SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE CHAMPIONSHIP GAME CENTRAL

SEC DIVISIONAL TIE-BREAKER

In the event of a tie for the division championship, the following procedures will be used to break all ties to determine the SEC Football Championship Game representative. All Conference versus Conference Games (both division and non-division) will be counted in the Conference Standings.

Two-Team Tie. In the event two teams are tied for a division title, the following procedure will be used in the following order:

- A. Head-to-head competition between the two tied teams;
- B. Records of the tied teams within the division;
- C. Head-to-head competition against the team within the division with the best overall (divisional and non-divisional) Conference record, and proceeding through the division (multiple ties within the division will be broken from first to last and a tie for first place will be broken before a tie for fourth place);
- D. Overall record against non-divisional teams;
- E. Combined record against all common non-divisional teams;
- F. Record against the common non-divisional team with the best overall Conference record (divisional or non-divisional) and proceeding through other common non-divisional teams based on their order of finish within their division; and
- G. The tied team with the highest ranking in the Bowl Championship Series Standings following the last weekend of regular-season games shall be the divisional representative in the SEC Championship Game.

Three-Team Tie (or more). If three teams are tied for a division title, the following procedure will be used in the following order: (Note: If one of the procedures results in one team being eliminated and two remaining, the two-team tiebreaker procedure as stated in No. 1 above will be used):

- A. Combined head to head record among the tied teams;
- B. Record of the tied teams within the division;
- C. Head to head competition against the team within the division with the best overall Conference record (divisional and non divisional) and proceeding through the division (multiple ties within the division will be broken from first to last and a tie for first place will be broken before a tie for fourth place);
- D. Overall Conference record against non divisional teams;
- E. Combined record against all common non divisional teams;
- F. Record against the common non divisional team with the best overall Conference record (divisional and non divisional) and proceeding through other common non divisional teams based on their order of finish within their division; and
- G. The tied team with the highest ranking in the Bowl Championship Series Standings following the last weekend of regular-season games shall be the divisional representative in the SEC Championship Game, unless the second of the tied teams is ranked within five-or-fewer places of the highest-ranked tied team. In this case, the head-to-head results of the top two ranked tied teams shall determine the representative in the SEC Championship Game.

SEC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME DIVISIONAL SCENARIOS

With four weeks remaining in the regular season, there are five teams with a mathematical chance of participating in the SEC Football Championship Game, Dec. 4 in Atlanta, Ga. There are two from the Eastern Division - South Carolina and Florida and three from the Western Division - Auburn, Alabama and LSU.

In the Eastern Division, the divisional representative could very well be determined on Nov. 13 when South Carolina visits Florida. The only way the game could not determine the Eastern Division representative is if South Carolina defeats Arkansas and Vanderbilt defeats Florida on Nov. 6.

A South Carolina win against Florida, no matter what the Gamecocks do against Arkansas, would give it the Eastern Division title. Florida wins against Vanderbilt and South Carolina would give it the Eastern Division title (by itself if Arkansas defeats South Carolina and in a head-to-head tie-breaker if South Carolina defeats Arkansas).

In the Western Division, key matchups still remain among the three teams mathematically eligible for the divisional title. Auburn visits Alabama on Nov. 26 and Alabama visits LSU this weekend.

Arkansas and Mississippi State could still tie for the Western Division title but would lose in a tie-breaker to represent the Western Division in the SEC Championship Game. That is due to Auburn's 4-0 mark against the Western Division and its wins already against Arkansas and Mississippi State.

Here is a chart that dictates who represents the Western Division based on the remainder of the season:

Team	SEC W-L	Pct.	11/6	11/13	11/18-20	11/27
Auburn	6-0	1.000	CHATT.	UGA	---	at Alabama
Alabama	4-1	.800	at LSU	MSU	GA ST.	AUBURN
LSU	4-1	.800	ALABAMA	ULM	OLE MISS	at Arkansas

Should Auburn win its remaining two conference games or lose to Georgia and defeat Alabama, it would be the Western Division champion and represent the division in the SEC Championship Game. If Auburn loses its remaining conference games, it could still be the divisional representative if Alabama loses to LSU and Miss. State and LSU loses to Ole Miss and Arkansas.

The earliest Auburn can clinch a berth to the SEC Championship Game is Nov. 13, if it defeats Georgia and Alabama loses to either LSU or Miss. State.

Alabama can be the Western Division representative to the SEC Championship Game if it wins its remaining conference games.

Should Alabama lose to either LSU or Mississippi State, it can still be the divisional representative if it defeats Auburn and Georgia defeats Auburn.

LSU can be the Western Division representative to the SEC Championship Game if it wins its remaining conference games and Auburn loses to Georgia and Alabama.

LSU would be eliminated from the SEC Championship Game race if it falls to Alabama this weekend because it would lose a tie-breaker with Auburn and/or Alabama.

SEC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME RACE RECAP

The earliest a berth has been clinched in the SEC Championship Game is Oct. 30 (Auburn, 2004, & Alabama, 1993). Florida clinched its berth in the game last year on Oct. 31.

In nine of the 36 divisional races prior to 2010, a championship game berth has not been decided until the weekend prior to the SEC Championship Game. That occurred in 1997 (Tennessee), 1998 (Mississippi State), 2001 (Tennessee and LSU), 2002 (Arkansas), 2003 (Georgia and LSU), 2005 (LSU) and 2007 (Tennessee).

SEC FOOTBALL VIDEO REPLAY

THE OBJECTIVE

To allow for specific types of officiating calls to be immediately reviewed during all games hosted by SEC teams.

THE COACHES' CHALLENGE

The head coach may challenge the ruling of any reviewable play. He retains a challenge if his initial challenge is successful and thus results in a reversal by the replay official. The head coach will then have a single challenge that he may use anytime during the game if his team has not used all its timeouts. Thus a team may have a total of two challenges in the game, but only if the first results in a reversal of the on-field ruling.

THE SOURCE

All reviewable video comes direct from either the television network broadcasting the game or other TV production facilities that meet established conference standards. The Southeastern Conference has used instant replay since 2005.

THE PLAYS

Reviewable

THE PROCESS

Each SEC football stadium has a secured replay booth equipped with the HD Instant Replay system provided by XOS Digital. Three individuals work in the booth for the duration of the game: 1. Replay Official, 2. Communicator, 3. Technician. The Replay Official and the Communicator are selected and assigned by the Conference Office.

A live HD video feed is sent directly to the replay booth from the TV truck. The Technician watches the feed on an input monitor while recording it into the XOS Digital Replay System. The Technician also marks the beginning of each play while the Communicator marks all incoming replays.

Each play and subsequent replay then appears on a touch screen in front of the Replay Technician. As the Technician and the Communicator mark the incoming video, each view will appear as a small picture on the computer touch screen. At any time, the Replay Technician can touch the thumbnail and immediately send that play or replay to the Replay Official.

With the Communicator's assistance, the Replay Official can quickly jump between replays while playing back the video. All replay video navigation is done via a jog shuttle remote controlled by the Replay Official. All video is viewed on an HD monitor that sits in front of the Replay Official. The touch screen is only used to select the replays and to log specific play data in the event a call is overturned.

While all plays are reviewed between the whistle and the beginning of the next play, the Replay Official can stop play on the field by using a pager system. Five onfield officials wear pagers. If play is stopped the Referee announces on the stadium PA microphone that play has been stopped so the previous play can be reviewed. The Referee then proceeds to the sideline headset, which provides direct communication to the Replay Official in the booth. Once the play has been reviewed, the Replay Official notifies the Referee, who then announces the decision on the stadium PA system.

THE EQUIPMENT

Each SEC member institution uses the HD Replay System developed by XOS Digital of Orlando, FL. The replay systems are maintained by the home institution with technical support from XOS Digital.

SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE FOOTBALL NOTES

A PRIMER FOR NCAA RULES FOR FOOTBALL SAFETY [From NCAA.com]

For years, the NCAA has been at the forefront of student-athlete safety and implemented initiatives to make competition as safe as possible. Rules changes have expanded beyond the traditional notion of helmet-to-helmet contact and added a focus on all hits targeting and contacting defenseless players above the shoulders.

“The health and safety of student-athletes is the reason the NCAA was created,” said NCAA President Mark Emmert. “We have to remain vigilant to that mission, and these types of injuries require our careful attention.”

Rogers Redding, football rules secretary-rules editor and Southeastern Conference Coordinator of Football Officials, noted that the NCAA Football Rules Committee continually reviews player safety and has implemented rules to remove the word intent from head-down contact, penalize the horse-collar tackle, eliminate wedge-blocking and strengthen penalties regarding the tackling of defenseless players.

“Student-athlete safety is of the utmost importance, and the Association will continue to protect its student-athletes,” Redding said.

Football student-athletes who target the head and neck area of defenseless players will continue to be penalized for initial contact with a forearm, elbow, shoulder or helmet. A 15-yard penalty is enforced on these violations. In egregious situations, officials may eject the offending player. Last season, five Division I football student-athletes were ejected from games for these violations.

Following the rules change in 2009 requiring conferences to further examine these fouls after games, 73 plays were reviewed, resulting in four suspensions from games. In addition, some conferences sent letters of reprimand to coaches and student-athletes following post-game reviews.

“We believe the committee’s decision has helped to reduce the unnecessary roughness penalties involving hits to the head,” said David Parry, national coordinator of football officials. “We have seen a decline in them.”

Rules changes for the 2010 season mandate that injured student-athletes, including those who exhibit signs of a concussion, must be cleared by appropriate medical personnel as determined by the institution before returning to competition. An injured player must also miss a play before he is allowed to take part in the game again. Previously, a player could return to action before the next play if a time-out was called.

Receiving teams are no longer allowed to have wedge-blocking formations of three or more players on kickoffs. (NCAA research showed that one of every five injuries that occur on kickoffs resulted in a concussion.) Two-player wedges remain legal, but the formation of three or more players in a wedge is now a foul that results in a 15-yard penalty. It also will be considered a live-ball foul, regardless of whether there is contact between opponents.

The NCAA’s health and safety needs are addressed through the collaborative efforts of national office staff, governance committees, sports rules committees, sports issues committees and external associations. The NCAA Football Rules Committee works closely with the NCAA Committee on Competitive Safeguards and Medical Aspects of Sports and other medical experts.

NCAA football rules changes timeline

1976 – Rule changes for the 1976 football season eliminate the head and face as a primary and initial contact area for blocking and tackling.

2002 – The NCAA Football Rules Committee adds specific language to define when a student-athlete is defenseless and adds a point of emphasis for protection of these players.

2005 – The NCAA Football Rules Committee changes college football rules regarding spearing and head-down contact, removing any reference to “intent” from the rule. In addition to the rule change, the NCAA focuses on the education of student-athletes, coaches, officials and administrators regarding prevention of head and neck injuries. The NCAA partners with several membership groups (coaches, athletic trainers, etc.) to produce educational materials to teach proper tackling technique and prevention of head contact.

2008 – The NCAA makes the horse-collar tackle illegal, revamps illegal contact of an opponent and simplifies the chop-block rule. More emphasis is placed on eliminating hits on defenseless players and blows to the head. No player is permitted to initiate contact and target an opponent with the crown of his helmet, and no player is permitted to initiate contact and target a defenseless opponent above the shoulders.

2009 – A rule is added to require conference review of fouls related to targeting/initiating contact to players. If a foul is not called, conferences are allowed to review plays and impose sanctions. As a result, several conferences enforce suspensions on fouls using supplementary discipline.

2010 – Wedge blocking is eliminated and specific concussion and injury management rules are implemented. Injured student-athletes must be cleared by appropriate medical personnel (as determined by the institution) before returning to competition. The committee also clarifies that contact above the shoulders with any body part is a violation (e.g., forearm, shoulder, etc.). The committee took advantage of the two-year playing rules process that allowed for safety alterations in the non-change year.

SEC BOWL AGREEMENTS

The Southeastern Conference has agreements to send nine of its member institutions to postseason bowl games following the 2010 season.

The winner of the SEC Championship Game will automatically participate in the Bowl Championship Series comprised of the Sugar, Rose, Orange and Fiesta Bowls.

The AT&T Cotton and the Outback Bowls share the third and fourth selections from the SEC. The Cotton Bowl has the first preference of teams from the Western Division and the Outback Bowl has first preference of teams from the Eastern Division. The Cotton or Outback Bowl can select teams outside of its divisional preference, but must not select them before the opposite bowl selects from its divisional preference.

The Chick-fil-A Bowl has the fifth selection of preference from the SEC.

New to the SEC bowl rotation this year, the Gator Bowl has the sixth selection from the SEC.

The Franklin American Mortgage Music City Bowl has the seventh selection from the SEC.

2010 BOWL CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES SCHEDULE

Following the 2010 college football regular season, the Bowl Championship Series will determine the National Championship. The BCS National Championship Game, which will stand alone from the four traditional BCS bowls but will be hosted by each of the bowls once during a four-year cycle.

The BCS consists of the Discover Orange, Allstate Sugar, Rose Bowl Game, Tostitos Fiesta Bowl and the Tostitos BCS National Championship Game. The conferences with automatic berths include the Atlantic Coast, Big East, Big Ten, Big 12, Pac-10 and Southeastern Conferences.

ESPN will televise all of the Bowl Championship Series games.

The Bowl Championship Series guarantees a matchup between college football's top two teams in a true national championship game.

The BCS uses regional consideration regarding team selection. Specifically, as a member of the BCS, the Rose Bowl will host the Big Ten and Pac-10 champions in those years in which either the Rose Bowl does not have the national championship game or the Big Ten and Pac-10 champion is not ranked No. 1 or No. 2. Other "regional consideration" tie-ins include the SEC champion in the Sugar Bowl, the ACC champion in the Orange Bowl and the Big 12 champion in the Fiesta Bowl.

The 2011 BCS schedule is as follows (all times Eastern / listed in chronological order):

THIS IS THE SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE

SEC MISSION STATEMENT

"The purpose of the Southeastern Conference is to assist its member institutions in the maintenance of programs of intercollegiate athletics which are compatible with the highest standards of education and competitive sports."

THE SEC

The Southeastern Conference sponsors championships in 20 sports – 11 women's sports and nine men's sports. They include baseball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's cross country, football, men's and women's golf, gymnastics, soccer, softball, men's and women's swimming and diving, men's and women's tennis, men's and women's indoor and outdoor track and field, and volleyball.

2009-10 ANOTHER BANNER ATHLETIC YEAR FOR THE SEC

The SEC claimed four national championships in the 2009-10 year. SEC teams have won at least four national titles every year since 1991. In eight of its 20 sponsored sports, the SEC had either the national champion or the national runners-up. The SEC had national championships in football (Alabama), men's indoor track & field (Florida), women's swimming & diving (Florida) and baseball (South Carolina).

In its 77 year history, the Southeastern Conference has won 183 team national championships, including 67 since 2000. In this decade, the SEC has won at least one national championship in 16 of its 20 sponsored sports with the exception of women's cross country, volleyball, soccer and softball.

SEC LEADS ALL CONFERENCES IN 2009-10 OVERALL SPORTS CONFERENCE VS. CONFERENCE SURVEY

In a statistical survey that is based on NCAA championship and rankings, the Southeastern Conference placed first in both men's and women's sports. The survey, compiled each year since 1986 by Bo Carter, takes into account final NCAA championship standings in 10 men's and 11 women's sports and poll rankings in football. Each conference gets 20 points for a team that wins a national championship, 19 for a second place finish and down to 1 point for a 20th place finish. Wrestling is included in the men's totals, but the sport is not sponsored by the Southeastern Conference.

In the 10 men's sports for the survey, the SEC had 398 points with the Pac-10 coming in second with 396 points, followed by the Big 12 with 395 points, Big Ten with 279.5 points, ACC with 238 points and the Big East with 83 points. In the 11 women's sports the SEC sponsors, the SEC led the way with 502.5 points followed by the Pac-10 with 480 points, the Big 12 with 382 points, ACC with 369 points, Big Ten with 221 points and the Big East with 164 points.

Combining the 21 sports in the survey, the SEC had 900.5 points to pace all conferences followed by the Pac-10 with 876 points, Big 12 with 777 points, ACC with 607 points, Big Ten with 500.5 points and the Big East with 247 points. The SEC has had the highest men's point total in 17 seasons since 1986-87, the first year this survey was done, and in 11 of the last 12 seasons. The SEC has had the highest women's point total five times since 1986-87, including three of the last six years.

SEC LEADS DIVISION I CONFERENCES IN MOST FIRST-TEAM ESPN THE MAGAZINE CoSIDA ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICANS

The Southeastern Conference had 15 of its student-athletes earn first-team ESPN The Magazine / CoSIDA Academic All-America status in 2009-10, more than any other Division I conference in the nation. The Big 12 had 14 while the Big Ten and Pac-10 had 13 student-athletes each earn the honor.

The SEC had 36 total student-athletes earn either first, second or third team mention. That total is second overall to the Big 12 Conference, which had 39. The Big Ten was third with 34 total student-athletes earned first, second or third team mention.

The SEC's academic success of its student-athletes in 2009-10 was not just Academic All-Americans. The league honored 2,424 of its own student-athletes who made the SEC Academic Honor Roll. The league also honored Auburn swimmer Jordan Anderson and Tennessee track & field athlete Phoebe Wright with its McWhorter Scholar-Athletes of the Year as well as naming a scholar-athlete of the year in each of its sports.

Among honors given by the NCAA, SEC student-athletes also shined. Three student-athletes from the SEC – Florida's Tim Tebow (football), Georgia's Courtney Kupets (gymnastics) and Alabama's Brittany Rogers (softball) were honored this past year with the Today's Top VIII Award from the NCAA. Since 2004, the SEC has had 10 student-athletes awarded this honor, more than any other conference in the country.

The SEC also had 13 student-athletes receive NCAA Postgraduate Scholarships in 2009-10, more than any other conference in the nation.

SEC SPORTSMANSHIP STATEMENT

The SEC has developed a sportsmanship statement for its institutions to follow. It states: "Coaches and student-athletes of a member institution, as well as individuals employed by or associated with that institution, including alumni, fans, patrons and boosters, shall conduct themselves with honesty and good sportsmanship. Their behavior shall at all times reflect the high standards of honor and dignity that characterize participation in the collegiate setting. For intercollegiate athletics to promote the character development of participants, to enhance the integrity of higher education and to promote civility in society, coaches, student-athletes and all others associated with these athletics programs and events should adhere to such fundamental values as respect, fairness, civility, honesty and responsibility. These values should be manifested not only in athletics participation but also in the broad spectrum of activities affecting the athletics program. It is the responsibility of each member institution to establish policies for sportsmanship and ethical conduct in intercollegiate athletics consistent with the educational mission and goals of the institution. Furthermore, member institutions are responsible for educating on a continuing basis all constituencies about these policies."

SEC TOPS IN FAN SUPPORT

The Southeastern Conference has led the nation in total attendance in football every year since 1981 (29 straight years). Since 1988, the SEC has led the nation in average attendance. More than 6.5 million fans witnessed first-hand, the excitement of SEC football in 2009. The average capacity of the 12 SEC stadiums during the last 10 years has been 97 percent. Every year since 1988, the SEC has had at least four teams ranked in the top 10 in average attendance.

In men's basketball, the SEC has finished second in national average attendance for four straight seasons and has finished in the top three every year since 1994 (17 straight years). Kentucky has led the nation in 14 of the last 15 years in attendance. In 2009-10, five SEC schools finished in the top 30 in average attendance.

In women's basketball, after finishing third in the nation for 10 straight seasons, the SEC was second in national average attendance in 2009-10. The SEC has had at least two schools in the top 25 in average attendance every year since 1999-2000. Tennessee has led the nation in attendance in 10 of the last 11 seasons. In 2009-10, the SEC had four schools finish in the top 25 in average attendance.

In baseball, the SEC and one of its institutions have led the NCAA in total and average attendance for the last 13 seasons, and 18 of the last 24 years. The SEC and its member institutions own virtually all regular season, conference tournament, NCAA Regional and Super Regional attendance records. The SEC has broken its own national record each of the last five seasons in total attendance, after having set a goal of 1.5 million fans in 2005 as part of the league's "Drive for 1.5 ... Pack the Parks" promotion.

THE COACHES

Urban Meyer is in his sixth season at Florida with a record of 62-13 (.827) and 10th overall with a record of 101-21 (.828). The Gators' offensive coordinator is Steve Addazio and the defensive coordinator is Teryl Austin.

Robbie Caldwell is in his first season at Vanderbilt and overall. The Commodores' offensive coordinator is Des Kitchings and the defensive coordinator is Jamie Bryant.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR WHEN FLORIDA HAS THE BALL

John Brantley has completed 145 of 233 passes (62.2 percent) for 1,459 yards and six touchdowns with six interceptions for a passer rating of 118.2. Trey Burton posted his first career 100-yard rushing game with 110 yards and two touchdowns against Georgia, including a career-long 51-yard scoring run. Jeff Demps leads the Gators with 488 rushing yards through eight games, averaging 6.3 yards per carry. Deonte Thompson leads the UF receiving corps with 27 receptions for 389 yards (14.4 avg.). WR Chris Rainey lined up in the backfield often in the game as the Gators attempt to get their running backs healthy.

Chris Marve achieved his finest game in more than a month at Arkansas, contributing a team-high 10 total tackles. It was Marve's fourth game with double-digit tackles – and first since he was injured at Connecticut. Casey Hayward and Tim Fugger remain among the national leaders in key defensive stats. Hayward shares the NCAA lead with five interceptions. Fugger ranks third nationally with four forced fumbles. Hayward, believed to be the first Commodore of the modern era to achieve interceptions in four consecutive games, also tops the squad with seven career picks.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR WHEN VANDERBILT HAS THE BALL

Florida is the only school in the nation that has four players with at least three interceptions. Justin Trattou leads the team with seven tackles for loss, while Jaye Howard has six. Trattou leads UF's defensive linemen with 40 tackles, while Duke Lemmens has added 29. Jonathan Bostic has three interceptions this season, tying for the team lead. He is tied with 10 others for No. 2 in the nation among linebackers. Ahmad Black leads the team for the season with 72 tackles, including five for loss. Will Hill posted a pair of crucial interceptions in the win over Georgia.

The Commodores will likely be without their most versatile and productive offensive player, Warren Norman, for the rest of the season. Running backs mentor Des Kitchings replaced Jimmy Kiser as the Commodores' offensive coordinator last week. Zac Stacy needs 201 rushing yards to reach 1,000 yards for his career. With Norman likely out for the rest of the season with an injury, Stacy should get plenty of opportunity. The Commodore offense produced just eight first downs against the Arkansas defense, primarily because they converted just one of 11 third-down attempts.

SPECIAL TEAMS

Demps leads the SEC with a 32.5-yard kick return average (min. five). He has returned eight kicks for 260 yards with a long of 54. Chas Henry leads the nation in yards per punt with a 48.8 average (min. 25 punts). He also has helped the Gators to the best net punting average in the nation at 44.6 yards. Pressed into field goal kicking duties, Henry knocked home the game-winning 37-yard field goal in overtime against Georgia.

Richard Kent continued his stellar campaign last week. A first-year starter, Kent averaged 47.9 yards on seven punts. Kent's net average was just as sharp (46.7 yards) after allowing just one return. Three of Kent's punts were downed inside the Arkansas 20-yard line. Kent and the Commodores rank third in the SEC with a net punting average of 39.8 yards.

Thanks to 5.5 sacks in his last four games, junior OLB Justin Houston remains the SEC leader with 9.0 and was named the SEC Defensive Player of the Week following his performance against UK. Houston also has the most sacks and tackles for loss of any active SEC player. Akeem Dent has registered 10 or more tackles in five out of the last six games and has led Georgia in tackles during five of those contests. He managed a career-high 15 stops at Kentucky and is second in the league with 90 stops. DeAngelo Tyson has started eight games at nose for Georgia this season. He posted a career-high five tackles against UK, including half a sack.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR WHEN GEORGIA HAS THE BALL

Junior linebacker A.J. Storms, who has tallied 99 tackles in the first eight contests, ranks among the national leaders in tackles per game. He became only the third player in Idaho State history to return a kickoff for 100-yards, and he also scampered 84 yards for a touchdown on a punt return later in the contest. He ranks among the NCAA FCS leaders in punt return average (20.2) and all-purpose yards (192.0).

With 22 kickoff return yards against Idaho State, junior CB Brandon Boykin will set a Georgia record for KOR yardage in a career. Boykin stands at 1,616 yards on 60 returns thanks in part to an SEC-record three 100-yard returns in his career. In addition to five tackles and the first sack of his career versus the Gators, Boykin piled up 111 return yards. His performance was highlighted by a 51-yard return in the fourth quarter that set up the Bulldogs' final touchdown and helped send the game to overtime.

Joker Phillips is in his first season at Kentucky and overall. The Wildcats' offensive coordinator is Randy Sanders and the defensive coordinator is Steve Brown.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR WHEN CHARLESTON SOUTHERN HAS THE BALL

Andrew Trudnowski had his most efficient performance last week, making his third start, completing 73 percent of his passes with a 22-30 mark. Trudnowski threw for 228 yards and a touchdown, and for the first time this season, did not throw an interception. DeMarcus Moon had 46 rushing yards on 17 carries, giving him 37 touches in the last two games. Gerald Stevenson was the top receiver, hauling in 12 catches for 104 yards, the first player to have more than 10 receptions since he did so against Presbyterian College in 2009.

UK ranks third in the SEC and 12th nationally in pass defense, limiting the opponent to just 169.4 yards per game in the air. Danny Trevathan paces the SEC with 97 total tackles and ranks 10th nationally in tackles per game with 10.78. He has led UK in tackles in eight of nine games, including double-digit tackles in five straight games. Trevathan also ranks sixth in the league in the tackles for loss category with 10.5 stops behind the line of scrimmage. Safety Winston Guy is second on the team in tackles with 56 stops. Mychal Bailey is third on the team with 44 tackles.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR WHEN KENTUCKY HAS THE BALL

Charleston Southern has built a rich tradition of linebacker supremacy. The dominance continued last season with all-conference selection Andrew McKain, who led the team with 79 tackles. With his graduation, the Bucs will be searching for someone to step up and fill the gap. Fred Godfrey and Chris Patrick look like the most likely candidates. Godfrey was second on the team in tackles last year with 67, while Patrick had 64 and was the team leader in tackles for loss (10). Patrick and Daniel Dieudonne led the team with nine tackles each last week, while Gabe Middlebrook blocked a field goal to start the second quarter and keep the game scoreless.

Mike Hartline is having an impressive season as he currently leads the SEC in touchdown passes (19), ranks second in the league in passing yards per game (266.9) and is third in total offense (263.1 yards per game). He has thrown over 200 yards in all nine games this season. Randall Cobb has 34 TDs in just 32 career games. Cobb currently leads the Wildcats in pass receiving with 59 for 682 yards. Cliff Matthews is averaging an impressive 14.8 yards per catch. His seven touchdown receptions tie for the SEC lead in that category.

SPECIAL TEAMS

After taking over the kick return duties midway through the year in 2009, Deon Lee posted the second-best average in school history (28.4 ypr), and returned a kickoff for a touchdown for the first time since 2002. After sitting out for two games with a leg injury, Lee returned to the field last weekend against Liberty, but still did not return kicks. Stevenson took advantage of the opportunity, returning a kickoff 100 yards for a touchdown in the fourth quarter. Stevenson followed up the performance by taking two kicks back to the house against GWU the next weekend.

Cobb is a capable punt returner and ranks sixth in the SEC in punt return average with 8.7 yards per runback. He has two punt return touchdowns in his career. Ryan Tydlacka is in his second season as the starting punter. He averaged a personal-best 50.5 yards per punt vs. Ole Miss, including a career-long 73 yarder. For the season he ranks third in the SEC at 45.4 yards per punt.

SPECIAL TEAMS

Chattanooga was expecting to replace senior All-American PK Craig Camay with true freshman Nick Pollard. However, Pollard has been out with an injury, forcing sophomore WR Jeff Veres to return to his old position. Veres is 28-30 on PATs this season. He made his first 11 of the year before missing the last one at WCU. Junior Mike Hammons was handling all of the kicking duties, but returned to just punting where he is a preseason 2nd Team All-SoCon selection. Veres is also 2-6 on field goals in 2010.

Senior Demond Washington ranks fourth in the SEC averaging 26.9 yards per kickoff return, and has set an Auburn single-season record for kickoff return yardage with 806, including a 95-yard TD at Ole Miss. Offensively, RB Stevan Ridley leads the Tigers with 723 rushing yards and six TDs, while WRs Rueben Randle and Terrence Toliver are tops on the team with 25 catches each. QB Jordan Jefferson has started all eight games for the Tigers with 623 passing yards and 2 TDs to go with 281 rushing yards and 5 scores.
