ACROSS THE NET: NOTING THE ACC

Duke captures NCAA crown; Mallory Cecil claims singles

DUKE OFFICE OF SPORTS INFORMATION

COLLEGE STATION, Texas—Duke University seniors Melissa Mang and Jessi Robinson earned singles victories within minutes of each other to lead the Blue Devils to a 4-0 sweep of No. 8 California in the NCAA Women's Tennis National Championship match. Duke captures its first national title in women's tennis and 10th overall national trophy in school history.

Sophomore Reka Zsilinszka was selected as the NCAA Tournament Most Valuable Player. Junior Amanda Granson and Mang joined her on the all-tournament team at the No. 4 and No. 5 singles spots.

"It's unbelievable," Robinson said. "I don't even have any words to describe the feeling. I love these girls and it's an amazing feeling."

"It hasn't quite sunk in yet, but it's unbelievable," Mang said. "I'm just so proud of these girls. To win this with Jess [Robinson] in our senior year is amazing. I could not ask for anything better."

Duke turned in its 18th consecutive win and 29th victory of the season in the title match to close out a memorable NCAA Tournament run. The third-seeded Blue Devils' 29 wins is the second most in program history, while its 18-match win streak to close out the year also ranks second.

"[This team] is unbelievably resilient," head coach Jamie

Ashworth said. "I'm so proud of them. I couldn't ask for more out of these girls. We grinded out most of the year with six players and you can't ask for anything more than what they gave every single day at practice and matches."

Cecil brings home title

Duke freshman Mallory Cecil capped off her stellar rookie season today, defeating Miami's Laura Vallverdu 7-5, 6-4 to win the NCAA Women's Tennis Singles Championship. Cecil is the second player in Duke women's tennis history to win the NCAA individual crown and just the fifth in ACC history.

Cecil becomes just the 14th women's tennis player in NCAA history and first in ACC history to win both a team national title and individual crown in the same season and the first to do so since 2004. She is the seventh freshman in NCAA history to take home the title with the most recent coming in 2005. Vanessa Webb captured the individual championship for Duke in 1998.

Cecil wins Honda Award; 13 from ACC named A-A

Duke freshman Mallory Cecil, fresh off the 2009 NCAA women's singles championship, has been named this year's Honda Award winner for women's tennis, as well as he ITA Player of the Year.

The Spartanburg, S.C., native, is now one of 10 candidates for the Honda-Broderick Cup awarded annually to the Collegiate Woman Athlete of the Year. The winner will be announced on June 22.

"It was such a great surprise to find out I had won the Honda Sports Award," Cecil said. "It just adds to the tremendous season we've had. Even though I started as a freshman in January, all the girls on the team and my coaches made me feel at home right from the start – just like I'd been here forever. Duke is a wonderful environment both academically and athletically and I'm really looking forward to the next four years."

Cecil is the second Duke women's tennis player to capture the award. Vanessa Webb took home the honor in 1998 after winning the NCAA individual title.

Named the ACC and ITA Southeast Region Rookie of the Year, Cecil joined the Blue Devils in January and quickly climbed her way to the top of the singles lineup. Cecil compiled an impressive 32-4 record.

Cecil is also one of 13 ACC women's tennis players to be named 2009 All-America by ITA. Other selections from the conference included Josipa Bek (singles, doubles), Ina Hadziselimovic (doubles), Ani Mijacika (singles, doubles) and Keri Wong (doubles) of Clemson; Duke's Ella Nze (singles) and Reka Zsilinszka (singles); Georgia Tech's Irina Falconi (singles); Miami's Julia Cohen (singles), Bianca Eichkorn (singles) and Laura Vallverdu (singles); North Carolina's Sophia Grabinski (doubles) and Sanaz Marand (singles, doubles).

Raycom Sports and the Atlantic Coast Conference, in partnership with CBS College Sports, will offer online video streaming of ACC sports during the 2008-09 academic year. The broadband network, called ACC Select, will primarily stream sports that are not available through traditional broadcast and cable television distribution. The entire conference package will be available at ACCSelect.com to viewers with a broadband internet connection. Each of the 12 ACC schools will have events available on the service. Please see the schedule (right) for matches that have been listed to date and go to www.ACCSelect.com for complete details.
