LONG BEACH STATE FINISHES 2015 SEASON WITH 15-13 OVERALL RECORD

The Long Beach State men's volleyball team exceeded expectations in what was considered to be a rebuilding year in 2015. With the loss of five starters to graduation - including two-time first-team All-American and 2013 AVCA National Player of the Year Taylor Crabb - the Beach was picked to finish 10th out of 12 in the Mountain Pacific Sports Federation Preseason Coaches' Poll. The 49ers did not let that deter them, however, as they went 15-13 overall and finished seventh in the regular-season standings to advance to the MPSF Tournament for the fifth consecutive year.

Juniors Taylor Gregory and John La Rusch both received postseason honors as they garnered All-MPSF honorable mention recognition. Gregory, a 6-foot-7 middle blocker, finished the 22-match conference slate with 109 kills, 125 blocks and 12 aces. He was tops in the league with 1.54 blocks per set.

La Rusch totaled a team-best 224 kills, while also finishing with 109 digs, 47 blocks and 10 aces in MPSF action. He reached double figures in kills in 16 of 21 conference matches played, including a career-high 23 at UC Irvine. La Rusch ranked among the top-10 in the MPSF with 3.15 kills per set.

QUICK HITS

- Long Beach State was one of the top defensive teams in the country, ranking first in digs per set (10.26) and second in blocks per set (2.96).
- Junior John La Rusch reached double figures in kills in each of the last eight matches of the season.
- Junior Taylor Gregory closed out the year ranked first in the MPSF and second in the nation with 1.51 blocks per set.
- La Rusch and Gregory both garnered All-MPSF honorable mention recognition.

IN THE RANKINGS

Long Beach State remained at No. 11 in the final AVCA Men's Division I-II Poll (May 11). Loyola-Chicago, which won its second-straight national title, was the unanimous No. 1 and was followed by Lewis, UC Irvine, Penn State and Pepperdine to complete the top five.

LBSU IN THE MPSF TOURNAMENT

This is the fifth-straight year, and 20th overall, that Long Beach State qualified for the MPSF Tournament. Only the top-eight teams advance to the postseason in what is the toughest men's volleyball conference in the country. In 20 appearances, the 49ers have reached the semifinals 10 times and made five trips to the championship match.

LAST TIME OUT

No. 11 Long Beach State dropped a tough three-set decision to third-ranked University of Hawai'i, 25-19, 26-24, 27-25, in the MPSF Tournament quarterfinals at Stan Sheriff Center on Saturday, April 25.

It was the playoff atmosphere seventh-seeded LBSU expected as the No. 2 seed `Bows drew an announced crowd of 6,846. The fans were able to get behind the home team, helping them rally from an eight-point deficit in set two and a 24-20 deficit in set three.

Junior Dan Glamack led the Beach with 13 kills, while classmate John La Rusch had 10 to extend his double-digit streak to eight matches. Junior Taylor Gregory added five kills on .455 hitting (5-0-11) and sophomore Bryce Yould finished with a match-high six blocks.

Sophomore Curtis Stallings chipped in his sixth double-double of the season with 30 assists and 10 digs. Freshman Bjarne Nikolai Huus also had 10 digs.

200 AND COUNTING

In his 12 years at the helm of the Long Beach State men's volleyball program, head coach Alan Knipe has compiled an impressive 226-134 (.628) overall record. During his tenure, LBSU has earned two NCAA Championship berths and made 11 MPSF Tournament appearances, including four trips to the conference finals. Since his return to the Beach in 2013 after a leave of absence to coach the U.S. Men's National Team, Knipe has led the 49ers to a winning record each season and a mark of 57-31 (.648) over the three-year span.

ALAN KNIPE
Head Coach
12th Year

During his tenure as the head coach at Long Beach State, Alan Knipe has continued a long tradition of excellence and success associated with the 49er men's volleyball program.

Knipe, who is entering his 12th year at the helm, has led LBSU to two NCAA Final Fours, one Mountain Pacific Sports Federation regular season title and 10 MPSF Tournaments, which includes four appearances in the championship match (2004-06, 2013).

Knipe returned to Long Beach State for his 10th season in 2013 after taking a leave of absence to coach the U.S. Men's National Team. He wasted no time in getting the Beach back to the top of the tough MPSF as LBSU advanced to the finals of the conference tournament for the first time since 2006. The 49ers also tied for second in the regular season standings after being picked to finish sixth in the preseason poll. Long Beach State finished with a 24-8 overall record, marking its 16th 20-win campaign.

LBSU was rewarded for its stellar season as Taylor Crabb became the third 49er in program history to be named the AVCA National Player of the Year. Crabb also received first-team All-America honors from both the AVCA and Volleyball Magazine, while Connor Olbright was a second-team All-American. In addition, Knipe saw six of his student-athletes named to the All-MPSF Team.

Last year, Long Beach State went 18-10 overall and advanced to the quarterfinals of the MPSF Tournament. Knipe had five players earn All-MPSF honors, while Crabb was named a first-team AVCA All-American for the second year in a row.

Before his return to the Beach, Knipe was the head coach of the U.S. Men's National Team. He guided the Americans to the quarterfinals of the 2012 Olympic Games in London as they advanced to the knockout round after finishing first in Pool B, which also featured Brazil and Russia, who were ranked No. 1 and No. 2 in the world, respectively.

In Knipe's four years, the United States also qualified for the World League Finals three times (2009, 2011, and 2012). In 2012, they claimed the FIVB World League silver medal, marking their second-best finish since the World League started in 1990. In addition, the U.S. won the gold medal at the 2012 NORCECA Continental Olympic Qualification Tournament, securing their eighth-straight berth to the Olympics.

Knipe had strong ties to USA Volleyball prior to becoming the head coach of the National Team. In 2008, he coached the U.S. Men at the Pan America Cup in Winnipeg, Canada, helping the squad to a gold medal. The Americans defeated Canada, 3-1, in the finals with a team that included former 49ers Robert Tarr, Tyler Hildebrand and Paul Lotman.

In 2007, Knipe served as the head coach for the United States squad that competed at the World University Games in Bangkok, Thailand. That team, which also featured Lotman and Tarr, won the bronze medal. The U.S. lost just one match along the way, falling to eventual gold medalist, Turkey, in the semifinals. Knipe has also been the head coach and director of the USA Volleyball Development Camp.

Prior to his leave of absence, Knipe was a member of the Long Beach State men's volleyball staff for 14 years as he was an assistant coach for five seasons before taking over the program in 2001. In just his fourth year as a head coach, Knipe was named the AVCA National Coach of the Year (2004). He was also tabbed the 2008 MPSF Coach of the Year after guiding the Beach to a first-place finish during the regular season.

Knipe is the second-winningest head coach in LBSU men's volleyball history, compiling an overall record of 211-121 (.636). He also boasts an impressive 146-95 (.606) record in the MPSF - the toughest men's volleyball conference in the country.

In 2009, his final season before his three-year leave of absence, Knipe led Long Beach State to the MPSF Tournament. Dean Bittner was a first-team All-America selection, while Dustin Watten garnered second-team recognition. It was the 10th time in program history that more than one LBSU player earned AVCA All-America honors in a season. Bittner, Watten and Dan Alexander were also named to the All-MPSF team.

In 2008, with a 23-7 overall record (18-4 MPSF), Long Beach State finished in a tie for first place in the conference and secured an at-large berth to the NCAA Championships. The season marked the fourth time in a five-year span that the Beach hit the 20-win plateau. The 49ers collected numerous postseason accolades as Paul Lotman was selected as the AVCA National Player of the Year. Lotman and Dan Alexander were also first-team All-Americans, while Dean Bittner garnered second-team honors. In addition, Lotman, Alexander, Bittner and Mike Klipsch were chosen to the All-MPSF team with Klipsch being tabbed the freshman of the year.

From 2004-06, Knipe's squad consistently found itself at the top of the conference. In 2004, Long Beach State finished with a 28-7 record and advanced to the finals of both the MPSF Tournament and the NCAA Championships. A total of four players received All-America distinction, including three first-team selections - Tyler Hildebrand, Scott Touzinsky and David Lee. Jeff Wootton was also a Volleyball Magazine All-American.

In 2005, Knipe helped turn a young team into one of the best in the nation. With a record of 22-10, LBSU made it back to the title match of the MPSF Tournament. Hildebrand and Robert Tarr were both first-team AVCA All-America selections.

It was the same story in 2006 with the 49ers advancing to the MPSF Tournament finals for the third consecutive year. Long Beach State concluded the campaign at 23-10 and was ranked No. 1 in the nation for several weeks. A trio of players, Hildebrand, Tarr and Duncan Budinger, garnered both AVCA and Volleyball Magazine All-America accolades.

Overall, Knipe has produced two AVCA National Players of the Year, one AVCA Newcomer of the Year, 18 AVCA All-Americans, 13 Volleyball Magazine All-Americans and 45 All-MPSF selections.

Knipe played three years (1990-92) at Long Beach State under Ray Ratelle. He was a key member of the 49ers' 1991 national championship team. Knipe racked up 16 kills, nine digs, eight blocks and hit .636 (16-2-22) as LBSU topped USC, 3-1, in the 1991 title match in Honolulu, Hawaii. He also helped the Beach advance to the 1990 NCAA finals. Knipe received numerous honors during his collegiate career, including all-conference (first-team, 1992), All-America (first-team, 1992; second-team, 1991) and All-NCAA Tournament (1991) accolades.

Knipe continued his playing career as a member of the United States National Team from 1992-93. He also played on the Bud Light 4-Man Pro Beach Volleyball Tour and won seven USVBA National Open Championships with Team Paul Mitchell. In 1993, he was named the United States Volleyball Association Player of the Year. In 1995, Knipe played overseas for Spoleto in the Italian Pro League and in 1996 he played for the Zellik Club in Belgium.

In October 2006, Knipe was inducted into the inaugural Long Beach State Men's Volleyball Wall of Honor, which recognizes former players who represented 49er men's volleyball with unparalleled success or achievement. He was also inducted into the Long Beach State Athletics Hall of Fame in 2011.

A local product who graduated from Marina High School in Huntington Beach, Knipe spent one year at Orange Coast College before transferring to Long Beach State, where he received his bachelor's degree in speech communications in 1992.

Knipe resides with his wife, Jennifer, and their two sons, Aidan and Evan.
