

The University of Alabama at Birmingham's

First Annual Fall Baseball League

- ❖ The UAB Fall Baseball League is designed to provide area high school baseball players an opportunity to stay sharp off-season. It is intended for those who plan to play on their high school's varsity or junior varsity baseball team.
- ❖ The UAB Fall League is comprised of two separate divisions. The Gold Division is primarily for Seniors and Juniors. The Green Division is primarily for Sophomores and Freshmen. Players are selected on a first-come, first-served basis.
- ❖ Pre-Registering for the UAB Fall League is strongly encouraged. Registering before the Mini-Camp will give you the best chance of being assigned a position in the Fall League. Registration instructions are enclosed.
- ❖ The UAB Fall League consists of 16 teams with approximately 12 players on each roster. Each team plays 6 Games. All games (including any post season) are played in September and early October (see enclosed schedule).
- ❖ Fall League Teams are coached by our Division I UAB baseball players. UAB coaching staff and players will also assist in instructing and umpiring.
- ❖ A UAB Fall League All-Star game will be held at the end of the season.
- ❖ All mini-camps and games (including post season) will be played on UAB's beautiful Young Memorial Field.
- ❖ The UAB Fall League registration fee of $175 provides for game t-shirts, helmet usage, baseballs, umpires, instruction, use of facilities and secondary insurance coverage.
- ❖ UAB coaches and players will provide detailed instruction in a mini-camp session in late August. All participating players should plan to attend this pre-season camp.

UAB Fall League Rules

- Players must act with class. No bad language. No mistreatment.
