9. Tennessee	29
10. Washington	25
11. Harvard	19
12. Notre Dame	13

• The second-place finish equaled Virginia's best finish at the NCAA Championship. It marked the second time in the last three years and the third all-time the Cavaliers finished runner-up in the team standings. UVA also finished second in 1999 and 2005.

• In the final event of the NCAA Championship, Brown finished just under two seconds ahead of Virginia to place fourth in the varsity eight Grand Final and clinch the national team championship title.

• The Cavaliers won the varsity four event for the third time in the last four years, having also won in 2004 and 2005. UVA's V4 boat was comprised of Chrissie Monaghan, Amanda Chase, Rebecca Ryall, Mindy Fiesler and coxswain Mary Eddy.

• Virginia and Brown were the only two schools to advance three boats to the NCAA finals. The Cavs finished in the top five in all three of their events, with the V4 crew taking first place. UVA's first varsity eight placed fifth, while the second varsity eight rounded out at fourth.

• The 2007 NCAA Championship was the 11th national rowing event with Virginia having competed in 10 of the 11. UVA has posted a top seven showing at each of the 10 events it competed in in the team competition.

Raycom Sports, Lincoln Financial Sports and Turner Broadcasting System, in partnership with The Atlantic Coast Conference, will offer online video streaming of ACC conference sports during the 2006-2007 school year. The new broadband network called ACCSelect will primarily stream sports that are not available through traditional broadcast and cable television distribution. The entire conference package will be available at www.acselect.com to viewers with a broadband internet connection. Each of the 12 ACC schools will have events available on the new service.

Log onto www.ACCSelect.com for a complete details.
