OHIO STATE LACROSSE THIS WEEK

The Ohio State men's lacrosse team (5-6, 2-0 ECAC), which has won its last three games and four of its last five, hosts Air Force (8-3, 3-0 ECAC), winner of six games in a row, in its final regular season home game of 2014. The Buckeyes and Falcons will meet at 1 p.m. Saturday in Ohio Stadium.

WHAT'S AT STAKE

A win by the Buckeyes over Air Force Saturday would clinch at least a share of the ECAC regular-season title for Ohio State (2-0 ECAC), while a win by the Falcons (3-0 ECAC) would give them the outright league regular-season title. Both teams have wins over Bellarmine and Michigan, while Air Force topped Fairfield last week, 16-8. The Buckeyes wrap up the conference schedule on the road against the Stags next week.

In Columbus, Ohio State is 12-3 vs. Air Force, with a 14-4 victory over the Falcons in the 2012 Showdown in the Shoe. Last year, the Buckeyes won on the road, 10-9, their fifth win in a row vs. Air Force.

THE LAST TIME - OHIO STATE 10, AIR FORCE 9

Behind 15 saves from Greg Dutton and five-point games from Logan Schuss and Dominique Alexander, No. 12-ranked Ohio State defeated Air Force, 10-9, April 20, 2013 in Falcon Stadium. After the teams ended the first quarter tied at 4, Air Force outscored the Buckeyes 3-2 in the second quarter to carry a 7-6 lead into halftime. In the third quarter, Schuss scored three times and the Buckeyes shut out the Falcons to gain a 9-7 lead. Air Force scored early in the fourth to make it a one-goal game but Turner Evans tallied with 6:48 left for a 10-8 Buckeye advantage. Air Force again drew within one with a tally in the last minute, but Dutton stopped the final Falcon attempt and Ohio State held on for the conference win. Schuss had four goals and an assist for five points and Alexander had two goals and three assists for a career-high five-point game. Trey Wilkes won 15-of-21 faceoffs and Dutton made a career-high 15 saves in the game, including six stops in the third quarter as Ohio State pulled ahead.

A LOOK AT THE ECAC

Just two games remain in the 2014 ECAC schedule - Air Force at Ohio State Saturday and Ohio State at Fairfield the following Saturday (April 26). Air Force is in first with a 3-0 record in conference play, with Ohio State 2-0 and Fairfield 2-1 (with its loss to Air Force), with all three teams posting wins over Bellarmine and Michigan. Michigan ended its conference slate 1-3 and will be the No. 4 seed in the tournament, while Bellarmine was 0-4 and eliminated from the conference tourney. An Air Force win this week would give the Falcons the outright title, while Ohio State winning would give the Buckeyes at least a share of the crown and a chance at the outright title with a win at Fairfield.

KING NAMED TO TEWAARATON WATCH LIST

Junior Jesse King was named to the Tewaaraton Award Watch List, which includes the Top 50 players from Divisions I, II and III. The Tewaaraton Award annually honors the top male and top female college lacrosse player in the United States. The selection committees are made up of top collegiate coaches and are appointed annually by the Tewaaraton Foundation.

Players not named to the initial list have several opportunities to play their way into a spot as the season progresses. Additions will be announced March 20 and April 10. On April 24, the field will be narrowed to 25 men's and 25 women's nominees. Nominees can be players on the watch lists or players not on the watch lists, effectively allowing for a third round of additions for players who earn a spot. Five men's and five women's finalists will be announced May 8 and will be invited to the May 29 ceremony in Washington.

AT THE HELM

Nick Myers, who agreed to a five-year contract extension over the summer, is in his sixth year at the helm of the Buckeyes and as a collegiate head coach. He has a career record of 48-41 and led Ohio State to just the second NCAA quarterfinal appearance in school history a season ago. Under Myers', Ohio State has had nine players garner USILA All-America honors, 21 earn all-conference nods and five collect conference player of the year accolades. Under his tutelage, members of the lacrosse program have earned 87 Academic All-Big Ten accolades, 124 Ohio State Scholar-Athlete awards and 27 Academic All-ECAC honors, along with the first five USILA Scholar All-America selections in program history.

A native of Kennebunk, Maine, Myers is a 2001 graduate of Springfield College, where he was the 2000 NEWMAC Player of the Year and a 2001 All-American, finishing his career with 221 points (including 91 as a senior). Myers began his coaching career as the volunteer assistant coach at Ohio State in 2002 and '03 before serving as an assistant coach at Butler for two years. He returned to the Ohio State sidelines as a full-time assistant in 2006, remaining in that position for three seasons until he was named Ohio State's 13th head coach in July 2008. Myers was on staff for the Buckeyes' first NCAA tournament appearance in 2003 as well as when the squad reached the NCAA quarterfinals in 2008.

OHIO STATE 1ST IN ECAC COACHES POLL

The Ohio State men's lacrosse team was slotted first in the 2014 ECAC Lacrosse preseason poll, as voted by the conference coaches. The Buckeyes, who were 13-4 last season and reached the NCAA quarterfinals, are the defending league tournament champions.

Fairfield was second in the preseason coaches poll, followed by Air Force, Bellarmine and Michigan. The Top 4 teams in the regular-season standings earn a spot in the 2014 ECAC Tournament, which will be hosted by Ohio State May 1 and 3 at Jesse Owens Memorial Stadium in Columbus. The tournament winner receives the league's automatic berth into the NCAA tournament.
