The Hurricanes return three of five starters from a team that posted an overall record of 22-7 in 2003-04 ... junior forward Tamara James returns as Miami's leading scorer ... entering her 17th season at the helm of the Miami women's basketball program, Head Coach Ferne Labati needs just 10 wins to reach 300 on her career at UM ... the 2003-04 season will also mark a milestone year for Labati as she becomes the first head basketball coach, men's or women's, to coach in three conferences while at Miami, coaching in the New South Women's Athletic Conference (1990-91), the Big East (1991-2003) and the Atlantic Coast Conference (2003-04).

MIAMI HEAD COACH FERNE LABATI

Ferne Labati has guided the University of Miami women's basketball program for the past 16 seasons ... Highlighting her 16 seasons are nine berths in postseason play, six in the NCAA tournament and three in the Women's NIT ... The Hurricanes won back-to-back BIG EAST regular season and tournament titles in 1992 and 1993, while finishing as high as No. 6 nationally ... Her 1996 squad earned a share of the BIG EAST 7 division title ... Labati herself was named WBCA/Converse Coach of the Year and BIG EAST Coach of the Year in 1992, while top player Frances Savage was Sports Illustrated's national player of the year ... Labati's record at Miami stands at 290-179 (.618) while her overall record in 26 previous seasons as a head coach is 404-294 (.586) ... Labati won her 400th career victory with a win over St. John's on Feb. 8, 2003 ... Labati became the 39th Division I head coach to reach the 400-win mark ... Having taken both Trenton State College and Fairleigh Dickinson University from sub-.500 seasons to postseason playoff berths before she arrived in Coral Gables, Labati has proven time and time again that she possesses the tools of a fine administrator, coach and recruiter ... Prior to Miami, Labati served as head coach of FDU for four years (1984-88) ... Labati first coached at Trenton State (1979-84), leading Trenton State College to the Division III Eastern Regional Championships in 1982 and 1984 ... She was tabbed the 1983-84 Coach of the Year by the Philadelphia-area sportswriters and In 1981, The New Jersey Sportswriters named her Coach of the Year ... Labati is the past president of the New Jersey Basketball Coaches Association (1986) and formally served as a voting member of the USA Today Top 25 Coaches' Poll ... Her coaching career began at Eastern High School in New Jersey, where she coached for five years ... Labati then went on to Deptford (NJ) High School prior to joining the college ranks as an assistant at then-national power Immaculata (PA) College for two seasons (1976-78).
