

2013 ARMY BLACK KNIGHTS FOOTBALL

Army Black Knights (1-2) vs. Wake Forest Demon Deacons (1-2) Presented by EMCOR

Game 4
Date: Saturday, Sept. 21, 2013
Time: 12:06 p.m.
TV: CBS Sports Network
Location: West Point, N.Y.
Venue: Michie Stadium
Capacity: 38,000
Series: Wake Forest leads, 8-4

The Army football team will conclude its brief, two-game homestand at Michie Stadium when Wake Forest visits West Point on Saturday. Kickoff is set for noon. The game is being presented by EMCOR Group.

The Black Knights are 1-2 following a 34-20 loss to nationally ranked Stanford. Stanford was No. 5 in the Associated Press poll and fourth in the coaches USA Today poll last week.

Army is averaging 20.7 points per game through three contests and lists in the top-10 nationally in rushing yards per game with an average of 314.

Wake Forest is also 1-2. After opening the season with a 31-7 victory over Presbyterian, the Demon Deacons have dropped consecutive decisions to Boston College (24-10) and Louisiana-Monroe (21-19).

Wake Forest leads the all-time series with Army 8-4 and will play at Michie Stadium for the first time in Sept. 11, 1999.

Army dropped a 49-27 decision at Wake Forest last season.

STANFORD LEFTOVERS

Army won the turnover battle with Stanford, forcing a fumble and intercepting a pass. Freshman Josh Jenkins intercepted a pass in the end zone, the first of his career. Junior Mike Ugenyi forced a fumble that was recovered by classmate Richard Glover.

Army outgained Stanford 284-197 in rushing yards.

Ten different players rushed for Army which dealt with a slew of in-game injuries.

The crowd of 39,644 was the first sellout of the season and the most at Michie Stadium since 2004 when 40,129 turned out for a game against Air Force.

Daniel Grochowski established his career-long with a 49-yard field goal, one of two he made in the game.

ABOUT THE DEMON DEACONS

Wake Forest will look to snap a two-game losing streak when it visits Michie Stadium.

The Demon Deacons are coming off losses to Boston College and Louisiana-Monroe but have won the last six games opposite Army.

Wake Forest is averaging 20 points per game and 326.3 yards per game of total offense, 240 of which comes through the air. Tanner Price has completed 60-of-102 passes for 720 yards and four

The Demon Deacons are allowing 17.3 points per game and surrendering 296.3 yards of total offense per game. Mike Olson has a team-best 24 tackles. Nikita Whitlock has five tackles for losses and three sacks and Kevin Johnson has two interceptions.

CAPTAINS

Michael Kime, Thomas Holloway and Jarrett Mackey will serve as team captains for the season, head coach Rich Ellerson announced to the squad before breaking camp.

Mackey, a linebacker from Snellville, Ga., was named the team's "legacy captain" by the 2011 seniors. He will continue in that role and also add special teams captain responsibilities.

Holloway, a linebacker and defensive back from Birmingham, Ala., was chosen as the defensive captain.

Kime, a versatile offensive lineman from Zionsville, Ind., will serve as the offensive captain.

The team captains were chosen in a vote by the players.

RUSHING RETURNERS

Army welcomes back six of its top eight rushers from last season's squad that led the nation with 369.8 yards per game.

Raymond Maples, Larry Dixon, Hayden Tippett, Trenton Turrentine, Terry Baggett, A.J. Schurr and Stephen Fraser helped Army establish Academy records for yards per game, total rushing yards (4,438), total offensive yards (5,235) and first downs (283) during the 2012 season.

MOVING BACK

Geoffery Bacon, who led the Black Knights with 136 tackles last season, moved from mike linebacker to free safety in spring practice. Bacon started all 12 games in 2012. Through three games as a safety, Bacon has a team-best 26 tackles.

RUSHING TO THE RECORD BOOK

Senior Raymond Maples is one of just three players to run for 1,000 yards in two straight seasons and will attempt to become the second to do it for three straight seasons. Mike Mayweather and Carlton Jones each rushed for 1,000 yards in consecutive seasons but only Mayweather did it three times.

DYNAMIC RETURNERS

Raymond Maples and Larry Dixon, who combined for 2,182 yards last season with 1,773 rushing yards and 459 receiving yards last season, are among the most dynamic returnees this season.

Maples and Dixon together boast the sixth-most yards of those expected back for the 2013 season. Kent State's Dri Archer and Trayion Durham (3,487 yards), Tulsa's Trey Watts and Ja'Terian Douglas (2,394), Syracuse's Jermome Smith and Prince-Tyson Gulley (2,366), Georgia's Todd Gurley and Keith Marshall (2,352) and Kansas' James Sims and Tony Person (2,232) are the only pairs ahead of Maples and Dixon.

TOPPING 4K

Last season, Army rushed for a school-record 4,438 yards, just the second time in school history the Black Knights have topped the 4,000-yard mark. The 2011 squad rushed for 4,158 yards.

STAFF CONTINUITY

Army is just one of seven schools that have coordinators who have been with the team for five years or more.

Offensive coordinator Ian Shields and co-defensive coordinators Chris Smeland and Payam Saadat are all beginning their fifth seasons at Army.

Oregon State has the longest tenured coordinators. Defensive coordinator Mark Banker is in his 11th season with the Beavers while offensive coordinator Danny Langsford is in his ninth.

Navy, Wake Forest, Northwestern, Southern Methodist and Texas Christian also have coordinators with at least five years at their institutions.

EXTRA TIME

Army has played seven overtime games since 2006 and holds a 5-2 mark in those games. Only

NIGHT VISION

Following a 28-12 victory over Morgan State, Army improved to 5-5 in games played under the lights of Michie Stadium.

SPECIAL TEAMS

The last time Army scored a special teams touchdown was against Temple on Sept. 29, 2007. Corey Anderson returned the opening kickoff 88 yards for a score and Jeremy Trimble returned a punt for an 85-yard touchdown opposite the Owls.

Army has gone 392 kickoffs and 299 returns and 293 punts and 106 punt returns without a score.

SUMMER TRAINING

Typical summers for cadets at the U.S. Military Academy include three blocks. Your major, branch plans, academic schedule, health and much more determine how that time is spent.

The Army football team had players scattered all over the world during the summer months. A sampling of some of the summer training they participated in:

- Hayden Tippett spent three weeks in Guam, Africa, as part of Cross Cultural Solutions. In the morning, he spent his days teaching fourth grade students math and information technology. In the afternoons, he utilized his information technology major to help a local college with network administration.

After his time in Africa, Tippett returned to the United States and flew directly to Fort Bragg, N.C., where he spent three weeks with the Military Police.

- Holt Zalneraitis and Daniel Whitaker spent the first part of their summers preparing for the Medical College Admission Test, one of many steps in getting accepted to medical school.

After taking the MCATs, Zalneraitis was the Regimental S3 as Commander of Operations for Cadet Basic Training, guiding the new class of plebes, or freshmen.

- Raymond Maples took two classes at West Point before traveling to Fort Bragg for Cadet Troop Leader Training. Maples spent half of his six weeks with a Transportation unit and half with an Air Defense Artillery unit.

- Michael Kime had a similar path with a class and training at Fort Bragg, through his time was spent with a Field Artillery unit.

In all, 32 players were at Fort Bragg for Cadet Troop Leader Training where they had the opportunity to learn about the branches of the military and help them decide what branch is best for them.

- Patrick Laird served as a Platoon Leader at Cadet Leadership Development Training at Camp Buckner at West Point. Laird was in one of six companies that, over the course of 19 days, engaged in three simulated training modules designed to test what they have learned from the West Point experience.

Laird was one of 23 football players to partake in the three week training done under scorching temperatures. Leadership roles are rotated to give each cadet an opportunity.

Follow the training, Laird participated in the Summer Garrison Regiment, along with seven of his teammates. They learned how West Point operates in all facets while assisting staff.

- Geoffery Bacon served as squad leader during Cadet Field Training, helping to shape the sophomore class. Chevaughn Lawrence also had that responsibility, after taking a physics class.

- Anthony Stephens was part of Cadet Leadership Development Training and then worked with an Engineering company while at Fort Bragg.

AMERICA'S GAME IN PHILLY

Army and Navy will meet for the 114th time when the Army-Navy Game presented by USAA takes place Dec. 14 in Philadelphia.

The service academy matchup will be played in Philadelphia for the 83rd time and will be shown live on CBS. Kick-off is set for 3 p.m.

RUSHING SUCCESS

Since 2009, Army has been among the top-18 teams in the country in rushing yards.

Army led the nation in rushing each of the past two seasons with its total yards per game increasing 166 yards per game.

CLASS MOTTO

One of the many duties new cadets are tasked with during Cadet Basic Training is choosing a class motto. The Class of 2017 chose So Others May Dream and unveiled it on a large banner during the March Back on August 15.

The other classes chose:

- 2016 With Honor We Lead
- 2015 For Those We Lead
- 2014 Forever One Team

NEW FACES

Army head coach Rich Ellerson added four new members to the coaching staff. Mayur Chaudhari, Tom Simi, Todd Spencer and Wayne Moses round out the 2013 staff.

Chaudhari came to West Point after two seasons at the U.S. Military Academy Preparatory School (USMAPS) and works with the safeties and co-defensive coordinators Chris Smeland and Payam Saadat.

Simi was the head coach at USMAPS last season, his fourth season at the prep school. He and Spencer, a veteran option mentor, have offensive line responsibilities.

Moses works with the A-Backs and C-Backs at West Point. Moses has been on the staff of 13 bowl teams and has worked with head coaches including Terry Donahue, Steve Mariucci, Jim Lambright, Walt Harris and Rick Neuheisel.

Army's coaching staff, responsibilities and alma maters as well as game day locations can be found on page 2.

THE CLASS OF 2017

A total of 1,193 cadets began Cadet Basic Training and the class now stands at 1,182 following summer training. Medical disqualifications and those who didn't successfully complete the training shrunk the number.

The Class of 2017 includes 337 minorities, 17 international cadets and 31 combat veterans. The class was chosen from a pool of 15,407 applicants.

The Class of 2017 includes cadets from every state in the nation and 17 international cadets entering the class under the sponsorship of their respective countries. The countries represented include Afghanistan, Botswana, Cambodia, Jordan, Kazakhstan, Latvia, Malaysia, Moldova, Mongolia, Nigeria, the Philippines, Rwanda, United Arab Emirates, South Korea and Thailand. Upon graduation, these cadets will return to their respective countries as officers in their armed forces.

Among those accepted as part of the Class of

ARMY IN OVERTIME

- After playing just one overtime game between 1996 and 2005, Army has had seven games go to an extra session in its last 60 outings.
- Army's seven overtime games since 2006 is tied for fourth most in the nation during that span. East Carolina and Navy have played nine such games, while Buffalo has played eight OT games. The Black Knights are tied with Minnesota, Michigan State and Notre Dame at seven.
- Army lost its last overtime game, a 23-20 setback versus Rutgers on Oct. 16, 2010. Army is now 6-2 all-time in overtime. Army is 5-0 at Michie Stadium in overtime.
- Army has allowed just 16 points in its eight overtime games. Rutgers' game-winning score was the first time the opponent reached the end zone after regulation since Louisville scored a touchdown in the first overtime in 1999. It stopped a streak of seven-straight overtime periods without allowing a touchdown.

NO ONE IN 12

While Army has retired four numbers, Army does not issue the number 12 to any of its players. Rather, the number is reserved for the Corps of Cadets, the 12th man of Army football. Most shirts that feature a number, use 12. Numbers 24, 35, 41 and 61 have been retired.

OFFICER PLAQUE

As the Army football team enters the field, one of the long traditions is to touch the Officer plaque. A team member holds the plaque aloft and the players reach up as they are passing by.

The plaque states: "I want an officer for a secret and dangerous mission. I want a West Point football player." Gen. George Marshall, Chief of Staff of the U.S. Army during World War II, made the statement at the Pentagon when he needed an officer to train and lead a ranger-type battalion on a secret mission.

ARMY/CBS SPORTS NETWORK

Army and CBS Sports Network are in the fourth year of an exclusive television partnership that guarantees all Black Knights home games are shown live on national television.

The agreement was originally set to begin with the 2010 season but began a season early with the live telecast of three games in 2009.

CBS Sports Network Army broadcast team features Ben Holden on play-by-play, former coach Tom Bradley as the color commentary, Kristine Leahy as the sideline reporter and John Feinstein as essayist.

CADET ASSISTANCE

During each home game, CBS Sports Network sideline reporter Kristine Leahy will be joined by a cadet to aid in the broadcast.

The following cadets are schedule to appear during the 2013 season.

Morgan State:	Craig Curry
Stanford:	Kevin Carlin
Wake Forest:	Emily Clemons
Eastern Michigan:	Alex Jensen
Western Kentucky:	Daniel Sauter

PATCHES

The Black Knights will wear only one uniform patch this year, the patch of the U.S. Army.

In past years, the uniforms have featured a different patch each week. Instead, the team will carry out a flag of a unique unit each week.

The Army jersey patch will remain for the season and helmet stickers to reflect the flag will be utilized.

Army will carry these unit flags for the upcoming season.

FOOTBALL LEADERSHIP

Lieutenant General Robert L. Caslen, Jr. became the 59th Superintendent of the U.S. Military Academy at West Point on July 17, 2013.

Lt. Gen. Caslen graduated from the U.S. Military Academy in 1975. He earned master's degrees from Long Island University and Kansas State University.

Caslen earned varsity letters as a member of the football team in 1973 and 1974.

Previous to this assignment, Lt. Gen. Caslen served as the Chief of the Office of Security Cooperation-Iraq. His prior deployments and assignments include serving as the commander of the Combined Arms Center at Fort Leavenworth, Kan., the command that oversees the Command and General Staff College and 17 other schools, centers, and training programs located throughout the United States; commanding general of the 25th Infantry Division (Light) and commanding general of the Multi-National Division-North during Operation Iraqi Freedom; Commandant of Cadets for the U.S. Military Academy; Deputy Director for the War on Terrorism, J-5, The Joint Staff; Assistant Division Commander (maneuver), 3rd Infantry Division (Mechanized); Chief of Staff, 10th Mountain Division (Light); Chief of Staff, Combined Joint Task Force Mountain during Operation Enduring Freedom; Commander, 2nd Brigade, 101st Airborne Division (Air Assault); Chief of Staff, 101st Airborne Division (Air Assault); Senior Brigade C2 Observer/Controller, Operations Group, Joint Readiness Training Center; Commander, 1st Battalion, 14th Infantry, 25th Infantry Division (Light); Executive Officer to the Deputy Commander in Haiti during Operation Uphold Democracy; J-3 in Honduras for Joint Task Force Bravo; Brigade Operations Officer, 3rd Brigade, 101st Airborne Division (Air Assault); Executive Officer, 2nd Battalion, 187th Infantry, 101st Airborne Division (Air Assault) during Operations Desert Shield/Desert Storm. Lieutenant General Caslen's awards and decorations include the Distinguished Service Medal, the Defense Superior Service Medal with Oak Leaf Cluster, the Legion of Merit with four Oak Leaf Clusters, the Bronze Star Medal with two Oak Leaf Clusters, the Defense Meritorious Service Medal, and the Meritorious Service Medal with five Oak Leaf Clusters. He has earned the Combat Infantryman Badge, the Joint Chiefs of Staff Identification Badge, and is Airborne, Air Assault, and Ranger qualified.

Superintendent
LTG Robert Caslen

FOLLOWING IN FOOTSTEPS

While Army boasts five sets of brothers, there are four players with brothers who were recently commissioned by the U.S. Military Academy.

Freshman Seth Combs is the younger brother of Nate, last year's co-captain. Sophomore Jake Peterson's brother, Zach, was a 2011 graduate while senior Justin Trimble is the third in his family to play for the Black Knights following Jeremy (2008) and Jordan (2010). Junior Mike Ugenyi's brother, Victor, is a 2009 graduate.

POSTSEASON BOWLING

If Army is bowl eligible during the 2013 season, the Black Knights will participate in the San Diego Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl on Dec. 26 at Qualcomm Stadium in San Diego, Calif. Kickoff on ESPN is set for 9:30 p.m.

Army needs to have six wins prior to its game against Navy to qualify for the bowl game. It will oppose a team from the Mountain West Conference.

Army has never played a bowl game in California and is looking to earn a bid to its sixth bowl game. The last time Army played in a bowl game was a 16-14 victory over Southern Methodist University in the Bell Helicopter Armed Forces Bowl on Dec. 30, 2012, in Dallas.

LEADING FROM WITHIN

Thomas Holloway, a senior member of the defensive secondary, is a part of the leadership of the Corps of Cadets.

A native of Birmingham, Ala., Holloway will serve as the Brigade Student Athletic Advisor Council, a group made up of team captains from each sport.

Holloway is one of five cadet-athletes on the Chain of Command. Lindsey Danilack serves as First Captain and leads the 4,400 Corps of Cadets. Fellow track and field athletes Alexandra Sutherland (Brigade S4) and Ian MacPherson (Fourth Regiment Commander) are also among the group. Jon Crucitti, a former football player

GENERAL HONOR

General Raymond T. Odierno, the 38th Chief of Staff of the U.S. Army and a 1976 graduate of the U.S. Military Academy will be presented with the National Football Foundation Distinguished American Award. Odierno will be presented with the honor during the 56th NFF Awards Dinner at the Waldorf-Astoria in New York City on Dec. 10. One of the most prestigious honors presented by the NFF, the award recognizes an outstanding person who has maintained a lifetime of interest in the game and who, over a long period of time, has exhibited enviable leadership qualities and made a significant contribution to the betterment of amateur football in the United States.

Odierno became the 38th Chief of Staff of the United States Army on Sept. 7, 2011. He boasts more than 37 years of military experience since graduating from West Point, including service in Albania, Germany, Kuwait and Iraq.

An executive officer in operations for Desert Shield and Desert Storm in the 1990s, Odierno returned to the Middle East in 2003 as the commander of the 4th Infantry Division during Operation Iraqi Freedom, and his troops captured Saddam Hussein outside of Tikrit in December 2003. "It was ironic that he was in a hole in the ground across the river from the great palaces he built using all the money he robbed from the Iraqi people ... caught like a rat," Odierno legendarily said at the time.

Born on Sept. 8, 1954, Odierno grew up in Rockaway, N.J., playing tight end on a championship football team at Morris Hills High School. At an imposing 6-foot-5 inches, he was recruited by West Point to play football and baseball, but Odierno suffered a knee injury his freshman year, which forced him to forgo football. He shifted his focus to baseball, earning three varsity letters as a pitcher for the Black Knights.

RADIO STRENGTH

The Army Athletic Association, in conjunction with Army Sports Properties, continues to grow its radio network and this football season will offer affiliates all over the country.

For the eighth consecutive year and ninth overall, WABC (770-AM) in New York City will serve as the flagship station.

WABC is a 50,000-watt clear-channel signal covers the tri-State area of New York, New Jersey, and Connecticut, and can be heard in 38 states and Canada. WABC is also the number one streamed radio station.

In addition to WABC, fans all over the country will be able to follow along with Army football games with the announcement of 13 new affiliates. Twenty stations, many at or near military posts, will offer the Army Sports Network.

For a complete list of affiliates, please see page 1.

The Army Sports Network will offer comprehensive coverage of Black Knights football this fall. The Army Football Tailgate Show airs two hours before kickoff with Black Knights Game Day starting 30 minutes prior to the start of the game.

The Army Sports Network has one of the most tenured broadcast crews in the nation. Color commentator Dean Darling is now in his 34th season, program host Joe Beckerle is in his 15th year, play-by-play announcer Rich DeMarco begins his 10th season and sideline reporter Tony Morino is in his fourth year. John Minko, the host of the home tailgate show, has been with Army football for 14 years.

THIS WEEK IN ARMY FOOTBALL

The popular "This Week in Army Football" radio show will return for the 2013 season, with an added twist.

Assistant Athletic Director for Multimedia Rich DeMarco will serve as host along with head coach Rich Ellerson. Last year, the show featured a segment that spoke about the particular patch the team was wearing. This year, with the squad utilizing an Army patch, an Officer Representative will speak regarding the flag the team is carrying out. Once again, an assistant coach will join the show each week.

All shows will be held at the First Class Club at West Point and will begin at 7 p.m. Shows will be streamed at goARMYsports.com on Knight Vision, allowing those with a subscription to watch. The Army Sports Network will also carry the show.

Free appetizers, giveaways, prizes and contests are offered each week.

ARMY IN CANTON

Bill Parcels, who spent three years as an assistant coach at Army, was among the seven people inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame this August.

Parcells was a member of Tom Cahill's football staff for three seasons and also assisted Bobby Knight on the basketball court from 1967-1969. He was enshrined into professional football's hall of fame along with Larry Allen, Cris Carter, Curley Chip, Jonathan Ogden, Dave Robinson and Warren Sapp. The Class of 2013 was elected

OBC..... Officer Basic Course

A cadet's first stop after graduation from the Academy. OBC precedes a cadet's first assignment.

BRANCH..... (i.e. Field Artillery, Infantry)

Specific part of the Army that each cadet chooses to join upon graduation. Cadets receive their "branch" in February of their senior year. What you branch determines where you are stationed for OBC.

HONOR CODE

"A Cadet Will Not Lie, Cheat, Steal or Tolerate Those Who Do." The creed, or oath, each cadet takes upon entering the Academy. It is the code by which all cadets must live.

in February and enshrined during an emotional afternoon in Canton, Ohio.

Wearing the traditional mustard yellow blazer, Parcels became the 22nd coach inducted after leading four teams to the playoffs - the Giants, Patriots, Jets and Cowboys - the only coach to ever do so.

Bill Parcels

At Army, Parcels coached the linebackers and helped the Black Knights win 19 games over that span, including two stars victories over Navy, 21-14 in 1968 and 27-0 in 1969.

He was also a member of Bobby Knight's basketball staff, though in a recent interview he said his role was limited.

Parcels spent 19 years coaching in the National Football League, amassing a 183-138-1 record, including an 11-8 mark in the playoffs. He was named the NFL Coach of the Year in 1986 and 1994.

COACHING CONCENTRATION

Members of the Army football team made the trek to Freehold Township, N.J., to participate in a unique workshop held by Mark R. McLaughlin, MD, at CentraState Healthcare System over the summer.

Dr. McLaughlin guided the coaches as they performed mock surgery on spine and brain models to learn concentration, precision and execution under stress in an operating room.

Dr. McLaughlin's workshop showed how to improve concentration, execution and overall performance as it relates to what a surgeon does in the OR and what a football coach and team does on the field.

Dr. McLaughlin, medical director of Princeton Brain & Spine Care, developed the concept that performance is non-specific; whether you're a surgeon, football coach, a military officer or parent, every task has to be done with focus and commitment.

"I'm not sure what I was expecting but the day blew us away," said Army coach Rich Ellerson. "Dr. McLaughlin apparently believes that if it's worth doing, it's worth over-doing. We were exposed to a remarkably talented and committed team of medical professionals. They combined the right amount of 'theater' with a state-of-the-art medical environment and sobering realities. We were briefed, prepped, and guided through simulations that gave us a glimpse of the demanding and life-changing challenges they face routinely. Mark, his colleagues, and the good people at CentraState Medical Center provided us with a once-in-a-lifetime experience that made a profound impression. We are exceedingly grateful and humbled by the effort they made on our behalf. It will make a difference."

SPIRIT LUNCHEONS

Army Spirit Luncheons, presented by USAA, will return in 2013 with gatherings scheduled to coincide with home football games and service academy match-ups.

All lunches will be held at the West Point Club at the U.S. Military Academy and begin promptly at noon with food service beginning at 11:15 a.m. Head coach Rich Ellerson and other special guests will speak each week.

SEASON AT A GLANCE

August 30, 2013

Army 28, Morgan State 12

QB Angel Santiago rushed for 120 yards and a touchdown and threw for 101 yards and a score in the season-opening victory at Michie Stadium on Friday night. Larry Dixon rushed for 107 yards as Army racked up 396 yards of total offense. Army held Morgan State to 301 yards of total offense. Geoffery Bacon made 16 tackles and Alex Meier 11.

Sept. 7, 2013

Ball State 40, Army 14

Keith Wenning threw for 325 yards and two touchdowns at Scheumann Stadium. For Army, Larry Dixon ran for 113 yards, his second consecutive 100-yard game. Raymond Maples picked up 84 yards. Thomas Holloway was credited with 11 tackles and Shaquille Tolbert and Alex Meier seven.

Sept. 14, 2013

#5/4 Stanford 34, Army 20

Kevin Hogan threw for three touchdowns to lead Stanford to a 34-20 victory at a sold-out Michie Stadium. Hogan connected on 11-of-18 passes. Ten different players collected rushes for Army, led by 96 yards from Terry Baggett. Larry Dixon ran for a touchdown and 22 yards. A.J. Schurr completed 4-of-5 passes for 25 yards and a touchdown, a six-yard toss to Edgar Poe. Angel Santiago was 2-of-5 passing for 24 yards and ran for 54 yards. Chris Carnegie and Thomas Holloway each made eight tackles. Josh Jenkins intercepted the first pass of his career.

Tickets are just $8 if purchased in advance and $10 at the door. For more information, please contact the West Point Club at 845-938-5120.

Army Spirit Luncheons, presented by USAA, will be held on the following dates:

- Thursday, Sept. 19
- Thursday, Oct. 10
- Thursday, Oct. 31

NEW VOICE

Gordon Deal, who has served as the New York Giants public address announcer since 2011, will add Army football duties.

Deal will serve as the public address announcer for all home Army football games. Deal, the host of the Wall Street Journal Radio Morning Show, will be behind the microphone for all five Army home games this season. A veteran radio reporter, Deal has been with the Wall Street Journal since 2005 after serving stints at WINS-AM and WCBS-AM. In addition to his writing and reporting at the nationally known news stations, Deal also served as New York City bureau chief for Metro Networks which aired on WOR-AM and WABC-AM.

HEAD COACH RICH ELLERSSON (HAWAI'I, 1977)

5TH SEASON AT ARMY (18-34; .346); 14TH SEASON OVERALL (78-75; .509)

Since taking charge of the Army football program prior to the 2009 season, Rich Ellerson has been dedicated to the mission of reviving the Black Knights' storied history. Entering his fifth season, he has put Army on the path back to prominence, and has the program poised for excellence for years to come.

One of the nation's true triple-option experts, Ellerson agreed to become Army's 36th head football coach on Dec. 26, 2008.

In just his second season, Ellerson proved his methods could result in success on the banks of the Hudson. Ellerson brought winning football back to West Point in 2010 when he became just the second coach in Army history to win a postseason game. The Black Knights' 16-14 win over SMU in the Bell Helicopter Armed Forces Bowl secured Army's first winning season since 1996.

In addition to a bowl victory, Ellerson's squads have scored some memorable wins in his four seasons. Army has defeated a team from a Bowl Championship Series automatic qualifying conference in each of his four seasons (2009 - Vanderbilt; 2010 - Duke; 2011 - Northwestern; 2012 - Boston College). Ellerson became the first Army coach since 2005 to defeat a service academy. The 2012 Black Knights ended a six-game losing streak to Air Force, which also snapped a 13-game skid versus academy rivals.

Ellerson and his staff have not been shy of utilizing younger players. In 2011, Army led the nation by playing 19 true freshmen, including 11 who started at least once. In 2012, the Black Knights had 10 plebes make their collegiate debut, including four starters on the defensive side of the ball.

In Ellerson's four seasons, the Black Knights have had unprecedented offensive success. Army has led the nation in rushing in each of the last two seasons, a program first since 1944-45. The Black Knights have finished no lower than 16th on the national rushing ledger in the last four years, posting top-eight finishes in each of the last three campaigns. The 2012 team used Ellerson's triple-option attack to break the Academy records for both total rushing yards (4,438) and rushing yards per game (369.8).

Under Ellerson, Army football players have continued to make their mark in the classroom as well. Army has had four CoSIDA Academic All-America selections since 2009, including three first-team honorees. Andrew Rodriguez and Zach Watts were both first-team choices in 2011, marking the first time Army had multiple players on the first team since 1957.

Rodriguez also put his name in the history books, becoming the first Army player to win the National Football Foundation's William V. Campbell Trophy as the nation's top football scholar-athlete. He also captured the Amateur Athletic Union's James E. Sullivan Award as the top amateur athlete in the country. He was Army's first winner since 1946 and was only the third college football player to win both the Campbell Trophy and Sullivan Award (Peyton Manning, Tim Tebow).

Ellerson is a veteran of nearly 30 years of coaching in the collegiate ranks, including eight as head coach at Cal Poly prior to his arrival at West Point. Not regarded as a traditional FCS power prior to Ellerson's arrival in 2001, Cal Poly finished each of his last four years ranked in the Top 25 of national FCS polls. The Mustangs won at least seven games during each of Ellerson's last six seasons at the helm and spent the majority of the 2008 season ranked in the Top 10 of both the FCS Coaches Top 25 Poll and The Sports Network Division I-AA Poll. Cal Poly was ranked No. 3 in the FCS Coaches Poll for the final seven weeks of the regular season (and the last four weeks of The Sports Network Poll) before they were upset in the first round of the FCS playoffs by Weber State on Nov. 29. Before Ellerson's arrival, the Mustangs had not fashioned a winning season since 1997 and had enjoyed only three winning years since 1990.

It didn't take long for Ellerson to prove he was the right choice to revive the Army program. A finalist for the 2010 Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year Award, Ellerson produced more victories in his first two seasons (12) than any Army coach since Tom Cahill won 16 games during the 1966 and 1967 seasons.

In his first season on the banks of the Hudson, he led the squad to a 5-7 record, the most wins for the program in 13 seasons and came just one win shy of Army's first bowl berth since the 1996 Independence Bowl. It took little time for Ellerson's triple-option offense and double-eagle flex defense to prove their effectiveness. Army finished the 2009 season ranked 16th in the nation in rushing offense (203.6 yards per game) and 16th in the NCAA in total defense (304.7 yards per game).

The Black Knights built on that success in 2010, posting a 7-6 mark and earning the programs' first postseason win since the 1985 Peach Bowl. Army's triple option produced the nation's eighth-ranked rushing attack (251.62 yds/game), while its 3,271 total rushing yards were the 10th-most in program history. Defensively, the Black Knights ranked third in the nation in turnover margin (+1.23/game) while keeping five opponents to 21 points or less.

His success at West Point comes as no surprise. Ellerson was named NCAA Division I-AA Independents Coach of the Year in 2003 and a year later was honored as Great West Football Conference Coach of the Year as well as AFCA Region 5 Coach of the Year during his tenure at Cal Poly.

Prior to his selection as Cal Poly's 15th head football coach on Dec. 6, 2000, Ellerson served as the defensive coordinator at Arizona, holding that title from 1997 to 2000. It marked a return stint in Tucson for the highly regarded mentor. Ellerson assumed duties as the Wildcats' assistant head coach, while overseeing Arizona's defensive line and special teams during his first stay in the desert from 1992 to 1995. It was at that time that he first became associated with legendary former Army head coach Jim Young, who had retired as the Black Knights' mentor following the 1990 season and assumed a volunteer role on Dick Tomey's UA staff. Ellerson also assisted then-Army head coach Bob Sutton in installing his "Desert Swarm" defense at West Point, a stop unit that helped carry the Black Knights to a 10-2 record and a berth in the Independence Bowl in 1996.

In his final season at Cal Poly, the Mustangs closed with an 8-3 record and ranked No. 8 in the FCS Coaches Poll and No. 10 in The Sports Network Poll. In two of their most memorable performances, the Mustangs posted a 29-27 victory over Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) member San Diego State at

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT ELLERSON

"Rich is an excellent football coach whose football mind speaks for itself. He's an individual that wants to be at West Point. He thinks there's something very important about Army winning on the football field as it carries over into the total military. I'm very high on Rich as a person, as a coach and as an individual that will do everything in his power to have a successful program at West Point." – Jim Young, former Army head coach (1983-90)

"Army just hired the best football coach in the country. If there was ever a perfect fit in your situation, Rich is it. I know all the obvious family ties, but I'm really not talking about all those things. I'm talking about the fact that I have such a high regard for Rich as a football coach, but even more so as a competitor. He's just a tough 'son of a gun' that will find any way he can to compete, and I just know that he will do very, very well at West Point. I couldn't be more thrilled for him and his family." – Dick Tomey, former head coach at Hawai'i (1977-86), Arizona (1987-2000) and San Jose State (2005-09)

"I'm excited about Rich Ellerson's selection as Army's new head football coach. He's got ties to the Military Academy, with his father and two brothers having graduated from West Point. I like the fact that Coach Ellerson has taken a program that's been down and turned it around at Cal Poly. He's a winner and that's what we need. We need to bring back the winning tradition at Army. We need to get that back. The United States Military Academy at West Point represents our country and the football team represents our country." – Ronnie McAda, former Army quarterback (1993-96)

Qualcomm Stadium in San Diego on Aug. 30 and suffered a heartbreaking 36-35 overtime loss to Big 10 Conference member Wisconsin at Camp Randall Stadium in Madison, Wis., on Nov. 22. In guiding the Mustangs to a fourth consecutive year-ending Top 25 national ranking, Ellerson earned his third Great West Football Conference Coach of the Year honor and finished second in the balloting for the Eddie Robinson Award, which is presented annually to the FCS coach of the year by The Sports Network. His team committed a total of just six turnovers through its 10 regular-season games in 2008 and listed 97th in the final Sagarin Ratings, ahead of such FBS schools as Memphis, Syracuse, Iowa State, Indiana, Washington and Washington State.

Cal Poly captured three Great West Football Conference championships, claimed a pair of NCAA Division I-AA playoff berths and registered 48 wins in its last 70 games under Ellerson's direction. The Mustangs' streak of six consecutive winning seasons marked their longest span since ripping off 13 straight winning records from 1968 to 1980. Cal Poly has captured three of its last eight games against FBS opponents, notching wins against Texas El-Paso and San Diego State (twice), while falling in overtime to Wisconsin.

Employing an aggressive defensive set and an explosive triple-option offensive attack, Ellerson compiled a 56-34 record (.622) in eight seasons at the Cal Poly helm. The Mustangs posted a 48-22 record (.686) in their final 70 games under Ellerson dating back to the 2002 campaign.

The Mustangs' vaunted triple-option offense experienced unparalleled success in 2008, establishing school records for first downs (262), first downs rushing (162), points scored (488) and touchdowns (67). Cal Poly piled up at least 49 points in six of 11 contests, topped the 50-point barrier three times and registered a season-high 69 points in a home defeat of Southern Utah. In all, Cal Poly scored in 41 of their 44 quarters of action. The Mustangs finished the season ranked first nationally in both total offense (487.45) and scoring offense (44.36), second in pass efficiency (167.72) and third in rushing offense (306.45).

While Ellerson has built a solid reputation as an innovative offensive mind, he garnered national acclaim as a defensive trend-setter last decade at the University of Arizona when he created the pressure, gap-control "Desert Swarm" defensive scheme.

Ellerson left Arizona briefly, accepting his first head coaching assignment at Southern Utah University in 1996. He returned to Arizona as the Wildcats' defensive coordinator one year later after helping Southern Utah to a 4-7 record and a national rushing title during his only year in control of the Thunderbirds. Southern Utah managed just two victories the previous season.

During his initial stay in Tucson, Ellerson served as an assistant to defensive coordinator Larry MacDuff. The Wildcats' defensive system ranked second nationally against the run in 1992 and 1993. Arizona ranked in the top 10 nationally in total defense during all four of those years. He also helped improve Arizona's special teams play and coached placekicker Steve McLaughlin to the Lou Groza Award in 1994.

He capped his second Tucson tenure in 2000 by helping the Wildcats to a No. 8 national ranking in rushing defense (88.5 yards per game). The Wildcats also ranked second in the Pac 10 Conference in total defense (317.5) and takeaways (33). Among the players Ellerson tutored at Arizona were future NFL stalwarts Ted Bruschi and Chris McAllister. The Wildcats combined to earn five postseason bowl berths during his two stays at Arizona (spanning eight years).

Ellerson spent four years as a member of the University of Hawai'i football program during his undergraduate days, splitting time between the center and linebacker positions. He graduated from UH in 1977 and began his coaching career at his alma mater as a graduate assistant during Tomey's first season as head coach in 1977.

The Tucson, Ariz., native went on to serve one-year stints as secondary coach at Arizona Western College in 1978, linebackers and special teams coach at the University of Idaho in 1979, and defensive line and special teams mentor at Cal State Fullerton in 1980. He returned to Hawai'i for the second of his three coaching stints, tutoring the Warriors' defensive line, outside linebackers and special teams from 1981 to 1983.

Ellerson moved on to the professional ranks for the next three years, heading to the Canadian Football League. He served as defensive line coach for the British Columbia Lions from 1984 to 1985, helping to lead the Lions to a Grey Cup championship in 1985. He became defensive coordinator for the Calgary Stampeders in 1986 before accepting a similar role at Hawai'i during a third assignment with his alma mater.

As defensive coordinator at Hawai'i from 1987 to 1991, Ellerson was teamed with a young triple-option guru named Paul Johnson, who served as the Warriors' offensive coordinator at the time. Johnson would go on to experience highly successful head coaching terms at Georgia Southern, Navy and, most recently, Georgia Tech.

Ken Niumatalolo, currently serving as head coach at Navy, lettered three times at quarterback (1987-89), and Ivin Jasper, presently the Mids' offensive coordinator, lettered three times at quarterback and slotback (1991-93) for Hawai'i during that time. Ellerson became intimately familiar with the triple-option ingenuity of Johnson during those years. He would successfully install the high-powered system at Southern Utah and Cal Poly in the years that followed.

The son of a career U.S. Army officer, the Black Knights' head football coach possesses strong ties to West Point, despite spending the majority of his life on the West Coast. While his father, Col. (Ret.) Geoffrey Ellerson, graduated from the Military Academy in 1935, his oldest brother, Maj. Gen. (Ret.) John, lettered for three years on Army's football team and served as team captain for head coach Paul Dietzel's Black Knights in 1962. His other brother, Col. (Ret.) Geoffrey D. Ellerson Jr., also graduated from West Point in 1963, and his nephew, Geoffrey Ellerson III, is an Army Colonel who has served in Iraq.

"I will never receive, nor have I ever received a finer compliment professionally or personally than to be entrusted with the Army football program at this point in its history," Ellerson offered upon taking the position. "I grew up with Army Football. I was part of a typical Army family. When I was a kid, I was watching those guys at West Point, my father was a West Point graduate and we were living on Army posts all over the world. I just grew up thinking that West Point was the center of the universe."

Ellerson, who turned 59 on New Year's Day, was born on Jan. 1, 1954, in Yokohama, Japan, while his father was stationed there. He graduated from Tucson's Salpointe High in 1972.

He and his wife, Dawn, have four children: Sean, Shea, Leta and Andrew, and two grandchildren, Betty and Emmett.
