

WAKE FOREST DEMON DEACONS

A Look Back

Wake Forest finished 11-3 overall, captured its first ACC football title since 1970 with a 9-6 win over Georgia Tech in the 2006 ACC Dr. Pepper ACC Championship Football Game, and a berth in the BCS's Orange Bowl where the Demon Deacons dropped a 24-13 decision to Louisville ... the 11 wins were a school record ... ACC Rookie of the Year Riley Skinner led the ACC in passing efficiency (139.6) ... Jim Grobe was named as the National Coach of the Year by The Associated Press, Bobby Dodd Foundation, The Sporting News and the AFCA ... the Deacons set a school single-season attendance record in 2006 averaging 32,515 over six home games.

Who's Gone

The Demon Deacons lose six starters on defense including inspirational leader linebacker Jon Abbate (1st team All-ACC) and three key members of the Deacon secondary in Josh Gattis (1st team All-ACC), Riley Swanson and Patrick Ghee...Offensively, All-America offensive tackle Steve Vallos will be missed as will the top two receivers a year ago in veteran wide receivers Nate Morton and Willie Idlette who combined for 75 receptions for 1,128 yards and 7 TDs.

A Look Ahead

Coach Jim Grobe heads into his seventh season in Winston-Salem welcoming back 46 returning lettermen including 15 starters--eight of them on offense. Sophomore quarterback Riley Skinner, who threw for 2,053 yards and earned 2nd-team All-ACC honors as a freshman, returns to lead the offense. Joining him will be four returning starters on the offensive line led by first-team All-ACC center Steve Justice, versatile threat Kevin Moore, who ran for 507 yards, caught 32 passes for 314 yards and averaged 13.0 on 10 punt returns...Also returning is senior tailback Micah Andrews, who has rushed for 1,138 career yards, but missed all but the first three games of last year with a knee injury, and sophomore Kevin Harris, who started two games at tailback ...Defensively, linebackers Aaron Curry and Stanley Arnoux ranked 2nd and 4th respectively for the Deacons in tackles made...Placekicker/punter

Jim Grobe

In December 2000, Jim Grobe was hired to take over a Wake Forest football program long regarded as an afterthought in the ACC. Just six years later, he helped engineer one of the most dramatic turnarounds in NCAA history guiding the Deacons to an 11-3 record, the 2006 ACC Football Championship, and a berth in the 2007 FedEx Orange Bowl game and a No. 18 final national Associated Press ranking. For his efforts, he was honored as the National Coach of the Year by The Associated Press, The American Football Coaches Association, The Sporting News, The Bobby Dodd Coach of the Year Foundation and CBS Sportsline. Wake's 11 wins in 2006 shattered the school record of eight, and its ACC title was its first since 1970. The unanimous choice for ACC Coach of the Year, Grobe led Wake to a seven-win swing from 4-7 to 11-3, the nation's most improved team. With a record of 37-35-1 Grobe has recorded more wins at Wake Forest than all but one coach in Deacon history, passing such successful coaches as Bill Dooley, Al Groh and John Mackovic. Grobe has won 19 games against conference rivals, more than any other Deacon coach in history. That is particularly impressive given the recent ACC expansion that introduced three nationally-prominent programs to the league. The levels of excitement and expectation surrounding Demon Deacon football have reached unprecedented heights. Grobe owns an overall 70-68-1 in 12 overall seasons as a head coach. Before Grobe arrived at Wake, the Deacons went a combined 26-63 in eight previous seasons. He came to Wake Forest after turning a struggling Ohio University program into a Mid-American Conference contender. In the 10 seasons before Grobe's arrival in Athens, the Bobcats won 17 games. In the six years under Grobe, they won 33 and finished with winning records in the Mid-American Conference five straight seasons. A native of Huntington, W. Va., Grobe earned his undergraduate and Master's degrees in 1975 and 1978 from Virginia where he was a two-year starter for the Cavaliers. Grobe and his wife, Holly, have two sons, Matt and Ben.
