

Following is the first complete history of 57 years of Associated Press basketball polls since the inaugural AP poll of January 20, 1949. Over the next 21 pages are statistical summaries of the polls and a year-by-year, week-by-week, team-by-team, position-by-position listing of each poll. Also included are the pre-season polls that began with the 1961-62 season. Much of the credit for this four-year compilation goes to some of the people I have had the pleasure of working with the past 22 years; the late Marvin (Skeeter) Francis, who kept the actual clipping of every poll from 1969 to 1989 in his files; Mo Lantz, Jessica Reo and Amy Farnum who during their internships visited the local library and the Greensboro News & Record microfilm rooms making copies of every poll; Barb Dery who did the actual typesetting for every poll and still managed to keep her sense of humor and to the late Dr. Harold Vigodsky, the best ever "Optostatistician" for his invaluable research in this project.

History

The AP poll originally consisted of a Top 20 team ranking from the 1949 season through the 1960 season, and interestingly enough, through the first three weeks of the 1960-61 campaign. Beginning with the first poll in January of 1961, and continuing through the end of the 1968 season, only 10 teams were ranked, with the exception of the pre-season poll of 1964-65. Starting with the pre-season poll of the 1968-69 season, the rankings returned to a Top 20 format and remained so through the end of the 1988-89 season. The AP Top 25 was introduced with the pre-season poll of 1989-90 and have continued that way through last season.

- There have been a total of 951 AP polls since the first one of Jan. 20, 1949 ... North Carolina has been listed in an NCAA-best 742 polls.

- The highest number of different teams ranked at least one week during the course of the season was 49 a year ago ... 10 of the pre-season Top 25 finished the season unranked.

- The most inaccurate pre-season picks were made in the pre-season polls of the 1990-91 & 2001-02 seasons when 14 of the pre-season Top 25 (56%) teams ended the season unranked.
