2011 ACC HONORS

Maryland leads honorees for 2010-11 Wrestling season

Asper voted Wrestler of Year; McCoy Coach of Year; Myers, VT's Carter top freshmen

GREENSBORO, N.C. -- The Maryland Terrapins, who captured their 23rd Atlantic Coast Conference title and recorded a top-20 finish at last week's NCAA Championship, earned the bulk of 2010-11 postseason honors in voting among the league's six head coaches.

Sophomore 165-pounder Josh Asper was recognized as the ACC Wrestler of the Year, while Maryland heavyweight Spencer Myers and Virginia Tech's 133-pound Devin Carter were voted Co-Freshmen of the Year. Kerry McCoy was voted ACC Coach of the Year for the second time in his three years at the Maryland helm.

Asper, a native of Parkton, Md., placed sixth in the NCAA Championships and was one of three Terps to claim All-America honors. For the season, Asper posted a 35-5 record, including a 19-0 mark in dual matches. After going a perfect 5-0 during the regular season against ACC competition, the nationally fourth-ranked Asper recorded a first-place finish in his weight class at the ACC Wrestling Championship earlier this month at Charlottesville, Va.

Myers joined Asper in earning a sixth-place weight class finish and All-America recognition at the NCAAs. The freshman from Selinsgrove, Pa., finished his first collegiate year with a 30-13 record. Myers was 11-6 in dual matches and posted a 3-1 record vs. conference opposition before winning the heavyweight title at the ACC Championship to earn an automatic NCAA berth.

Virginia Tech's Carter made an immediate impact as a freshman, finishing the year at 35-7 overall, including a 21-3 dual match record. After going unbeaten against five conference foes in regular-season matches, Carter was ranked ninth nationally in his weight class and captured the 133-pound title at the ACC Championship. The Christiansburg, Va., native then won three of five matches while reaching the round of 12 at the NCAA Championships.

McCoy, who took over as Maryland head coach prior to the 2008-09 season, guided the Terps to a 16-4 regular-season record that included 12 wins in their final 13 dual matches. Maryland then captured the ACC Championship for the third time in four years, amassing 94.5 points and claiming five individual titles. The Terps posted an 18th-place finish in the NCAAs behind Asper, Myers and senior 174-pounder Mike Letts, who became the second Maryland trio in McCoy's three years to achieve All-America status.

Terrapins capture their 23rd ACC Wrestling Championship

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. -- For the third time in four seasons, the Maryland Terrapins own the Atlantic Coast Conference Wrestling Championship.

The Terps triumphed in five of the six weight class finals in which they competed March 5 to break open a tight battle with ACC regular-season champion Virginia Tech and finish atop the 2011 field. A crowd of 1,986 at the University of Virginia's John Paul Jones Arena watched the Terps claim their second title under head coach Kerry McCoy and their ACC-leading 23rd wrestling championship in school history.

Maryland's 15h-ranked Mike Letts was voted the 57th-annual event's Most Valuable Wrestler after capturing his third career title at 174 pounds. Letts won a showdown with fourth-ranked and two-time All-American and defending weight class champion Chris Henrich by a 4-2 score in a match that keyed the Terps' fast finish.

Maryland finished with 94.5 team points, followed by Virginia Tech with 82.5, Virginia with 69, North Carolina with 37, NC State with 34.5 and Duke with nine.

In addition to Letts' key victory, Maryland received winning efforts in the finals from Jon Kohler at 141 pounds, Josh Asper at 165, Corey Peltier at 184 and Spencer Myers at heavyweight.

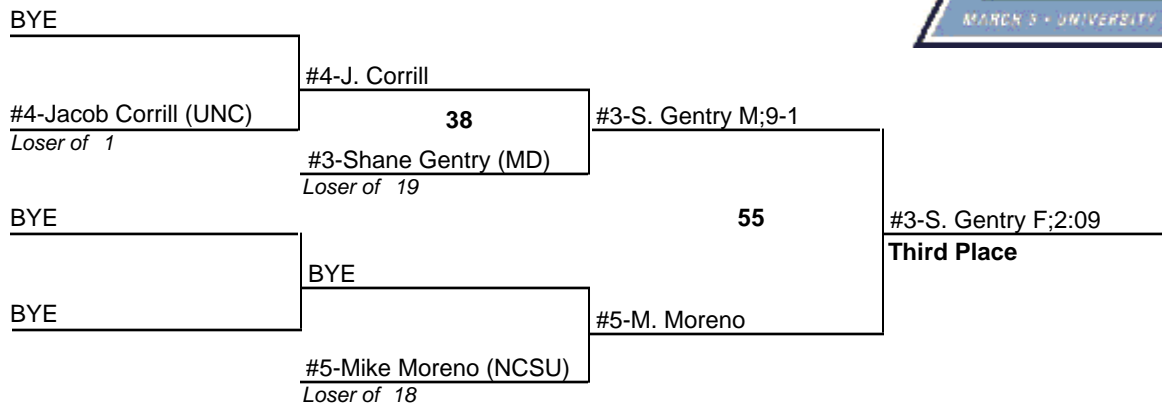

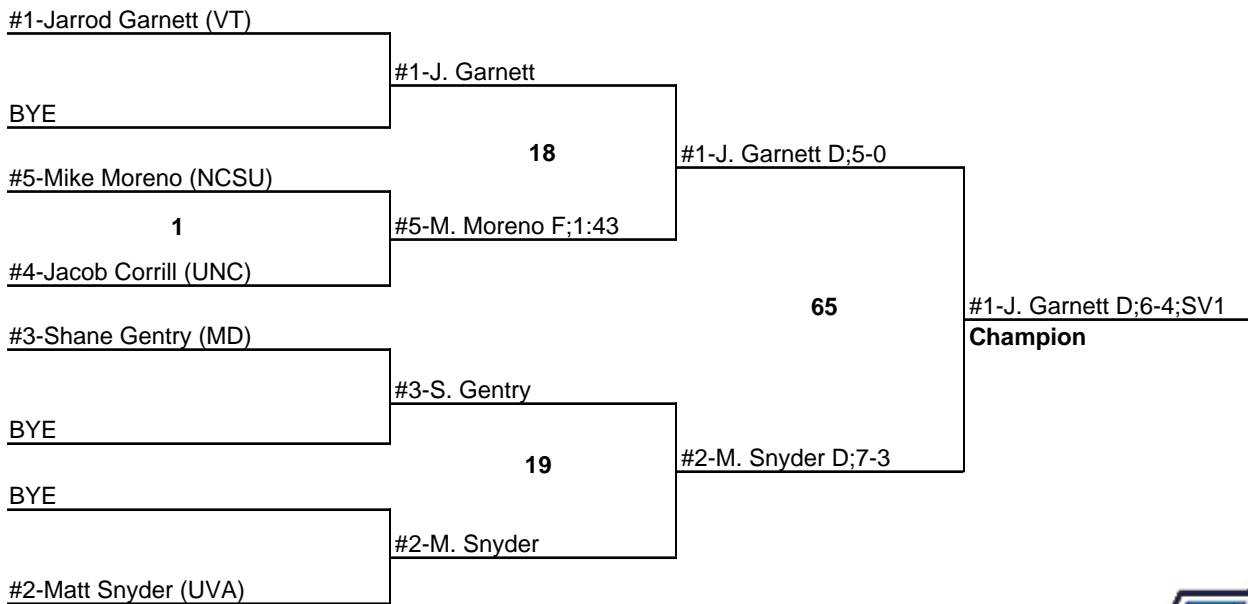

After a one-year absence due to taking a medical redshirt year in 2010, NC State All-American Darrion Caldwell became the sixth wrestler to claim four ACC titles with a 6-3 win over Virginia's Derek Valenti at 149. The top-ranked Caldwell, the 2009 NCAA champion, fought off a tough challenge from Valenti and a third-period injury timeout for a 5-3 lead on a takedown with just two seconds left in regulation. Valenti had tied the match at 3-3 with 14 seconds remaining, when Caldwell was called for stalling.

A key swing came in the 165-pound weight class, where the Terps' top-seeded Asper turned back Virginia Tech's second-seeded Pete Yates with a 9-3 victory that put Maryland in front to stay.
