The John Paul Jones Arena, home of the Virginia men's and women's basketball programs, first opened its doors Aug. 1, 2006. The Cavaliers marked the beginning of their first season in the arena with a pair of victories. The JPJA, which turned one year old this summer, has garnered the attention of University sports fans, concertgoers and performers from across the nation. In the first game of the Nov. 12 double-header, the Virginia women's team beat Old Dominion University, 92-72, in a game head coach Debbie Ryan called one of the season's most memorable.
