BULLDOGS LOOK TO CONTINUE MOMENTUM

Mississippi State has won three consecutive games entering today's contest at Auburn. State closed its 2010 season with a final record of 9-4, marking the best tally since a 10-2 campaign in 1999. It was only the fifth time in school history a Bulldog team recorded nine or more wins - 1940, 1973, 1980, 1999 and 2010.

The 2011 squad can become the first team to post back to back nine-win seasons in school history. Only six times previously have Bulldog teams posted eight or more wins in consecutive years.

MISSISSIPPI STATE REMAINS RANKED IN TOP 25

State will enter this weekend ranked in the AP and the coaches' poll. The Bulldogs are ranked 16th by the Associated Press and 17th in the USA Today Coaches' Poll. It marks the highest Mississippi State has been ranked in the regular season since earning a #13 mark in November of 2000.

Mississippi State's game at Auburn will be the eighth-straight game the Bulldogs have played ranked in the AP Top-25 Poll, marking the longest streak since the 1999 Bulldogs played the final nine games of the season ranked in the poll.

MULLEN COULD POST ONE OF BEST THREE-YEAR MARKS

Head coach Dan Mullen has led his Mississippi State teams to 15 victories in his young career. The school record for victories in the first three years of a coach's tenure is 26, set by Allyn McKeen from 1939-41. Ralph Sasse (1935-37) and Emory Bellard (1979-81) are the only two other coaches to reach 20 wins in their first three seasons.

UNDER MULLEN, STATE STARTS SEASONS STRONG

The Bulldogs have won each of their season-openers under head coach Dan Mullen, posting a combined score of 153-28 in the three victories.

TIGERS AND TIGERS AND TIGERS, OH MY

For the second consecutive season, Mississippi State opens the season with three consecutive games against teams with Tiger mascots. In his first three years Mullen's teams have opened each season with a Tiger opponent (Jackson State in 2009, Memphis in 2010, 2011).

DOGS AGAIN FACE ONE OF NATION'S TOP SCHEDULES

Last season Mississippi State played five teams ranked at the time of the game and four teams that finished among the nation's top 12.

This year, State faces six teams ranked in the preseason polls, including four in the first seven weeks of the season.

2010 LOSSES CAME AGAINST QUALITY OPPONENTS

Mississippi State had four losses on the 2010 season, and each came to a team ranked in the top 12 of all major polls. The four teams finished with a combined record of 45-8 (with six of the eight losses coming against each other).

STATE LOOKS FOR BACK-TO-BACK ROAD SEC WINS

With a win in the regular-season finale last year, the Bulldogs are looking to post consecutive Southeastern Conference road victories for the second time under head coach Dan Mullen. State won at Vanderbilt and at Kentucky in 2009. Prior to those two victories, the Bulldogs hadn't won consecutive conference road tilts since 1999 (at Ole Miss 1998, at Vanderbilt, at Auburn).

RECORDS SET IN WEEK ONE OFFENSIVE OUTBURST

The Bulldogs got off to a quick offensive start last Thursday at Memphis. With a school record 645 yards of total offense, State scored 59 points in the lidlifter. Through Saturday's games, MSU ranks in the top 12 nationally in scoring offense, total offense, rushing offense and passing offense.

The 59 points scored by the Bulldog offense were the most since Slick Morton's 1950 squad posted a 67-0 victory over Arkansas State; and the 45-point margin of victory was the fifth highest ever recorded by a Mississippi State team on the road.

TURNOVER MARGIN HELPS TELL STORY OF 2010 SEASON; DOGS OFF TO GOOD START IN 2011

The most telling stat for Mississippi State last season was its turnover margin. The Bulldogs were plus-11 in turnovers in their seven wins, and minus-4 in four losses. State turned the ball over just nine times in nine wins and 12 times in four losses.

Though the first week of the season, State is +2 after its win over Memphis.

OFFENSE LOOKS TO CONTINUE IMPRESSIVE STREAKS

The Mississippi State offense has scored at least 30 points in each of its last four games and scored 50 in each of the last two. It is the longest 30-plus point streak in school history and only the 1907 and 1914 teams (twice) had ever posted consecutive 50-point games, and no team in school history has ever recorded three in a row.

Under head coach Dan Mullen, State has scored 30 or more points 11 times in 26 games. The Dogs had only reached the 30-point mark 21 times in the previous 94 games.

DOGS CONTINUE TO EXCEL IN GROUND GAME

In his 26 games as head coach at Mississippi State, Dan Mullen's team has eclipsed the 100-yard rushing mark in all but one contest. State rushed for 100+ in each game last season, and eclipsed the 300-yard mark at Memphis. The Bulldogs also scored five rushing touchdowns in Week 1, marking 23 times in 26 games the offense has scored at least one touchdown on the ground.

RUNNING BACK BALLARD CONTINUES TO IMPRESS...

Senior running back Vick Ballard led the Bulldog rushing attack with 968 yards and a school record 19 rushing touchdowns. In Week 1 at Memphis, Ballard was named SEC Offensive Player of the Week after rushing for a career-high 166 yards and three scores on just 10 carries. In just 13 career games (missed one game last season) he has scored 22 touchdowns (sixth all time at MSU) and had five three-touchdown games.

... AS DOES QUARTERBACK RELF

Senior quarterback Chris Relf continued an astonishing stretch of great play in the Week 1 victory at Memphis. Over his last four games Relf has completed 64-of-94 passes for 995 yards with eight touchdowns and two interceptions. His quarterback rating over those four games is whopping 180.8.

DOG 'D' HAS SOLID DAY AT MEMPHIS

With a pair of new coaches and a trio of new linebackers, the Bulldog defense had a solid season opener at Memphis. The defense allowed only one first half drive of more than 30 yards. Memphis had only one drive that included more than one first down in the first half. Of the Tigers 18 total offensive possessions, 14 included one or fewer first downs.

QB COULD SET SCHOOL RECORDS THIS SEASON

Relf has a chance to rewrite the Mississippi State career passing record book. He already ranks among the top ten in completion percentage, interception percentage, yards per attempt, passing efficiency and touchdown passes. The Montgomery, Ala., native needs 56 completions and 674 yards to enter the school's top 10 in those categories.

With 1,251 career rushing yards, Relf is only the school's sixth quarterback to reach the 1,000 yard mark.

SMITH, OFFENSIVE LINE HAVE BIG DAY AT MEMPHIS

Junior offensive guard Tobias Smith and the offensive line helped pave the way for a Bulldog offensive unit that eclipsed the 300-yard mark both rushing and passing for the first time in school history.

The line did not allow a sack on the evening, and Smith posted a team-leading six knockdowns while posting a 91 per cent blocking grade.

FAMILIAR FACES RETURN ON DEFENSE

Even with the departure of three senior linebackers and a defensive end, the Bulldog defensive lineup entered the season with 12 different players that have earned at least on career start. Defensive linemen Sean Ferguson, Fletcher Cox and Josh Boyd have combined for 49 career starts. Defensive backs Charles Mitchell, Nickoe Whitley, Wade Bonner, Johnthan Banks and Corey Broomfield have earned 79 starting nods.

DEFENSE WAS BEST WITH BACKS AGAINST THE WALL

One of the main reasons the Bulldogs were able to keep opponents from scoring touchdowns in 2010 was its remarkable redzone defense. State allowed foes to reach the 20 yardline 40 times this season, with opponents only scoring touchdowns 17 times (42.5 percent).

This season, opponents are 1-for-1 on redzone scoring opportunities.

AND OFFENSE WAS OUTSTANDING WHEN IN REDZONE

While the defense was making it difficult for opponents to score, the Bulldog offensive unit did a great job of converting when given the opportunity. Officially, State scored on 39-of-49 redzone chances, but a pair of 20-yardline entries were at the conclusion of games. Of 47 actual scoring opportunities, the Bulldogs scored a touchdown 32 times - 68 percent.

Through week 1, the offense is 3-for-3 (100 percent) in redzone opportunities with two touchdowns (66.7 percent).

BROOMFIELD HAS INSTINCT FOR INTERCEPTIONS...

Junior cornerback Corey Broomfield has a knack for picking off passes and the Palm Bay, Fla., native intercepted his ninth career pass in last year's regular season finale, moving him into the school's all-time top 10 in the category.

He is also tied for the national lead among active players with three career pick-sixes and the total has tied the Mississippi State school record. It's also tied for second most in the history of the Southeastern Conference.

...AND BANKS HAS NOSE FOR BIG PLAYS AS WELL

The other half of the cornerback tandem, junior Johnthan Banks, has also shown an ability to make huge plays. The Maben, Miss., native has collected seven interceptions during his career at both safety and corner.

Banks set a school record and tied the SEC mark with a pair of interception returns for touchdowns in the same game (2009 vs. Florida). His two INTs for scores ranks third nationally among all active players in career pick-sixes.

SAULSBERRY TO STARTING AT FOURTH SPOT

Senior offensive lineman Quentin Saulsberry drew the starting duty at center in the Bulldogs' season opener, marking the fourth spot he's earned a starting nod at in his four years in Starkville.

He began his career as the Dogs' right tackle for 12 games in 2008. In 2009 he moved over to left guard and earned 12 starts. Last season, he started 11 times at right guard and twice at center.

LEWIS BURST ONTO SCENE AGAINST MEMPHIS

Redshirt freshman Jameon Lewis made the most of his first opportunity on the playing field. The Tylertown, Miss., native caught four passes for 113 yards and a score in the victory at Memphis. He also rushed twice for 29 yards and returned three punts and a kickoff to finish the day with 152 all-purpose yards.

BUMPHIS CLIMBING SCHOOL'S TOP 10

With a 44-yard touchdown reception at Memphis, wide receiver Chad Bumphis moved into a tied for eighth on Mississippi State's career touchdown catches list with 10. Bumphis needs only four catches and 336 receiving yards to enter the school's top 10 in those categories.

CLARK HAS CAREER-BEST DAY IN OPENER

Junior wideout Arceto Clark racked up a career-high 72 receiving yards with a touchdown in the opener at Memphis. The Tupelo native caught two passes, and made the most with each. His first catch came on the second play of the game and went for a 37-yard gain. His second-quarter 35-yard touchdown reception pushed the lead to 24-7 and his

SWEDENBURG HAS SOLID DEBUT

Sophomore punter Baker Swedenburg had a solid outing in his first collegiate game. He hit five punts for an average of 41.4 yards with four pinning Memphis inside its own 20 yardline. The Tigers were not able to return any of his five punts.

BURE MAKING WAVES ON SPECIAL TEAMS

Senior cornerback Marvin Bure might have found his niche on special teams. The speedy defensive back compiled five tackles in the opener at Memphis, all on kickoff coverage.

NAMES ABOUND ON PRESEASON WATCH LISTS

Mississippi State players appeared on a slew of preseason watch lists, recognizing both players in the Southeastern Conference and across the nation.

Senior Vick Ballard was named to the Maxwell and Doak Walker Award watch lists; Fletcher Cox and Charles Mitchell were named to the Nagurski Award list; Chris Relf earned recognition from the Davey O'Brien Award and the Manning Award; Quentin Saulsberry was named to the Lombardi Trophy list.

See page 4 for a list of all awards winners this season.

BALLARD, MITCHELL CHOSEN AS CAPTAINS

MSU announced permanent team captains for the 2011 team prior to the first game of the year. By a vote of their teammates, Vick Ballard and Charles Mitchell earned the honor.

FERGUSON, MITCHELL AND SAULSBERRY HAVE PLAYED EVERY GAME

A trio of players have played in every game over the past three years. Defensive lineman Sean Ferguson, Saulsberry and Mitchell have each played in all 38 games, with Saulsberry the only one to earn a start in each one.

GAME RECAP

STARKVILLE, Miss. – It wasn't 3-2 as it was here two years ago, but the defensive intensity was just as prevalent.

Thursday night in front of a nationally-televised ESPN audience and an energetic crowd of 54,806 at Scott Field, No. 21 Auburn survived a valiant effort from Mississippi State to claim a hard-fought 17-14 victory in the SEC opener for both teams.

In a game filled with big plays at crucial moments, it was only fitting that the outcome wasn't decided until the closing seconds.

In their final drive set up by a blocked 34-yard field goal by Fletcher Cox, the Bulldogs drove to the Auburn 41 after converting both fourth- and third-down opportunities. However, with 22 seconds left and MSU facing a fourth-and-15, the upset was thwarted when Chris Relf's pass fell incomplete at the Auburn 25.

The Bulldogs (1-1, 0-1) finished with 246 yards of offense, while Auburn (2-0, 1-0) totaled 348 despite not scoring in the second half.

Relf finished the day 12-of-26 passing for 110 yards, while Chad Bumphis paced the MSU on the ground with 27 yards on three carries. He also led the Bulldogs with five receptions for 34 yards.

Auburn's Cam Newton threw for 136 yards on 11-of-19 passing while rushing for a game-high 70 yards.

Defensively, Chris White paced MSU with 11 tackles, while K.J. Wright registered 10. The Bulldogs also forced two turnovers (one interception and one fumble recovery) and totaled two sacks.

"Every time we hit a high note, no one made the big play," Mullen said. "That's when you've got to explode and make those plays."

The Tigers struck first on their opening possession, moving 68 yards in eight plays to take a 7-0 lead on a 39-yard scoring strike from Newton to Emory Blake.

However, the Bulldogs battled back and with 2:30 left in the opening quarter tied the game when offensive lineman Gabe Jackson recovered a Chris Relf fumble in the end zone to avoid disaster and bring to life the raucous crowd that filled the stands early on this muggy evening.

After Newton threw his second touchdown, this time from 12 yards out to Darvin Adams, Auburn swelled the lead to 17-7 on a 34-yard field goal by Wes Bryum.

But coming out of the locker room following intermission, the momentum shifted back toward the Bulldogs. Behind the arm of Relf, MSU orchestrated a 12-play, 63-yard drive and closed the gap to 17-14 at the 8:55 mark when Vick Ballard powered his way up the middle from the 1.

Mullen then pulled out his bag of tricks with an onside kick that was recovered by Sean Brauchle. However, the Bulldogs failed to capitalize and were forced to punt three players later.

DAN MULLEN

HEAD COACH • THIRD SEASON

In just over two full seasons, Dan Mullen has revitalized and reenergized the Mississippi State fan base. From the moment of his introduction on December 10, 2008 as the 32nd head coach in school history, supporters have turned out in record numbers and capacity crowds.

Mississippi State fans have sold out a school-record 10 consecutive home games, including all seven at Davis Wade Stadium last fall. Each of the last two years have seen the school's attendance record broken. In fact, 12 of the school's top 20 crowds have occurred in the last two years.

Mullen was widely regarded as one of the top young minds in college football when he arrived at Mississippi State, and he brought not only an impressive offensive resume and a list of NFL-developed quarterbacks but also an energy and passion for the college game.

Improvement wasn't limited to fan enthusiasm, as Mullen ignited the Bulldogs to a nine-win season in just his second year. State won six games in a row in the middle of the season, and finished among the top 10 in school history in the following categories - passing yardage, completion percentage, passing touchdowns, rushing attempts, rushing yards, rushing touchdowns, total plays, total offensive yards, per-game offense and first downs. The defense also amassed the 10th highest sack total in school annals.

The 2010 Bulldogs closed out the season with nine victories including posting the largest margin of victory in a bowl game in school history. The resounding 52-14 Gator Bowl win over Michigan capped a truly remarkable year.

In 2009, despite facing the nation's toughest schedule. State's rushing attack, led by first-team all-Southeastern Conference selection Anthony Dixon, finished ninth nationally with a 227.6 rushing yard average per game. State averaged 371.9 yards of total offense per game, the eighth highest total in school history and the most since 2000.

Mullen's first season concluded with a rousing 41-27 victory over MSU's in-state rival, which brought the Golden Egg back to Starkville. He became the only third Mississippi State coach to win his Egg Bowl debut since 1939, joining Allyn McKeen and Jackie Sherrill. The Bulldogs posted a 5-7 overall record in 2009, including three road victories.

During the previous four seasons as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at the University of Florida, Mullen molded a Heisman Trophy, Davey O'Brien and Maxwell Award winning quarterback, along with a Rimington Trophy finalist and a Biletnikoff Award semifinalist.

In 2008 alone, Mullen's offensive attack ranked third nationally in scoring - averaging better than 45 points per game as the Gators scored at least 30 points in 12 of 13 games. The 587 points scored eclipsed the previous University of Florida mark, set in 1996.

Florida rushed for a new-school record 41 touchdowns that season and UF's 80 rushing touchdowns over the two seasons ranked second nationally. Overall, Florida's rushing yardage of 2,987 this year ranks ninth nationally and is the third-highest total in school history.

Seven offensive players were recognized as All-Southeastern Conference selections following the season in which Florida claimed its second SEC Championship and a chance to play for its second national championship in three seasons.

The Gator offense ranked first in the SEC in scoring offense and total offense for a second-straight season in 2008, averaging 45.2 points and 442.4 yards per game. Under Mullen's tutelage in 2007, UF averaged 42.5 points and 457.2 yards.

In 2007, Mullen directed the Gator offense to the third-highest point total ever by a UF unit and the top single-season marks for rushing touchdowns and third-down conversion percentage. Florida's offense scored 75 touchdowns during the season most in the SEC.

Mullen orchestrated a UF attack that was the only one in the nation to have rushed for a touchdown and passed for a touchdown in every game during the season. He also helped UF score on 83 of 152 drives in 2007 for a league-best 54.6 percent, marking the best number since the stat was tracked by the SEC in 2000. Florida also averaged 7.0 yards per play last year, the fourth-best total in the nation and the Gators averaged 5.3 yards per rush, the second-best number in school history.

In 2007, he helped coach sophomore quarterback Tim Tebow into a Heisman Trophy, Maxwell and Davey O'Brien award winner, 78th Sullivan Award winner and AP first-team All-American among other honors.

He also tutored six offensive players to the All-SEC team: Tebow, Percy Harvin, Cornelius Ingram, Brandon James, Jim Tartt and Drew Miller.

Mullen played an integral role in Florida's 2006 national championship, overseeing an offense that averaged 29.7 points and 396.1 yards per game. In the BCS National Championship Game, he engineered an attack that produced 41 points against a top-ranked Ohio State squad that was limiting opponents to less than 11 points per game on the year. Under Mullen's tutelage, quarterback Chris Leak opened the contest by going 9-for-9 for 99 yards and a touchdown en route to earning Offensive MVP honors.

The 2006 Gator offense posted 76 plays of 20 yards or more, 19 of which went for touchdowns. Florida passed for 29 touchdowns in 2006, while Leak ranked among the national leaders with 23 scoring tosses. Tebow matched UF's single-season record for rushing touchdowns by a quarterback with eight scores, and his 5.3 average yards per carry were second nationally among signal callers. Six different players averaged at least 5.0 yards per carry.

In 2005, Chad Jackson played his way to Biletnikoff Award semifinalist status after matching the UF single-season record with 88 receptions, a figure that led the SEC and finished sixth nationally. Center Mike Degory was also named a finalist for the Rimington Trophy, given annually to the nation's top center, during that campaign. Both earned first-team All-SEC honors under Mullen's tutelage.

Mullen went to Florida from Utah with head coach Urban Meyer, with whom he had spent 10 seasons. While the quarterbacks coach at Utah, Mullen developed Alex Smith - the first overall selection in the 2005 NFL Draft - from a pocket passer into an efficient executor of the spread, making him one of the most versatile threats in college football. Smith took over the starting job three games into Mullen's tenure, passing for 2,247 yards and running for 452 to finish second in the Mountain West in total offense in 2003.

The 2004 campaign saw Smith earn National Player of the Year honors from The Sporting News and Sports Illustrated, while also becoming Utah's first-ever Heisman Trophy finalist and garnering final consideration for the Davey O'Brien and Walter Camp National Player of the Year Awards. Smith passed for 2,952 yards and 32 touchdowns and ran for 631 yards and 10 scores on the year, ranking second in the nation with a 176.5 efficiency rating and leading the Utes to a perfect 12-0 season and a Fiesta Bowl championship. As a team, Utah finished the 2004 season third in the nation in scoring offense (45.3) and total offense (499.8).

Prior to his stint at Utah, Mullen served as quarterbacks' coach at Bowling Green for two seasons, putting up 6,627 yards of total offense and scoring 81 touchdowns during that span. In 2002, quarterback Josh Harris threw for 2,425 yards, ran for 737 yards and completed the campaign as the nation's third-leading scorer.

Mullen spent the two years before his Bowling Green stint as a graduate assistant at Notre Dame and assisted with Syracuse's 1998 BIG EAST championship and Orange Bowl run.

A two-year starter at tight end for Ursinus College in Collegeville, Pa., Mullen earned first-team All-Centennial Conference honors as a senior. He is married to the former Megan West, and the couple has a two-year-old son, Canon.
