1978 - Maryland's TARA HEISS was named the first ACC Tournament MVP in 1978 after leading the Terrapins to an 89-82 victory over NC State. Heiss scored a game-high 30 points in the championship contest and totaled 60 points for the inaugural event.

1979 - KRIS KIRCHNER earned the MVP award after leading the Terps to their second-straight ACC Title. Kirchner recorded a double-double performance of 24 points and 10 rebounds against NC State in the title bout that led her to MVP recognition.

1980 - GENIA BEASLEY was named MVP of the 1980 ACC Tournament after scoring 28 points and grabbing nine rebounds against Maryland in the championship contest. It was the first ACC Championship for the Wolfpack.

1981 & 1982 - BARBARA KENNEDY was the first player in ACC history to be named MVP when her team did not play in the championship. In '81, she had an amazing 21 rebounds and 30 points in the first round and followed that with a 30-point, seven-rebound performance in the semifinals. In '82, Kennedy led Clemson to the title game where she earned co-MVP honors, totaling 88 points and 29 boards for the tournament.

1982 - MARCIA RICHARDSON was a member of three ACC Championship teams for Maryland, earning co-MVP honors in 1982. Richardson scored a team-high 22 points in the championship contest, leading Maryland to a 93-81 victory. She totaled 49 points in three games for the Terps that year in Raleigh, N.C.

1983 - NC State's LINDA PAGE set an ACC Tournament record in 1983, scoring 100 points in three games. Most impressive, however, was her semifinal performance against Clemson. In that contest, Page set a single-game scoring record that still stands with 42 points on 13-of-22 shooting from the floor and 16-of-18 from the line.

1983 - JASMINA PERAZIC earned co-MVP honors for Maryland as she led the Terps to their third-straight title in 1983. She totaled 55 points, including 16 in the championship. Even more impressive was her field goal percentage of .604 for the tournament.

1984 - TRESA BROWN became the first player in North Carolina history to earn ACC Tournament MVP honors. Brown led the Tar Heels to their first ACC Title chipping in 32 points on 14-of-20 shooting from the floor in the championship game, totaling 75 points for the tournament.

1985 - DAWN ROYSTER earned ACC Tournament MVP honors in 1985, even though her Tar Heel team lost a tough 81-80 contest to NC State in the finals. Royster led all scorers with 23 points in the title match. Royster put in a total of 70 points and pulled down 36 boards for the tournament, averaging a double-double.

1986 & 1988 - Maryland's DEANNA TATE became just the second two-time MVP award winner in conference history, winning the honor in 1986 and '88. Tate poured in 32 points in the '86 championship game and 20 in '88. She totaled 77 points in the '86 tournament and 62 in '88, and still owns the record for most steals in a tournament with 14 in 1988.

1987 - DONNA HOLT earned ACC Tournament MVP honors in 1987. Holt's outstanding performance began in the first round where she had 27 points and a tournament total of 44.

1989 - VICKY BULLETT put together an incredible tournament in 1989, earning MVP honors. Bullett led Maryland's rebounding efforts in each game, averaging 12.3 for the tournament. Most impressive was Bullett's 21-point, 13-rebound performance in the championship contest.

1990 - NC State's ANDREA STINSON had an incredible tournament in 1990. She poured in 76 points and pulled down 29 rebounds, helping lead the Wolfpack to the championship. Stinson ranks first all-time at NC State in career scoring average with a 22.7 mark.

1991 - NC State won its first title since '87 and its fourth overall in '91 as SHARON MANNING put together an incredible 31-point, 19-rebound performance in the championship contest, leading the Pack to an 84-61 victory over Clemson in the final tournament held in Fayetteville, N.C.

1992 - Two-time ACC Player of the Year DAWN STALEY helped lead the Cavaliers to two ACC Tournament titles during her career. In 1992, she earned MVP accolades after scoring a game-high 24 points in Uva's 70-69 win over Georgia Tech. She put together 41 points for the tournament and went on to earn National Player of the Year honors twice.

1993 - DENA EVANS was named ACC Tournament MVP after one of the most memorable championship games in ACC history. Evans scored 19 points for Virginia to lead the Cavaliers to a 106-103 win in the only triple overtime game in ACC Tournament history, marking the Cavaliers' second-straight title.

1994 & 1995 - North Carolina's CHARLOTTE SMITH averaged 21 points and nine rebounds in '94 to earn MVP honors. She then increased those numbers to 23.3 points and 11.0 boards a game to be named MVP for the second-straight season in 1995.

1996 - Clemson won its first ACC Title in 1996, led by the efforts of LAURA COTTRELL. Cottrell averaged 12.3 rebounds over three games. She had a double-double in the title bout against Duke with 12 points and 10 boards.

1997 - North Carolina won its third ACC Title in four years in 1997, much to the credit of superstar MARION JONES. Jones put together back-to-back games of 23 points in the semifinals and finals and led the Tar Heels to a 62-58 win over Clemson.

1998 - TRACY REID began UNC's 1998 title run with a 31-point, 12-rebound performance in the quarterfinals. Reid went on to post a double-double in each game and average 21.0 points and 11.0 rebounds during three games in Charlotte, N.C.

1999 - Clemson's ITORO UMOH earned ACC Tournament MVP honors in 1999 after the Tigers defeated North Carolina, 87-72, in the championship game in Charlotte, N.C. Umo scored a game-high 26 points in the finals on 8-of-13 shooting from the floor and an impressive 8-of-10 from the line.

2000 - North Carolina's NIKKI TEASLEY earned the new millennium's first MVP honor. After scoring just six points in the quarterfinals, Teasley went on to score 17 in the semis and an impressive 31 in the finals to lead the Heels. Her effort was not enough, though, as UNC fell to Duke by a 79-76 count.

2001 - GEORGIA SCHWEITZER earned the first MVP honor in Duke history in 2001 as she led the Blue Devils to their second-straight ACC Championship in the form of a 57-45 victory over NC State. Schweitzer scored 61 points in the tournament to help Duke remain undefeated in the Greensboro Coliseum.

2002 - MONIQUE CURRIE earned the final slot on the Silver Anniversary team as she led the Blue Devils to their third-straight ACC Title in her freshman campaign. She averaged 16.3 points per game in the tournament, including a game-high 30 against North Carolina in the finals.
