THIS WEEK: Air Force travels to Poughkeepsie, N.Y. to take on the Red Foxes of Marist, Sat., Feb. 17, at noon (ET). The Falcons are looking to make good on last season's home loss to Marist.

LAST TIME THEY MET: Air Force lacrosse fell to Marist, 10-4, in their 2017 home opener at Falcon Stadium. The Falcons had their lowest scoring game since losing to VMI, 6-4, in 2014. At the final whistle, Chris Walsch led the Falcons with four points from a goal and three assists. Nick Hruby led the scoring charge with two goals. He added an assist for a three-point performance. Then-freshman goalkeeper Paxton Boyer faced 25 shots with coming 16 on goal; he made six saves on the day. Air Force led in shots, 38-25, ground balls, 33-17, and face offs 9-17.

THE SERIES: The Falcons and Red Foxes will be meeting for the fifth time in program history. The teams are tied at two apiece with Marist winning the most recent game.

UP NEXT: Air Force will play Cleveland State at the University of Denver in the 2018 Pioneer Face Off Classic, Fri., Feb. 23. The Falcons and Vikings will square off at Peter Barton Stadium at 4 p.m. (MT).

LAST WEEK: Junior midfielder Jack Flynn notched the Falcons' first hat trick of the season in the 11-5 home-opener loss to No. 4 University of Denver, on a snowy Saturday afternoon at Falcon Stadium. The then-17th-ranked Falcons fell to 0-2 on the season after taking on two-top five programs in the opening weeks of collegiate lacrosse action. Trent Harper finished the day going .500 at the face off X against three-time All-American Trevor Baptiste who is on the 2018 USILA Player of the Year watch list. It was the first time in Baptiste's career that he has been held to single-digit faceoff wins.

HARPER TAKES SOCON WEEKLY HONOR: Air Force's Trent Harper has been named the Southern Conference men's lacrosse Defensive Player of the Week for all competition thus far in the season. The awards are selected by the league office.

Harper averaged six ground balls per game and caused a turnover in the Falcons' opening two games, which came against No. 1 Duke and No. 4 Denver. Against the Blue Devils on Feb. 4, Harper collected 10 ground balls in addition to scoring a goal and going 16-for-26 on faceoffs (61.5 percent). In a snowy contest against the Pioneers on Saturday, the junior faceoff specialist from Birmingham, Alabama, collected two ground balls and caused a turnover in addition to going 9-for-18 in faceoffs against three-time All-American and 2017 Tewaaraton Award finalist Trevor Baptiste, holding Baptiste in single-digit faceoff wins for the first time in his career.

SOCON FAVORITES: Two-time defending Southern Conference champion Air Force was picked to win the league again in 2018 in a vote of the eight league head coaches. The coaches also picked a 16-member preseason All-Southern Conference team, with the Falcons claiming a league-best six selections. Coaches were not permitted to vote for their own teams or student-athletes.

Air Force earned 47 points in the preseason poll, picking up six first-place votes, while Richmond was second with 43 points and claimed the remaining two first-place votes. Both teams have earned national recognition in the preseason, with Air Force checking in at No. 17 in the USILA/Nike Lacrosse Preseason Coaches' Poll and Richmond earning a No. 20 preseason ranking from Inside Lacrosse.

The Falcons and Spiders have met in each of the last two SoCon tournament finals, with Air Force emerging victorious both times.

FALCONS ON THE PRESEASON ALL-SOCON TEAM

Seniors Nick Hruby and Chris Walsch earned preseason honors at attacker after taking first-team all-conference honors in 2017. Walsch, the two-time defending SoCon Player of the Year, led the league in overall points (64) and goals (36); it is his third time being selected on the All-SoCon team. Hruby round out the attack selections as he was second in the conference in overall goals (35) and third in overall points (45).

The Falcons' Grant Gould received the honors in the midfield after finishing in the top 10 in goals per game in the SoCon last season.

Brandon Jones, the 2016 SoCon Freshman of the Year, headlines the SoCon's four defensemen on the squad. He led the SoCon with 86 total ground balls and finished third with 4.78 per game last season.

AIR FORCE LACROSSE NOTES

FALCONS ON THE PRESEASON ALL-SOCON TEAM: Trent Harper was the pick at faceoff specialist after earning first-team all-conference honors at the position in 2017. Harper was second last season in faceoff percentage at .580 and fifth in ground balls per game (4.56). Joe Matarazzo earned the distinction of being one of the first short stick midfielder on the preseason squad.

IN THE NATIONAL RANKINGS: Following the two losses in the opening games of the 2018 season, Air Force has fallen out of all major national polls. The two-time defending Southern Conference champions opened the 2018 campaign at No. 17 in the USILA annual preseason rankings and were receiving votes in the Inside Lacrosse preseason polls. The ranking marks Air Force's second-straight year in the national preseason polls. Air Force is returning to the field from its second-straight NCAA tournament bid.

MAKING A HOME IN THE SOCON: In their second year as a Southern Conference affiliate member, the Falcons went 13-1 in the last two regular seasons combined, adding four more league wins en route to a second conference championship. The conference title marks the third conference title in four years; Air Force won the ECAC in 2014 and was independent in 2015.

Air Force placed five players on the All-SoCon first-team, decided by the league's coaches. Walsch is joined by teammate Nick Hruby, as first-team attackers. The Falcon's Grant Gould helps comprise the first-team midfield, while Brandon Jones rounds out the defense. Trent Harper was voted on as the league's top faceoff specialist. Junior defender Sean LaVine was added to the second-team's close defenseman line.

Falcons earned player of the week honors four times, a player of the month accolade and a player of the year honor.

BUILD, BUILD, BUILD: Air Force earned a spot in the NCAA tournament for the third time in the last four years and the fifth time overall. Air Force met with Maryland in the program's first-ever NCAA appearance in 1971, where they fell to the Terps, 10-1. In 1988, the Air Force met Loyola in the first-round where they were downed, 19-8. In 2014, Air Force saw it's first-ever modern-era tournament appearance, topping Richmond, 13-5, in the play-in game. The win marked Air Force's first-ever NCAA tournament win. They Falcons faced off against Duke in the ensuing first round of NCAA action where they fell, 20-9. Following a record-breaking 15-game win streak in the 2016 campaign, Air Force earned a program-first bid into the first round where they met with Notre Dame. Air Force fell to the Irish, 15-7, in South Bend, Ind. For the second-straight year, Air Force has earned a first-round berth by way of the Southern Conference's automatic bid; the feat marks a program-first.

ON THE FIELD AND IN THE BOOKS: Five Falcon lacrosse players, Cameron Carter, Nick Hruby, Sheamus Larkin, Joe Matarazzo and Andrew Tien were been named to the Spring 2017 Academic All-Southern Conference Team. The 2017 academic all-conference selection marks the second selection in as many years in the conference for Larkin, Matarazzo and Tien. The Falcons also added 22 players to the 2017 SoCon Academic Honor Roll.

IN THE MAJORS NOW: Three former Falcon lacrosse players were drafted to the Major League Lacrosse's outdoor league, Dec. 14. Erik Smith, class of 2014, is headed back to the Boston Cannons while, Alex Warden and Christopher Allen, class of 2016, head to the Denver Outlaws and Charlotte Hounds, respectively.

Former Falcon lacrosse star, Tommy McKee, was selected to join the National Lacrosse League's Rochester Nighthawks last October. McKee, a 2014 graduate of the Air Force Academy, is currently on active duty stationed at McConnell AFB, Kan.
