- ✓ The storied Army-Navy rivalry will enjoy its 112th edition this season when the Black Knights and Midshipmen tussle on Dec. 10 at FedEx Field in Landover, Md. Only 10 Division I-A rivalries have featured more games than the Army-Navy series.
- ✓ This revered series began when Cadet Dennis Mahan Michie accepted a "challenge" from Naval Academy Midshipmen for a football game against the Cadets. That first contest was held on "The Plain" at West Point on Nov. 29, 1890. The more experienced Mids, who had been playing organized football since 1879, defeated the Cadets 24-0.
- ✓ Eighty-three of the 111 Army-Navy games have been played within Philadelphia city limits. This year marks only the eighth time the Army-Navy Classic has been played outside Philadelphia annually since 1945. The 1983 game was played at the Rose Bowl, while the 1989, 1993, 1997 and 2001 confrontations took place at Giants Stadium. M&T Bank Stadium (formerly PSINet Stadium) in Baltimore played host to the classic in 2000 and 2007. This year's game is the first to be hosted by Washington, D.C.
- ✓ FedEx Field is the 16th different site since the birth of the series in 1890. Those sites follow: West Point (3, at two locations), Annapolis (3), Palmer Stadium (1), Franklin Field (18), Polo Grounds (9), Baltimore Stadium (2), Soldier Field (1), Yankee Stadium (2), Municipal/John F. Kennedy Stadium (41), Veterans Stadium (17), Rose Bowl (1), Giants Stadium (4), M&T Bank Stadium (2), Lincoln Financial Field (6) and FedEx Field (1).
- ✓ The Army-Navy series has been tied on 13 occasions (five times since 1979). The latest tie came following Navy's victory in 2004. The Mids' win in 2005 gave Navy its first edge in the series since 1993. Until winning in 1980 to break a 37-37-6 stalemate, Navy had not led in the series standing since 1921, after just the 24th meeting between the academies.
- ✓ Further evidence of the rivalry's competitive nature: only 323 points (2.9 ppg.) separate the teams through the Classic's initial 111 pairings. Navy has scored 1,717 points (15.5), while Army has recorded 1,394 points (12.6).
- ✓ CBS Sports reaffirmed its commitment to broadcasting the storied rivalry to a national audience with a new 10-year agreement beginning in 2009. The Army-Navy Classic will be the only college football game contested on the second Saturday in December, a departure from its recent history of being played a week earlier opposite several conference championship contests.

ARMY VISITED THE WHITE HOUSE FOLLOWING ITS 1986 AND 1996 COMMANDER IN CHIEF'S TROPHY VICTORIES. THE BLACK KNIGHTS HAVE WON SIX CIC TROPHIES OVERALL.

Service academy supremacy is at stake on the gridiron each season when Army, Navy and Air Force battle in a round-robin schedule for the Commander in Chief's Trophy.

This year, the Trophy enters its 40th season as the pre-eminent indicator of football bragging rights among the three major service academies.

Army's most recent Commander in Chief's Trophy title dates back to 1996, when the Black Knights assured that the Trophy would return to its original home by defeating arch-rival Navy 28-24 in Veterans Stadium in Philadelphia.

To help commemorate the Trophy's 25th birthday, President Bill Clinton was on hand at "The Vet" to present the Black Knights with the glimmering silver Trophy following their come-from-behind victory. It marked the first time that a standing President attended an Army-Navy clash since Gerald Ford looked on in 1974 to see Navy defeat Army 19-0.

Former President George W. Bush witnessed the Army-Navy game in person three times during his two terms in office, attending the classic in 2001, 2004 and 2008.

Prior to 1996, Army had last acquired sole possession of the Trophy in 1988. In 1993, each team split its two academy games, marking only the fourth time that all three teams shared possession of the Trophy.

Army captured the inaugural Commander in Chief's Trophy by defeating Air Force, 17-14, and Navy, 23-15, in 1972.

The Trophy has resided at West Point in 1972, 1977, 1984, 1986, 1988 and 1996.

Navy, which ruled the 1970s, has acquired sole ownership of the trophy eight times since 1981. The Mids captured the hardware seven straight seasons from 2003-09 before Air Force claimed the 2010 series.

The Trophy is named in honor of the President of the United States as commander in chief of the armed forces. The three-sided structure, which weighs 170 pounds and stands 2 1/2 feet tall, is engraved with the seal of each academy and displays a reproduction of each school's mascot. The year in which the Trophy is won is engraved on the appropriate academy's side.

The idea for the establishment of an interservice football trophy originated with the late Gen. George B. Simler, commander of the Air Training Command and a former Air Force Academy athletic director. The 1972 season was seen as an appropriate time to consider such an idea since it also marked the first season of the round-robin competition among the three teams.

Simler proposed the idea to the USAFA Association of Graduates early in 1972. The Association, in turn, proposed the project to the alumni associations at West Point and Annapolis as suitable for joint sponsorship by the three institutions. Following formal adoption of the project, designs for the Trophy were sought from manufacturers.

After Army's inaugural title in 1972, Navy captured possession of the Trophy eight of the following nine years before Air Force first staked claim to the honor in 1982. The Trophy remained in the Falcons' possession the following season when they swept the Black Knights and Midshipmen.

Army recaptured the Trophy in 1984, its first outright title since 1977.

The Black Knights begin the quest for this year's CIC title on Nov. 5 when they travel to Air Force. Army will square off against Navy on Dec. 10 at FedEx Field in Landover, Md.
