AIR FORCE @ USA GYMNASTICS COLLEGIATE NATIONALS

Friday, April 7 (2:00 pm PT) | Saturday, April 8 (7:00 pm PT) | Sunday, April 9 (1:00 pm PT)
Seattle, Wash. | Brougham Pavilion | SPUFalcons.com

The Air Force women's gymnastics team closes out the 2017 season this weekend, when it travels to Seattle, Wash., for the USA Gymnastics Collegiate National Championships. The meet, which runs from Friday, April 7, through Sunday, April 9, will be held at Broughton Pavilion on the Seattle Pacific campus.

MEET INFORMATION

The three days of competition at the USAG Collegiate Nationals will be broken down into two qualifying sessions (April 7, see schedule below), team finals (April 8 at 7:00 p.m.) and event finals (April 9 at 1:00 p.m.). The top nine squads in the USAG standings will send full squads to Seattle, while the remaining three programs will travel individual gymnasts. Full weekend passes are $30 for adults and $20 for youth (5-18) and seniors (55+), while single-day passes are $15 for adults and $10 for youth and seniors. Seattle Pacific will offer live stats and video at SPUFalcons.com (direct links are also at GoAirForceFalcons.com).

SCHEDULING 101

The 2017 USAG Championships begin with two qualifying sessions on Friday, April 7. The afternoon session (2:00 p.m.) features Air Force, Bridgeport, Cornell and West Chester, while the evening session (7:00 p.m.) includes Brown, Lindenwood, Seattle Pacific, Texas Woman's University and Yale (see complete rankings below). The top two teams from each preliminary session will advance to Saturday's team finals, while the top individual performers from each qualifying session will move on to Sunday's event finals.

OPPONENT QUICK HITS

TWU have accounted for the most USAG team titles (nine), although Bridgeport has won six of the last eight and Lindenwood has claimed the last two. Of the 2017 field, Seattle Pacific (three), Air Force (two), Cornell (one) and Centenary (one) have also claimed USAG titles since the division was founded in 1982.

HISTORY 101

Air Force has earned two USAG team titles (2001, 2002) and has had seven gymnasts combine from 10 individual event titles. Kim Broughton (all-around: 2000, 2002), Jennifer Dougherty (vault: 2002, all-around: 2002) and Allison Todd (balance beam: 2002, 2003) all claimed multiple event titles, while Bethany Stott (balance beam: 2001), Jessa Liegl (balance beam: 2003), Brittany Dutton (uneven bars: 2011) and Linnaea Hance (uneven bars: 2014) have each earned one.

A LOOK AT THE RANKINGS

Holding a regional qualifying score of 193.680, Air Force is ranked fifth in the USAG Division. The Falcons hold the same placement on the vault (48.445) and are ranked among the top-half of the USAG standings on the uneven bars (48.490). Individually, Kara Witgen is ranked among the division's top-10 on the balance beam (fifth, 9.810) and all-around (seventh-tie, 38.820), while leading the squad in the vault rankings (14th, 9.745). Casey Bell and Anna Salamone are the Air Force leaders on the floor exercise (14th-tie, 9.820) and uneven bars (14th-tie, 9.750), respectively.

AROUND THE NATION

With a RQS of 193.680, Air Force finished the regular season ranked 57th in the national standings.

DID YOU KNOW?

Air Force surpassed the 193-point mark in the final six meets of the regular season and at the conference championship meet. The seven-meet stretch is the longest such streak since 2014, when the Falcons broke the 193 plateau in 10 straight meets, and the second-longest run of head coach Doug Day's 11-year tenure.

WITGEN NABS TOP-10 FINISH AT REGIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS

Scoring a 38.525 to finish 10th, Kara Witgen recorded the Falcons' highest regional all-around placement since 2002 - and just the third top-10 finish ever. Witgen placed within the top-half of the 42-gymnast field in a pair of events at the Lincoln Regional on April 1, as she took 17th on the floor (9.775) and 21st on the beam (9.750).

FALCONS QUALIFY 10 TO LINCOLN REGIONAL

Ten Falcons were named to the regional roster, including Casey Bell (floor exercise), Darby German (uneven bars, floor exercise), Chelsea Grimison (balance beam), Riley Hill (vault, balance beam), Rita Koenigbauer (balance beam), Jamie Lewis (vault, uneven bars, floor exercise), Mariana Murphy (all-around), Brittney Reed (uneven bars, balance beam, floor exercise), Anna Salamone (vault, uneven bars) and Kara Witgen (all-around).

AIR FORCE TAKES FOURTH AT MPSF CHAMPIONSHIPS

Backed by top-five event finishes from Kara Witgen and Mariana Murphy, Air Force posted its second-highest score of the season (194.075) to finish fourth at the Mountain Pacific Sports Federation Championships on March 18 - the squad's highest team finish since the league expanded to six teams in 2014. Witgen matched her career-high of 9.875 - the second-highest score in Academy history - to tie for fifth on the balance beam, while Murphy equaled her personal-best score of 9.750 to tie for the same placement on the vault.

FIVE FALCONS EARN ALL-MPSF ACCOLADES

Based on their regional qualifying scores, Casey Bell, Riley Hill, Mariana Murphy, Anna Salamone and Kara Witgen claimed all-conference honors from the Mountain Pacific Sports Federation on March 16. Witgen collected first-team honors on the balance beam and all-around, while earning second-team status on the vault to bring her total of all-MPSF honors to seven. Bell (floor), Hill (balance beam) and Murphy (all-around) earned first-team distinction, while Salamone earned second-team recognition on the uneven bars.

AIR FORCE DROPS REGULAR-SEASON FINALE TO LEAGUE-LEADING UC DAVIS

Despite a season-high team tally of 48.650 on the uneven bars, Air Force closed out the regular season with a 195.775-193.350 loss at UC Davis on March 10. Riley Hill (vault, 9.750), Anna Salamone (bars, 9.800) and Kara Witgen (floor, 9.775) accounted for the team's best finishes, as they placed third in their respective events.

FALCONS EDGED BY SOUTHEAST MISSOURI

Kara Witgen paced the Falcons to four of the top-six scores on the balance beam, but Air Force dropped a narrow 193.800-193.775 non-conference loss to Southeast Missouri on March 5. Witgen won the event with a score of 9.850, while Riley Hill took third with a mark of 9.775. Brittney Reed and Mariana Murphy rounded out the Falcons' top-six finishers, as they placed fifth (9.700) and sixth (9.650), respectively.

AIR FORCE FALLS TO #23 NEW HAMPSHIRE

The Falcons broke the 193-point mark for the third straight meet on Feb. 24, as it scored a 193.125 during a road duel with No. 23 New Hampshire (196.050). Anna Salamone earned a runner-up finish on the uneven bars (9.775), as the lineup posted a season-high event score of 48.600.

FALCONS DROPS HOME FINALE TO SAN JOSE STATE

Air Force tallied its second-highest score of the season (193.225), as it closed out the home portion of its season against San Jose State (194.950) on Feb. 18. Anna Salamone won the vault with a career-best matching score of 9.775, while Riley Hill tied for first on the balance beam with a mark of 9.825.

FALCONS BREAK 194 IN HOME TRIANGULAR

The Falcons accounted for the fourth-highest team total of Doug Day's 11-year tenure on Feb. 11, as they registered a 194.500 during a home triangular with UC Davis (194.625) and Seattle Pacific (190.400). Air Force, which tallied season-high marks on the uneven bars (48.575) and floor exercise (48.775) during its first 194-plus performance in three years, improved their season-high total by nearly two points.

KOENIGBAUER NAMED MPSF FRESHMAN OF THE WEEK

Following a strong debut at SPU, Rita Koenigbauer was named the Mountain Pacific Sports Federation Freshman of the Week on Feb. 7. Kicking off her collegiate career with an impressive 9.775 on the balance beam, Koenigbauer finished fourth in the meet and matched the team's third-highest score of the year.

AIR FORCE EARNS CONFERENCE ROAD WIN

Backed by a season-high team total of 192.675, Air Force improved to 2-1 on the road – and 1-1 in conference action – with a victory over Seattle Pacific (190.550) on Feb. 4 in Seattle. The Falcons claimed event titles on the uneven bars (Brittney Reed, Mariana Murphy: 9.625) and balance beam (Kara Witgen: 9.875), while earning three of the top-four scores on the uneven bars and five of the top-seven marks on the balance beam.

WITGEN DEBUTS ON ALL-TIME STANDINGS

Kara Witgen's balance beam score of 9.875 on Feb. 4 matches the second-highest score in Academy history. Witgen is now tied with Bethany Stott (2001) and Linnaea Hance (2014) for the program's No. 2 spot.

FALCONS CLAIM FIRST ROAD WIN OF THE SEASON

Backed by a share of three titles and a season-high team score of 192.000, Air Force claimed its first road victory of the season on Jan. 29, as it defeated Centenary (190.650) in Shreveport. Kara Witgen (vault, beam-tie, all-around), Analise Howard (uneven bars-tie, beam-tie) and Riley Hill (beam-tie) collected first-place finishes.

WITGEN WINS VAULT TITLE IN CONFERENCE OPENER

With a career-high score of 9.800, Kara Witgen won the vault and helped Air Force to a season-high team total of 191.475 during its MPSF opener against No. 24 Sacramento State (193.150) on Jan. 21. The Falcons accounted for a share of the two finishes on that event, as Anna Salamone tied for second with a 9.775.

BELL, WITGEN PACE FALCONS AT DENVER QUAD

Casey Bell earned a top-five finish on the floor exercise (fourth, 9.825) at the Denver Quad on Jan. 14, while Kara Witgen collected top-10 marks on the vault (sixth, 9.750), floor (eighth, 9.775) and beam (ninth, 9.750).

TRIO NABS WEEKLY CONFERENCE AWARDS

Casey Bell (Gymnast of the Week), Analise Howard (Specialist of the Week) and Anna Salamone (Freshman of the Week) were honored by the Mountain Pacific Sports Federation on Jan. 10, after strong performances in their season-opener against Winona State. Bell won the floor exercise with a career high 9.825, while Howard and Salamone won the uneven bars (9.750) and vault (9.775), respectively, in their collegiate debuts.

STARTING OFF STRONG

Air Force opened the 2017 campaign with a 190.875-184.750 victory over Winona State on Jan. 7 - a result that led to several impressive distinctions. The Falcons' team tally marked the squad's highest season-opening score since they posted a 191.025 at Denver in 2013, while the victory marked the first time since 2014 that Air Force earned a win in the first meet of a new season and collected a "W" in its home opener.

WELCOME TO THE SHOW

Air Force welcomed five newcomers to its roster for the 2017 season with the addition of sophomore Natalie Hawthorne and freshmen Rita Koenigbauer, Parrish Murphy, Victoria (Tori) Nojaim and Anna Salamone.

ON THE SIDELINE

Doug Day returns to the gym for his 11th season as the Falcons' head coach. Day, a three-time Mountain Pacific Sports Federation Coach of the Year and a two-time North Central Region Coach of the Year, will be joined on the sideline by seventh-year assistant coach Kyle Georges and first-year assistant coach Jennifer Langley.

CHECKING THE CALENDAR

The Falcons are slated to host four meets at Cadet West Gym, beginning with their season-opener against Winona State on Jan. 7. The Falcons final three meets at the Academy – Sacramento State (Jan 21), UC Davis/Seattle Pacific (Feb. 11) and San Jose State (Feb. 18) – all feature opponents from the Mountain Pacific Sports Federation. Air Force will also visit Denver (Jan. 14), Centenary (Jan. 29), Seattle Pacific (Feb. 4), New Hampshire (Feb. 24), Bridgeport (Feb. 26), Southeast Missouri (Mar. 5) and UC Davis (Mar. 10) during the regular season, before heading to San Jose State (Mar. 18) and Seattle Pacific (April 7-9) for postseason competition.
