Numbers and Notes

2 - The number of Top 10 teams Maryland defeated in 2007. The Terps were one of only 4 teams in the country to do so. The Terps downed 10th-ranked Rutgers 34-24 and 8th-ranked Boston College, 42-35.

7 - The number of 200-yard passing games for QB Chris Turner in the 11 games he played in 2007.

16 - Number of passes defended by CB Kevin Barnes last year. Barnes intercepted 4 passes and also had 12 pass deflections.

21 - The number of tackles LB Dave Philistin made in Maryland's 28-26 win over Georgia Tech. It was the 2nd-highest amount of tackles by an ACC player last year. Philistin was named to the pre-season watch list for the Bronko Nagurski Award. The Nagurski is given annually to the nation's top defensive player.

24 - Maryland's national ranking on turnover margin, a positive .62 per game.

87 - The number of points Obi Egekeze scored last year, making all 36 PAT attempts and 17 of 23 FGs. Egekeze finished 6th in the ACC in scoring.

786 - The number of receiving yards WR Darrius Heyward-Bey totalled last year, averaging 15.4 yards a catch. He has accounted for 1,480 receiving yards in just two years of play.

Ralph Friedgen Head Coach

Heading into his eighth season as Maryland's Head Coach, Ralph Friedgen holds the distinction of being the first coach in Atlantic Coast Conference history to lead a team to three-straight seasons of 10 wins or more in his first three seasons as a head coach at the Division I level. Named the consensus national Coach of the Year in 2001 after leading Maryland to its first ACC title since 1985, Friedgen has developed a reputation as one of the top coaches in the game. Friedgen continues to build a new level of pride at his alma mater, guiding the Terps to a 56-31 record and five bowl appearances - including three decisive wins - in his seven seasons as a collegiate head coach. Last year, Friedgen's Terrapins upset a pair of Top Ten teams in defeating 10th-ranked Rutgers and 8th-ranked Boston College en route to a second straight bowl appearance. In his first season as the Terps' grid boss, Maryland won its first seven games and eventually halted Florida State's reign as perennial ACC Champion, earning the league's automatic berth in the Bowl Championship Series. In 2002, the Terps made their way back to a major bowl game, winning 10 of their last 11 games and finishing in a tie for second in the ACC. The 2003 campaign provided a bit of déjà vu for Friedgen and the Terrapins as they again started 1-2, and again ran off 10 wins in their final 11 games to earn a second New Year's bowl bid. In 2006, the Terrapins posted a nine-win campaign--the fourth time Friedgen's Maryland teams have won at least nine games--topped off by a decisive 24-7 over Purdue in the Champs Sports Bowl. In addition to amassing tremendous team success, Friedgen has also helped develop some of the league's most talented athletes, including Jim Tatum Award recipient Nick Novak, who became the ACC's all-time leading scorer in 2004. Prior to returning to his alma mater, Friedgen was a long-time successful assistant coach at Georgia Tech, where he was credited with overseeing one of the nation's most potent offensive attacks. Named the winner of the Frank Broyles Award as the top assistant coach in the country in 1999 while at Tech, Friedgen brought 32 years of assistant coaching experience - including 21 seasons as an offensive coordinator either in college or the NFL - with him in his return to College Park.
