SATURDAY'S HEADLINES

- ▶ Army makes its home debut on Saturday against the Northern Illinois Huskies. The Black Knights have won three straight at Michie Stadium. Army will play seven home games in 2012, the most since the 1994 season.
- ▶ The Black Knights are coming off a 42-7 loss at San Diego State in its season opener. Army rushed for 282 yards, but could not overcome three turnovers.
- ▶ Army had two players rush for 100 yards against the Azetcs. Junior RB Raymond Maples led the team with 107 yards on 19 carries, while sophomore RB Terry Baggett reached the century mark for the first time in his young career with 100 yards and a touchdown on just 13 carries (7.7/rush).
- ▶ Maples 100-yard effort was the sixth of his career, moving him into a tie for 10th place on Army's career list. It is the most by an Army player since Carlton Jones finished his career in 2005 with 11 100-yard games.
- ▶ A total of 15 Army players made their collegiate debut against the Aztecs. The Black Knights utilized seven first-time starters, four on offense and three on defense.
- ▶ Army was on the short end of a 3-0 turnover margin, perhaps the most telling statistic for the Black Knights. Army is just 9-44 since the start of 2006 with a negative turnover margin. The Black Knights are 2-13 in their last 15 games when not forcing a turnover.
- ▶ The Black Knights are 1-9, including eight straight losses, when committing at least three turnovers. Conversely, Army is 5-2 in that span when not turning the ball over.
- ▶ Senior QB Trent Steelman moved into fourth place on Army's all-time total offense list with 4,181 yards. Steelman passed 1946 Heisman Trophy winner Glenn Davis' total of 4,131 yards (2,959 rush/1,172 pass). Steelman is the only player in Army history to rush for 2,000 yards and pass for 2,000 yards in his career. He needs just 119 yards to pass Mike Mayweather (4,299) for third place all time.
- ▶ Senior LB Nate Combs tied his career high with 2.0 quarterback sacks against San Diego State. It was the second straight game that Combs posted multiple sacks after ending the 2011 season with two takedowns against Navy.
- ▶ Northern Illinois is the first of four Mid-American Conference teams on this year's schedule. Three of those contests will be played at Michie Stadium. Army played four MAC teams a year ago, all on the road. The last MAC opponent to visit the banks of the Hudson was Temple on Oct. 2, 2010. NIU is making their first trip to West Point since 1992.

A WIN VS. NORTHERN ILLINOIS WOULD ...

- ▶ Give Army a 2-1 series lead against the Huskies.
- ▶ Snap Army's five-game overall losing streak dating back to last season.
- ▶ Be Army's fourth straight win at Michie Stadium and its sixth win in its last nine home games.
- ▶ End Army's four-game losing streak against the Mid-American Conference.
- ▶ Avoid Army's second straight 0-2 start.
- ▶ Snap Army's four-game losing streak in home openers.
- ▶ Even Army's September record at 7-7 since 2009.
- ▶ Be Head Coach Rich Ellerson's 16th win at West Point (15-23).

Malcolm Brown led the Army rushing attack, which gained 303 yards in the game, with a career-high 92 yards on just nine carries. Brown scored on a one-yard run, marking the third straight game he has found the end zone. Trenton Turrentine made his first career start, and ran for 68 yards on 11 carries. Turrentine scored a 14-yard touchdown on his first career carry. Trent Steelman ran for 37 yards on 17 tries and completed 5-of-11 passes for 86 yards. ARMY IN OVERTIME

- ▶ After playing just one overtime game between 1996 and 2005, Army has had seven games go to an extra session in its last 58 outings.
- ▶ Army's seven overtime games since 2006 is tied for fourth most in the nation during that span. East Carolina has played nine such games, while Navy and Buffalo have each played eight OT games. The Black Knights are tied with Minnesota at seven.
- ▶ Army lost its last overtime game, a 23-20 setback versus Rutgers on Oct. 16, 2010. Army is now 6-2 all-time in overtime. Army is 5-0 at Michie Stadium in overtime.
- ▶ Army has allowed just 16 points in its eight overtime games. Rutgers' game-winning score was the first time the opponent reached the end zone after regulation since Louisville scored a touchdown in the first overtime in 1999. It stopped a streak of seven straight overtime periods without allowing a touchdown.

SATURDAY'S UNIFORM PATCH

The Black Knights will be wearing the unit patch of the 10th Mountain Division when they take on Northern Illinois. Stationed in Fort Drum, N.Y., the 10th Mountain Division is a light infantry division designed for rapid deployment anywhere in the world. It is a subordinate unit of the XVIII Airborne Corps and is the only division-sized element of the U.S. Army to specialize in fighting under harsh terrain and weather conditions. The 10th Mountain Division was activated in 1943 and was the last U.S. Army division to enter combat in World War II. It was deactivated after the war, but reactivated in 1985. It has numerous deployments to Iraq and Afghanistan.

BROTHERLY LOVE

- ▶ The Black Knights have four sets of brothers on the 2012 roster, including two sets of twins — senior DE Zach Watts and junior LB Corey Watts, and junior DB Jordan Crockett and RB Julian Crockett. In addition, freshman DB Joey Giovannelli and freshman DT Evan Finnane joined older brothers Tony (sophomore RB) and Shane (junior DT) on the Army roster this season.
- ▶ In addition, there are three players on the Army roster who had older brothers play for the Black Knights in recent years. Junior LB Justin Trimble is the younger brother of both Jeremy Trimble (2004-07) and Jordan Trimble (2007-10). Jeremy finished his career as Army's all-time leading receiver, while Jordan was an Academic All-American at safety. Sophomore DT Michael Ugenyi and freshman OL Jake Peterson are the younger brothers of Victor Ugenyi (2006-09), a former starter on the defensive front, and Zach Peterson (2007-10), Army's starting center on its 2010 Armed Forces Bowl championship squad.

NO (TURNOVER) MARGIN FOR ERROR

- ▶ Army was on the wrong end of a 3-0 turnover number in its loss to San Diego State.
- ▶ Turnover margin has been one of the best predictors of Army's success in recent seasons.
- ▶ Since the start of 2006, the Black Knights have posted a 15-5 record when winning the turnover battle. On the flip side, Army is 9-44 when the margin is negative or even.
- ▶ In its last 10 losses, Army is -13 in turnovers (-1.3). In their last three wins, the Black Knights are +1 (+0.33).
- ▶ Army has lost only three games under Rich Ellerson when on the plus side of the turnover battle and just twice when holding at least a two-takeaway advantage. The Black Knights are 11-3 when winning the turnover margin under Ellerson.
- ▶ In Army's last 15 wins the Black Knights are averaging 2.9 takeaways and hold a +1.9 turnover margin average (44-16 overall). Conversely, in its last 23 losses, Army is averaging just 1.2 takeaways per game and is on the wrong end of a -0.83 turnover margin average (27-46 overall).
- ▶ Army is 2-13 in its last 15 games without forcing an opponent turnover.

SCOREBOARD WATCHING

- ▶ Army scored seven points in its season-opening loss to San Diego State. The point total tied for the second-lowest since the start of 2009. Army scored seven in a loss at Air Force in 2009 and three points in a setback against Notre Dame in 2010 and a loss to Navy in 2009.
- ▶ The Black Knights have scored at least 21 points 20 times since the start of 2009, posting a 12-8 record which accounts for 80 percent of the team's 15 victories in that span.
- ▶ Conversely, Army is 3-15 in that same time span when scoring 20 points or less. The Black Knights have lost five straight games when failing to score at least 21 points.
- ▶ Army has won eight straight games when scoring at least 40 points.

THE RANK OF CAPTAIN

- ▶ Army junior Jarett Mackey was chosen as the Black Knights' "legacy" captain by last year's seniors during Army-Navy preparation. Mackey was chosen by that group as the best representative to carry on their voice and legacy.
- ▶ When the vote was taken, Mackey and the team believed 2012 would be his last season. He has since received a waiver from the NCAA to play in 2013. Mackey received medical leave from the Academy during the fall last year after suffering a knee injury in the opener at Northern Illinois.
- ▶ In addition to Mackey, the Black Knights will rotate game captains through the first six weeks of the season before naming permanent captains

BAGGETT HITS CENTURY MARK

- ▶ Sophomore RB Terry Baggett posted the first 100-yard rushing game of his career against San Diego State, running for 100 yards and a touchdown on just 13 carries.
- ▶ Baggett accounted for Army's lone touchdown against the Aztecs with a 10-yard touchdown run. It was his second career touchdown.
- ▶ Baggett is trying to become the latest sophomore to shine in the Army running game. In 2010, Jared Hassin rushed for 1,013 yards, while Raymond Maples ran for 1,066 yards last season.
- ▶ Baggett is the fourth active Army player to rush for 100 yards in a game, joining Hassin, Maples and QB Trent Steelman.

ARMY DEFENSIVE NOTES

THE MAGIC NUMBER

- ▶ Army won its 15th straight game when holding an opponent to 14 points or less in its 55-0 win over Fordham last season. The last time the Black Knights allowed 14-or-fewer points and lost was Sept. 2, 2006 in a 14-6 loss at Arkansas State. Since 2000, Army is 18-2 when holding opponents to no more than 14 points.
- ▶ After the loss to at San Diego State, the Black Knights are 20-117 since 1996 when allowing opponents to score 18-or-more points. In that same span, Army is 32-7 when the opponent tallies 17 or less.
- ▶ The Black Knights' 42-7 loss to the Aztecs was their 38th straight defeat when allowing at least 40 points. The last time Army won a game when its foe scored more than 40 was a 59-52 double-overtime win over Louisville on Oct. 7, 1999.

GET OFF THE FIELD

▶ Much like the offense, distance dictates third-down success. In the last 38 games, the Black Knights have allowed their opponents to convert only 26.4 percent of their third downs when the line to make is at least seven yards away (62-239). Conversely, when Army's opponent has three-or-fewer yards to go, they are converting at a 73.5 percent clip.

TAKING VICTORIES

▶ Army did not force a turnover in the loss at San Diego State, falling to 2-13 in its last 15 games without forcing an opponent turnover.

▶ The Black Knights' last win without a takeaway came last season against Northwestern (21-14).

▶ Since the start of 2009, Army is 10-1 when forcing at least three turnovers and 5-22 with two-or-less takeaways.

COMBS SACKS AZTECS

▶ Senior LB Nate Combs recorded both of Army's quarterback sacks at San Diego State.

▶ Combs has now recorded two sacks in two straight games. He finished the 2011 season with a pair of quarterback takedowns against Navy.

▶ Four of his five career sacks have come in the last two games.

ARMY SPECIAL TEAMS NOTES

ROOKIE TRIO

▶ Freshman Daniel Grochowski made his collegiate debut at San Diego State when he kicked the extra point following Army's touchdown. Grochowski was the kicker at the U.S. Military Academy Prep School in 2011.

▶ Grochowski was not the only freshman to come out on the field as part of the FG/PAT unit. Long snapper Andrew Ellerson and holder A.J. Schurr both stepped onto a college field for the first time.

▶ The Black Knights did not attempt a field goal against the Aztecs.

SPECIAL TEAMS SCORING

▶ San Diego State's Colin Lockett returned a kickoff 96 yards for a touchdown in the season opener.

▶ Dating back to the start of the 2007 season, the Black Knights have lost nine straight games when allowing a special teams touchdown.

▶ Army's last special teams touchdown came on the opening kickoff versus Temple on Sept. 29, 2007. Corey Anderson scored on an 88-yard return versus the Owls.

DIXON PULLS DOUBLE DUTY

▶ Sophomore FB Larry Dixon was the Black Knights' leading kick returner in the opener at San Diego State. Dixon returned three kicks for 76 yards, including a long of 30 yards.

▶ All three totals were career highs for Dixon.

▶ Dixon returned seven kicks for 90 yards as a freshman in 2011.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING

"Rich is an excellent football coach whose football mind speaks for itself. He's an individual that wants to be at West Point. He thinks there's something very important about Army winning on the football field as it carries over into the total military. I'm very high on Rich as a person, as a coach and as an individual that will do everything in his power to have a successful program at West Point."

Jim Young, former Army head coach (1983-90)

"Army just hired the best football coach in the country. If there was ever a perfect fit in your situation, Rich is it. I know all the obvious family ties, but I'm really not talking about all those things. I'm talking about the fact that I have such a high regard for Rich as a football coach, but even more so as a competitor. He's just a tough 'son of a gun' that will find any way he can to compete, and I just know that he will do very, very well at West Point. I couldn't be more thrilled for him and his family."

Dick Tomey, former head coach at Hawai'i (1977-86), Arizona (1987-2000) and San Jose State (2005-09)

"I know that Rich has always had a love for the Academy and for West Point. I knew that if he ever had an opportunity at some point in his career that it would be a perfect fit. My son, Tyler, played for him at Cal Poly. There is nobody I would rather have mentoring my son, not only in football. To have Rich Ellerson watching over my son at Cal Poly was very comforting because I knew that my son would be very well taken care of and required to be a good student, a good person, to follow rules and to do things as Rich set them up. There is nobody I would rather send my son to than Rich Ellerson. When your kid goes away, whether it is three hours away or across the country, you want to know that the man in charge is going to have a real positive influence on your son, and I knew that Rich was that person."

Steve Mariucci, former NFL head coach and current NFL Network analyst

HEAD COACH RICH ELLERSON (HAWAI'I, 1977)
4TH SEASON AT ARMY (15-23; .395)
13TH SEASON OVERALL (75-64; .540)

Since taking charge of the Army football program prior to the 2009 season, Rich Ellerson has been dedicated to the mission of reviving the Black Knights' storied history. In just three seasons, he has put Army on the path back to prominence, and has the program poised for excellence for years to come.

In addition to winning Army's first bowl game since 1985 in just his second season, Army football players have continued to make their mark in the classroom under Ellerson. Army has had four CoSIDA Academic All-American selections since 2009, including three first-team honorees. Andrew Rodriguez and Zach Watts were both first-team choices in 2011, marking the first time Army had multiple players on the first team since 1957.

One of the nation's true triple-option experts, Ellerson agreed to become Army's 36th head football coach on Dec. 26, 2008.

Ellerson is a veteran of nearly 30 years of coaching on the collegiate ranks, including eight as head coach at Cal Poly prior to his arrival at West Point. Not regarded as a traditional FCS power prior to Ellerson's arrival in 2001, Cal Poly finished each of his last four years ranked in the Top 25 of national FCS polls. The Mustangs won at least seven games during each of Ellerson's last six seasons at the helm and spent the majority of the 2008 season ranked in the top 10 of both the FCS Coaches Top 25 Poll and The Sports Network Division I-AA Poll. Cal Poly was ranked No. 3 in the FCS Coaches Poll for the final seven weeks of the regular season (and the last four weeks of The Sports Network Poll) before they were upset in the first round of the FCS playoffs by Weber State on Nov. 29. Before Ellerson's arrival, the Mustangs had not fashioned a winning season since 1997 and had enjoyed only three winning years since 1990.

It didn't take long for Ellerson to prove he was the right choice to revive the Army program. A finalist for the 2010 Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year Award, Ellerson produced more victories in his first two seasons (12) than any Army coach since Tom Cahill won 16 games during the 1966 and 1967 seasons.

In his first season on the banks of the Hudson, he led the squad to a 5-7 record, the most wins for the program in 13 seasons and came just one win shy of Army's first bowl berth since the 1996 Independence Bowl. It took little time for Ellerson's triple-option offense and double-eagle flex defense to prove their effectiveness. Army finished the 2009 season ranked 16th in the nation in rushing offense (203.6 yards per game) and 16th in the NCAA in total defense (304.7 yards per game).

The Black Knights built on that success in 2010, posting a 7-6 mark and winning the Bell Helicopter Armed Forces Bowl. Army's triple option produced the nation's eighth-ranked rushing attack (251.62 yds/game), while its 3,271 total rushing yards were the 10th most in program history. Defensively, the Black Knights ranked third in the nation in turnover margin (+1.23/game) while keeping five opponents to 21 points or less.

Ellerson, who turned 57 on New Year's Day, was born on Jan. 1, 1954, in Yokohama, Japan, while his father was stationed there. He and his wife, Dawn, have four children: Sean, 33, Shea, 29, Leta, 26, and Andrew, 19, and one granddaughter, Betty, 3.
