LAST SEASON AT MW TOURNAMENT

Air Force vs. Colorado State (March 9, 2017)

Colorado State senior guard Gian Clavell scored 30 points to lead second-seeded Colorado State to an 81-55 victory over No. 10 seed Air Force in Thursday's quarterfinal round. Also scoring in double figures for the Rams were Prentiss Nixon with 15, Emmanuel Omogbo with 12 and Nico Carvacho, who had 10 points and led the team with nine rebounds. After trading buckets over the first six minutes of the contest, and falling behind 16-12 early, the Rams went to work, paced by Clavell and sophomore Braden Koelliker. The pair combined to score the game's next 11 points, pushing Colorado State ahead by seven, 23-16. Air Force wasn't done, though, and used an 8-0 run to move ahead 24-19. It would be the last lead the Falcons would see, as Colorado State closed the first half on a 16-2 run and take a 39-26 lead into halftime.

The Rams surged to a 20-point lead over the first three minutes of the second half, 46-26. The Falcons did their best to stay with Colorado State, which had the league's second-best scoring defense during the regular season, but Clavell was clearly on a mission. During a span of 6:23, the 6-foot-4 shooting guard from Puerto Rico scored 14 of Colorado State's 20 points, as the Rams maintained their 20-point lead, and eventually extended it to 28, with 9:23 left in the game, at 69-41. The Rams' lead swelled to 30 at one point. Hayden Graham led the Falcons with 15 points, while Lavelle Scottie contributed with 12.

Air Force vs. Wyoming (March 8, 2018)

Air Force held No. 7 seed Wyoming scoreless over the first 9:36 to open a 25-0 lead, and cruised to an 83-68 victory Wednesday. The Jacob Van led four Falcons in double figures, with 18 points, including 10 of 10 from the free throw line. Hayden Graham had 15 points and six rebounds, Lavelle Scottie added 13 points and Frank Toohey had 11 points and nine rebounds for Air Force. Air Force forced seven turnovers and got balanced scoring, with six different Falcons scoring during the run. Air Force's 25-0 run to start the game tied a Mountain West tournament record, set by Boise State against San Jose State in 2014. The Falcons' 48 first-half points were the most they scored in a tournament half, eclipsing their previous high of 40. Air Force is the lowest seed to advance to the quarterfinals, while it marks the first Mountain West tournament win by a 10-seed in four attempts. The Falcons won away from Colorado Springs for the first time since a Dec. 19, 2015 victory at UC Davis (67-60), snapping a streak of 23 consecutive losses away from home. Wyoming's 27 first-half points were its second-lowest for the first half, and third-lowest for either half this season. The Cowboys shot just 8 of 25 (32 percent) from the field over the first 20 minutes, and 22 of 54 (40.7 percent) for the game.

to head coach. Pilipovich completed the rest of the 2011-12 season. This season marks his 11th overall at the Academy. Pilipovich has led the Falcons to a 84-112 record.

After taking over the program, Pilipovich won two of his first three games as head coach, including a come-from-behind 58-53 win at Wyoming in his first road game. He then led his team to one of the biggest victories in program history with a 58-56 triumph over 13th-ranked San Diego State at Clune Arena, marking Air Force's first-ever win over a Top 20 team.

In 2012-13, his first full season as head coach, Pilipovich led the Falcons to an 18-14 overall record, tying the fourth-most wins in one season in program history. He also became the first Air Force head coach to beat two ranked teams in the same season and owns three of AFA's four wins against ranked opponents, including an 89-88 regular-season finale victory over No. 12 New Mexico, the highest ranked opponent ever defeated by Air Force. He also coached Air Force to its first-ever postseason road win with a 69-65 victory at Hawai'i in the first round of the CollegeInsider.com Tournament.

Pilipovich's tenure at the Academy is already one of the most successful. He is one of two coaches in school history to post multiple conference home winning records in a season, accomplishing it in 2013 and last season. He has led the program to more six-win conference seasons, three from 2013-15, than any other coach. Only two others have accomplished two seasons with six or more wins.

In his nearly five seasons as an assistant coach, Pilipovich helped the Falcons earn their first trip to the postseason since 2007 with an appearance in the CollegeInsider.com Tournament following the 2010 campaign and snap a 16-game losing streak in conference tournament play in 2009. In his first season at Air Force (2007-08), the Falcons finished fifth in the Mountain West Conference after being picked eighth in the preseason media and coaches poll, the greatest margin between predicted and actual finish in the league that season. He also helped Tim Anderson earn the conference's Defensive Player of the Year award that campaign.

Prior to joining the Falcons, Pilipovich spent two years with the University of Michigan basketball program. In his first season with the Wolverines, he served as the administrative assistant to head coach Tommy Amaker and helped the Wolverines to the two NIT appearances, including an NIT final, then was an assistant coach during the 2006-07 campaign.

Pilipovich has 32 years of coaching experience. He served as an assistant coach at Eastern Michigan for five years (2000-05) prior to joining the Michigan staff. Before his stint at EMU, he served four years as an assistant coach at Robert Morris (1996-2000), two years an assistant coach at Georgia State (1994-96) and two years as the assistant head coach at Florida Atlantic (1989-91) before being named associate head coach the following four years (1991-94).

Pilipovich began his coaching career serving as a graduate assistant at California University (Pa.) for two years (1986-88), before being named as an assistant coach for one season.

A 1986 graduate of Thiel College in Greenville, Pa., with a degree in business administration, Pilipovich earned four varsity basketball letters and served as team captain during his senior season. He earned his master's degree from California (Pa.) in 1988 in geography and regional planning. He is an active member of the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) and has served on the NABC Assistant Coaches Committee.

Pilipovich and his wife, Kelly, have a son, Kyle, and a daughter, Kelsey.
