Saturday ♦ Sept. 1 ♦ 12 p.m. Mountain ♦ Falcon Stadium (46,692) ♦ USAFA, CO

Television

The Air Force-South Carolina State football game will be carried on the Mountain Sports Network (Mtn.). James Bates (play-by-play), Todd Christiansen (color) and Anne-Marie Anderson (sideline) will call the action. Air Force is 2-3 all-time in games played on the network.

Radio

KVOR AM 740 in Colorado Springs. KVOR's Jim Arthur (play-by-play) and News First 5/30's Lee Douglas (color) call the action. They are joined for the pre- and post-game shows by Jay Ritchie.

Last Year

This week is the season opener for both Air Force and South Carolina State. Air Force had a 4-8 record in 2006, finishing tied for sixth in the Mountain West Conference with a 3-5 conference mark. The Falcons return 10 starters from last year, four on offense and six on defense.

South Carolina State had a 7-4 mark in 2006, finishing tied for second in the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC) with a 6-2 conference record. S.C. State plays in the Football Championship Subdivision (Formerly NCAA Division I-AA). The Bulldogs return 12 starters from last year, five on offense and six on defense.

Last Meeting

This is the first-ever meeting between the two schools.

Streaks

Air Force has a four-game losing streak.

South Carolina State has a three game-winning streak.

Coaches

Air Force is coached by Troy Calhoun (USAFA, 1989), who is in his first season.

S.C. State is coached by Oliver "Buddy" Pough (S.C. State, 1975), who is in his sixth season. He has led the Bulldogs to a 40-17 career record.

A New Era At Air Force

The 2007 season ushers in a new era of Air Force football with Troy Calhoun taking over for the legendary Fisher DeBerry as head coach. DeBerry retired in December after 23 years at the helm. Calhoun, a 1989 Academy graduate, takes over as the sixth coach in school history and first graduate to lead the program.

Calhoun returns to the Academy after serving as the Houston Texans' offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach last season. Texans head coach Gary Kubiak brought Calhoun along with him from the Denver Broncos where he served as the assistant to the head coach in 2005.

Calhoun had become a well-rounded NFL coach, working as a defensive assistant, special teams assistant and offensive assistant with the Denver Broncos prior to last season.

Prior to the NFL, Calhoun was an offensive coordinator for six seasons on the collegiate level. He began his coaching career at Air Force where he worked as a graduate assistant from 1989-90. He started at quarterback for the Air Force Academy in 1986 and was a four-year letterwinner. He was one of only two freshmen to letter for the 1985 team that finished fifth in the final polls with a 12-1 record. Calhoun served his country from 1989-95 as an active duty officer in the Air Force. He was the Falcons' recruiting coordinator and the junior varsity offensive coordinator in 1993-94. He moved to Ohio University in 1995 where he served as the quarterbacks coach for two seasons. Calhoun was promoted to offensive coordinator in 1997. He moved to Wake Forest in 2001 as offensive coordinator.

Ties To South Carolina

- Junior safety Boston McClain is the lone Falcon from South Carolina. McClain is a native of Columbia and attended Ridge View HS.
 - Former Falcon head coach Fisher DeBerry is a native of Cheraw, S.C. and a 1960 graduate of Wofford College, located in Spartanburg, S.C.

Air Force vs. MEAC

Air Force is playing its first-ever game against a Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference opponent.

Air Force vs. The Football Championship Subdivision

South Carolina State is the 12th Football Championship Subdivision (Formerly NCAA Division I-AA) that Air Force has played. The Falcons are 11-0 in the previous meetings vs. Championship Subdivision foes.

Air Force in Season Openers

Air Force is 30-19-2 overall in season openers. Last year, the Falcons lost a 31-30 thriller at #11/17 ranked Tennessee in front of an Air Force record crowd of 105,466 at Neyland Stadium. Air Force has won its last two home openers, including 10 in a row to unranked opponents.

First career starts

Air Force has eight players scheduled to make the first start of their careers this week. On offense, the players are: Keith Williams (LT), Chris Monson (RT), Scott Peeples (FB) and Kip McCarthy (TB). Defensively, Hunter Altman (OLB) and Chris Thomas (SS) are making their first starts. Ryan Harrison makes his debut as the place kicker and punter, in addition to longsnapper Scott Howley.

Football game on Parent's Weekend

Air Force will play a home football game on Parent's Weekend for at least the next seven years, as the Academy finalized non-conference games through 2013 for the Labor Day weekend. Air Force finalized a deal recently with Southern Utah in 2008 and Northern Colorado in 2009. In addition, the team plays Houston in 2010, Florida State in 2011, Northern Colorado in 2012 and Colgate in 2013.

Parent's Weekend at Air Force is a special time when parents of freshmen cadets get a chance to visit the Academy and see their children in action. Traditionally, the football team plays a home game that weekend. Over the past two years the tradition has been snapped due to scheduling conflicts.

Young coaching staff with familiarity

The new Air Force coaching staff isn't really all that new. Ten of the staff's 14 members either played or previously coached at Air Force. Along with head coach Troy Calhoun, assistant head coach Brian Knorr (Air Force, 1986), defensive coordinator Tim DeRuyter (Air Force, 1985), cornerback coach Capt. Charlton Warren (Air Force, 1999), running backs coach Jemal Singleton (Air Force, 1999), co-offensive coordinator/quarterback coach Blane Morgan (Air Force, 1999), wide receivers coach Mike Thiessen (Air Force, 2001), tight ends Ben Miller (Air Force, 2002), junior varsity head coach Lt. Col. Steve Senn (Air Force, 1990) and junior varsity assistant head coach Maj. Anthony Roberson (Air Force, 1989) all played and graduated from the Academy. Only offensive line coach Clay Hendrix (Furman, 1986), defensive line coach Ron Burton (North Carolina, 1987), outside linebacker coach Matt Weikert (Ohio, 2002) and offensive assistant Patrick Covington (Furman, 2006) have no previous experience at the Academy. In addition to familiarity, no coach on the staff graduated from college prior to 1985. Tim DeRuyter, at age 43, is the oldest member of the staff.

Air Force Academy grads comprise 71.4 percent of the coaching staff (9 of 14). No other Div. I football program has over 50 percent of its staff coaching for their Alma Mater.

Air Force picked seventh at MWC Media Day

Air Force was picked to finish seventh in the Mountain West Conference this season by vote of the conference coaches and media. It was announced at the annual conference media day in Las Vegas. Senior linebacker Drew Fowler was named to the preseason first-team all-conference squad.

TCU was selected to win the 2007 Mountain West Conference football title in a poll of MWC media members. The Horned Frogs posted a second-place finish in the MWC in 2006, compiling a 6-2 mark against league opponents en route to an 11-2 overall record and a Top 25 ranking in the final USA Today Coaches, Associated Press and Harris polls.

TCU, which enters the 2007 season with the nation's fourth-longest win streak at eight games, was the overwhelming favorite for the second-consecutive season, receiving 18 first-place votes and a total of 202 points.

Defending Mountain West Conference champion BYU was chosen to finish second with 178 points and three first-place votes. The Cougars posted their second unblemished record (8-0) in conference play in 2006, ending the season with an 11-2 mark overall and a Top 25 ranking in the final USA Today Coaches, Associated Press and Harris polls. BYU, which enters the season with the nation's second-longest win streak at 10 games, returns six starters from an offense that ranked among the top five nationally in scoring, passing and total yardage last season.

Utah was picked to finish third after posting an 8-5 slate (5-3 MWC) and winning its sixth consecutive bowl game last season. The Utes, who return nine starters on offense and five on defense, totaled 165 points and two first-place votes.

New Mexico was chosen fourth with 120 points, followed by Wyoming (5th - 110 points), Colorado State (6th - 107 points), Air Force (7th - 62 points), San Diego State (8th - 56 points) and UNLV (9th - 35 points).

Commander-in-Chief's Trophy

Air Force, Army and Navy compete each year for the Commander-in-Chief's Trophy, which is emblematic of service academy football supremacy. The trophy goes annually to the winning academy with the best record in round-robin competition. The President of the United States presents the trophy to the seniors from the winning team each year at a ceremony at the White House.

The 2007 season marks the 36th year of trophy competition. Last year, Navy won the trophy for the fourth consecutive year after beating both Air Force and Army. The Falcons were 1-1 in CIC games. Air Force was beaten by Navy, 24-17, in Falcon Stadium and defeated Army, 43-7, at West Point. Air Force has a 46-24-0 all-time CIC record and has won 16 trophy titles. Air Force's overall record and number of trophy titles are best among the three academies.

Fowler on Lombardi Watch List

Senior linebacker Drew Fowler is on the "watch list" for the 38th Annual Rotary Lombardi Award, presented by Wachovia Bank. Fowler is one of 46 athletes on the preliminary list for the award, which recognizes the college football lineman of the year. For a complete list of other candidates, please go to www.rotarylombardiaward.com.

Fowler led the conference and ranked 11th nationally in total tackles with a 10.2 average becoming the first Falcon since Chris Gizzi in 1997 to lead the league in tackles. The Clayton, N.C., product recorded 123 tackles, which is the most by a Falcon since Gizzi posted 179 in 1997.

Fowler led the team in tackles in 10 of 12 games in 2006 and notched a career-high 18 tackles in the loss to Navy. His 18 stops are the most by a Falcon since Gizzi had 20 vs. Fresno State in 1997 and earned him the conference's player of the week for his efforts against Navy.

Fowler earned first-team all-conference honors for his efforts, becoming the first Falcon to earn first-team honors since Marchello Graddy in 2003. He was also named the Colorado defensive player of the year by the Colorado chapter of the National Football Foundation.

Air Force will use game captains in 2007.

All-time record

Air Force has an all-time record of 303-260-13 in its 52nd season. The program is 163-109-3 at home and 140-151-10 in away/neutral site games.

Hall moves to WR-Z after all-conference RB campain in 2006

Chad Hall had a breakout season in 2006, becoming the first halfback to lead the team in rushing since Jake Campbell in 1994. Hall ranked fourth in the conference in rushing with a 65.3 per-game average and topped the 100-yard mark twice. He rushed for a career-best 122 yards at Wyoming and had 102 against Colorado State, marking the second straight year he rushed for 100 or more yards vs. the Rams.

The 5-foot-8, 180-pound Hall topped the 20-carry mark three times last season. He had 20 carries vs. Wyoming, 25 against Colorado State and 20 for a team-high 67 yards vs. Notre Dame. Hall hit the 1,000-yard mark for his career during the season, becoming the 34th player in school history to rush for over 1,000 yards. He ranks 31st in school history with 1,128 career yards.

Hall, who moved to the z-wide receiver position during spring drills, was named second-team all-conference becoming just the third Air Force halfback in school history to earn all-conference honors and the first since Greg Johnson was a first-team all-Western Athletic Conference selection in 1989.

Guenther on Rimington list

Senior center Blaine Guenther is on the Rimington Trophy watch list for 2007. Guenther is one of 46 players on the list, which recognizes the top collegiate center each year. Twenty-three players on the list are seniors, 18 are juniors while five are sophomores. The winner of the award is selected by determining the consensus All-America center pick from four existing All-America teams: American Football Coaches Association, Walter Camp Foundation, Sporting News and Football Writers Association of America.

Guenther is a two-year letterman. He started all 12 games at tackle last year before moving to center in the spring.

Carney on Davey O'Brien watch list for third-straight year

Air Force senior quarterback Shaun Carney has been selected for the Davey O'Brien National Quarterback Award "watch list." Carney is one of 35 players on the watch list and this season marks the third straight year the North Olmstead, Ohio, product has made the list.

The Watch List is based on All-America teams and Honorable Mentions published in at least six different preseason college football magazines. A candidate must be listed as an All-America quarterback or as a first of second team All-American within his conference in at least one publication, or as honorable mention in at least three publications.

The O'Brien requires selection committee members to consider the character and leadership qualities of each candidate, in addition to athletic prowess when voting.

"Along with athletic ability, The O'Brien winner must exhibit the same character and moral fiber that Davey O'Brien displayed throughout his life," Davey O'Brien Foundation executive director Danielle Moorman said. "We challenge Watch List candidates to live up to this fundamental aspect of our award while leading their teams into competition."

The winner will be announced on The Home Depot College Football Awards Show on ESPN Dec. 6, 2007. The recipient will be honored Feb. 18, 2008, at the annual Davey O'Brien Awards Dinner at The Fort Worth Club in Fort Worth, Texas.

Carney is entering his fourth season as the starter for Air Force. He ranks third in career total offense at the Academy with 5,824 total yards. He also ranks eighth in rushing with 1,924 yards, third in passing with 3,900 yards and second in touchdown passes with 30.

Carney moving up the charts

Quarterback Shaun Carney continued his climb up the Air Force record charts in 2006. He hit 82 of 137 passes for 1,192 yards with 12 touchdowns and just three interceptions. His 59.9 completion percentage is the third-best mark in school history for a single season. Carney already owns the top mark of 64.2 set in 2005. He hit 61.1 as a freshman which is the second-best mark in AF history.

Carney ranked third in the conference in passing efficiency with a 157.5 mark. His 12 touchdown passes rank fifth overall in school history.

For his career, Carney has hit 268 of 434 passes for 3,900 yards with 30 touchdowns. His 3,900 yards rank third all-time in school history. His 30 touchdown passes are second overall. He ranks third in school history in career total offense with 5,824 yards. Carney is eighth in AF history in career rushing yards with 1,924. He needs just 76 yards to become only the seventh player in school history to hit the 2,000-yard mark.

Head Coach Troy Calhoun

Sometimes people seem born for a particular job or situation. That has never been the case more than Troy Calhoun being the head football coach at the Air Force Academy. The coach ushers in a new era of Falcon football this season as Calhoun replaces the legendary Fisher DeBerry, who retired last season after 23 years as head coach.

Calhoun, a 1989 Academy graduate, is the sixth head coach in school history and first graduate to hold the position. He brings with him an impressive resume at the collegiate and professional levels that is flooded with success at every stop.

Calhoun is fresh off completing his first season with the Houston Texans as offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach. The 2006 Texans were one of only two NFL teams to triple their number of wins from the previous year.

They also were the last team to defeat the Indianapolis Colts on their way to the Super Bowl championship. On offense, the Texans had the NFL's leading receiver (Pro Bowler Andre Johnson with 103 catches), the NFL's best quarterback completion percentage (68.4 percent) and quarterback David Carr tied an NFL record against Buffalo with 22 straight completions.

Calhoun became a well-rounded NFL coach, working as a defensive assistant, special teams assistant and offensive assistant with the Denver Broncos from 2003-05. He began his NFL coaching career by serving as the defensive assistant under defensive coordinator Larry Coyer in 2003. He was a part of the NFL's fourth-ranked defense. The Broncos' defense ranked seventh against the run and sixth against the pass. Denver's defense yielded a mere 17.6 points per game as they made the playoffs for the first time since 2000.

In 2004, Denver utilized Calhoun's offensive prowess moving him to offensive assistant/special teams. On the offensive side of the ball, the Broncos ranked fifth in the NFL, averaging 395.8 yards per game. Broncos' quarterback Jake Plummer set a team record for passing with 4,089 yards and tied a team record with 27 touchdown passes. Coupled with an outstanding passing attack, the Broncos finished fourth in the NFL in rushing. The offense's ability to combine the run and the pass led to Denver ranking second in the NFL in time of possession with 32:37 per game. The Broncos' special teams connected on 29 field goals, second best in the NFL.

Calhoun worked closely with Broncos head coach Mike Shanahan in the 2005 season, serving as the assistant to the head coach. He helped the Broncos win the AFC West title for the 10th time in their history. Denver reached the AFC Championship game for the first time in seven seasons. Their 14-4 record was the best since Denver finished the 1998 season with a 17-2 mark on their way to winning Super Bowl XXXIII. The offense finished fifth in the NFL averaging 360.4 yards per game. The defense was stout against the run, finishing second in the NFL with 85.2 yards per game. Denver finished with an undefeated record at home during the regular season for the fifth time in team history. During Calhoun's three years in Denver, the Broncos made the playoffs every season, averaging over 11 wins per season.

Prior to the NFL, Calhoun was an offensive coordinator for six seasons on the collegiate level. He began his coaching career at Air Force, where he worked as a graduate assistant from 1989-90. He started at quarterback for the Academy in 1986 and was one of only two freshmen to letter for the 1985 team that finished fifth in the final polls with a 12-1 record that included wins over national powers Notre Dame and Texas.

Calhoun served his country from 1989-95 as an active duty officer in the Air Force. He was the Falcons' recruiting coordinator and the junior varsity offensive coordinator in 1993-94.

He moved to Ohio University in 1995 where he served as the quarterbacks coach for two seasons. Calhoun guided the play of quarterback Kareem Wilson. In 1996, Wilson was named the Mid-American Conference Player of the Year. Wilson set a pair of Ohio records with 282 rushing yards and four rushing touchdowns against Bowling Green. He set an Ohio record with 14 rushing touchdowns in 1996.

Calhoun was promoted to offensive coordinator in 1997. During his first season at the helm, the offense totaled 612 yards against Eastern Michigan, second most in school history. The Bobcats defeated Maryland in 1997, marking the school's first win against a team from the ACC in school history. The '97 Bobcats' 8-3 record was the school's best in 29 years.

During his last season in 2000 at Ohio, the Bobcats won two games against bowl teams, Minnesota and Marshall, for the first time in school history. Calhoun's 2000 offense set a school record with 418.1 yards per game and rushed for a school best 3,553 rushing yards.

Calhoun moved to Wake Forest in 2001. The Demon Deacons were one of only seven teams in the country to score more than 30 points in each of the final four games. During his second season, Wake led the ACC in total offense with 408.1 yards per game. His offense had a league-best 990 plays and was efficient with the ball, committing only 16 turnovers to lead the ACC. The 2001 season culminated with a 38-17 bowl victory over Oregon to give Wake Forest its first back-to-back winning seasons since the ACC expanded from eight teams.

Groomed on the basics of integrity and passion, Calhoun is a native of Roseburg, Ore., and was raised in a home where both kids graduated from the Air Force Academy and were varsity letterwinners on nationally-ranked teams. Calhoun finished at the Academy on the superintendent's list and graduated with over a 3.0 grade point average and a military performance average of better than 3.0. He and his wife, Amanda, live in Colorado Springs and have two children, Tyler (five) and Amelia (three).
