Frank Beamer

Frank Beamer enters his 18th season at Virginia Tech and his 24th year as a collegiate head coach ranked fourth among active Division I-A coaches in victories with 167. His Tech teams have posted a 101-33 (.754) record over the past 11 seasons and have appeared in a bowl game during that span, a feat equaled by just six other schools. Beamer guided the Hokies to three Big East conference championships and in 1999 coached Tech to the national championship game against Florida State. Beamer's Hokies have earned the highest national rankings in the program's history, spending 57 weeks in the top 10 of the Associated Press poll over the last five seasons. During one stretch that ended last season, Tech was ranked in 84 consecutive AP polls. For his part in the Hokies' title run in 1999, Beamer earned eight national Coach of the Year awards. He also was named the Big East Conference Coach of the Year for the third time. When Big East Conference football celebrated its first 10 years of existence in 2000, Beamer was voted the Coach of the Decade by the league's media. Following consecutive 10-2 seasons in 1995 and 1996, Beamer was voted Big East Conference Coach of the Year by the league coaches. He was one of five finalists in the voting for the 1995 National Coach of the Year. Beamer's overall record at Tech now stands at 125-74-2. Counting six years as head coach at Murray State prior to joining the Hokies, Beamer's overall 23-year record is 167-97-4. The 57-year-old Beamer, first alumnus to guide the Hokies since the 1940s, took over the Tech reins from Bill Dooley in January 1987. During his undergraduate days at Virginia Tech, Beamer started three years as a cornerback and played on the Hokies' 1966 and 1968 Liberty Bowl teams. He received a B.S. in distributive education from Tech in 1969 and a master's in guidance from Radford in 1972. Beamer began his coaching career as an assistant at Radford High School from 1969 through 1971. Then, after one season as a graduate assistant at the University of Maryland, he went to The Citadel where he worked five seasons under Bobby Ross and one year under Art Baker. His last two years at The Citadel, Beamer was the defensive coordinator. In 1979, Beamer went to Murray State as the defensive coordinator under Mike Gottfried. He was named head coach at Murray State in 1981.
