NORTH CAROLINA STATE SERIES INFO

Overall Record: 6-3 | Home: 5-1 | Away: 1-2 | Neutral: 0-0

Saturday's game marks the 10th meeting between Boston College and NC State; the Eagles lead the all-time series against the Wolfpack, 6-3, including a 2-1 record under head coach Frank Spaziani. BC is 0-1 against NC State at Carter-Finley Stadium in Raleigh, N.C., under Spaziani and 1-2 at NC State in the all-time series. BC has won five-of-seven matchups as Atlantic Coast Conference opponents, including a 14-10 win last season at Alumni Stadium in Chestnut Hill, Mass. The Eagles have scored 30 (or more) points in four of those five ACC victories.

SHARED COACHING HISTORY

Saturday's game between Boston College and NC State will pit a pair of longtime coaching compatriots in Eagles' head coach Frank Spaziani and Wolfpack head coach Tom O'Brien on opposite sides of the field, squaring off against one another for just the sixth time in their careers. Spaziani, in his fourth season in charge at BC, and O'Brien, in his sixth season as head coach at NC State, began working alongside one another as members of George Welsh's staff at Navy in 1975 and have spent 26 years coaching the same teams. Both coaches began with Welsh at Navy and went with Welsh from Annapolis to Virginia in 1982, where they worked together for the next nine seasons (1982-90). Following Spaziani's five-year stint coaching in the Canadian Football League, the two were reunited on the staff at Boston College for 10 seasons (1997-2006). Since, Boston College is 2-1 against NC State under Spaziani while O'Brien is 1-4 against the program that he led to a 75-45 record in 10 seasons.

LB CLANCY EARNS ACC LB OF THE WEEK, RECORDS 2ND 20-TACKLE EFFORT OF 2012

Senior LB Nick Clancy, a 6-foot-3, 232-pound senior from Plainfield, Ill., earned Atlantic Coast Conference Linebacker of the Week honors after he led Boston College's defense with a game-high 20 tackles (17 solo and three assisted), including 2.5 tackles for loss and two pass breakups in the Eagles' 30-23 overtime loss against Virginia Tech in his final game at Alumni Stadium last Saturday. Clancy's performance marked the second time this season an ACC defender recorded at least 20 tackles. Clancy, the league's leading tackler with 127 tackles through 11 games, owns both performances, having previously recorded a career-high 24 tackles (14 solo, 10 assisted) at Northwestern on Sept. 15. He earned ACC Linebacker of the Week honors for that effort as well. Clancy entered the season with a career single-game high of seven tackles (against Wake Forest in 2009). He is also the league's overall leader in tackles per game (11.5) through 11 games in 2012. Saturday's game against Virginia Tech also marked just the 14th time in BC history that a player has registered 20 or more tackles in a game.

| Boston College | 3 | 10 | 0 | 19 | 0 | - | 23 |

Team Records: Virginia Tech (5-6, 3-4 ACC); Boston College (2-9, 1-6 ACC)

CHESTNUT HILL, Mass. (Nov. 16, 2012) – Logan Thomas threw for two touchdowns and ran for another score to help Virginia Tech keep its bowl hopes alive with a 30-23 comeback win over Boston College. The victory snapped Virginia Tech's seven-game losing streak away from Lane Stadium. It was the longest since nine straight in coach Frank Beamer's first two seasons — 1987-88. BC tailback Rolandan Finch rushed 26 times for 133 yards and Nate Freese booted three field goals for BC. QB Chase Rettig was 13 of 30 for 129 yards and one touchdown for the Eagles. Boston College won the toss before overtime and elected to play defense first. Virginia Tech scored on its initial possession. The Hokies then held BC, tackling David Dudeck five yards short after he collected a swing pass from Rettig on a fourth-and-11 play. With Virginia Tech holding a 20-16 edge, BC grabbed the lead when Dudeck, a freshman, took a handoff, hesitated at the line and burst through an open hole for his first career a TD run, a 12-yarder with 4:11 to play. The Hokies then marched 62 yards in 10 plays, with Journell's third field goal of the game tying it at 23-all with 65 seconds left. Virginia Tech, which trailed by 10 at the half, took a 17-13 lead on Thomas' 37-yard TD pass to Marcus Davis late in the third quarter. The play came on a third-and-17 after BC elected to accept a holding call and move the Hokies out of field goal range. The Eagles had stopped Thomas on a scramble up the middle on the prior play near the 22. On the ensuing drive, Freese's third field goal of the game — a 42-yarder — cut it to 17-16, but Journell's 42-yard field goal with 6:15 to play restored the Hokies' four-point lead. BC grabbed a 10-3 lead early into the second quarter when Rettig connected on a well-executed, play-action pass for a 2-yard TD to Alex Amidon, who was wide open in the right corner of the end zone. Finch ran for 38 yards and Rettig hit tight end Chris Pantale for 23 on the 86-yard drive. Game Notes: Finch's performanced marked his second 100 (or more) yard rushing effort of his career ... BC played its first overtime game since a 27-24 win over Wake Forest on September 26, 2009 ... Senior S Jim Noel wore number 31 as a recipient of the Jay McGillis Scholarship ... Nate Freese is now 15-for-15 on field goals under 40 yards this season and 2-for-3 in field goals 40-49 yards. He hit from 36, 35 and 42 yards against the Hokies.

QB CHASE RETTIG

ON THE VERGE OF 3,000 PASSING YARDS

- Junior quarterback Chase Rettig, who is scheduled to make his 32nd straight start when the Eagles travel to Raleigh, N.C., to face NC State, has thrown for 2,942 yards and 17 touchdowns in 2012 and is averaging 267.5 passing yards per game – a mark good for fifth among Atlantic Coast Conference quarterbacks and 29th among all quarterbacks in Football Bowl Subdivision.
- Rettig stands 58 yards away from becoming the fourth BC quarterback to pass for 3,000 yards in a season.
- Rettig has thrown for more than 300 yards three times this season. He opened the season with a 441-yard, two-touchdown performance against Miami (Sept. 1), threw for 341 yards and three touchdowns against Clemson (Sept. 29), and, most recently, completed 29-of-49 passing attempts for 357 yards, one touchdown and three interceptions against Wake Forest (Nov. 3).
- Rettig completed 32-of-51 passing attempts for a career-high 441 yards and two touchdowns in Boston College's 41-32 season-opening home loss to Miami (Sept. 1). Rettig's 441 passing yards ranks sixth on the school's single-game records list and represent the most in game since Glenn Foley threw for 448 yards against Virginia Tech in 1993. It also marked single-game career highs for completions and attempts.

By the Numbers ...

3 – The Eagles have produced a top-10 pick in the NFL draft three times in the last five years – QB Matt Ryan (3rd; 2008), DT B.J. Raji (9th; 2009) and LB Luke Kuechly (9th; 2012).

3 – Boston College has had one of its former linebackers on each of the last three Super Bowl winning teams – Mark Herzlich (NY Giants, 2012), Robert Francois (Packers, 2011) and Jo-Lonn Dunbar (Saints, 2010).

6 – Boston College was the most represented collegiate football program in Super Bowl XLVI as there were six former Eagles that were on either the New England Patriots roster or the New York Giants roster – defensive end Ron Brace '08 and center Dan Koppen '02, roster members of the Patriots, and cornerback Will Blackmon '06, linebacker Mark Herzlich '10, defensive end Mathias Kiwanuka '05 and guard Chris Snee '04 were each roster members of the Giants.

9 – Boston College has produced nine NFL draft first-round picks in the last 12 seasons (since 2000).

| YEAR | NAME | POS. | TEAM | RD. | PICK |
| 2012 | Luke Kuechly | LB | Panthers | 1 | 9 |
| 2011 | Anthony Castonzo | OT | Colts | 1 | 22 |
| 2009 | B.J. Raji | DT | Packers | 1 | 9 |
| 2008 | Matt Ryan | QB | Falcons | 1 | 3 |
| 2008 | Gosder Cherilus | OT | Lions | 1 | 17 |
| 2006 | Mathias Kiwanuka | DE | Giants | 1 | 32 |
| 2002 | William Green | RB | Browns | 1 | 16 |
| 2002 | Marc Colombo | OT | Bears | 1 | 29 |
| 2000 | Chris Hovan | DT | Vikings | 1 | 25 |

11 – LB Luke Kuechly became Boston College's 11th consensus All-America honoree in 2011, its first two-time consensus All-American in 2012. BC's previous consensus All-America selections are DB Jamie Silva (2007), RB William Green (2001), RB Mike Cloud (1998), TE Pete Mitchell (1994), DL Mike Ruth (1985), QB Doug Flutie (1984), WR Tony Thurman (1984), FB Mike Holovak (1942), end Gene Goodreault (1940) and Luke Urban (1920).

31 – Junior quarterback Chase Rettig has started 31 straight Boston College games. He has 32 career starts at the position. Rettig started his first career game against Notre Dame (Oct. 2, 2010), suffered a foot injury against the Irish and missed the following week's game at NC State (Oct. 19, 2010). He has started each game since.

49 – Junior PK Nate Freese has made 49 of his 60 field goal attempts in his career as BC's starting kicker. Entering 2012, Freese was tied for sixth among all returnees nationally in career field goals per game, averaging 1.3 per contest.

88 – BC won 88 games in the 2000s (2000-09, including bowls), tying Auburn and Southern California for 11th among all teams in college football. Only 10 teams – Boise State (112), Oklahoma (110), Texas (110), Ohio State (102), Florida (100), LSU (99), Virginia Tech (99), Georgia (98), TCU (95) and Miami (92) – achieved more victories during the 2000s. Bookended with an 8-4 campaign in 1999 and a 7-6 season in 2010, BC captured 103 victories in 12 straight winning seasons from 1999-2010.

98.5 – Boston College led the nation with 98.5 percent of offensive yards returning according to research by philsteele.com. The formula incorporated passing, rushing and receiving yards.

1,222 – BC junior TB tandem of Rolandan Finch and Andre Williams combined to rush for 1,222 yards, 7 TDs and a 4.3 per carry average last fall.

AMIDON BREAKS SCHOOL RECEIVING YARDS RECORD, EYES ANOTHER

Junior WR Alex Amidon has recorded 75 receptions for a school-record 1,175 yards and seven touchdowns in 11 games in 2012. He leads the conference and ranks seventh in the country in receiving yards per game (106.82). He ranks 18th among all collegiate receivers with an average of 6.82 receptions per game. With 1,175 receiving yards to date, Amidon has broken the school's all-time single-season record formerly held by Brian Brennan, who recorded 1,149 receiving yards in 1983. He enters the season finale at NC State one reception shy of tying BC's single-season reception record held by Andre Callender (76, 2007).

BREAKING DOWN THE OFFENSIVE STATS

➢ Boston College is averaging 355.1 yards of total offense – 271.7 passing and 83.4 rushing – through 11 games in 2012. The team's passing yards per game average is the best since 2007 and marks the second-highest figure in the last 10 seasons.

POINTS OFF TURNOVERS

➢ Through 11 games this season, the Eagles' opponents have outscored them, 50-37, in points off turnovers. Against Wake Forest on Nov. 3, the Demon Deacons scored two touchdowns off four BC turnovers in a 28-14 Wake Forest victory in Winston-Salem, N.C., marking the second-most points allowed off of turnovers by a BC opponent this season. In week one, Miami recorded 17 points off three BC turnovers. Overall, Boston College has turned the ball over to their opponents 21 times while it has accumulated 17 takeaways for a -4 overall turnover differential this season. BC has thrown 10 interceptions and lost 11 fumbles while the Eagles have picked off 10 passes and recovered eight fumbles this year.

EAGLES ARE 3RD IN LATEST NCAA GSR REPORT

Boston College, along with Northwestern University, tied for third in the nation for overall Graduation Success Rate (GSR) in all sports among FBS (Football Bowl Subdivision) schools, according to data released by the NCAA on Oct. 26. The 97 percent that both schools registered was topped only by Notre Dame (99) and Duke (98). In addition, the football team's score of 94 was tied with Miami, Fla. as tops in the Atlantic Coast Conference and third in the nation and made BC one of only nine FBS programs in the country to receive a football GSR score of 90 or better. The nine FBS institutions that received scores of 90 or better were Notre Dame (97), Northwestern (97), BC (94), Miami, Fla. (94), Rice (93), Duke (92), Penn State (91), Rutgers (91) and Stanford (90).

OFFENSIVE LINE CONTINUITY

Brad Bates, Athletics Director

BATES TABBED BC ATHLETICS DIRECTOR ON OCT. 9

Boston College named Brad Bates the director of athletics on Oct. 9, 2012. Bates is credited with bolstering Miami (Ohio) University's athletics program during his 10 years as AD. As athletics director at Miami University, Bates oversaw a program that featured the school's first back-to-back football bowl game appearances in nearly 30 years (2003-2004) and two Mid-American Conference (MAC) championships in 2003 and 2010. Under his direction, 14 of Miami's 18 teams won at least one conference championship, including football, men's and women's basketball, baseball, soccer, cross-country and field hockey. The RedHawks men's ice hockey team won a Central Collegiate Hockey Association championship and appeared in two consecutive NCAA Frozen Fours, including the national championship game in 2009.

In addition, Bates implemented retention strategies to raise student-athlete graduation rates, achieving an overall Graduation Success Rate (GSR) of 89 percent in 2011, while also raising private funds to upgrade Miami University's athletics facilities--including a complete renovation of Yager Football Stadium--and a new ice hockey arena and softball field.

In 2011-12, Bates also served as president of the 1A Athletic Directors Association.

Prior to being named director of athletics at Miami, Bates served as senior associate AD at Vanderbilt University, where he had held positions of increasing responsibility within the athletics department between 1985 and 2002. In addition to overseeing the administration of all 15 sports, Bates supervised the athletic department's budget, while leading its marketing, development, licensing and Title IX compliance efforts.

A graduate of the University of Michigan, where he began as a walk-on defensive back before earning a football scholarship under legendary coach Bo Schembechler, Bates holds a master's degree in education from Michigan and a doctorate in education from Vanderbilt. He was also a member of the faculty at Miami University, teaching undergraduate and graduate courses in sports administration.

A native of Michigan, Bates and his wife, Michele, were active members in the Miami University and local community, serving as volunteers with Special Olympics, the American Red Cross, Meals on Wheels and the Community Reading Program.

EAGLES, BUCKEYES TO MEET IN 2020, 2021

Boston College and Ohio State have signed an agreement for a two-game football series in 2020 and 2021, Director of Athletics Brad Bates has announced.

The Eagles and Buckeyes will meet in Columbus on Sept. 19, 2020, and in Chestnut Hill on Sept. 18, 2021.

"This will be a great opportunity for our team to measure itself against one of the premier programs in college football," Bates said. "We will have the opportunity to showcase the rich history and tradition of Boston College football in a great matchup between ACC and Big Ten schools."

Ohio State owns a 3-0 advantage in the all-time series, including a 34-29 win in 1989 in Columbus, a 31-10 win in 1990 in Chestnut Hill and a 38-6 win in 1995 at the Kickoff Classic at the Meadowlands in New Jersey.

Former Eagles Honored

VARSITY CLUB HALL OF FAME CLASS OF 2012

Nine of the finest athletes in Boston College history comprise the Class of 2012 were inducted into the Varsity Club Hall of Fame Friday, Sept. 7. The athletes being honored were: Mark Chmura '91 (football), Maria Cicero '05 (cross country/track and field), Don Fox '57 (hockey), Antonio Granger '98 (basketball), Amy LaCombe '90 (basketball), Mike Mamula '95 (football), Marty McInnis '92 (hockey), Casey Schmidt '03 (soccer) and Lou Tessier '65 (track and field). The honorees were formally inducted in a Conte Forum ceremony on Friday night, September 7, and then were recognized at halftime of the Eagles' football game against Maine the following day.

Mark Chmura '91 (football), a tight end for the Eagles from 1988-91, set the school record for receptions with 164, which is now third in Eagles' record books and also stands at third with 2,046 career receiving yards. An All-Big East selection and two-time All-ECAC honoree, he also set a single-season record with 47 receptions by a tight end. Chmura played eight seasons with the Green Bay Packers in the National Football League. He won the Super Bowl with the Packers in 1997 and was inducted into the Packers Hall of Fame in 2010.

Mike Mamula '95 (football) played for the Eagles from 1991 to 1994. A defensive end, he tied for the most sacks in one game (3.5) and in one season (13). He is also second in BC record books with 24 career sacks. He was named NBC's "Player of the Game" for his 14-tackle effort, which included two sacks, in the victory over Notre Dame as a junior. He earned All-Big East honors and Big East Player of the Week accolades twice as a senior, while also capturing the Aloha Bowl MVP title for his performance, which included four sacks, one for a safety. A first-round selection by the Philadelphia Eagles (seventh pick), he played six seasons for the Eagles.

RETIRED JERSEY: LOU MONTGOMERY

At halftime of the season-opening game against Miami, Boston College honored Lou Montgomery of the class of 1941 by retiring his jersey. He was the first African-American football player to wear Boston College's Maroon and Gold. He was an exciting and highly skilled running back and a major offensive contributor to the Eagles teams that won 19 of 20 regular-season games in his junior and senior seasons and earned invitations to the 1940 Cotton Bowl and the 1941 Sugar Bowl. Tragically, because of the severe and unjust racial segregation customs of that era, Lou Montgomery was not allowed to participate in either of those post-season games or in regular-season games against teams from the South. Rising above that unspeakable prejudice, Lou Montgomery never compromised his own high principles, his undaunted spirit or his unwavering support of his teammates and fellow Boston College students. His jersey is now permanently displayed on the southeast facade of Alumni Stadium, where is has been added to the commemorative jerseys of Boston College's top football legends.

HYLAND AMONG 2012 ACC CLASS OF LEGENDS

Boston College's Bob Hyland, the ninth overall pick of the 1967 NFL Draft, is one of 12 members of the Atlantic Coast Conference 2012 Football Championship Game Legends Class. The Legends will be honored at this year's Dr Pepper ACC Football Championship Game weekend. They will be honored at the ACC Night of Legends sponsored by the Belk Bowl on Friday, Nov. 30, and on Dec. 1, during ceremonies at Bank of America Stadium for the 8th Annual Dr Pepper ACC Football Championship. Hyland (1964-66) lettered three consecutive years for Boston College for head coach Jim Miller at center and offensive guard. He helped lead BC to a three-year 16-13 record and earned an invitation to the East-West Shrine Game in San Francisco.

WR Alex Amidon

- Junior WR Alex Amidon has recorded 75 receptions for a school-record 1,175 yards and seven touchdowns in 2012. He leads the conference and ranks seventh in the country in receiving yards per game (106.82). He ranks 18th among all collegiate receivers with an average of 6.8 receptions per game.
- He has eclipsed 100 receiving yards in six games this fall, a mark that ties the school standard set by Brian Brennan who recorded six 100-yard receiving games in 1983.
- With 1,175 receiving yards to date, Amidon has broken the school's all-time single-season record formerly held by Brian Brennan, who recorded 1,149 receiving yards in 1983.
- He is one reception shy of tying BC's single-season reception record held by Andre Callender (76, 2007).
- Amidon earned Atlantic Coast Conference Receiver of the Week honors on Oct. 1 after he caught eight passes for 193 yards and two touchdowns in Boston College's 45-31 loss to No. 17 Clemson on Saturday, Sept. 29. Amidon's total marked the most receiving yards in a game for a Boston College player since Gerard Phelan had 226 receiving yards against Miami on Nov. 23, 1984 and represents the third-highest receiving total in school history. (The school standard is held by Scott Nizolek, who registered 229 receiving yards against Penn State in 1982). Amidon accounted for 52 percent of the team's receiving yardage (193 of 369) and 39 percent of its points in the loss to Clemson.

CHESTNUT HILL, Mass. (Nov. 12, 2011) (AP) - Starting quarterback Chase Rettig threw for a touchdown, backup Josh Bordner ran for a score and Boston College held on for a 14-10 win over North Carolina State. Rettig completed 9 of 13 attempts for 118 yards, and Andre Williams carried 18 times for 61 yards. NC State QB Mike Glennon completed 28 of 40 passes for 220 yards and James Washington had a 3-yard TD run for the Wolfpack, who moved deep into BC's territory in the closing minutes before Glennon's pass was tipped at the line and fell to the ground on a fourth-and-5 play with 1:10 left. Wolfpack corner back David Amerson extended a school-record with his NCAA-leading 10th interception in the first half. NC State held BC to minus-2 yards of total offense in the second half. Boston College linebacker Luke Kuechly had 18 tackles - nine in the final 13 minutes - for his 32nd straight game with double digits in tackles. He entered the game leading the nation with 150 after leading the nation with 183 last year. The Eagles led 14-3 at halftime. North Carolina State started at its own 18 with 13 1/2 minutes left in the game and marched down to the Eagles' 23 before Donnie Fletcher picked off Glennon's pass in the end zone. Boston College took the opening kickoff and marched right down the field in five plays, grabbing a 7-0 lead when backup quarterback Bordner scored on a 3-yard run off an option play. The score came two plays after Rettig hit Alex Amidon with a 41-yard pass along the left sideline, moving the ball to the Wolfpack's nine. NC State, coming off a shutout win over rival North Carolina last week, drove 61 yards in 13 plays on its first possession before the drive stalled and Niklas Sade kicked a 32-yard field goal. Glennon completed 7 of 8 passes for 60 yards with the only incompletion a drop by T.J. Graham. The Wolfpack had four first downs on their first drive of the game, but only had three more until midway into the final quarter. The Eagles improved their lead to 14-3 late in the first half on Rettig's 17-yard TD pass to Colin Larmond Jr. BC started with good field position after Wil Baumann's 24-yard punt gave them the ball at their own 41. Rettig completed consecutive passes for a combined 23 yards and Williams carried six times - mostly up the middle - for 16 yards. Except for the final possession - which was a one-play kneel down to end the half - BC went into NC State territory each time it had the ball in the first half. Washington's scoring run cut it to 14-10 midway into the third quarter. On a third-and-4 from the Eagles' 38, Glennon lofted a pass to tight end Quinton Payton that dropped in between four defenders. Game Notes: In the third quarter, Kuechly became the fifth player in the history of the ACC to record 500 or more career tackles. The linebacker concluded the game with 509 tackles in the Maroon and Gold, fourth best mark on the conference record list ... senior CB Donnie Fletcher intercepted the 10th pass of his career to halt NC State's fourth quarter drive at 6:43. The pick was his first of the year ... sophomore WR Alex Amidon's 41-yd. reception during the opening drive was his longest of the season. He finished the day with a career-best 69 yards ... the opening drive also saw freshman QB Josh Bordner score the first touchdown of his career on a three-yard rush up the middle.

CHESTNUT HILL, Mass. (AP) - Freshman Duke Johnson broke two long touchdown runs, rushing for 135 yards to lead Miami to a 41-32 victory over Boston College.

Johnson scored from 54 and 56 yards out for the Hurricanes, and Stephen Morris threw for 207 yards and a touchdown in the season opener for both teams. The schools also played each other in the 2011 finale, when BC beat the Hurricanes in Miami for the first time since Doug Flutie's famous desperation pass in 1984.

Chase Rettig led BC on two quick touchdown drives to open the game, scoring on Andre Williams' 4-yard run on the first drive of the game and then a 15-yard pass to Jake Sinkovec. But Miami tied it before the quarter was over, scoring on Eduardo Clements' 1-yard run and then, on the final play of the first, Denzel Perryman's 41-yard interception return.

After Nate Freese kicked a 26-yard field goal to give BC the lead again, Johnson broke loose from 54 yards out and scored to make it 21-17. BC took the lead with two more field goals, but Miami's Jake Wieclaw answered with one and then Johnson broke another long one.

Rettig completed 32 of 51 passes for 441 yards and two touchdowns for BC, which led 14-0 after its first two possessions. But Johnson's second score made it 31-23, and then the Eagles fumbled the ball away on consecutive drives to start the fourth quarter. That set up a field goal and touchdown to give Miami a 41-23 lead.

BC cut the deficit on Rettig's 17-yard touchdown pass to Tahj Kimble, but it wasn't enough. Late in the fourth quarter, the Eagles came up just short of the goal line on a third-down pass to Spiffy Evans. With the clock below 2:30, Rettig quickly lined up and tried to sneak it in but was stopped for no gain. The play was reviewed and upheld.

Miami took an intentional safety with 4 seconds left rather than punt from deep in its own end zone.

CHESTNUT HILL, Mass. (AP) - Junior quarterback Chase Rettig threw three touchdown passes, and sophomore Spiffy Evans caught one score and ran a punt back 82 yards for another as Boston College beat Maine 34-3. Junior place-kicker Nate Freese booted two field goals, helping the Eagles rebound from a season-opening loss to Miami last week.

The loss was the season opener and the 1,000th game for Maine's program. Brian Harvey had a 19-yard field goal for the Black Bears. Rettig went 16 of 32 for 219 yards and no interceptions. Junior running back Rolandan Finch carried 17 times for 90 yards.

The longtime hockey rivals were locked in a surprisingly tight battle before the Eagles scored 17 points in the final 7:09 of the second quarter. Boston College broke it open with a field goal and two TDs late in the third. Maine's Marcus Wasilewski was 20 of 42 for 134 yards and two interceptions.

It was just the seventh meeting between the schools, with the first five coming before 1930. The Eagles outgained the Black Bears by nearly 100 yards in the opening quarter, but fumbled it away twice and trailed 3-0 after one.

In the second, BC avoided turning the ball over, got its offense on track and marched 62 yards in nine plays with Rettig capping the drive with a 3-yard TD toss to Evans to move ahead 7-3. Rettig completed a pair of passes for 27 yards, moving the ball deep into Maine's territory, before junior Andre Williams carried to the 3 to set up the score.

After the Black Bears gave the ball back to BC at its own 10 following a botched snap on a punt attempt, the Eagles made it 14-3 on Rettig's 9-yard scoring strike to Johnathan Coleman, who made a nice grab along the back line of the end zone. Freese's 39-yard field goal with 61 seconds left in the first half made it 17-3.

The Eagles outgained the Black Bears 229-65 in the first half. Midway into the third, BC safety Jim Noel picked off Wasilewski's pass at the Black Bears' 18. Six plays later, Freese kicked a 20-yard field goal to make it 20-3.

Late in the quarter, Evans backpedaled to handle a long punt, bolted up the middle and raced untouched for the score, making it 27-3.

The Eagles turned it into a rout when Rettig threw a 32-yard TD strike to Alex Amidon on the play after Manuel Asprilla picked off a pass. In the opening quarter, BC marched down to Maine's 14-yard line before Tahj Kimble fumbled it diving toward the goal line. After a replay review, it was ruled that the ball hit the pylon and rolled into the end zone, giving the Black Bears the ball on the 20.

Later in the quarter, Maine's Darlos James recovered Finch's fumble at the Eagles' 10. The Black Bears were unable to punch it into the end zone, though, getting stopped at the 2 before Harvey's field goal.

It was similar to the final quarter of their opening week loss to Miami when the Eagles fumbled the ball away on their first two possessions of the fourth.

EVANSTON, ILL. (AP) - Mike Trumpy ran for 106 yards with a late touchdown, and Northwestern beat Boston College 22-13 on Saturday.

Jeff Budzien tied a school record with five field goals and the Wildcats (3-0) made it three wins over three BCS teams to start the season even though they did not reach the end zone until the closing minutes.

They downed a punt at the one to pin Boston College (1-2) against the goal line and took over on the Eagles' 44 with 2:35 left in the game after they went three-and-out.

After going three quarters against Vanderbilt the previous week without a TD, Northwestern finally broke through in this one when Trumpy broke up the middle for a 27-yard scoring run that made it 22-13 with 1:37 remaining.

Before that, Budzien's leg provided all the scoring. Northwestern wasted several big chances, particularly in the early going, and had to settle for field goals instead of touchdowns. But with their kicker on target, the Wildcats led most of the way to come out with the win hours after the school announced plans for a new lakefront athletics complex that will include a facility for football.

Kain Colter threw for 144 yards and ran for 66, while Trevor Siemian threw for 123 yards. Venric Mark ran for 77 yards but spent the fourth quarter on the sideline limping with an undisclosed lower body injury.

Chase Rettig came up big for Boston College, completing 24 of 44 passes for 291 yards and a touchdown, but the Eagles fell short.

Budzien's 41-yarder at the end of the second quarter gave the Wildcats a 12-10 lead, but that came right after another blown chance. A leaping Kyle Prater deflected a wobbly pass from Siemian in the end zone that probably should have been caught anyway for a 23-yard TD.

Northwestern caught a break after Colter lost a fumble near midfield on its first possession of the third quarter.

Boston College took over at the Wildcats 45 and drove to the 5 before Rolandan Finch got stripped at the line by Brian Arnfelt, with Chi Chi Ariguzo recovering the ball for Northwestern.

That led to a 19-yarder by Budzien to make it 15-10 late in the third, but again, the field goal came after a missed opportunity. This time, Colter overthrew a wide open Christian Jones in the end zone on second down at the 6 before getting stopped on a 4-yard run.

Nate Freese pulled Boston College within two with a 34-yard field goal in the opening seconds of the fourth.

CHESTNUT HILL, Mass. (AP) - Boston College showed off its offensive firepower. It certainly wasn't enough to match No. 17 Clemson.

Tajh Boyd threw for 367 yards and three touchdowns and ran in another himself as the Tigers beat the Eagles 45-31.

Chase Rettig, who entered the day as the leading passer in the ACC, completed 25 of 43 passes for 341 yards and three touchdowns. Alex Amdion caught eight passes for 193 yards and two touchdowns for the Boston College (1-3, 0-2).

It was a good day offensively for the Eagles, but the Tigers amassed 576 total yards.

The Eagles looked sharp early, opening a 21-17 lead before giving up three unanswered touchdowns.

"The offense did a job and is scoring points," said BC safety Sean Sylvia, who had an interception. "We've got to live up to our job a little better and start stopping people."

It seemed like whenever BC looked like it might have a chance to make a charge at Clemson, Boyd made a big play.

Boyd completed 28 of 38 passes and ran 11 times for 42 yards for Clemson (4-1, 1-1 Atlantic Coast Conference). DeAndre Hopkins caught 11 passes for 197 yards for the Tigers, who bounced back after blowing a two-touchdown lead and losing 49-37 to No. 4 Florida State last week.

Andre Ellington ran 25 times for 132 yards and a touchdown for Clemson.

"Those Clemson players are very good players and they've done it to a lot of people," Eagles coach Frank Spaziani said.

Amidon's yardage was the third most on school history - behind two games quarterbacked by Heisman Trophy winner Doug Flutie.

"It was a pretty high offensive game. They score and we were able to score," Amidon said. "It's pretty new for us to be able to move the ball like that. It's fun being able to move the ball on offense like that."

Clemson was unbeaten and ranked 10th in the nation when it travelled to Tallahassee last week to play ACC Atlantic rival Florida State. The Tigers opened a 28-14 lead in the third quarter before the Seminoles scored 35 of the next 38 points.

This time it was Clemson rallying with an offensive outburst.

BC had come back from a 17-7 deficit to lead 21-17 on Rettig's 31-yard pass to Amidon with 4:12 left in the first half. But Boyd hit Brandon Ford for a 4-yard TD just before the end of the half, then capped Clemson's first drive of the second half with Roderick McDowell's 16-yard touchdown run.

After Rashard Hall's interception set the Tigers up at the BC 33, Boyd hit Jaron Brown for 30 yards and Ellington ran it in from the 1 to make it 38-21.

It was 45-28 when BC inched closer with Nate Freese's field goal, and then stopped Clemson on a fourth-and-1 near midfield. Rettig hit Amidon for 17 yards, with another 15 yards tacked on because Garry Peters threw Amidon to the ground after he was already out of bounds.

But on third down, Peters picked off Rettig at the 5. BC got the ball back at Clemson's 33 when Boyd fumbled, but the Eagles weren't able to get a first down.

Clemson had added its last TD when Boyd hit Hopkins from 35 yards out to make it 45-28 with 1 minute gone in the fourth quarter. The Tigers ended the game by taking a knee on the BC 1.

WEST POINT, N.Y. (AP)- Raymond Maples had just been stopped on fourth-and-goal from inches with just over 2 minutes left with Boston College clinging to a four-point lead, a rare failure for Army's potent triple option.

Undaunted as they usually are no matter the circumstance, the Black Knights regrouped and finally won a game.

Trent Steelman rushed for 141 yards and scored three times, including a decisive 29-yard touchdown run with 45 seconds left, and Army beat the Eagles 34-31 on Saturday to snap an eight-game losing streak.

Bruising fullback Larry Dixon had 128 yards rushing on just 13 carries and added another touchdown, and Daniel Grochowski kicked two field goals for Army (1-4), which finished with 516 yards rushing and held the ball for more than 37 minutes.

Maples led Army with 184 yards rushing 34 carries. It was the fourth game this season Army's potent triple option has had two or more players go over 100 yards, the first time the Black Knights have accomplished that since 1948.

After Grochowski's 20-yard field goal gave Army a 27-24 lead with 9:04 left, Boston College (1-4) awoke after a listless third quarter. Chase Rettig hit Johnathan Coleman for 30 yards and a 5-yard run by Andre Williams put the Eagles at the Army 24.

On the next play, Alex Amidon, who had five catches for 85 yards, darted around from the left side, took a handoff, and with Rettig leading the way raced untouched along the right side to give the Eagles a 31-27 lead with 6:11 left.

Army drove back to the BC 1 with just over 2 minutes left, but Maples was gang-tackled just shy of the goal line on a fourth-down pitch left.

The much-maligned Army defense then forced a punt after three downs, giving Steelman one last chance with 69 seconds left, and he delivered with a stunning burst left after a poor BC kick had given Army a first down at the 38. It took Army just 18 seconds to score.

The loss spoiled a stellar day for BC's Andre Williams, who finished with a career-high 191 yards rushing on 17 carries and scored twice.

Rettig was 13 of 24 for 197 yards passing and was sacked five times, never finding any sort of rhythm. Ranked second in the ACC and 11th among all FBS quarterbacks in passing yards per game at 323, Rettig couldn't generate any offense in the third quarter as the Eagles netted just 33 yards.

Trailing by a touchdown, Army opened the third quarter by marching down the field for a touchdown in a 12-play, 75-yard drive, all on the ground. Steelman, who was 5 of 12 passing for 79 yards, reeled off a 27-yard run off left tackle to set up Dixon's 6-yard spurt through a gaping hole in the middle, tying it at 24-all.

Army scored on its first two possessions of the game, marching methodically down the field each time to forge a 14-7 first-quarter lead while the Army defense forced BC to a pair of three-and-outs.

Dixon's 34-yard run keyed Steelman's 1-yard opening touchdown, and after the Eagles tied it on a 1-yard run by Williams, the Black Knights scored again.

Steelman capped a nine-play, 77-yard drive with a 27-yard burst off right tackle late in the first quarter.

When a punt by Army's Chris Boldt and a penalty against BC pinned the Eagles at their own 1, the Black Knights were poised to pounce. Instead, Williams bolted through a huge hole off right tackle, brushed off a tackle attempt by freshman Chris Carnegie, and sped 99 yards for a touchdown to tie it at 14-all.

It was the longest run in BC history and not bad for a team that was averaging just 84.5 yards rushing per game, 116th in the nation.

A bad pitch by Steelman on a third-and-1 play near midfield led to Army's 14th lost fumble of the season, and the Eagles capitalized on Nate Freese's 25-yard field goal to take a 17-14 lead midway through the second.

Steelman gave the ball right back again on Army's next possession, losing a fumble at his own 38. Rettig made the Black Knights pay again, hitting Amidon for a 20-yard touchdown in the left corner with 2:46 left in the half for a 24-14 lead.

But when BC tried to run out the clock, the Army defense rallied to force a punt and the Black Knights took advantage. Grochowski kicked a career-long 46-yard field goal as time expired to make it a one-possession game and give Army a huge mental boost.

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) - EJ Manuel threw for a career-high 439 yards and four touchdowns and kicker Dustin Hopkins became the Atlantic Coast Conference's career scoring leader Saturday as 12th-ranked Florida State rebounded from its first loss of the season with a 51-7 victory over Boston College.

Manuel completed 27 of 34 passes before leaving early in the fourth quarter with a 48-7 lead.

Florida State (6-1, 3-1 ACC) didn't waste any time shaking off over last week's 17-16 loss at North Carolina State, rolling to a 28-0 lead midway through the second quarter before Boston College (1-5, 0-3) scored its touchdown on Chase Rettig's 18-yard pass to Bobby Swigert.

Hopkins passed the previous league scoring record of 393 points with a 51-yard field goal that gave the Seminoles a 31-7 halftime lead.

Hopkins boosted his career total to 402 points and now stands fifth all-time on the NCAA scoring charts. He also erased a pair of Florida State career marks that stood for 25 years, both previously held by Derrick Schmidt. Hopkins' 75 field goals are five shy of the ACC mark held by former Maryland kicker Nick Novak, who was the league's previous scoring leader.

Criticized for their conservative play calling after blowing a 16-point lead last week at North Carolina State, the Seminoles came out throwing against BC.

And that was exactly what Boston College coach Frank Spaziani had feared coming into the game.

"They got annoyed that they got a little conservative last week and they weren't about to do that," Spaziani said. "They were going to attack and they were in an attack mode right from the beginning."

Manuel threw six straight passes on the opening 99-yard drive without once going to the run. He passed for 295 yards and three touchdowns in the first half alone.

Boston College drove to the Florida State 1-yard line one on the opening drive of the game, but couldn't score, stopped twice only inches from the goal line.

Boston College drove to the Florida State 1-yard line one on the opening drive of the game, but couldn't score, stopped twice only inches from the goal line.

It didn't take the Seminoles long to get to the other end.

Kenny Shaw raced 77 yards with a Manuel pass to cap Florida State's drive. Shaw caught the pass near midfield and outran two BC defenders down the left sideline for the touchdown. He had two catches for 125 yards and teammate Rodney Smith had nine receptions for 108 yards and has now caught at least one pass in 32 straight games.

Manuel connected twice with James Wilder Jr. on scoring touchdowns on scoring plays of 7 and 12 yards and also with Kelvin Benjamin on a 6-yard TD.

Lonnie Pryor added a pair of short touchdown runs for the Seminoles, who rolled up 649 yards to BC's 225.

Rettig, who came into the game averaging 306.2 yards passing, managed 122 against the ACC's top defense.

"It wasn't what we wanted, but we were just trying to stay in it," Rettig said. "They made plays and we didn't make enough."

Andre Williams ran for 104 yards on 20 carries for the Eagles.

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) - Tevin Washington ran for two touchdowns and backup quarterback Vad Lee also accounted for two scores, leading Georgia Tech to a 37-17 victory over Boston College.

The Yellow Jackets snapped a three-game losing streak in their first contest since firing defensive coordinator Al Groh. Boston College lost its fifth in a row and has yet to beat a Football Bowl Subdivision opponent.

Zach Laskey rushed for 101 yards for the Yellow Jackets before going out with a shoulder injury.

Georgia Tech built a 31-3 lead by early in the third quarter. Chase Rettig threw two touchdown passes to make the score a bit more respectable.

Groh was fired after the Yellow Jackets gave up more than 40 points in each of their last three losses - the first such stretch in school history. Coach Paul Johnson decided he had seen enough, promoting Charles Kelly to interim coordinator and ordering a more simplified scheme.

The Yellow Jackets finished with 563 yards and held the ball for more than 43 minutes.

The only sour note for Georgia Tech was a hideous display of kicking. David Scully's first field goal attempt from 22 yards was blocked, then he hooked one wide left from 28 yards. Johnson switched kickers, and Justin Moore connected on a 32-yarder. But Moore missed a 41-yard try, then yanked an extra point outside of the left upright.

Otherwise, this was total domination by the Yellow Jackets.

Georgia Tech set the tone on its first possession, driving 89 yards in 10 plays before Connor Wujciak got a hand on Scully's field goal attempt. That only delayed the inevitable.

The Yellow Jackets got it back and quickly drove 90 yards in 13 plays, capped by Washington's 12-yard touchdown run.

After Boston College went three-and-out, Georgia Tech took it 63 yards in 11 plays. Again, it was Washington capping the drive, powering over for a 1-yard score to make it 14-0.

Washington finished with 17 carries for 82 yards and went over 2,000 yards rushing in his career, joining Joshua Nesbitt as the only players in school history with 2,000 yards rushing and 2,500 yards passing.

The Eagles finally put together some offense after Washington's second TD, setting up Nate Freese's 25-yard field goal.

But Georgia Tech took the ensuing kickoff and got right back to work, sparked by Jamal Golden's 36-yard return. Changing up at quarterback, the Yellow Jackets sent in Lee to spell Washington. The redshirt freshman took advantage of his opportunity, breaking off a 24-yard touchdown run that included a couple of nifty moves right at the goal line.

Boston College went 19 yards the wrong way on its next possession. A shotgun snap sailed far over Rettig's head, forcing the quarterback to fall on it, and Andre Williams lost 2 more yards on a fumble that was recovered by the Eagles.

After punting it away again, they quickly gave up Lee's 45-yard touchdown pass to Anthony Autry.

Rettig was 19 of 31 for 264 yards, including touchdown passes of 40 yards to Alex Amidon and 12 yards to Chris Pantale. The Eagles closed the margin to 31-17, but their last hope ended on a roughing-the-punter penalty. David Sims tacked on a 7-yard touchdown run for the Yellow Jackets.

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. (AP) - Chase Rettig completed a 14-yard touchdown pass to Johnathan Coleman with 52 seconds left to give Boston College a 20-17 victory over Maryland. The victory snapped a five-game losing streak for the Eagles and helped them avoid their worst start since 1989.

Former fourth-stringer Caleb Rowe completed a 66-yard touchdown pass to Stefon Diggs midway through the fourth quarter to give Maryland its first lead of the game. But on the first play after BC's go-ahead touchdown, Rowe was intercepted by Spenser Rositano. A freshman making the start because of injuries to Maryland's top three quarterbacks, Rowe completed 23 of 42 passes for 240 yards and two touchdowns. But he was also picked off three times.

Wearing stars-and-stripes uniforms for Military Appreciation Day, Boston College opened a 13-0 lead early in the third quarter thanks to a pair of interceptions and then came back after giving up the lead. Rettig was 21 for 39 for 287 yards and two touchdowns, completing his last six passes on the game-winning drive. Alex Amidon caught nine passes for 137 yards.

Diggs had 11 catches for 152 yards for Maryland, and Wes Brown ran 23 times for 73 yards. The Eagles scored on a two-play, 39-yard touchdown drive on their first possession and took over on the Maryland 19 on their second thanks to Spiffy Evans' 72-yard punt return. But Andre Williams fumbled the ball into the end zone, where it was recovered by Darius Kilgo for a touchback.

BC made it 10-0 on Nate Freese's 36-yard field goal early in the second quarter and made it 13-0 on a 28-yarder early in the third. They had a chance to ice it when Rowe sailed a third-and-7 pass over the middle into double-coverage that linebacker Nick Clancy had in his hands but dropped.

On fourth down, Rowe hit Kevin Dorsey for 26 yards; on fourth-and-goal from the 1 yard-line, Rowe connected with Nigel King for the touchdown that made it 13-7.

After BC went three-and-out, losing 13 yards on two of Maryland's five sacks, Rowe led the Terps into position for Brendan Magistro's 28-yard field goal that made it 13-10.

BC twice went three-and-out before Maryland took over at its own 27 yard-line and needed just three plays to score. Rowe hit Diggs on a slant pattern, and the receiver headed to the left sideline before outsprinting the coverage to the end zone.

BC took over with 4:45 left, and Rettig missed on four of his first six attempts before clicking. He completed two straight passes, each for a first down, before a sack that set up a second-and-17 that became a third-and-9 and forced BC to call a timeout.

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. (AP) - Michael Campanaro caught three first-half touchdown passes from Tanner Price and Wake Forest took a step closer to becoming bowl eligible with a 28-14 win over Boston College on Saturday.

Campanaro tied an Atlantic Coast Conference record with 16 receptions for 123 yards and became only the eighth player in school history to catch three TD passes in a game.

Price was outstanding, completing 39 of 57 passes for 293 yards as the Demon Deacons (5-4, 3-4) bounced back from a 29-point thrashing last week to No. 9 Clemson.

Wake Forest came in with the lowest-scoring offense in the ACC, but looked sharp early with Price hooking up on touchdown strikes of 5, 27 and 16 yards to Campanaro to build a 21-7 halftime lead.

Chase Rettig threw for 357 yards for Boston College (2-7, 1-5), but turned the ball over four times, three of those on interceptions.

The Deacons need to win one of their final three games to become bowl eligible. They're on the road at N.C. State and No. 4 Notre Dame before closing at home against Vanderbilt.

The Eagles will not be headed to a bowl for the second straight season after playing in 12 straight. The loss also means Boston College will finish in last place in the ACC's Atlantic Division.

The previous nine meetings between these teams were decided by 10 points or less, but it appeared early on Wake Forest might run away with this one after jumping out to a 14-0 lead in the first quarter.

But Rettig capped a 12-play, 95-yard touchdown drive in the second quarter with a 16-yard scoring strike to Alex Amidon to cut the Deacons' lead in half. Amidon finished with 10 catches for 130 yards.

However, Wake Forest turned the tide late in the second quarter when defensive end Zach Thompson stripped Rettig of the ball in the backfield and recovered at the Eagles 15. Five plays later Price hooked up with a wide-open Campanaro on a wheel route for their third touchdown with 54 seconds left in the half.

Boston College would make it close.

After a 52-yard completion from Rettig to Johnathan Coleman, the Eagles went to their bag of tricks. Rettig threw a lateral to receiver Bobby Swigert, who promptly threw to a wide open Chris Pantale in the end zone for a 12-yard touchdown to cut the lead to 21-14.

That was as close as they'd get.

Wake Forest pushed the lead back to 14 when Josh Harris busted off right tackle for a 23-yard scoring run on a fourth-and-1 play to make it a two-possession game.

Harris finished with 82 yards on 16 carries.

Terence Davis added seven catches for 62 yards for the Deacons prior to leaving late in the fourth quarter with a shoulder injury.

Wake Forest's defense had its share of big plays. Along with the four turnovers, they also had three stops on fourth-and-1 plays, including one near the goal line in the second half.

CHESTNUT HILL, MASS. (AP) - Everett Golson ran for a touchdown and threw for two more on Saturday night to help No. 4 Notre Dame beat Boston College 21-6 and keep its national championship hopes intact.

Taking the field one hour after top-ranked Alabama lost to No. 15 Texas A&M, the Fighting Irish (10-0) remained unbeaten and in the hunt for a spot in the BCS title game. And a week after needing triple overtime - and a lot of luck - to get past unheralded Pittsburgh, Notre Dame eased past a longtime rival that had twice before spoiled its hopes of a No. 1 finish.

Golson completed 16 of 24 passes for 200 yards, connecting with Troy Niklas for a 7-yard touchdown at the end of the first half and with John Goodman from 18 yards out early in the second. Manti Te'o grabbed his sixth interception of the season - a school record for a linebacker - to end BC's last real chance at a comeback with just under 6 minutes left.

Chase Rettig completed 27 of 34 passes for 247 yards for BC (2-8), which is off to its worst start since 1989. Alex Amidon caught six passes for 84 yards to break the school's single-season record for receiving yards.

Theo Riddick ran 18 times for 104 yard and caught six passes for 67 more for the Irish, who are 10-0 for the first time since 1993.

That was the year BC's David Gordon kicked a 41-yard field goal as time expired to beat No. 1 Notre Dame and end its perfect season in the final game. In 2002, the Irish were unbeaten and No. 4 in the country when unranked Boston College won 14-7 in South Bend to again spoil Notre Dame's chances at a national championship.

But there was no upset this year in the rivalry known locally as "The Holy War," a matchup between the only two Catholic schools in the FBS that drew the first sellout crowd of the season on a frigid night in Chestnut Hill.

In fact, it wasn't even as close as Notre Dame's victory over Pitt, or the four other games the Irish have won by a touchdown or less, keeping them near the top of The Associated Press rankings with an outside chance at a spot in the BCS title game.

Notre Dame entered the day trailing Alabama, Oregon and Kansas State in the AP Top 25. The Irish would probably need either Oregon or Kansas State to fall from the unbeaten in order to squeeze into the top two in the BCS rankings.

Notre Dame scored on its first possession, going 95 yards to make it 7-0 on Golson's 2-yard run. The Irish fumbled on their second try but then mounted another long drive, going 87 yards on 16 plays and taking a 14-3 lead on Golson's pass to Niklas with 26 seconds left in the half. Golson rolled right and found Goodman in the left corner of the end zone on the first drive of the third quarter to make it 21-3.

Boston College made one last charge with a 45-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter that cut the deficit to 21-6. On Notre Dame's next possession, Riddick fumbled and, while the referees tried to untangle the pile, BC safety Spenser Rositano stood 15 yards away, waving the ball in the air.

But BC couldn't get past the Notre Dame 35 before turning the ball over on downs. The Eagles held on defense, then brought the ball to midfield before Rettig's pass was deflected by receiver Donte Elliott and right to Te'o.

CHESTNUT HILL, MASS. (AP) - Logan Thomas threw for two touchdowns -- the second a 7-yarder to Randall Dunn in overtime -- and ran for another score to help Virginia Tech keep its bowl hopes alive with a 30-23 comeback win over Boston College on Saturday.

The victory snapped Virginia Tech's seven-game losing streak away from Lane Stadium. It was the longest since nine straight in coach Frank Beamer's first two seasons -- 1987-88.

Thomas completed 16-of-33 passes for 247 yards and added a 1-yard touchdown run. Cody Journell kicked three field goals for Virginia Tech.

Rolandan Finch rushed 26 times for 133 yards and Nate Freese booted three field goals for BC.

Chase Rettig was 13-of-30 for 129 yards and one touchdown for the Eagles.

Boston College won the toss before overtime and elected to play defense first. Virginia Tech scored on its initial possession.

The Hokies then held BC, tackling David Dudeck five yards short after he collected a swing pass from Rettig on a fourth-and-11 play.

With Virginia Tech holding a 20-16 edge, BC grabbed the lead when Dudeck, a freshman, took a handoff, hesitated at the line and burst through an open hole for his first career a TD run -- a 12-yarder with 4:11 to play.

The Hokies then marched 62 yards in 10 plays, with Journell's third field goal of the game -- a 41-yarder -- tying it at 23-all with 65 seconds left.

Virginia Tech, which trailed by 10 at the half, took a 17-13 lead on Thomas' 37-yard TD pass to Marcus Davis late in the third quarter. The play came on a third-and-17 after BC elected to accept a holding call and move the Hokies out of field goal range. The Eagles had stopped Thomas on a scramble up the middle on the prior play near the 22.

On the ensuing drive, Freese's third field goal of the game -- a 42-yarder -- cut it to 17-16, but Journell's 42-yard field goal with 6:15 to play restored the Hokies' four-point lead.

Trailing 13-3, the Hokies' Demitri Knowles returned the second half kickoff 75 yards to the Eagles' 20. Seven plays later, Thomas lunged the ball across the goal line on fourth-and-goal from the 1 after being stopped initially at the line. The play was reviewed and upheld.

BC grabbed a 10-3 lead early into the second quarter when Rettig connected on a well-executed, play-action pass for a 2-yard TD to Alex Amidon, who was wide open in the right corner of the end zone. Finch ran for 38 yards and Rettig hit tight end Chris Pantale for 23 on the 86-yard drive.

Beamer made what ended up being a costly decision late in the half, helping give BC enough time to march down for a 35-yard field goal by Freese with 4 seconds left in the half.

The Hokies elected to go for it on a fourth-and-3 at the Eagles' 40 and Knowles, after catching a pass, had the ball knocked out of his hands by linebacker Nick Clancy on what would have been a first down. Rettig completed consecutive passes for 26 yards total, then connected with Amidon for 16 before the Eagles had to settle for Freese's kick.

BC had taken a 3-0 lead when Freese kicked a 36-yard field goal at the end of the Eagles' first drive of the game after Spiffy Evans' 40-yard punt return gave them the possession at the Hokies' 29.

Virginia Tech tied it on the next possession on Journell's 26-yard field. The score was set up by 69-yard pass from Thomas to Corey Fuller deep down the middle on a third-and-19 from the Hokies' 10.
