Seminoles claim first ACC Championship

CARY, N.C. - The series of firsts continued for Florida State (14-6-1) on Nov. 6 as the Seminoles captured their first ACC title by downing fifth-seeded Wake Forest (14-3-4) 3-1 in penalty kicks.

The ACC title came after FSU became the first team in league history to defeat North Carolina in the tournament and then beat Virginia for the first time in school history in the semifinals on Nov. 4. As the sixth-seed, the Seminoles became the lowest seeded team to win the league title since last year, when Wake Forest won the championship as the fifth-seed. The championship for the Seminoles was their first in six title appearances.

"We're obviously thrilled to come up here and walk away with a championship," said head coach Mark Krikorian. "Wake Forest is obviously a very good team. We battled hard. We were resilient. We kept finding a way to neutralize."

Seminole goalkeeper Kelsey Wys was named the Tournament MVP after stopping three Wake Forest penalty kicks. Wake Forest finished the game out shooting Florida State 11-8 and 4-3 in the overtime periods. Wys collected four saves in 110 minutes of action.

ACC COACHES PRESEASON POLL

North Carolina was the preseason favorite to claim the 2011 Atlantic Coast Conference Women's Soccer Championship, according to a vote of the league's 11 head coaches.

The Tar Heels, who entered the season with an ACC-record 21 previous conference titles, were listed first on seven coaches' ballots. Florida State received the other four first-place votes and finished a close second. Boston College, which represented the ACC in the 2010 Women's College Cup, placed third.

Five other teams that participated in the 2010 NCAA Tournament followed in the voting. Virginia was picked fourth, followed by Maryland, Duke, defending ACC champion Wake Forest and Virginia Tech. NC State placed ninth, followed by Miami and Clemson.

The ACC entered this year hoping to improve on the success of a 2010 season that saw a league-record tying eight teams receive NCAA Tournament berths and record 14 postseason wins. Five of those teams reached at least the final 16 of the NCAA tourney and five – Boston College, North Carolina, Florida State, Virginia and Maryland – were ranked among the nation's top 10 in both the final NSCAA and Soccer Times polls. With Boston College advancing to play in the 2010 College Cup, the ACC has placed at least one team among the final four of the NCAA Women's Soccer Championship in 28 of the 29 years the event has been held.

In the fall of 2011, ACC teams returned 18 student-athletes who earned first- or second-team All-ACC honors in 2010, including Defensive Player of the Year Crystal Dunn of North Carolina and Freshman of the Year Katie Stengel of Wake Forest. In addition, 2009 ACC Offensive Player of the Year Tiffany McCarty of Florida State returned after taking a redshirt year in 2010 due to injury.

Five ACC teams were listed among the top 10 of the 2011 NSCAA preseason rankings – North Carolina at No. 3, Boston College at No. 4, Florida State at No. 5, Maryland at No. 6 and Virginia at No. 10. Wake Forest was ranked 18th, and Duke received votes.
