Falcons Return Home For Final Three Games

The Air Force Falcons return to Cadet Soccer Stadium to begin their season-ending three-game homestand this Friday, Oct. 28 against Seattle University at 7 p.m. On Sunday, Air Force will battle CSU Bakersfield at 1 p.m.

The Falcons are 8-5-2 overall and 2-3-2 in the MPSF after gaining a win and a tie on the road last weekend.

Air Force Moves Into Second Place

The Falcons won and tied on the road last weekend, moving into sole possession of second place in the Mountain Division of the Mountain Pacific Sports Federation. The Falcons used an Eric Wilson goal in the 69th minute to defeat San Jose State, 1-0, on Friday, then battled Sacramento State to a scoreless draw on Sunday.

Most Wins in Six Years

Air Force's eight wins are the most in one season since the 2005 season, when they were 8-9-2.

Underwood Named MPSF Player of the Week

Junior goalie Matt Underwood gathered his third and fourth shutouts of the season this past weekend, making three saves in each game. For his efforts, he was named the MPSF Player of the Week. He has allowed just four goals in AFA's seven league games and currently has a 263-minute scoreless streak.

Durr Still Near Top of National and MPSF Stats

Air Force junior Kevin Durr is second in the MPSF and tied for sixth nationally with eight assists. Durr is also second in the league with 51 shots.

Last Week's Recaps

Air Force 1, San Jose State 0 Oct. 21, 2011 at San Jose, CA

Senior captain Eric Wilson's second goal of his career led the Air Force men's soccer team to a 1-0 victory over San Jose State Friday night at Spartan Stadium. The win moves Air Force to 8-5-1 overall and 2-3-1 in Mountain Pacific Sports Federation (MPSF) action, while San Jose State fell to 6-5-3 and 3-3 in conference play.

Wilson, who scored his first career goal last Friday at UNLV, took a free kick in the 69th minute from junior Kevin Durr and knocked a diving header to the near post past Spartan goalie Jonathan Lester. Durr collected his team-high eighth assist on the play.

The Falcons outshot SJSU 15-to-13 in total shots and held a 10-3 advantage in shots on goal. AFA's John Melcher and SJSU's Craig Hertler each took a game-high four shots, while Hertler and Durr each had three shots on goal.

Underwood made three saves in posting his third shutout of the season.

Air Force 0, Sacramento State 0 Oct. 23, 2011 at Sacramento, CA

The Air Force men's soccer team moved into sole possession of second place in the MPSF Mountain Division with a scoreless tie Sunday at Sacramento State. The Falcons, who had been tied with Denver for second place, moved to 8-5-2 overall and 2-3-2 in the MPSF, while Sacramento State is now 7-6-2 and 3-3-1 in league play.

Sacramento State had a 17-13 edge in shots and a whopping 9-2 advantage in corner kicks but the Falcons placed six shots on goal, compared to only three for Sacramento State.

Air Force goalkeeper Matt Underwood tallied his fourth shutout of the year with three saves, while Sacramento State keeper Bryan Oliver recorded his second shutout of the season.
