweather head fakes and the ability to make his hips go one way and the rest of his body another is the sort of unfair combination most opponents can't quite deal with."

Cooper Perkins, Fox Sports: "Fans and media watching practices struggle to understand why opposing quarterbacks would so much as consider throwing in Adoree's direction. With his fantastic closing ability and natural feel for the cornerback position, he is already leaps and bounds ahead of the curve."

Kyle Bonagura, ESPN.com: "His presence alone had a tendency to affect play calling and decision-making…Jackson is a rarity in college football for the number of ways he can change a game. Whether it's on defense, offense or special teams, there's always the potential to see something special from him…He's one of the most exciting players in college football."

Ted Miller, ESPN.com: "Jackson could become a Heisman Trophy candidate as a two-way player, and as a cornerback he's among the nation's elite in coverage."

Chris Low, ESPN.com: "Jackson is one of college football's most versatile and exciting players…He has everything it takes to be a shutdown cornerback at the next level. A big junior season would make him a hot commodity."

ADOREE' JACKSON VS. CHARLES WOODSON

Here is how CB-WR-RET Adoree' Jackson's 2014 freshman year, 2015 sophomore year and 2016 junior statistics compared to the last 3-way player to win the Heisman Trophy, 1997 winner Charles Woodson (CB-WR-RET) of Michigan:

Adoree' Jackson, 2014, Freshman:

(51) DAMIEN MAMA—Offensive Guard, 6-4, 325, Jr./Jr., Moreno Valley, CA (St. John Bosco HS)

CAREER: He has 30 career starts.

2016: Mama returned as the starting left offensive guard as a junior in 2016, appearing in all 13 games (starting all but the Alabama opener). He also played on special teams. He made the 2016 All-Pac-12 second team.

2015: Mama started 13 times (all but UCLA) at left offensive guard as a sophomore in 2015 and he appeared in all 14 games. He had 1 tackle in 2015. He made 2015 All-Pac-12 honorable mention, as well as Phil Steele All-Pac-12 second team. He made the 2016 ESPN Pac-12 All-Bowl Team first team.

2014: Mama saw significant action at offensive guard as a first-year freshman in 2014, appearing in 12 games (all but Washington State). He started USC's first 2 games at right guard, then started against Notre Dame and Nebraska at left guard. Against Fresno State, he and Toa Lobendahn became just the second pair of USC first-year freshmen in the post-World War II era to start on the offensive line (Travis Claridge and Faaesea Mailo did so 3 times in 1996), but it was the first time that a Trojan first-year freshman o-line duo started an opener.

HIGH SCHOOL: He made 2013 USA Today All-USA first team, Parade All-American first team, Prep Star All-American Dream Team, Max Preps All-American first team, Student Sports All-American first team, ESPN 300, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, Max Preps All-State Division I first team, All-CIF Pac-5 Division, Los Angeles Times All-Area Lineman of the Year, Orange County Register Fab 15 first team, Long Beach Press-Telegram Dream Team and Wave Newspapers All-East Region as a senior offensive and defensive lineman at St. John Bosco High in Bellflower (Calif.). St. John Bosco won the 2013 CIF Pac-5 Division championship and CIF state championship Open Division bowl game.

He made the 2012 Cal-Hi Sports All-State Junior first team. Current Trojans Nico Falah, Malik Dorton and Reid Budrovich also prepped at St. John Bosco.

PERSONAL: He is a sociology major at USC.

(48) TAYLOR McNAMARA—Tight End, 6-5, 245, Sr.*/Sr., San Diego, CA (Westview HS/Oklahoma)

CAREER: In his 5-year college career at Oklahoma and USC, he has 25 receptions for 198 yards (7.9 avg) with 5 TDs and a 10-yard kickoff return while starting 15 games. At USC while starting 15 times, he has 24 catches for 194 yards (8.1 avg) with 5 TDs, plus the 10-yard kickoff return.

2016: The steady McNamara returned as the starting tight end as a senior in 2016. Overall in 2016 while appearing in 12 games (all but Colorado) and starting 11 times (all but Colorado and Arizona), he had 12 catches for 111 yards (9.2 avg) with 1 TD. He missed the Colorado game with a back injury. He was invited to the 2017 East-West Shrine Game.

He had 2 catches for 10 yards against Alabama, then a 21-yard reception at Utah and a 5-yard catch against Arizona State. He had 4 catches for 47 yards (both career highs), with a 7-yard TD, against Oregon, then a 2-yard reception at Washington and an 8-yard grab at UCLA. He had 2 catches for 18 yards against Notre Dame.

2015: McNamara, who transferred to USC in the fall of 2015 after receiving his bachelor's degree from Oklahoma (he was eligible to play at USC in 2015), started all season at tight end as a junior. He was awarded a scholarship by virtue of an NCAA rule known as "blueshirting" (it allows a non-recruited student-athlete to receive athletic financial aid after beginning practice and have that student-athlete count towards the next year's signing class if the school has reached its NCAA-maximum aid limit for the current year). Overall in 2015 while starting all 14 games, he had 12 catches for 83 yards (6.9 avg) with 4 TDs.

He caught a 2-yard TD pass against Arkansas State, a 16-yard pass against Idaho and a 2-yard pass against Stanford. He had a 4-yard TD reception at Notre Dame. He caught a 7-yard pass at California and had a 6-yard catch against Arizona. He had a 2-yard TD reception at Colorado and a 9-yard catch at Oregon. He had a 10-yard kickoff return against Stanford in the Pac-12 Championship Game. He caught 2 passes for 21 yards against Wisconsin.

OKLAHOMA: He spent 3 seasons (2012-14) as a tight end at Oklahoma. As a redshirt freshman in 2013, he appeared in 3 games and caught a 4-yard pass (versus Alabama in the 2014 Sugar Bowl).

He saw action in 6 games as a sophomore in 2014, but did not catch a pass.

He played in 2 early-season games as a 2012 first-year freshman (starting once) before injuring his shoulder and receiving a medical redshirt.

HIGH SCHOOL: He had 33 receptions for 526 yards (15.9 avg) and 7 TDs as a 2011 senior tight end at Westview High in San Diego. He also had 27 carries for 113 yards (4.2 avg) with a TD in 2011. He made the 2011 SI.com All-American honorable mention, Prep Star Dream Team, Super Prep All-Farwest, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, MaxPreps California Division II All-State second team and All-CIF San Diego Section.

PERSONAL: He received his bachelor's degree in economics and communications from Oklahoma in the spring of 2015 and now has begun work towards a master's degree in communication management at USC.

(22) LEON McQUAY III—Safety, 6-1, 195, Sr./Sr., Seffner, FL (Armwood HS)

CAREER: He has 123 tackles (6 for a loss, with a sack), 17 deflections, 3 forced fumbles, 2 fumble recoveries and 5 interceptions in his career. He has 24 career starts.

2016: The veteran McQuay started at safety or nickelback as a senior in 2016. Overall in 2016, he appeared in all 13 games and started 12 times (all but Alabama), including 9 times at strong safety and 3 times (Utah State, Stanford, Oregon) at nickelback. He had 50 tackles, including 4 for losses of 19 yards (with a 12-yard sack), 6 deflections and 2 interceptions in 2016. He made 2016 All-Pac-12 honorable mention. He made the 2016 AP All-Bowl Team first team, ESPN All-Bowl Team first team and ESPN Pac-12 All-Bowl Team first team. He won USC's 2016 Trojan Commitment Award. He was invited to the 2017 East-West Shrine Game.

He had 3 tackles (1 for a loss) and a deflection against Alabama, 4 tackles and an interception versus Utah State, 3 tackles at both Stanford and Utah, 2 tackles and a deflection against Arizona State, 4 tackles (1 for a loss) against Colorado, 2 tackles (with a sack) at Arizona, 8 tackles (1 for a loss) versus California, 2 tackles against Oregon, 5 tackles and a deflection at Washington, 4 tackles and a deflection at UCLA and 3 tackles against Notre Dame. Against Penn State in the Rose Bowl, he had 7 tackles and 2 deflections to go along with an interception with 27 seconds to play that he returned 32 yards to set up USC's game-winning field goal (the pick came 1 play after he dropped a potential interception on a similar long pass).

2015: McQuay was an often-used backup strong safety as a junior in 2015. Overall in 2015 while appearing in USC's first 8 games and the last game (he started against Utah and California), he had 18 tackles, including 1.5 for losses of 3 yards, 3 deflections, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery. He hurt his knee prior to the Arizona game and missed 3 games (Arizona, Colorado, Oregon).

He had 2 tackles and a deflection against Arkansas State, 3 tackles and a forced fumble against Idaho, a tackle against Stanford, 2 tackles at Arizona State, a tackle and a deflection versus Washington, 2 tackles (0.5 for loss) at Notre Dame and 2 tackles, 5 tackles (1 for a loss) and a deflection against Utah and 2 tackles and a fumble recovery at California.

2014: McQuay started 9 games (all but Stanford, Colorado, Notre Dame) at strong safety as a sophomore in 2014. Overall in 2014 while appearing in all 13 games on defense and special teams, he had 36 tackles (0.5 for a loss), 4 deflections, 2 interceptions, a fumble recovery and a forced fumble.

He had 4 tackles (including 0.5 for a loss) against Fresno State, 2 tackles at Stanford, 1 tackle at Boston College, an endzone interception to go along with his 3 tackles and a deflection against Oregon State, 2 tackles against Arizona State, 3 stops at Arizona, a tackle against Colorado, 4 tackles and a fumble recovery at the USC 1-yard line at Utah, 5 tackles, an interception and a deflection at Washington State, 2 tackles, a deflection and a forced fumble against California, 7 tackles at UCLA and a tackle against Notre Dame. He had a tackle and deflection against Nebraska.

2013: McQuay, who enrolled at USC in the spring of 2013 after graduating a semester early from high school, saw action at strong safety and on special teams as a first-year freshman in 2013. Overall in 2013 while appearing in all 14 games (he even started at Oregon State), he had 19 tackles, 1 interception for 2 yards (2.0 avg), 4 deflections and 1 forced fumble, plus he returned a kickoff for 3 yards (3.0 avg).

He had 1 tackle and a forced fumble against Washington State, a tackle and Notre Dame and 3 tackles, an interception and a deflection while playing often as the nickel back against Utah. He had 6 tackles and 2 deflections while starting at Oregon State, then 5 tackles and a deflection at California. He had 1 tackle and returned a kickoff 3 yards at Colorado, then added a tackle each against UCLA and Fresno State.

HIGH SCHOOL: His 2012 honors included Parade All-American, Prep Star All-American Dream Team, USA Today All-USA second team, Max Preps All-American second team, ESPN 150, Rivals 100, Scout 100, AP All-State 6A and Tampa Tribune All-Hillsborough County first team as a senior safety and wide receiver at Armwood High in Seffner (Fla.). He had 54 tackles, 5 interceptions, 1 forced fumble and 1 blocked field goal on defense in 2012 and 5 receptions for 137 yards (27.4 avg.) with 1 TD on defense. He was among 5 finalists for the 2012-13 Franklin D. Watkins Memorial Award, presented to the nation's top African-American male high school scholar athlete.

As a 2011 junior, he made USA Today All-USA first team and Max Preps Junior All-American second team while getting 59 tackles, 3 interceptions, 9 deflections, 1 fumble recovery and 1 forced fumble.

As a 2010 sophomore, he made Max Preps Sophomore All-American second team and Tampa Tribune All-Hillsborough County first team while getting 57 tackles, 5 interceptions and 8 deflections.

PERSONAL: He received his bachelor's degree in music industry major from USC and is now working on a second bachelor's degree in sociology. He has produced his own music tracks. His grandfather, the late Leon McQuay, was a running back at Tampa (1968-70) and then in the CFL (Toronto, Calgary) and NFL (Giants, Patriots, Saints).

(1) DARREUS ROGERS—Wide Receiver, 6-1, 215, Sr./Sr., Compton, CA (Carson HS)

CAREER: He has 127 catches for 1,487 yards (11.7 avg) with 11 TDs in his career, plus 2 punt returns for 10 yards (5.0 avg), an 11-yard kickoff return, 2 carries for 6 yards (3.0 avg) and 3 tackles. He is 17th on USC's career receptions list (127). He has 27 career starts.

2016: The sure-handed Rogers returned as a starting wide receiver as a senior in 2016. Overall in 2016 while starting all 13 games, he had 56 catches (second on USC) for 696 yards (12.4 avg) with 4 TDs, plus he made a tackle. He made 2016 All-Pac-12 honorable mention. He won USC's 2016 Offensive Perimeter Player of the Year Award. He was invited to the 2017 NFLPA Collegiate Bowl.

He had 2 receptions for 45 yards against Alabama, then 7 receptions for 82 yards (both career highs) against Utah State, 4 grabs for 26 yards at Stanford, 5 catches for 58 yards at Utah and a 28-yard catch against Arizona State. He had 4 receptions for 76 yards against Colorado, including a 46-yard grab in which he stole the ball out of the defenders hands on a fourth quarter drive that set up USC's decisive TD. He had 5 catches for 42 yards at Arizona, 6 catches for a career-best 97 yards with 2 TDs (3 and 20 yards) versus California, 4 receptions for 33 yards against Oregon and 6 catches for 84 yards (both team highs), with a 13-yard TD, at Washington. He had 3 catches for 34 yards and a tackle at UCLA, then 4 grabs for 49 yards against Notre Dame. He had 5 receptions for 42 yards, with a 3-yard TD, against Penn State.

2015: Rogers started at wide receiver as a junior in 2015. Overall in 2015 while appearing in 12 games (all but Washington and Utah) and starting 11 times (all but Washington, Notre Dame and Utah), he had 28 catches (third on USC) for 289 yards (10.3 avg) with 3 TDs. He strained his hamstring versus Arizona State and missed the Washington game, then re-strained it at Notre Dame and sat out versus Utah.

He has 2 catches for 24 yards against Arkansas State, a 12-yard reception versus Idaho and 4 catches for 44 yards against Stanford. He had 4 grabs for 34 yards at Notre Dame and 3 for 16 yards at California. He had a 14-yard catch at Colorado, 5 catches for 53 yards at Oregon with a 27-yard TD , 2 receptions for 32 yards (with a stretched-out 20-yard TD) against UCLA, 4 catches for 35 yards against Stanford in the Pac-12 Championship Game and 2 catches for 25 yards (with a 7-yard TD) plus a 1-yard run versus Wisconsin.

2014: Rogers played a key role at wide receiver as a sophomore in 2014. Overall in 2014 while appearing in all 13 games (with 3 starts, against Arizona, Colorado and Utah), he had 21 receptions for 245 yards (11.7 avg) with 4 TDs, plus 1 punt return for 5 yards (5.0 avg), 1 kickoff return for 11 yards (11.0 avg), 1 carry for 5 yards (5.0 avg) and 1 tackle.

He had 5 catches for 60 yards against Fresno State, a 14-yard TD reception at Boston College and he caught a 48-yard Hail Mary at the end of the first half against Oregon State. He had 4 catches for 34 yards and also had a tackle against Arizona State, 2 grabs for 20 yards at Arizona, an 8-yard catch and a 5-yard punt return against Colorado and 2 catches for 20 yards (with a 4-yard TD) and had a 5-yard run at Utah. He had an 11-yard kickoff return against California, an 11-yard reception at UCLA and 2 catches for 20 yards with a 6-yard TD against Notre Dame. He had 2 catches for 10 yards against Nebraska.

2013: Rogers, who originally signed with USC in February of 2012 but did not attend USC in the 2012 fall semester, enrolled at USC in the spring of 2013 and participated in spring drills. He served as an often-used backup wide receiver as a first-year freshman in 2013. Overall in 2013 while appearing in 11 games (he missed the Utah State, Arizona State and Arizona games after spraining his right ankle against Boston College) and starting 4 times (Washington State, Utah, California, Colorado), he had 22 receptions for 257 yards (11.7 avg), plus he returned a punt 5 yards (5.0 avg) and had a tackle. He missed the last half of 2013 spring practice with a shoulder and hamstring injuries.

He had a 7-yard catch and a tackle against Washington State and a 5-yard punt return against Boston College. He returned at Notre Dame and had 6 catches for 60 yards, then added 5 receptions for 62 yards against Utah. He had an 11-yard reception at Oregon State, 2 catches for 8 yards at California, a 14-yard catch against Stanford, 3 grabs for 56 yards at Colorado and an 8-yard reception against UCLA.

HIGH SCHOOL: His 2011 honors included Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, Prep Star Top 150 Dream Team, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Orange County Register Fab 15 second team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, Max Preps All-State Division I first team, All-L.A. City first team, Los Angeles Times All-Area, Wave Newspapers All-Area, South Bay Daily Breeze All-South Bay first team and All-Marine League Co-Offensive Player of the Year as a senior wide receiver at Carson (Calif.) High. He had 64 receptions for 1,251 yards (19.5 avg.) with 10 TDs in 2011. Carson played in the 2011 L.A. City Division I final.

As a junior in 2010, he made Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass first team, All-L.A. City first team, South Bay Daily Breeze All-South Bay second team and All-Marine League while getting 45 receptions for 1,347 yards (29.9 avg.) with 8 TDs.

PERSONAL: He is a communication major at USC.

*Starter

(68) JORDAN SIMMONS—Offensive Guard, 6-4, 325, Sr.*/Sr., Inglewood, CA (Crespi HS)

CAREER: He has 2 career starts.

2016: Simmons served as a backup offensive guard and played on special teams as a senior in 2016. He appeared in all 13 games in 2016 and even moved to right tackle to start twice (Arizona State and Colorado).

2015: Simmons, a junior in 2015 who was switched from offensive guard to defensive tackle in 2015 fall camp, sat out USC's first 8 games after spraining his knee in 2015 fall camp and then saw action briefly in 1 game in 2015 (Wisconsin, on special teams) when he returned healthy. He has battled knee injuries every year at USC.

2014: Simmons, a sophomore offensive guard in 2014 coming off a 2013 knee injury, saw brief action at Boston College, then hurt his knee prior to the Oregon State game and was sidelined the rest of 2014. He sat out 2014 spring practice while recovering from a 2013 knee injury.

2013: Simmons served as a backup offensive guard and tackle as a redshirt freshman in 2013. He suffered a knee injury prior to the Utah game and was sidelined for the rest of the season. He saw action in USC's first 7 games of 2013.

2012: Simmons redshirted as a freshman offensive tackle and guard in 2012, his first year at USC. He had knee surgery prior to the season and was sidelined for the first half of the season. He was named USC's Offensive Service Team Player of the Year.

HIGH SCHOOL: His 2011 honors included Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, Rivals.com All-American first team, USA Today All-USA second team, ESPNHS.com All-American second team, Super Prep Elite 50, Sporting News Top 125, Prep Star Top 150 Dream Team, ESPNU 150, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Orange County Register Fab 15 first team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, Max Preps All-State Division I first team, All-CIF Pac-5 Division, Los Angeles Times All-Area and Los Angeles Daily News All-Area first team as a senior offensive lineman at Crespi High in Encino (Calif.).

As a junior in 2010, he made Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass first team, Los Angeles Daily News All-Area first team and All-Serra League first team. Current Trojan Marvell Tell III also prepped at Crespi.

He attended Dorsey High in Los Angeles (Calif.) as a 2009 sophomore, making All-L.A. City Division I first team as a defensive lineman.

PERSONAL: He is an African American studies major at USC. Some of his artwork was displayed at the 2014 "Artletics" on-campus exhibit that featured the works of USC student-athletes.

(92) ZACH SMITH—Snapper, 6-1, 220, Sr./Sr., Redwood City, CA (Menlo School)

CAREER: He has 3 tackles in his career.

2016: Smith, a senior in 2016, started for his fourth year as USC's snapper on punts and placekicks, a role he has performed without a flaw. Overall in 2016 while appearing in all 13 games, he had 1 tackle (versus Notre Dame).

2015: Smith, a one-time walk-on who received a scholarship in the fall of 2015, spent his third year as USC's snapper on all punts and placekicks as a walk-on junior in 2015, performing without a hitch. He appeared in all 14 games in 2015.

2014: He was USC's snapper on all punts and placekicks in 2014 as a walk-on sophomore and performed that job flawlessly. He appeared in 12 games in 2014 (all but Arizona State). He had 2 tackles in 2014 (1 each against Colorado and Nebraska). He suffered a concussion against Oregon State and missed the Arizona State game.

2013: Smith appeared in all 14 games in 2013 and was faultless as USC's snapper on all placement kicks as a walk-on first-year freshman.

HIGH SCHOOL: He was a snapper at the Menlo School in Atherton (Calif.) for 3 years (2010-12). He also played on the offensive and defensive lines, getting 7 tackles and an interception as a senior in 2012.

PERSONAL: He is a policy, planning and development major at USC. A YouTube video of his long snapping trick shots has more than 610,000 views.

(9) JUJU SMITH-SCHUSTER—Wide Receiver, 6-2, 220, Jr./Jr., Long Beach, CA (Poly HS)

CAREER: He has 213 catches for 3,092 yards (14.5 avg) with 25 TDs in his career, along with 16 kickoff returns for 185 yards (11.6 avg), 8 carries for 34 yards (4.3 avg) and 8 tackles. His 213 career catches is fourth on USC's all-time list. He has 12 100-yard receiving games in his career (6 times in 2015, including the first 3 games). He has a reception in all 40 games in which he has played at USC. He has 39 career starts.

2016: Smith-Schuster, the latest in a long line of stellar USC wide receivers, returned for his third year as a starting wide receiver as a junior in 2016 and had another outstanding year. Overall in 2016 while starting all 13 games, he had a team-high 70 receptions for 914 yards (13.1 avg) with 10 TDs, plus he had 5 carries for 27 yards (5.4 avg), a 2-yard kickoff return and 2 tackles. He had 4 100-yard receiving games in 2016. His 70 receptions in 2016 is tied for 14th on USC's season chart. He was among 5 finalists for the 2016 Polynesian College Football Player of the Year Award. He made the 2016 Football Coaches All-American second team, All-Pac-12 second team and Phil Steele All-Pac-12 second team. He made the 2016 ESPN Pac-12 All-Bowl Team first team He won USC's 2016 Offensive Perimeter Player of the Year Award.

He had a 9-yard catch against Alabama. He had a pair of touchdowns (3 and 15 yards) among his 7 catches for 56 yards against Utah State. He caught 3 passes for 34 yards at Stanford. He had a game-best 8 receptions for 98 yards at Utah. He had 7 receptions for 123 yards against Arizona State with a career-tying best 3 TD grabs, including a 67-yarder in which he took a hitch pass and raced against the grain, to earn Scout.com Pac-12 Player of the Week honors. He had 5 catches for 113 yards against Colorado, including a 25-yarder late in the game in which he had a clear path to the end zone but instead fell to the ground to enable USC to run out the clock in the victory, and he had 2 tackles. He had 9 catches for 132 yards at Arizona, including 3 TDs (3, 39 and 46 yards). He had 6 catches for 66 yards against California, along with 2 rushes for 25 yards. He had 2 catches for 10 yards against Oregon. He had 3 catches for 41 yards at Washington and also had a rush for minus 4 yards. He had 8 catches for 76 yards at UCLA, both game bests, and he added a 4-yard rush. He had 4 catches for 23 yards (with a 2-yard TD) against Notre Dame and also returned a kickoff 2 yards. He had 7 catches for 133 yards, with a 13-yard TD, along with a 2-yard rush against Penn State.

2015: Smith-Schuster started again as a sophomore in 2015 and was among the nation's finest pass catchers. Overall in 2015 while starting all 14 games, he has 89 catches for 1,454 yards (16.3 avg) with 10 TDs (all team bests), plus 4 kickoff returns for 51 yards (12.8 avg), a 4-yard rush and 1 tackle. He was 11th nationally in receiving yards (103.9, first in Pac-12), 17th in receiving TDs (10, fourth in Pac-12) and 20th in receptions (6.4, third in Pac-12). His 89 catches in 2015 is seventh on USC's season list and his 1,454 receiving yards (the third most in a season at USC) is the 17th time a Trojan has eclipsed the 1,000-yard mark. He has 6 100-yard receiving games in 2015 (including the first 3 games). He broke his right hand against California and had surgery 2 days later to insert a plate with 8 screws, but he did not miss any playing time (he played the next few games with a soft cast).

He was among 5 finalists for the 2015 Polynesian Player of the Year Award and was among 10 semifinalists for the Biletnikoff Award. He made the 2015 AP, Football Writers, Sporting News, SI.com and Phil Steele All-American second teams. He won USC's Offensive Perimeter Player of the Year Award. He made the 2015 All-Pac-12 first team, AP All-Pac-12 first team and Phil Steele All-Pac-12 first team.

He had 4 catches for 89 yards, with a career-long 61-yard TD, and he made a tackle against Arkanas State. He had 10 catches for 192 yards (both career highs) with a pair of TDs (50 and 41 yards) against Idaho. He had 8 catches for 153 yards (both game highs) with a 54-yard TD against Stanford. He had 5 receptions for 103 yards, with a pair of TDs (4 and 10 yards), and he caught a 52-yard pass on the game's opening play at Arizona State. He had 6 catches for 82 yards against Washington. He had 6 catches for 139 yards, with a 75-yard TD, and he returned 2 kickoffs for 36 yards at Notre Dame. He had 8 catches for 143 yards (both game highs) with a 25-yard TD and he had a 9-yard kickoff return against Utah. He caught 5 passes for 55 yards and returned a kickoff for 6 yards at California before hurting his hand and sitting out most of the second half. He had a team-high 8 catches for 138 yards, with a 72-yard TD, against Arizona despite having had surgery on Monday of game week for a broken right hand (a plate with 8 screws was inserted into his hand and he wore a soft cast in the game). He had 3 catches for 66 yards, including a 36-yard TD, at Colorado. He had 5 receptions for 57 yards at Oregon. He had a game-best 6 catches for 85 yards against UCLA. He had a game-high and career-best 11 receptions for 87 yards against Stanford in the Pac-12 Championship Game. He had 4 catches for 65 yards against Wisconsin.

2014: Smith-Schuster had an impressive debut campaign as a first-year freshman wide receiver and on special teams in 2014. Overall in 2014 while appearing in all 13 games and starting 12 times (all but Boston College), he had 54 receptions for 724 yards (13.4 avg) with 5 TDs, plus 2 carries for 3 yards (1.5 avg), 11 kickoff returns for 132 yards (12.0 avg) and 5 tackles. He made the 2014 All-Pac-12 second team (as an all-purpose/special teams player), as well as Sporting News Freshman All-American first team and CollegeFootballNews.com Freshman All-American honorable mention. He won USC's John McKay Award (competitive spirit).

He had 123 yards (more than any USC first-year freshman has had in a season opener) on 4 catches and a 1-yard rush against Fresno State. He then had a catch for minus 2 yards at Stanford, added 6 catches for 49 yards and he had a tackle at Boston College, had 3 catches for 13 yards and returned a kickoff 18 yards against Oregon State, caught 4 passes for 24 yards and returned a kickoff 19 yards against Arizona State and had 4 catches for 39 yards, a 2-yard run on a lateral and a 1-yard kickoff return at Arizona. He had 4 receptions for 104 yards (with a 7-yard TD) against Colorado, added 6 catches for 77 yards (with a 10-yard TD) and had a 12-yard kickoff return at Utah. At Washington State, he caught 6 passes for 74 yards with a USC freshman record-tying 3 TDs (22, 22 and 7 yards), joining R. Jay Soward, Mike Williams, Dwayne Jarrett and Robert Woods in the Trojan record book. He had 4 grabs for 30 yards against California, 4 catches for 79 yards at UCLA and 5 catches for 48 yards (he also had a tackle) against Notre Dame. Against Nebraska, he had 66 yards on 3 receptions, returned 5 kickoffs for 81 yards and made 3 tackles.

HIGH SCHOOL: He made 2013 Prep Star All-American Dream Team, ESPN 300, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, All-CIF Pac-5 Division, Los Angeles Times All-Area, Orange County Register Fab 15 first team, Long Beach Press-Telegram Dream Team and All-Moore League Player of the Year as a senior wide receiver and safety at Poly High in Long Beach (Calif.). He had 71 tackles in 2013 despite being sidelined part of the year with injuries.

As a 2012 junior, he made Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, Cal-Hi Sports California Junior of the Year, Cal-Hi Sports All-State Junior first team, Max Preps All-State Division I first team, All-CIF Pac-5 Division Co-Offensive Player of the Year, Los Angeles Times All-Area and Long Beach Press Telegram All-Area Player of the Year. He had 49 receptions for 752 yards (15.3 avg) with 9 TDs on offense in 2012, plus 51 tackles and 6 interceptions on defense and 12 punt returns for 190 yards (15.8 avg) with a TD and 9 kickoff returns for 131 yards (14.6 avg). Poly won the 2012 CIF Pac-5 Division championship.

As a sophomore in 2011, he had 11 receptions for 241 yards (21.9 avg) and 3 kickoff returns for 96 yards (32.0 avg). Current Trojans Iman Marshall and Jack Jones also prepped at Poly.

PERSONAL: He is a social sciences (psychology) major at USC. His real first name is John. In the summer of 2015, he legally changed his last name to Smith-Schuster (from just Smith) in honor of his stepfather. His cousin is current USC assistant coach Johnny Nansen.

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING ABOUT JUJU SMITH-SCHUSTER

Jake Davidson, Daily Trojan: "JuJu Smith-Schuster is a physical phenom with the potential to go down as the best Trojan receiver ever. His rare mix of speed and power combined with a penchant for elusive moves is truly remarkable."

Michael Lev, Orange County Register: "There's nothing he can't do on a football field...If every Trojan worked and played as hard as Smith-Schuster, USC would be undefeated…Smith-Schuster is deadly after the catch, using strength to power through defensive backs and speed to run away from them. He also has proved he can catch the ball in tight quarters. In short, Smith-Schuster has become the go-to guy he was destined to be…His physical gifts are extraordinary. No Photoshopping would be required to put him in ESPN The Magazine's 'Body Issue.' He has excellent speed for a 215-pounder. He also offers a lot in the way of intangibles. He is among the Trojans' most enthusiastic and hardest-working players. His positive attitude is infectious. He's already a team leader. Smith-Schuster is unquestionably one of USC's most valuable players."

Jeremy Shapiro, WeAreSC.com: "JuJu Smith-Schuster is a mismatch for defenses—too fast for safeties and too strong for most corners."

(96) STEVIE TU'IKOLOVATU—Defensive Tackle, 6-1, 320, Sr.*/Sr., Salt Lake City, UT (East HS/Utah)

CAREER: In his 3-year career at Utah and USC, he has a combined 89 tackles, including 9 for losses (with 2.5 sacks), 3 deflections and 4 fumble recoveries. Of that, 36 tackles (7 for losses, with 0.5 sack), 2 deflections and 4 fumble recoveries came at Utah.

2016: Tu'ikolovatu, who transferred to USC in the fall of 2016 after receiving his bachelor's degree from Utah (allowing him to be eligible to play in 2016), started at defensive tackle as a senior in 2016. Overall in 2016 while appearing in all 13 games and starting 12 times (all but Arizona), he had 53 tackles, including 2 for losses of 9 yards (with 0.5 sack for minus 6 yards), and 1 deflection. He made the 2016 All-Pac-12 second team and Phil Steele All-Pac-12 second team. He won USC's 2016 Defensive Lineman of the Year Award. He made the 2016 ESPN Pac-12 All-Bowl Team first team. He was invited to the 2017 Senior Bowl. He was awarded a scholarship at USC by virtue of an NCAA rule known as "blueshirting" (it allows a non-recruited student-athlete to receive athletic financial aid after beginning practice and have that student-athlete count towards the next year's signing class if the school has reached its NCAA-maximum aid limit for the current year).

He had 2 tackles against against Alabama, 3 tackles against Utah State, 4 tackles at Stanford, 9 tackles (0.5 for loss) at Utah where he previously played, 2 tackles and a deflection against Arizona State, 3 tackles against Colorado and at Arizona, 6 tackles (0.5 for loss) against California, 4 tackles (0.5 for loss) versus Oregon, 2 tackles at Washington and UCLA and 5 tackles (0.5 sack) against Notre Dame. He had a team-best 8 tackles against Penn State to earn Rose Bowl Defensive Player of the Game.

UTAH: As a junior defensive lineman at Utah in 2015 while appearing in all 13 games (starting twice), he had 28 tackles, with 6 for losses of 19 yards (including 2 sacks for minus 14 yards), plus a Pac-12-leading 4 fumble recoveries (tied for second nationally), including a 37-yard TD return, and 2 deflections (he had 4 tackles with a sack against USC).

As a 2014 sophomore, he had 8 tackles (1 for a loss of 1 yard) while appearing in 12 games.

He missed the 2013 season with a foot injury as a redshirt freshman.

He went on a Mormon mission to the Philippines during the 2010-12 seasons after redshirting in 2009 at Utah as a first-year freshman.

HIGH SCHOOL: He was a 2-way lineman as a 2008 senior at East High in Salt Lake City (Utah).

He also was on East's track team.

PERSONAL: He received his bachelor's degree in sociology from Utah in 2016 (making him eligible to play at USC in 2016) and is now working on another bachelor's degree in gerontology. His uncle is former Utah (2001-04) defensive lineman Sione Pouha, who played with the New York Jets (2005-12) and was a student assistant coach at Utah in 2015. He is married and his wife is from Southern California.

(72) CHAD WHEELER—Offensive Tackle, 6-6, 310, Sr.*/Sr., Santa Monica, CA (Santa Monica HS)

CAREER: He has 45 career starts.

2016: Wheeler, USC's most experienced offensive lineman, started for his fourth season at left tackle as a senior in 2016. Overall in 2016, he played in all 13 games and started 11 times (all but Alabama and Utah State). He didn't start USC's first 2 games while recovering from a foot injury suffered in 2016 fall camp, but he did play in those games. He made the 2016 Campus Insiders All-American first team, All-Pac-12 first team and Phil Steele All-Pac-12 first team. He won USC's 2016 Offensive Lineman of the Year Award. He made the 2016 ESPN Pac-12 All-Bowl Team first team.

2015: Wheeler bounced back from a 2014 knee injury and re-assumed his starting role at left offensive tackle as a junior in 2015. Overall in 2015, he appeared in and started 12 games (all but Utah and Wisconsin). He suffered a concussion at Notre Dame and was sidelined for the Utah game. He missed the Wisconsin game due to a personal reason. He made 2015 All-Pac-12 second team and Phil Steele All-Pac-12 third team. He sat out 2015 spring practice while recovering from that 2014 knee injury.

2014: Wheeler started USC's first 8 games at left offensive tackle as a sophomore in 2014, but he tore ligaments in his right knee at Utah (although he played a full series with the injury) and missed the final 5 games. He won USC's Bob Chandler Award (athletics/academics/character).

2013: Wheeler started all season at left offensive tackle as a redshirt freshman in 2013 and did an admirable job. He also was used on some special teams and blocked a field goal against Stanford. He made 2013 Athlon Freshman All-American third team and CollegeFootballNews.com Freshman All-American honorable mention. He was USC's Co-Lifter of the Year.

2012: Wheeler, who enrolled at USC in the spring of 2012 after graduating a semester early from high school, redshirted as a freshman offensive tackle in 2012. He missed most of 2013 spring practice with a knee injury.

HIGH SCHOOL: He missed part of his 2011 senior year with a shoulder injury that required surgery at Santa Monica (Calif.) High while playing both offensive tackle and defensive end, but earned Super Prep All-Farwest and Prep Star All-West.

He made 38 tackles (with 5 sacks) and 2 deflections on defense as a 2010 junior.

PERSONAL: He received his bachelor's degree from USC in non-governmental organizations and is now working on a second bachelor's in sociology.

(15) ISAAC WHITNEY—Wide Receiver, 6-3, 220, Sr.*/Sr., Oklahoma City, OK (Southmoore HS/Central Oklahoma/Riverside CC)

CAREER: In his 3-year college career at Central Oklahoma and USC, he has 22 catches for 244 yards (11.1 avg) with 2 TDs, plus a tackle and a fumble recovery.

2016: Whitney was in the playing rotation at wide receiver and played on special teams as a senior in 2016. He also sprints for USC's track team. Overall in 2016 while appearing in all 13 games, he had 3 catches for 32 yards (10.5 avg). He had a 7-yard reception at Arizona, a 17-yard catch at UCLA and an 8-yard grab against UCLA.

2015: Whitney, who transferred to USC from a junior college in the spring of 2015 as a junior, was a backup wide receiver as a junior in 2015. Overall in 2015 while appearing in USC's first 5 games (he started against Washington), he had 8 catches for 112 yards (14.0 avg) with 2 TDs. He broke his collarbone prior to the Notre Dame game and missed USC's last 9 games. He had 2 catches for 38 yards against Arkansas State, a 28-yard TD reception versus Idaho, 2 grabs for 32 yards against Stanford, 2 catches for 10 yards (with a 10-yard TD) at Arizona State and a 4-yard catch against Washington.

TRACK: He sprinted briefly for USC's track team in the spring of 2016. In his only appearance, he ran the second leg on USC's 400-meter relay team that was second at the Pac-12 Championships in 39.74.

JUNIOR COLLEGE: He made 2014 Prep Star JUCO All-American, All-Southern California Football Association National Division Central League second team as a sophomore wide receiver at Riverside (Calif.) Community College. He had 49 receptions for 809 yards (16.5 avg) with 4 TDs and returned 6 kickoffs for 128 yards (21.3 avg) in 2014. Riverside went 10-2 in 2014, was ranked No. 1 in the state, captured the Southern California Football Association National Central championship, won the National Bowl and advanced to the California Community College Athletic Association state semifinals.

CENTRAL OKLAHOMA: As a redshirt freshman at NCAA Division II Central Oklahoma in 2013, he had 11 receptions for 100 yards (9.1 avg), plus he had a tackle and a fumble recovery. He redshirted at Central Oklahoma as a first-year freshman in 2012.

HIGH SCHOOL: He attended Southmoore High in Moore (Okla.), earning Prep Star All-Midlands Region and All-District 6A-3 honors as a 2011 senior wide receiver and defensive back, getting 25 catches for 415 yards (16.6 avg) with 7 TDs (he also had a 73-yard scoring run). He played defensive back earlier in his prep career.

He also was on Southmoore's track team.

PERSONAL: He is a sociology major at USC.
