THIS WEEKEND: The Falcons travel to Richmond, Virginia, for the regular-season finale against Richmond, Sat., Apr. 28, at noon (ET). The Falcons have downed Richmond in the past two regular-season meetings and the past two Southern Conference championship games (2016, 2017). The rivalry started in the 2014 season where Air Force eliminated Richmond in the NCAA play-in game. Air Force is 5-0 against the SoCon heavyweight. A berth into the SoCon post-season tournament hangs in the balance.

AIR FORCE AT A GLANCE: Hruby leads the Falcons with 25 goals and seven assists for 32 points on the season. The first-team All-SoCon attacker leads the team in shots and shots on goal with 72 and 45, respectively. Hruby has three hat tricks on the season, including a conference and personal-best six-goal game against Marist. The Coppell, Texas, native's goal against Furman propelled him to the No. 2 spot in all-time career goals at the Academy (109), surpassing Chris Walsch (108), and trailing Academy career goals record holder Mike Crampton (127, 2011-14) by 17 goals. Hruby's 148 career points puts him at fourth-most in program history. He has started in every game (65-65) since joining the team in the 2014-15 season.

The breadth of the Air Force offense is also displayed by Matthew Schwartz who posted a career-best five-goal game against Bellarmine for his second hat trick of the season and Trey Lervick who notched his second hat trick of the season at Jacksonville. Schwartz, Carter, Lervick, Jack Flynn, Roman Rohrbach, Matthew O'Rourke, and Andrew Tien, have all logged a hat trick this season. Schwartz leads the squad with eight assists.

At face off, Trent Harper holds a .538 faceoff win percentage (148-275), with a season-best performance over Furman where the Birmingham, Alabama, native recorded 13 wins in 15 attempts (.867). Harper has come victorious at the face off X in 10 games this season.

Sophomore LSM Jeremiah Hemme leads the defense with 12 caused turnovers. Hemme is joined by long-pole teammate Christian Pung, who is one-of-three players with all 14 starts this season. Pung has recorded 11 caused turnovers and 17 ground balls this season. The Falcon defense also boasts freshman Vince Lombardi who has 11 caused turnover and 15 ground balls on the season. Freshman goalkeeper Braden Host is starting to find his fit in the saddle, playing in the Falcons' cage for all five wins this season. He holds a save percentage of .475 and allows 8.55 goals per game on average.

A QUICK LOOK AT RICHMOND: Richmond (8-5, 5-1 SoCon) looks to defend the home turf on a four-game winning streak and a recently clinched berth in the SoCon post-season tournament. The Spiders are the only team in the SoCon with a winning overall record.

Richmond's offense is led by Teddy Hatfield (28-16-44) and Ryan Lanchbury (19-10-29), with three others netting double-digit goals on the season. Blake Goodman has all 13 starts in the Spiders' cage with a 10.33 goals against average and a .485 save percentage.

NEXT UP: If the Falcons beat Richmond, they will earn the fourth seed in the SoCon's post-season tournament, May 3-5, in Richmond, Va. A loss at Richmond would also need to be accompanied by a Furman (3-9, 3-3 SoCon) loss to Bellarmine (4-8, 2-4), which Air Force will earn the slot based on overall record and/or head to head wins.

LAST WEEK: A High Point goal with 20-seconds remaining in the game lifted the Panthers to a 7-6 victory over Air Force on Senior Day. The Falcons outshot the Panthers, 37-27, but struggled at the face off X, winning only seven face offs in 17 attempts. Lervick, Schwartz, Hruby and Dunstan tallied two points apiece. Tien led the team eight shots and two ground balls. Lombardi led the Falcons with three caused turnovers, while freshman goalkeeper Host recorded eight first-half saves. He is now 5-5 in the Falcons' cage.

SCHWARTZ WINS A PAIR OF WEEKLY HONORS: Schwartz earned his first career weekly award after scoring seven goals in the Falcons' two games last week. Against No. 14/13 Cornell on Tuesday, the sophomore from Mahtomed, Minnesota, scored a pair of goals on four shots. He followed that up with a career-best five goals in Air Force's 9-7 Southern Conference win over Bellarmine on Saturday, doing so on seven shots. For the week, Schwartz had a shot percentage of .636. He is the Falcons' second-leading goal-scorer and point-scorer with 13 and 16, respectively, despite missing their first three contests.

AIR FORCE LACROSSE NOTES

SCHWARTZ WINS A PAIR OF WEEKLY HONORS:

The weekly honor marks the fourth for the Falcons this season. Schwartz was also named Air Force Cadet-Athlete of the Week by Air Force Athletics for all competition from March 27 to April 2.

HOST WINS WEEKLY SOCON HONOR: Air Force goalkeeper Braden Host has been named the Southern Conference men's lacrosse defensive player of the week, for all competition from March 6-12. Host earned the start in goal in both of the Falcons' contests on the week, posting 18 total saves, an 8.00 goals against average and a .600 save percentage in Air Force's 1-1 week. The freshman from Aurora, Colorado, made five saves and allowed five goals in 30 minutes of work in a 14-9 loss at Michigan on Friday, departing at halftime with the game tied at 5. Host went the distance against Detroit Mercy two days later, making a season-best 13 saves and allowing just seven goals in the 9-7 win. Host faced a barrage of shots on the week, facing 21 in just a half of play at Michigan before seeing 35 against the Titans.

HARPER NAMED SOUTHERN CONFERENCE DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE MONTH: Harper averaged 6.0 ground balls per game and won 60 percent of his faceoffs in February. Harper opened his season with 10 ground balls against No. 2/1 Duke, also scoring a goal and going 16-for-26 in faceoff opportunities. In a snowy contest against No. 4/4 Denver a week later, he grabbed two ground balls and caused a turnover and went 9-for-18 in faceoffs against three-time All-American and 2017 Tewaaraton Award finalist Trevor Baptiste, holding Baptiste in single-digit faceoff wins for the first time in his career. The junior from Birmingham, Alabama, then closed his month with six ground balls in back-to-back contests, doing so in an 8-7 win over Marist and then again, adding a caused turnover, against Cleveland State. Harper was 12-for-19 in faceoffs against Marist and 11-for-17 against Cleveland State.

HHRUBY EARNS A TRIO OF HONORS: Air Force's Hruby had a career day, matching the SoCon single-game record with a career-high six goals in an 8-7 win over Marist, Feb. 17. Among Hruby's goals was the game-winner, which he scored with 3:19 left in the contest to cap the Falcon's game-ending 4-0 run to overcome a three-goal third-quarter deficit. The senior attackman from Coppell, Texas, scored the first of his two first-period goals just 58 seconds into the contest and completed his first hat trick of the season in the second period. He scored twice in the third period before his decisive goal in the fourth. Hruby put nine of his 12 shots on goal and scooped three ground balls in the contest.

The stellar performance also garnered Hruby's spot on USILA's Division I Team of the Week (3) and Air Force's Cadet Athlete of the Week honor. Hruby sets the bar as the first-ever Air Force player on the USILA Team of the Week.

HARPER TAKES SOCON WEEKLY HONOR: Air Force's Trent Harper has been named the Southern Conference men's lacrosse Defensive Player of the Week for competition played from Feb. 3-10. The awards are selected by the league office.

Harper averaged six ground balls per game and caused a turnover in the Falcons' opening two games, which came against No. 1 Duke and No. 4 Denver. Against the Blue Devils on Feb. 4, Harper collected 10 ground balls in addition to scoring a goal and going 16-for-26 on faceoffs (61.5 percent).

In a snowy contest against the Pioneers on Saturday, the junior faceoff specialist from Birmingham, Alabama, collected two ground balls and caused a turnover in addition to going 9-for-18 in faceoffs against three-time All-American and 2017 Tewaaraton Award finalist Trevor Baptiste, holding Baptiste in single-digit faceoff wins for the first time in his career.

SOCON FAVORITES: Two-time defending Southern Conference champion Air Force was picked to win the league again in 2018 in a vote of the eight league head coaches. The coaches also picked a 16-member preseason All-Southern Conference team, with the Falcons claiming a league-best six selections. Coaches were not permitted to vote for their own teams or student-athletes.

Air Force earned 47 points in the preseason poll, picking up six first-place votes, while Richmond was second with 43 points and claimed the remaining two first-place votes. Both teams have earned national recognition in the preseason, with Air Force checking in at No. 17 in the USILA/Nike Lacrosse Preseason Coaches' Poll and Richmond earning a No. 20 preseason ranking from Inside Lacrosse. The Falcons and Spiders have met in each of the last two SoCon tournament finals, with Air Force emerging victorious both times.

FALCONS ON THE PRESEASON ALL-SOCON TEAM: Seniors Nick Hruby and Chris Walsch earned preseason honors at attacker after taking first-team all-conference honors in 2017. Walsch, the two-time defending SoCon Player of the Year, led the league in overall points (64) and goals (36); it is his third time being selected on the All-SoCon team. Hruby round out the attack selections as he was second in the conference in overall goals (35) and third in overall points (45).

The Falcons' Grant Gould received the honors in the midfield after finishing in the top 10 in goals per game in the SoCon last season.

Brandon Jones, the 2016 SoCon Freshman of the Year, headlines the SoCon's four defensemen on the squad. He led the SoCon with 86 total ground balls and finished third with 4.78 per game last season.

Trent Harper was the pick at faceoff specialist after earning first-team all-conference honors at the position in 2017. Harper was second last season in faceoff percentage at .580 and fifth in ground balls per game (4.56).

IN THE NATIONAL RANKINGS: Following the two losses in the opening games of the 2018 season, Air Force has fallen out of all major national polls. The two-time defending Southern Conference champions opened the 2018 campaign at No. 17 in the USILA annual preseason rankings and were receiving votes in the Inside Lacrosse preseason polls. The ranking marks Air Force's second-straight year in the national preseason polls. Air Force is returning to the field from its second-straight NCAA tournament bid.

AIR FORCE LACROSSE NOTES

MAKING A HOME IN THE SOCON: In their second year as a Southern Conference affiliate member, the Falcons went 13-1 in the last two regular seasons combined, adding four more league wins in post-season action en route to a second conference championship in as many tries. The conference title marks the third conference title in four years; Air Force won the ECAC in 2014 and was independent in 2015.

Air Force placed five players on the All-SoCon first-team, decided by the league's coaches. Walsch is joined by teammate Nick Hruby, as first-team attackers. The Falcon's Grant Gould helps comprise the first-team midfield, while Brandon Jones rounds out the defense. Trent Harper was voted on as the league's top faceoff specialist. Junior defender Sean LaVine was added to the second-team's close defenseman line.

Falcons earned player of the week honors four times, a player of the month accolade and a player of the year honor.

BUILD, BUILD, BUILD: Air Force earned a spot in the NCAA tournament for the third time in the last four years and the fifth time overall. Air Force met with Maryland in the program's first-ever NCAA appearance in 1971, where they fell to the Terps, 10-1. In 1988, Air Force met Loyola in the first-round where they were downed, 19-8. In 2014, Air Force saw it's first-ever modern-era tournament appearance, topping Richmond, 13-5, in the play-in game. The win marked Air Force's first-ever NCAA tournament win. They Falcons faced off against Duke in the ensuing first round of NCAA action where they fell, 20-9. Following a record-breaking 15-game win streak in the 2016 campaign, Air Force earned a program-first first-round berth where they met with Notre Dame. Air Force fell to the Fighting Irish, 15-7, in South Bend, Ind. In 2017, for the second-straight year, Air Force earned a first-round berth by way of the Southern Conference's automatic bid; the feat marks a program-first. The Falcons took on the University of Denver, in Denver, Colo., where they fell, 17-10, to the Big East powerhouse.

ON THE FIELD AND IN THE BOOKS: Five Falcon lacrosse players, Cameron Carter, Nick Hruby, Sheamus Larkin, Joe Matarazzo and Andrew Tien were named to the Spring 2017 Academic All-Southern Conference Team. The 2017 academic all-conference selection marks the second selection in as many years in the conference for Larkin, Matarazzo and Tien. The Falcons also added 22 players to the 2017 SoCon Academic Honor Roll.

IN THE MAJORS NOW: Three former Falcon lacrosse players were drafted to the Major League Lacrosse's outdoor league, Dec. 14. Erik Smith, class of 2014, is headed back to the Boston Cannons while, Alex Warden and Christopher Allen, class of 2016, head to the Denver Outlaws and Charlotte Hounds, respectively.

Former Falcon lacrosse star, Tommy McKee, was selected to join the National Lacrosse League's Rochester Nighthawks last October. McKee, a 2014 graduate of the Air Force Academy, is currently on active duty stationed at McConnell AFB, Ks.
