Scheumann Stadium

- Ball State's football team plays its home games at Scheumann Stadium, which was renovated prior to the 2007 season due in large part to private donations. John B. and June M. Scheumann Stadium was dedicated to the Scheumanns after they donated $4 million to the campaign. John Scheumann was a former Ball State football player and lettered for the Cardinals in 1969-70.
- The Pat and Patricia Kozel Media Center was dedicated in honor of the Kozel's, who made a $1.25 million gift.
- Ball State's football team's locker rooms, meeting rooms and training rooms are housed in the John W. and Janice B. Fisher Football Training Complex. John, who served as the chairman of the fundraising campaign, and his wife, donated $510,000 to the stadium. John Fisher passed away June 28, 2009, and the Fisher family was honored prior to the 2009 season opener.
- Over 115,000 fans were on hand to witness Ball State's 2008 season at Scheumann Stadium. A school record crowd witnessed a 45-22 Ball State win against the Western Michigan Broncos in a game that clinched the school's first outright Mid-American Conference West Division Championship.

Ball State University

Academics

Ball State has a rich tradition of academics and athletics, and the school ranks 23rd in the nation in ESPN The Magazine Academic All-Americans, which are selected by the College Sports Information Directors of America, and is the highest academic honor a collegiate student-athlete can receive.

Ball State's football program boasts 27 student-athletes with a cumulative grade-point average of 3.0 or better on the school's 4.0 scale. The football team had 34 student-athletes achieve a 3.0 or better last spring semester.

In the 2008-09 academic year institutional grade-point average report to the Mid-American Conference, 17 of Ball State's 19 intercollegiate athletics programs tallied a 3.0 GPA or better on Ball State's 4.0 scale. In addition, the school's 19 athletics teams managed an average GPA of 3.057.

Athletics

Ball State's appearance in the GMAC Bowl after the 2008 season marked the first time in school history the team has played in bowl games in consecutive seasons.

The Cardinals also played in the International Bowl after the 2007 season. Ball State's bowl history also includes the 1965 and 1967 Grantland Rice Bowls, the 1989 California Raisin Bowl and the Las Vegas Bowl in 1993 and 1996.

In addition to the football team's success in the 2008-09 academic year, Ball State enjoyed championship seasons in a number of other sports.

The Cardinals also won or shared the MAC West Division Championship in men's basketball, women's basketball, baseball and softball last year. The women's basketball team posted a 26-9 overall record, won the MAC Tournament and defeated Tennessee in the first round of the NCAA Tournament.

Community

Ball State's student-athletes do a great amount of community service throughout the academic year.

The football team takes on many projects, including the following:

Reading Programs at Local Schools

Participation in Motivate our Minds

Walk a Mile In my Shoes

National Dr. Suess Reading Day

Veterans Appreciation Day

Ball State's Community FanJam

Dream Makers

Muncie Youth Football League

27 pts. BSU 31, Toledo 30 Oct. 9, 1993 at BSU -- BSU was behind 30-3
In Ball State's 1993 Homecoming game vs. Toledo, the Cardinals fell behind 16-3 at the half, and Toledo scored two third-quarter touchdowns to take a 30-3 lead with 4:10 remaining in the third stanza. Ball State's rally began with 2:24 left in the third quarter on a 22-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Mike Neu to receiver Brian Oliver. A Tony Nibbs' two-point conversion run made the score 30-11 and that was all the scoring in the third stanza. BSU started its fourth-quarter scoring with a Neu to Oliver 98-yard TD pass with 11:02 left in the game. The Matt Swart extra point kick was good and closed the gap to 30-18. With 2:40 left in the contest, Neu completed a 15-yard scoring strike to receiver Kyle Robinson. Followed by Swart's extra point kick, the Cardinals were down 30-24. Ball State's final score came on a Neu to Erin McCray 6-yard pass as time expired in the game. Swart's extra point kick with no time left on the clock gave the Cardinals a 31-30 win.
