SEC FOOTBALL VIDEO REPLAY

THE OBJECTIVE

To allow for specific types of officiating calls to be immediately reviewed during all games hosted by SEC teams.

THE COACHES' CHALLENGE

The head coach may challenge the ruling of any reviewable play. He retains a challenge if his initial challenge is successful and thus results in a reversal by the replay official. The head coach will then have a single challenge that he may use anytime during the game if his team has not used all its timeouts. Thus a team may have a total of two challenges in the game, but only if the first results in a reversal of the on-field ruling.

THE SOURCE

All reviewable video comes direct from either the television network broadcasting the game or other TV production facilities that meet established conference standards. The Southeastern Conference has used instant replay since 2005.

THE PLAYS

THE PROCESS

Each SEC football stadium has a secured replay booth equipped with the HD Instant Replay system provided by XOS Digital. Three individuals work in the booth for the duration of the game: 1. Replay Official, 2. Communicator, 3. Technician. The Replay Official and the Communicator are selected and assigned by the Conference Office.

A live HD video feed is sent directly to the replay booth from the TV truck. The Technician watches the feed on an input monitor while recording it into the XOS Digital Replay System. The Technician also marks the beginning of each play while the Communicator marks all incoming replays.

Each play and subsequent replay then appears on a touch screen in front of the Replay Technician. As the Technician and the Communicator mark the incoming video, each view will appear as a small picture on the computer touch screen. At any time, the Replay Technician can touch the thumbnail and immediately send that play or replay to the Replay Official.

With the Communicator's assistance, the Replay Official can quickly jump between replays while playing back the video. All replay video navigation is done via a jog shuttle remote controlled by the Replay Official. All video is viewed on an HD monitor that sits in front of the Replay Official. The touch screen is only used to select the replays and to log specific play data in the event a call is overturned.

While all plays are reviewed between the whistle and the beginning of the next play, the Replay Official can stop play on the field by using a pager system. Five onfield officials wear pagers. If play is stopped the Referee announces on the stadium PA microphone that play has been stopped so the previous play can be reviewed. The Referee then proceeds to the sideline headset, which provides direct communication to the Replay Official in the booth. Once the play has been reviewed, the Replay Official notifies the Referee, who then announces the decision on the stadium PA system.

THE EQUIPMENT

Each SEC member institution uses the HD Replay System developed by XOS Digital of Orlando, FL. The replay systems are maintained by the home institution with technical support from XOS Digital.

The Big 12 has two BCS national titles followed by the ACC, Big Ten, Pac-10 and Big East with one each.

The SEC is the first conference to claim four consecutive Associated Press (first poll - 1936), National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame (first poll - 1959), Football Writers Association of America (first poll - 1954) and USA Today or UPI Coaches Poll (first poll - 1950) national championships.

Since SEC expansion in 1992, the SEC has the most national championships (AP, USA Today) with eight. During that time, the SEC has had more teams with national titles than any other conference (4). Here is a breakdown:

NOTES PRIOR TO 2010

* - Of the 85 previous times that an SEC team has been ranked in an AP preseason poll since 1993, only 34 times has that team improved its position in the final poll.

* - On 20 occasions, an SEC team that has been unranked in the preseason poll has finished in the Top 25 of the final poll. The highest ranked team at the end of the season, which was unranked at the beginning, was Auburn in 1993 (finished fourth). Arkansas was unranked at the start of the 2006 season.

SEC BOWL AGREEMENTS

The Southeastern Conference has agreements to send nine of its member institutions to postseason bowl games following the 2010 season.

The winner of the SEC Championship Game will automatically participate in the Bowl Championship Series comprised of the Sugar, Rose, Orange and Fiesta Bowls.

The Capital One Bowl has the second selection, making its pick following the BCS selections. The bowl must select the team with the next best overall record or a team that is within one win of the team with the next best overall record.

The AT&T Cotton and the Outback Bowls share the third and fourth selections from the SEC. The Cotton Bowl has the first preference of teams from the Western Division and the Outback Bowl has first preference of teams from the Eastern Division. The Cotton or Outback Bowl can select teams outside of its divisional preference, but must not select them before the opposite bowl selects from its divisional preference.

The Chick-fil-A Bowl has the fifth selection of preference from the SEC.

New to the SEC bowl rotation this year, the Gator Bowl has the sixth selection from the SEC.

The Franklin American Mortgage Music City Bowl has the seventh selection from the SEC.

In selections 8-9, the AutoZone Liberty and Birmingham Bowls share the selection over the four-year agreement.

The 2010-11 SEC Bowl Schedule is as follows (all times Eastern / listed in chronological order):

2010 BOWL CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES SCHEDULE

Following the 2010 college football regular season, the Bowl Championship Series will determine the National Championship. The BCS National Championship Game, which will stand alone from the four traditional BCS bowls but will be hosted by each of the bowls once during a four-year cycle.

The BCS consists of the Discover Orange, Allstate Sugar, Rose Bowl Game, Tostitos Fiesta Bowl and the Tostitos BCS National Championship Game. The conferences with automatic berths include the Atlantic Coast, Big East, Big Ten, Big 12, Pac-10 and Southeastern Conferences.

ESPN will televise all of the Bowl Championship Series games.

The Bowl Championship Series guarantees a matchup between college football's top two teams in a true national championship game.

The BCS uses regional consideration regarding team selection. Specifically, as a member of the BCS, the Rose Bowl will host the Big Ten and Pac-10 champions in those years in which either the Rose Bowl does not have the national championship game or the Big Ten and Pac-10 champion is not ranked No. 1 or No. 2. Other "regional consideration" tie-ins include the SEC champion in the Sugar Bowl, the ACC champion in the Orange Bowl and the Big 12 champion in the Fiesta Bowl.

The 2011 BCS schedule is as follows (all times Eastern / listed in chronological order):

Jan. 1 / 5 pm	Rose Bowl Game	Pasadena, Cal.	ESPN

THIS IS THE SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE

SEC MISSION STATEMENT

"The purpose of the Southeastern Conference is to assist its member institutions in the maintenance of programs of intercollegiate athletics which are compatible with the highest standards of education and competitive sports."

THE SEC

The Southeastern Conference sponsors championships in 20 sports – 11 women's sports and nine men's sports. They include baseball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's cross country, football, men's and women's golf, gymnastics, soccer, softball, men's and women's swimming and diving, men's and women's tennis, men's and women's indoor and outdoor track and field, and volleyball.

2009-10 ANOTHER BANNER ATHLETIC YEAR FOR THE SEC

The SEC claimed four national championships in the 2009-10 year. SEC teams have won at least four national titles every year since 1991. In eight of its 20 sponsored sports, the SEC had either the national champion or the national runners-up. The SEC had national championships in football (Alabama), men's indoor track & field (Florida), women's swimming & diving (Florida) and baseball (South Carolina).

In its 77 year history, the Southeastern Conference has won 183 team national championships, including 67 since 2000. In this decade, the SEC has won at least one national championship in 16 of its 20 sponsored sports with the exception of women's cross country, volleyball, soccer and softball.

SEC LEADS ALL CONFERENCES IN 2009-10 OVERALL SPORTS CONFERENCE VS. CONFERENCE SURVEY

In a statistical survey that is based on NCAA championship and rankings, the Southeastern Conference placed first in both men's and women's sports. The survey, compiled each year since 1986 by Bo Carter, takes into account final NCAA championship standings in 10 men's and 11 women's sports and poll rankings in football. Each conference gets 20 points for a team that wins a national championship, 19 for a second place finish and down to 1 point for a 20th place finish. Wrestling is included in the men's totals, but the sport is not sponsored by the Southeastern Conference.

In the 10 men's sports for the survey, the SEC had 398 points with the Pac-10 coming in second with 396 points, followed by the Big 12 with 395 points, Big Ten with 279.5 points, ACC with 238 points and the Big East with 83 points. In the 11 women's sports the SEC sponsors, the SEC led the way with 502.5 points followed by the Pac-10 with 480 points, the Big 12 with 382 points, ACC with 369 points, Big Ten with 221 points and the Big East with 164 points.

Combining the 21 sports in the survey, the SEC had 900.5 points to pace all conferences followed by the Pac-10 with 876 points, Big 12 with 777 points, ACC with 607 points, Big Ten with 500.5 points and the Big East with 247 points. The SEC has had the highest men's point total in 17 seasons since 1986-87, the first year this survey was done, and in 11 of the last 12 seasons. The SEC has had the highest women's point total five times since 1986-87, including three of the last six years.

SEC LEADS DIVISION I CONFERENCES IN MOST FIRST-TEAM ESPN THE MAGAZINE CoSIDA ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICANS

The Southeastern Conference had 15 of its student-athletes earn first-team ESPN The Magazine / CoSIDA Academic All-America status in 2009-10, more than any other Division I conference in the nation. The Big 12 had 14 while the Big Ten and Pac-10 had 13 student-athletes each earn the honor.

The SEC had 36 total student-athletes earn either first, second or third team mention. That total is second overall to the Big 12 Conference, which had 39. The Big Ten was third with 34 total student-athletes earned first, second or third team mention.

The SEC's academic success of its student-athletes in 2009-10 was not just Academic All-Americans. The league honored 2,424 of its own student-athletes who made the SEC Academic Honor Roll. The league also honored Auburn swimmer Jordan Anderson and Tennessee track & field athlete Phoebe Wright with its McWhorter Scholar-Athletes of the Year as well as naming a scholar-athlete of the year in each of its sports.

Among honors given by the NCAA, SEC student-athletes also shined. Three student-athletes from the SEC – Florida's Tim Tebow (football), Georgia's Courtney Kupets (gymnastics) and Alabama's Brittany Rogers (softball) were honored this past year with the Today's Top VIII Award from the NCAA. Since 2004, the SEC has had 10 student-athletes awarded this honor, more than any other conference in the country.

The SEC also had 13 student-athletes receive NCAA Postgraduate Scholarships in 2009-10, more than any other conference in the nation.

SEC SPORTSMANSHIP STATEMENT

The SEC has developed a sportsmanship statement for its institutions to follow. It states: "Coaches and student-athletes of a member institution, as well as individuals employed by or associated with that institution, including alumni, fans, patrons and boosters, shall conduct themselves with honesty and good sportsmanship. Their behavior shall at all times reflect the high standards of honor and dignity that characterize participation in the collegiate setting. For intercollegiate athletics to promote the character development of participants, to enhance the integrity of higher education and to promote civility in society, coaches, student-athletes and all others associated with these athletics programs and events should adhere to such fundamental values as respect, fairness, civility, honesty and responsibility. These values should be manifested not only in athletics participation but also in the broad spectrum of activities affecting the athletics program. It is the responsibility of each member institution to establish policies for sportsmanship and ethical conduct in intercollegiate athletics consistent with the educational mission and goals of the institution. Furthermore, member institutions are responsible for educating on a continuing basis all constituencies about these policies."

SEC TOPS IN FAN SUPPORT

The Southeastern Conference has led the nation in total attendance in football every year since 1981 (29 straight years). Since 1988, the SEC has led the nation in average attendance. More than 6.5 million fans witnessed first-hand, the excitement of SEC football in 2009. The average capacity of the 12 SEC stadiums during the last 10 years has been 97 percent. Every year since 1988, the SEC has had at least four teams ranked in the top 10 in average attendance.

In men's basketball, the SEC has finished second in national average attendance for four straight seasons and has finished in the top three every year since 1994 (17 straight years). Kentucky has led the nation in 14 of the last 15 years in attendance. In 2009-10, five SEC schools finished in the top 30 in average attendance.

In women's basketball, after finishing third in the nation for 10 straight seasons, the SEC was second in national average attendance in 2009-10. The SEC has had at least two schools in the top 25 in average attendance every year since 1999-2000. Tennessee has led the nation in attendance in 10 of the last 11 seasons. In 2009-10, the SEC had four schools finish in the top 25 in average attendance.

In baseball, the SEC and one of its institutions have led the NCAA in total and average attendance for the last 13 seasons, and 18 of the last 24 years. The SEC and its member institutions own virtually all regular season, conference tournament, NCAA Regional and Super Regional attendance records. The SEC has broken its own national record each of the last five seasons in total attendance, after having set a goal of 1.5 million fans in 2005 as part of the league's "Drive for 1.5 ... Pack the Parks" promotion.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR WHEN ARKANSAS HAS THE BALL

Ryan Mallett leads the SEC and is tied for sixth nationally with 351.0 yards of total offense per game. His 350.5 passing yards per game are most in the SEC, 127 yards ahead of the second-place thrower, and fifth in the NCAA, while his 701 total passing yards lead the conference and are fourth in the nation. Greg Childs set new career highs for single-game receptions and receiving yards and tied his career high for touchdown catches against ULM. WHAT TO LOOK FOR WHEN MISSISSIPPI STATE HAS THE BALL

Through just two games, nine different offensive players have at least one rushing attempt and 10 different players have at least one reception. The offensive line that paved the way for the SEC's top rushing attack in 2009 returns four players that started all 12 games, and the group now has 94 combined career starts. Sophomore wideout Chad Bumphis rushed three times for 27 yards against Auburn and hauled in five passes for 34 yards. Both yardage totals were best on the team, marking only the fourth time (and only for a WR) since 2000 a Bulldog offensive player led the squad in both rushing yards and receiving yards in the same game.

LSU goes into Saturday's game with one of the top defenses in the SEC as the Tigers are first in the league (and No. 4 in the nation) in rushing defense (44.5 ypg) and sacks (10 total), and No. 5 in total defense (285.5 ypg). LSU's average of 5.0 sacks per game ranks No. 2 nationally, while the 10.5 tackles for loss per game is No. 4 in the nation. Defensively, senior LB Kelvin Sheppard led the Tigers with 19 total tackles. Senior DT Drake Nevis leads the SEC with 3.5 sacks thru two games, while freshman DE Sam Montgomery is second on team with 2.0 sacks. In all, seven different Tigers have registered a sack, while 13 have recorded a tackle for a loss.

Chris White posted 11 total tackles versus Auburn with another tackle for loss. Entering week three, he's among the top seven in the SEC in both total tackles and tackles behind the line of scrimmage. K.J. Wright also posted a double-digit tackle total with 10. First year starter and former walk-on Emmanuel Gatling tallied a career-best six stops on the evening. Pernell McPhee has recorded 2.0 tackles behind the line of scrimmage, continuing his 1.0 TFL-per-game average from a year ago. Nickoe Whitley is now the sixth member of the Bulldog defensive backfield with at least one career interception.

Offensively, junior RB Stevan Ridley is third in the SEC with 240 rushing yards (120.0 per game), while sophomore WR Russell Shepard is tied for second in the league in TDs with three. Ridley's 159 rushing yards vs. Vanderbilt were the most by a Tiger in a league game since Alley Broussard ran for a school-record 250 yards vs. Ole Miss in 2004. Jordan Jefferson goes into the game with an 11-5 overall record as the Tigers' starting quarterback. The 11 victories makes Jefferson the second-winningest active quarterback in the conference, trailing only Greg McElroy of Alabama.

SPECIAL TEAMS

Fletcher Cox blocked a fourth-quarter field goal attempt by Auburn last weekend, the second such block of his young career. Cox also swatted away a field goal attempt against Houston last season.

Patrick Peterson returned a punt 87 yards for a second quarter touchdown in the opener, which tied for the sixth-longest punt return in school history. He also set up another LSU touchdown with a 47-yard return to midfield midway through the second quarter. Peterson ranks No. 2 in the nation in punt returns (39.2), No. 3 in all-purpose yards (257.0) and No. 11 in kickoff returns (33.3).

THE COACHES

Dabo Swinney is in his second full season at Clemson and overall with a record of 15-8 (.652). The Tigers' offensive coordinator is Billy Napier and the co-defensive coordinator are Charlie Harbison and Kevin Steele.

Gene Chizik is in his second season at Auburn with a record of 10-5 (.667) and in his fourth season overall with a record of 15-24 (.385). The Tigers' offensive coordinator is Gus Malzahn and the defensive coordinator is Ted Roof.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR WHEN CLEMSON HAS THE BALL

Kyle Parker was the only freshman quarterback nationally to take his team to a conference championship game in 2009. His passing efficiency of 192.2 would be first in the ACC and fifth in the nation if he had enough attempts to qualify. So far he is 15-26 for 283 yards and four touchdowns against just one interception. He has the Tigers off to a 2-0 start and is now 11-5 in his career as a starting quarterback. Clemson leads the ACC in touchdown passes with seven.

Nick Fairley was clearly the defensive star of the game for Auburn against Mississippi State, totaling five tackles including 2.5 for losses and 1.5 sacks, an interception, a fumble recovery and three quarterback hurries. He is now tied with Antoine Carter for the team lead in both sacks (3.0) and tackles for loss (4.0). Daren Bates started all 13 games at safety as a true freshman in 2009, but converted to linebacker prior to this season. Bates led the team with a career-high 10 tackles in the season opener against Arkansas State.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR WHEN AUBURN HAS THE BALL

Andre Branch has three sacks in the first two games to rank 11th in the nation in that category. He is 14th in tackles for loss per game. Clemson has eight sacks so far this year and the 4.0 per game average is fifth best in the nation. Clemson is also eighth nationally and eighth in the country in overall tackles for loss per game with a 9.5 average.

The Tigers rank ninth nationally in rushing offense (278.5) and 20th in total offense (478.0). In 15 games under Malzahn, Auburn has totaled at least 500 yards of offense five times. The Tigers now have three of the top 10 individual rushers in the SEC this season, as Cameron Newton ranks second in the conference and 16th nationally averaging 120.5 yards per game, while Onterio McCalebb (72.0) and Michael Dyer (71.5) rank eighth and ninth, respectively, in the SEC in rushing. Newton is second in the SEC and tied for 21st in total offense (281.5), third in the league and sixth nationally in passing efficiency (186.51).

SPECIAL TEAMS

Punter Dawson Zimmerman leads the nation in punting with a 49.78 average. He has averaged at least 46 yards a punt in each his first two games, the top two games of his career. Marcus Gilchrist is sixth in the nation in punt returns with a 23.75 average. He is the main reason Clemson is 17th in the nation as a team in that category. Gilchrist is averaging 29 yards on two kickoff returns, but does not have enough returns to be ranked. Freshman placekicker Chandler Catanzaro is a perfect 11-11 on extra points and made his only field goal attempt, a 47-yarder against Presbyterian.

Wes Byrum had a field goal attempt blocked in the fourth quarter at Mississippi State, snapping a streak of nine consecutive made field goal attempts dating back to last season. His last previous miss was at Tennessee in 2009. He has hit 17 of his last 19 after hitting just 11-of-19 in 2008. Demond Washington ranks third in the SEC averaging 27.1 yards per kickoff return, and had 126 kickoff return yards against Arkansas State, which is the 12th best total in school history.
