2013 SEC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

The 2013 SEC Football Championship Game will be played on Sat., Dec. 7 at 4 p.m. ET in Atlanta's Georgia Dome. The game will be televised nationally on CBS Sports.

The game pits the SEC's two divisional champions. This will be the 22nd annual title game (scores of previous games are below). General public tickets for the 2013 game are sold out.

The 2009 SEC Championship Game earned a 11.8 rating and a 24 share, the highest rated SEC Championship Game in history. The game was played in Birmingham's Legion Field in 1992 and 1993 and moved to the Georgia Dome in 1994.

The Championship Game has drawn 19 capacity crowds in its 21-year history. Only 1993 (Birmingham) and 1995 (Atlanta) were not sellouts.

Alabama's dramatic SEC Championship Game victory over Georgia last season produced a 9.8 rating with 16.2 million viewers, the most-watched college football game of the 2012 regular season.

2013 SEC PLAYERS OF THE WEEK

AARON MURRAY
QB
GEORGIA
Senior
Tampa, Fla.

- Murray has been named the Walter Camp National Offensive Player of the Week following his performance in the 44-41 win over #6 LSU.
- He connected on 20-of-34 for 298 yards and four touchdowns and also ran for his third touchdown of the year.
- This marked Murray's second win over an SEC top-10 team in the last three games as he helped generate 494 yards of total offense on the Tigers defense.
- Under Murray's direction, the Bulldogs have scored at least 35 points in all four of their games this season, including at least 41 versus both #6 South Carolina and LSU.
- Murray moved into the No. 2 spot in school history with career passing yardage with 11,429 (former Bulldog David Greene holds the school and SEC records at 11,528); in total offense, Murray now has 11,659, which is No. 2 in SEC history.

DEFENSIVE

C.J. MOSLEY
LB
ALABAMA
Senior
Mobile, Ala.

- Senior All-American and defensive signal caller led Tide to first shutout of season.
- Led team with 9 total tackles, one TFL, one PBU and 2 QB hurries.
- Put the game out of reach when he recorded a safety with 5:43 left in the game to make it 18-0.
- Also deflected a pass on a key 4th down and 2 from the Alabama 7 in the 3rd quarter to keep lead 16-0.
- Held Ole Miss to 4-for-14 on 3rd down, 1-of-4 on 4th down, and 0-for-2 in the red zone.
- Rebels totaled just 205 yards (46 rushing, 159 passing) and 3.6 yards per play.
- Held third opponent this season to 10 points or less (7 times in 2012).

SPECIAL TEAMS

MARSHALL MORGAN
PK
Sophomore
Ft. Lauderdale, Fla.)

- Morgan scored 14 points during the 44-41 victory over #6 LSU.
- He was 5-for-5 on PATs and drilled all three of his field goal attempts, including a career-long 55 yarder that put Georgia up 27-20 in the third quarter.

OFFENSIVE LINEMAN

A.J. CANN
OG
SOUTH CAROLINA
Junior
Bamberg, S.C.

- Cann led the charge for the Gamecocks' offensive line that helped amass 225 yards on the ground, including 167 from Mike Davis, and four rushing touchdowns, and another 265 yards through the air.
- Played all 80 offensive snaps, grading out at 86 percent with no sacks or pressures.
- Of the Gamecocks' 490 total yards, 326 came after intermission.

DEFENSIVE LINEMAN

MICHAEL SAM
MISSOURI
Senior
Hitchcock, Texas

- Was a disruptive force in the backfield much of the night in MU's win over Arkansas State, as he notched a career-best 3.0 quarterback sacks, while forcing a fumble. Ended the night with 4 tackles overall, including his 3.0 sacks for a total of 19 yards in losses.
- The 3.0 sacks ties the NCAA single-game high through Sept. 28th this season, and Sam leads the SEC and ranks 18th in the NCAA so far with his tackles for loss average of 1.5 per game.

FRESHMAN

VERNON HARGREAVES, III
DB
FLORIDA
Tampa, Fla.

- Made his third interception of the season, the most by an SEC freshman and the third-most nationally among freshmen.
- Intercepted a pass in the end zone from Kentucky's Maxwell Smith to rob the Wildcats of a third-quarter touchdown.
- Leads the Gators in interceptions.

OTHER OUTSTANDING PERFORMANCES IN WEEK 5

CADE FOSTER, PK (Alabama) -- Established a career-high with three field goals...Connected on all three FG attempts: 28, career-long 53 and 42 yards...Hit the 42-yarder as time expired in the first half to put UA up 9-0.

ALEX COLLINS, RB (Arkansas) -- Led all rushers with 116 yards on 14 carries vs. No. 10 Texas A&M... Recorded 4th 100-yard rushing game, most in the SEC this season and one behind UA freshman record of 5 set by Darren McFadden in 2005.

DANTE FOWLER, JR., DL (Florida) -- Made five tackles, including 2.0 sacks for 18 yards in the victory over Kentucky...Helped lead the Gator defense as they held Kentucky to just 46 yards of rushing yardage.

MATT JONES, RB (Florida) -- Rushed for 176 yards against Kentucky, the most by a Gator RB since Ciatrick Fason had 201 vs. UK in 2004...Jones' 176 yards rushing is the most on the road by a gator since Fason ran for 190 at South Carolina in 2003 and is the eighth best all-time by a Gator in a road game.

JOSH HARVEY-CLEMONS, LB (Georgia) -- Harvey-Clemons exploded for a career-high 15 tackles, including 1.5 tackles for loss, during the win over the Tigers...He shot to third on the team's tackles list with 27 stops this year despite playing in only three games.

JOE MANSOUR, PK (Kentucky) -- Scored on a 25-yard run on a fake field goal attempt...Followed with an extra point, accounting for all seven of Kentucky's points vs. the Gators.

ZACH METTENBERGER, QB (LSU) -- Mettenberger completind 23-of-37 passes for a career-best 372 yards and three touchdowns at Georgia.

ANDREW WILSON, LB (Missouri) -- Led the way defensively for the Tigers with a career-high 17 tackles in MU's 41-19 win over Arkansas State Saturday night in Columbia. That tied for the 2nd-highest tackles output in the Gary Pinkel era at Mizzou.

JAMES FRANKLIN, QB (Missouri) -- Had an outstanding and efficient night as he led the Tigers to a big second half on the way to a 41-19 win over Arkansas State. Mizzou outscored ASU by a 27-6 margin in the second half, and Franklin was the director, as he led TD drives of 94 yards, 87 yards, 64 yards and 21 yards in four-straight possession to turn a 16-14 3rd-quarter deficit into a 41-19 margin... Finished the evening 21-of-30 passing for 256 yards and 3 TDs (68 yards, 5 yards, 5 yards) with no interceptions, and his single-game passer rating of 174.68 marked a season high thus far.

MIKE DAVIS, RB (South Carolina) --Davis put the Gamecocks on his back in the second half, leading Carolina to a 28-25 come-from-behind victory at previously undefeated UCF. After logging just 5 carries for 17 yards in the first half as the Gamecocks fell behind 10-0, Davis exploded in the second half. He had 21 second-half carries for 150 yards and three touchdowns, to give him 26 carries for 167 yards on the day. The 3 rushing touchdowns tied the school record. He scored from 53, 13 and 13 yards out. His 53-yard run was his third rush of over 50 yards this season.

RAJION NEAL, RB (TENNESSEE) -- Rushed for a career-high 169 yards and a touchdown on 25 carries, the most yards rushing gained by a Vol in a game since 2009...He rushed for 102 yards in the first half.

BRIAN RANDOLPH, DB (TENNESSEE) -- Led team with 12 tackles and intercepted a pass to seal the win late in the fourth quarter in his own end zone.

AUSTYN CARTA-SAMUELS, QB (Vanderbilt) -- Completed 23 of 29 passes for a career-high 334 yards and 2 TDs in Vanderbilt's 52-24 victory over UAB... Passing total was the most by a Commodore since Chris Nickson threw for 446 yards at Kentucky on Nov. 11, 2006.

SEC BOWL AGREEMENTS

The Southeastern Conference recently announced agreements with nine postseason bowls and a new process for the assignment of SEC member schools to bowl games, beginning with the 2014 season and extending for six years.

The new SEC bowl process coincides with the beginning of the new College Football Playoff that follows the 2014 college football season. The SEC will also participate in the Allstate Sugar Bowl and the Discover Orange Bowl (in selected years).

"We are pleased to have established a lineup of premier bowl games that will give our student-athletes a wonderful post-season experience and our fans the opportunity to travel to venues in the geographical footprint of the conference," said SEC Commissioner Mike Slive.

Under the new SEC bowl system, the Capital One Bowl in Orlando (vs. Big Ten/ACC), a long-time SEC bowl, will have the first selection of available SEC teams after any conference schools have qualified for the College Football Playoff, the Allstate Sugar Bowl or the Discover Orange Bowl.

Following the Capital One Bowl, there will be a pool of six bowls comprised of renewals with the Outback Bowl in Tampa (vs. Big Ten), Franklin American Mortgage Music City Bowl in Nashville (vs. ACC/Big Ten), TaxSlayer.com Gator Bowl in Jacksonville (vs. ACC/Big Ten) and AutoZone Liberty Bowl in Memphis (vs. Big 12), as well as new agreements with the Texas Bowl in Houston (vs. Big 12) and Belk Bowl in Charlotte (vs. ACC).

In consultation with SEC member institutions, as well as these six bowls, the conference will make the assignments for the bowl games in this newly created pool system.

"This bowl process gives us the best opportunity to address several issues that impact SEC fans, including the creation of intriguing matchups, the accommodation of travel for fans, reduced ticket obligations for our schools and a variety of assignments to help prevent repetitive postseason destinations," said Slive.

The SEC has also renewed its relationship with both the Birmingham Bowl (vs. TBA) and the Advocate V100 Bowl in Shreveport (vs. ACC). The Birmingham Bowl will have the first selection of available teams following the pool of six bowls. The Advocate V100 Bowl will have the next selection of available teams following the Birmingham Bowl.

2013 SEC FOOTBALL VIDEO REPLAY

THE OBJECTIVE

To allow for specific types of officiating calls to be immediately reviewed during all games hosted by SEC teams.

THE COACHES' CHALLENGE

The head coach may challenge the ruling of any reviewable play. He retains a challenge if his initial challenge is successful and thus results in a reversal by the replay official. The head coach will then have a single challenge that he may use anytime during the game if his team has not used all its timeouts. Thus a team may have a total of two challenges in the game, but only if the first results in a reversal of the on-field ruling. A head coach may not challenge an on-field ruling if all of the team's timeouts have been used for that half or extra period.

THE SOURCE

All reviewable video comes direct from either the television network broadcasting the game or other TV production facilities that meet established conference standards. The Southeastern Conference has used instant replay since 2005.

THE PLAYS

Scoring Plays

Reviewable plays involving a potential score include:

- A potential touchdown or safety. [Exception: Safety by penalty for fouls that are not specifically reviewable.]
- Field goal attempts if and only if the ball is ruled (a) below or above the crossbar or (b) inside or outside the uprights when it is lower than the top of the uprights. If the ball is higher than the top of the uprights as it crosses the end line, the play may not be reviewed.

Passes

Reviewable plays involving passes include:

- Pass ruled complete, incomplete or intercepted anywhere in the field of play or an end zone.
- Forward pass touched by a player or an official.
- Forward pass or forward handing when a ball carrier is or has been beyond the neutral zone.
- A forward pass or forward handing after a change of team possession.
- Pass ruled forward or backward when thrown from behind the neutral zone.
 - If the pass is ruled forward and is incomplete, the play is reviewable only if there is clear recovery of a loose ball in the immediate continuing action after the loose ball. If the replay official does not have indisputable video evidence as to which team recovers, the ruling of incomplete pass stands.
 - If the replay official reverses an incomplete forward pass ruling and the ball is recovered, it belongs to the recovering team at the spot of the recovery and any advance is nullified.

Dead Ball and Loose Ball

Reviewable plays involving potential dead balls and loose balls include:

- a. Loose ball by a potential passer ruled a fumble.
- b. Loose ball by a passer ruled incomplete forward pass when there is clear recovery in the immediate continuing action after the loose ball.
 1. If the replay official does not have indisputable video evidence as to which team recovers, the ruling of incomplete pass stands.
 2. If the replay official rules fumble, the ball belongs to the recovering team at the spot of the recovery and any advance is nullified.
- c. Live ball not ruled dead in possession of a ball carrier.
- d. Loose ball ruled dead, or live ball ruled dead in possession of a ball carrier when the clear recovery of a loose ball occurs in the immediate continuing action.
 1. If the ball is ruled dead and the replay official does not have indisputable video evidence as to which team recovers, the dead-ball ruling stands.
 2. If the replay official rules that the ball was not dead, it belongs to the recovering team at the spot of the recovery and any advance is nullified.
- e. Ball carrier's forward progress with respect to a first down.
- f. Catch or recovery of a fumble by a Team A player other than the fumbler before any change of possession during fourth down or a try.
- g. Ball carrier in or out of bounds. If a ball carrier is ruled out of bounds, the play is not reviewable, except as in Rules 12-3-1-a and 12-3-3-d.
- h. Catch, recovery or touching of a loose ball by a player potentially touching or having touched a sideline or end line.
- i. A loose ball touching on or beyond a sideline, goal line, or end line, touching a pylon, or breaking the plane of a goal line.

Kicks

Reviewable plays involving kicks include:

- a. Touching of a kick.
- b. Player beyond the neutral zone when kicking the ball.
- c. Kicking team player advancing a ball after a potential muffed kick/fumble by the receiving team.
- d. Scrimmage kick crossing the neutral zone.

Miscellaneous

Situations that may be addressed by the replay official:

- a. The number of players on the field for either team during a live ball.
- b. Clock adjustment and status when a ruling is reviewed.
- c. Clock adjustment at the end of any quarter. If at the end of any quarter the game clock expires, either during a down in which it should be stopped by rule when the ball becomes dead or following the down upon a request for an available team timeout, the replay official may restore time only under these conditions:
 1. The replay official has indisputable video evidence that time should have remained on the game clock when the ball became dead or when the team timeout was granted;
 2. In the second and fourth quarters only, the team in possession when the ball became dead would next put the ball in play from scrimmage (not the try);
 3. In the fourth quarter only, either the score is tied or the team that will next snap the ball is behind by eight points or fewer; and
 4. The replay official's video evidence includes the timeout signal by an official in the case where the game clock should have stopped for a requested team timeout.
- d. Correcting the number of a down.
 1. This includes the result of a penalty enforcement that includes an automatic first down or loss of down.
 2. The correction may be made at any time within that series of downs or before the ball is legally put in play after that series.
- e. Any person who is not a player interfering with live-ball action occurring in the field of play (Rule 9-2-3).
- f. The player disqualification portion of the penalty for targeting fouls under 9-1-3 and 9-1-4. The point of initial contact and use of the crown of the helmet are reviewable; however, the targeting action itself is not reviewable. Note that if the disqualification is reversed the 15 yard penalty remains.

Limitations on Reviewable Plays

No other plays or officiating decisions are reviewable. However, the replay official may correct egregious errors, including those involving the game clock, whether or not a play is reviewable. This excludes fouls that are not specifically reviewable (Reviewable fouls: Rules 12-3-2-c and d, 12-3-4-b and 12-3-5-a).

THE PROCESS

Each SEC football stadium has a secured replay booth equipped with the HD Instant Replay system provided by DVSPORT. Three individuals work in the booth for the duration of the game: 1. Replay Official, 2. Communicator, 3. Technician. The Replay Official and the Communicator are selected and assigned by the Conference Office.

A live HD video feed is sent directly to the replay booth from the TV truck. The Technician watches the feed on an input monitor while recording it into the DVSPORT Replay System. The Technician also marks the beginning of each play while the Communicator marks all incoming replays.

Each play and subsequent replay then appears on a touch screen in front of the Replay Technician. As the Technician and the Communicator mark the incoming video, each view will appear as a small picture on the computer touch screen. At any time, the Replay Technician can touch the thumbnail and immediately send that play or replay to the Replay Official.

With the Communicator's assistance, the Replay Official can quickly jump between replays while playing back the video. All replay video navigation is done via a jog shuttle remote controlled by the Replay Official. All video is viewed on an HD monitor that sits in front of the Replay Official. The touch screen is only used to select the replays and to log specific play data in the event a call is overturned.

While all plays are reviewed between the whistle and the beginning of the next play, the Replay Official can stop play on the field by using a pager system. Six of the seven on-field officials wear pagers. If play is stopped the Referee announces on the stadium PA microphone that play has been stopped so the previous play can be reviewed. The Referee then proceeds to the sideline headset, which provides direct communication to the Replay Official in the booth. Once the play has been reviewed, the Replay Official notifies the Referee, who then announces the decision on the stadium PA system.

RECENT ADDITIONS

* Monitors may be used to view a live telecast or webcast in the football coaching booth. The home team is responsible for assuring identical television capability in the coaches' booths of both teams. This capability may not include replay equipment or recorders.

* If at the end of a half the game clock expires, either during a down in which it should be stopped by rule when the ball becomes dead or following the down upon a request for an available team timeout, the replay official may restore time only under these conditions:

1. The replay official has indisputable video evidence that time should have remained on the game clock when the ball became dead or when the team timeout was granted;
2. The team in possession when the ball became dead would next put the ball in play from scrimmage;
3. In the fourth quarter only, either the score is tied or the team that will next snap the ball is behind by eight points or fewer; and
4. The replay official's video evidence includes the timeout signal by an official in the case where the game clock should have stopped for a requested team timeout.

THE EQUIPMENT

Each SEC member institution uses the HD Replay System developed by DVSPORT. The replay systems are maintained by the home institution with technical support from DVSPORT.

2013 SEC Football

SEC FOOTBALL (2006-12) ... SECOND TO NONE

During the last seven years (2006-12), Southeastern Conference football has experienced success that is unparalleled in its football history and in the history of college football. During this tenure, the SEC's achievements have been demonstrated by:

- Triumphs in BCS bowl games, including the BCS National Championship Game
- Non-conference success in regular season and bowl games
- Defeating highly-ranked non-conference teams
- Success in the polls and rankings
- Individual awards and All-America Teams
- Academic and Community Service Standouts
- Continued accomplishments of former SEC student-athletes in the NFL

SEC IN THE BCS

• The SEC has won seven consecutive national championships, nine of 14 BCS National Championships and 23 overall national titles (AP, BCS, FWAA, coaches poll). Alabama defeated Notre Dame 42-14 on Jan. 7 in the Discover BCS National Championship Game for the SEC's seventh straight national title.

• Four different SEC schools have won the BCS National Championship since 2006 (Auburn, 2010; Alabama, 2009, 2011, 2012; Florida, 2006 and 2008; LSU, 2007). Tennessee (1998) and LSU (2004) have also won the BCS crown. The Big 12 (Texas and Oklahoma) and the ACC (Miami and Florida State) have each had two schools win titles since 1998.

• Since 2006, more than half of the slots in the BCS National Championship Game have been taken by SEC teams (9 of 16). The Big Ten and the Big 12 have two each and the Pac-10 has one.

• No other conference has won a BCS National Championship Game since Texas defeated Southern California, 41-38, in the Rose Bowl following the 2005 regular season. The SEC has won the last seven in a row.

• An SEC team has led or tied for the lead at the end of 24 of the last 28 quarters of BCS National Championship Game play.

• Since 2006, an SEC team has been ranked first in the weekly BCS standings in 30 of the 56 weeks, with four different teams holding the top spot. Florida was first for seven weeks, Alabama for 10 weeks, Auburn for three and LSU for 10 weeks, including all eight polls of this season. The Big Ten has held the top spot for 13 weeks (all Ohio State), the Big 12 for six weeks (Texas and Oklahoma twice, Missouri and Kansas State once) and the Pac-10 four weeks (all Oregon).

• The SEC has had more teams ranked in the BCS standings for the most times than any other conference since 2006. The league has had 12 of its 14 teams ranked at one time or another since 2006 for a total of 290 times. The SEC breakdown: LSU (53), Alabama (43), Florida (41), Georgia (31), Auburn (29), South Carolina (29), Arkansas (23), Tennessee (14), Mississippi State (12), Texas A&M (8), Kentucky (4) and Ole Miss (3).

• Since 2006, the SEC has posted a 10-4 record in BCS bowl games, more wins and a higher winning percentage (.750) than any other conference. The win total nearly equals that of the next two highest conferences. Here are the BCS bowl records of all conferences since 2006:

SEC	10-4	.714
Pac-12	7-3	.700
Mountain West	2-1	.667
WAC	2-1	.667
Big East	4-3	.571
Big 12	4-6	.400
Big Ten	4-8	.333
ACC	2-6	.143
MAC	0-1	.000
Independents	0-2	.000

• Three of the top nine defensive performances in BCS history have been registered by SEC teams, more than any other conference. Alabama's shutout of LSU in the 2012 BCS National Championship Game was the first shutout in BCS history. Georgia defeated Hawaii, 41-10, in the 2008 Sugar Bowl, and Florida defeated Syracuse, 31-10, in the 1999 Orange Bowl - both are tied for 7th in lowest point total allowed in a BCS game.

• Alabama's 28-point victory over Notre Dame in the 2013 Discover BCS National Championship second-largest in the BCS era. (Southern Cal defeated Oklahoma by 36 in the 2005 BCS Championship Game for the top spot, however, that victory was later vacated.)

• During the current seven year streak, the SEC's average margin of victory in BCS National Championship Games is 17 points, which includes a three point victory over Oregon in 2011, the only game during the streak decided by single digits.

SEC IN OVERALL BOWL GAMES

• Since 2006, the SEC has accrued more bowl wins (42) and appearances (73) than any other conference. The conference's .656 bowl winning percentage is third behind the Big East (23-10, .697) and Mountain West (20-9, .690) during that time.

Big East	26-12	.684
SEC	42-22	.655
Mountain West	21-13	.618
Pac-12	20-16	.556
Sun Belt	9-8	.529
Big 12	29-27	.518
Conference USA	19-20	.487
Independents	6-8	.429
WAC	11-15	.423
ACC	23-33	.411
Big Ten	19-35	.352
MAC	10-23	.303

• In the 2012-13 bowl season, the SEC had the most wins (6) and had the third highest win percentage (6-3, .667), tied for second-highest among conferences that had six-or-more teams in bowl games.

• In January bowl games, the SEC is 27-12 (.692) against non-conference competition. Since 2008, the league is 21-8 (.724) against non-conference foes in January bowl games.

SEC vs. OTHER CONFERENCES

• Since 2006, the SEC has posted the highest non-conference winning percentage (regular season & bowls) than any other conference. The league has a 333-74 record, an 81.8 winning percentage. The SEC has won no less than 43 non-conference games (regular season & bowls) during the last seven seasons (2006-2012). This season, the SEC was 54-11 (.831), the highest percentage among FBS conferences.

SEC	333-74	.818
Big 12	262-93	.738
Big East	222-95	.700
Big Ten	252-115	.687
Pac-12	169-99	.631
ACC	239-152	.611
Mountain West	156-136	.534
WAC	134-164	.450
Conference USA	144-230	.385
MAC	140-254	.355
Sun Belt	76-200	.275

• Teams from the SEC have posted 44 wins in the last seven years against non-conference Top 25 teams (at time game was played), an average of over six wins per season. Nine of the 14 SEC teams have at least one win against a non-conference Top 25 team in the last six years with LSU (8), Georgia (8), Alabama (7), Florida (5), South Carolina (6) Auburn (3) and Texas A&M (1) leading the way. SEC teams have beaten teams ranked 1-25 since 2006 with the exception of No. 6.

2013 SEC Football

SEC FOOTBALL (2006-12) ... SECOND TO NONE

SEC IN THE NFL

- The SEC has had more of its former players on NFL rosters in the last six seasons than any other conference. On opening weekend of the 2013 season, the SEC placed 340 former players on active 53-man rosters. Since 2006, the SEC has averaged nearly 280 players per year on NFL opening weekend rosters. The league had a previous high of 283 on 2011 rosters and has outpaced all other conferences every year.
- During the last seven completed NFL seasons (2005-11), the SEC had had two of its former players named NFL MVP three times (2005, Shaun Alexander, RB, Alabama with Seattle; 2008-09, Peyton Manning, QB, Tennessee with Indianapolis).
- During the last eight Super Bowls (2006-13), three former SEC players have been named game MVP (2006 – Hines Ward, WR, Georgia with Pittsburgh; 2007 – Peyton Manning, QB, Tennessee with Indianapolis; 2008 and 2012– Eli Manning, QB, Ole Miss with New York Giants)

SEC IN THE NFL SUCCESS

- Former Southeastern Conference football players have had success in the National Football League. Here is a snapshot of that success since 2000.

2000s All-Decade Team

- OG - Alan Faneca, LSU (Pittsburgh, N.Y. Jets, Arizona)
- C - Kevin Mawae, LSU (Seattle, N.Y. Jets, Tennessee)
- QB - Peyton Manning, Tennessee (Indianapolis)
- RB - Jamal Lewis, Tennessee (Baltimore, Cleveland)
- RB - Shaun Alexander, Alabama (Seattle, Washington)
- DT - Richard Seymour, Georgia (New England, Oakland)
- CB - Champ Bailey, Georgia (Washington, Denver)

NFL MVPs

- 2003 - Peyton Manning, Indianapolis (Tennessee)
- Jamal Lewis, Baltimore (Tennessee)
- 2004 - Peyton Manning, Indianapolis (Tennessee)
- 2005 - Shaun Alexander, Seattle (Alabama)
- 2008 - Peyton Manning, Indianapolis (Tennessee)
- 2009 - Peyton Manning, Indianapolis (Tennessee)

Super Bowl MVPs

- XL - Hines Ward, Pittsburgh (Georgia)
- XLI - Peyton Manning, Indianapolis (Tennessee)
- XLII - Eli Manning, New York Giants (Ole Miss)

Going into the 2012 Divisional Playoffs, the SEC has two of the eight starting quarterbacks - Eli Manning, New York Giants (Ole Miss) and Tim Tebow, Denver (Florida) and two of the eight team's leading rushers - BenJarvis Green-Ellis, New England (Ole Miss) and Arian Foster, Houston (Tennessee).

2013 SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE FOOTBALL COMMUNITY SERVICE TEAM

Auburn senior defensive end Nosa Eguae is the Southeastern Conference Football Community Service Team Player of the Week.

Eguae likes pounding on running backs and quarterbacks. But when it comes to helping kids and volunteer work, he's an old softie. The Auburn defensive end showed that again this year when he spent time at the Pine Hills Literacy Project, an after-school program in Lee County for students in the first through sixth grades.

Eguae has impressed on the football field with 78 career tackles and 31 starts in three years, but he has done good work outside of the spotlight as well.

"I've been blessed with an awesome platform and I'm going to use it to reach out, whether it be to one person or 50 or 100," he says. "That's something that I'm passionate about and something that is big to me. I was raised in a family that it was always about others. It wasn't about self."

The senior from Mansfield, Texas made an impression on the young kids in the Pine Hills program.

"Nosa was wonderful with the children. The kids really took to him," said Anne Daniels, co-founder of the Pine Hills program with former White House press secretary Robert Gibbs. "The kids were a little more hyper than usual to impress him."

Eguae said he still got the message through. "Some of them were trying to act a little too cool when it comes to reading, but when I showed up I told them that reading is cool. We have fun and enjoy the time together," he said. "Just being able to talk to the kids and read books with them was big. Being an athlete is great, but learning the skills of reading and writing are the most important."

"I've always been a part of some awesome schools and awesome programs that could influence," he said.

Eguae says he understands he can be a role model. "Anytime I saw a college athlete or a pro athlete, I always looked up to them."

Week 1 - Tyler Russell, QB, Mississippi State

Week 2 - Avery Williamson, LB, Kentucky

Week 3 - Chris Burnette, OG, Georgia

Week 4 - Jake Matthews, OT, Texas A&M

Week 5 - Victor Hampton, CB, South Carolina

Week 6 - Nosa Eguae, DE, Auburn

SEC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

SEC DIVISIONAL TIE-BREAKER

In the event of a tie for the division championship, the following procedures will be used to break all ties to determine the SEC Football Championship Game representative. All Conference versus Conference Games (both division and non-division) will be counted in the Conference Standings.

Two-Team Tie. In the event two teams are tied for a division title, the following procedure will be used in the following order:

- A. Head-to-head competition between the two tied teams;
- B. Records of the tied teams within the division;
- C. Head-to-head competition against the team within the division with the best overall (divisional and non-divisional) Conference record, and proceeding through the division (multiple ties within the division will be broken from first to last and a tie for first place will be broken before a tie for fourth place);
- D. Overall record against non-divisional teams;
- E. Combined record against all common non-divisional teams;
- F. Record against the common non-divisional team with the best overall Conference record (divisional or non-divisional) and proceeding through other common non-divisional teams based on their order of finish within their division; and

G. The tied team with the highest ranking in the Bowl Championship Series Standings following the last weekend of regular-season games shall be the divisional representative in the SEC Championship Game.

Three-Team Tie (or more). If three teams are tied for a division title, the following procedure will be used in the following order: (Note: If one of the procedures results in one team being eliminated and two remaining, the two-team tiebreaker procedure as stated in No. 1 above will be used):

- A. Combined head to head record among the tied teams;
- B. Record of the tied teams within the division;
- C. Head to head competition against the team within the division with the best overall Conference record (divisional and non-divisional) and proceeding through the division (multiple ties within the division will be broken from first to last and a tie for first place will be broken before a tie for fourth place);
- D. Overall Conference record against non-divisional teams;
- E. Combined record against all common non-divisional teams;
- F. Record against the common non-divisional team with the best overall Conference record (divisional and non-divisional) and proceeding through other common non-divisional teams based on their order of finish within their division; and
- G. The tied team with the highest ranking in the Bowl Championship Series Standings following the last weekend of regular-season games shall be the divisional representative in the SEC Championship Game, unless the second of the tied teams is ranked within five-or-fewer places of the highest-ranked tied team. In this case, the head-to-head results of the top two ranked tied teams shall determine the representative in the SEC Championship Game.

2013 SEC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

The 2013 SEC Football Championship Game will be played on Sat., Dec. 7 at 4 p.m. ET in Atlanta's Georgia Dome. The game will be televised nationally on CBS Sports.

The game pits the SEC's two divisional champions. This will be the 22nd annual title game (scores of previous games are below).

General public tickets for the 2013 game are sold out.

The 2009 SEC Championship Game earned a 11.8 rating and a 24 share, the highest rated SEC Championship Game in history.

The game was played in Birmingham's Legion Field in 1992 and 1993 and moved to the Georgia Dome in 1994.

The Championship Game has drawn 19 capacity crowds in its 21-year history. Only 1993 (Birmingham) and 1995 (Atlanta) were not sellouts.

Alabama's dramatic SEC Championship Game victory over Georgia last season produced a 9.8 rating with 16.2 million viewers, the most-watched college football game of the 2012 regular season.

SEC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

SEC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME RACE RECAPS

1992 - Both races decided before final weekend. Florida and Georgia (6-2 in the SEC) were co-champions in the Eastern Division. The Gators won the tie-breaker by virtue of a 26-24 win over the Bulldogs earlier in the season. Alabama (8-0) was the outright Western Division champion, even with a game against Auburn in the final weekend, which the Tide won, 17-0.

1993 - Both races decided before final weekend. Florida won the Eastern Division and Alabama won the Western Division. The Gators finished 1/2 game ahead of Tennessee (UT tied Alabama, 17-17). Alabama, at 5-2-1, finished two games ahead second-place Arkansas. Auburn was 8-0 in the SEC, but was ineligible for the conference title.

1994 - Both races decided before final weekend. Florida won the Eastern Division, finishing SEC play at 7-1, two games ahead of Tennessee. Alabama won the Western Division with an 8-0 SEC mark, three games ahead of Miss. State.

1995 - Both races decided before final weekend. Florida won the Eastern Division, finishing SEC play at 8-0, one game ahead of Tennessee. Arkansas won the Western Division with a 6-2 SEC mark, one game ahead of Auburn and Alabama.

1996 - Both races decided before final weekend. Florida won the Eastern Division, finishing SEC play at 8-0, one game ahead of Tennessee. Alabama won the Western Division with a 6-2 SEC mark, tying LSU. However, the Tide defeated the Tigers, 26-0, earlier in the year to win the tie-breaker.

1997 - Eastern Division race not finalized until after the final weekend. Tennessee defeated Vanderbilt, 17-10, to win the division on the final weekend. Tennessee, at 7-1 in the SEC, finished one game ahead of Georgia and Florida. Auburn had won the Western Division with a 6-2 SEC mark, tying LSU. However, Auburn defeated LSU, 31-28, earlier in the year to win the tie-breaker.

1998 - Western Division race not finalized until after the final weekend. Miss. State defeated Ole Miss, 28-6, on Thanksgiving night, to win division on final weekend. Arkansas and Miss. State finished in tie for the division title. However, Miss. State defeated Arkansas, 22-21, earlier that season to win the tie-breaker. Arkansas defeated LSU 41-14 on the final weekend, but when State defeated Ole Miss, the chase for the Championship Game had been won. Tennessee had clinched the Eastern Division before the final weekend and defeated Vanderbilt, 41-0, to finished the SEC at 8-0.

1999 - Both races decided before final weekend. Florida won the Eastern Division, finishing SEC play at 7-1, one game ahead of Tennessee. Alabama won the Western Division with a 7-1 SEC mark, one game ahead of Miss. State.

2000 - Both races decided before final weekend. Florida won the Eastern Division, finishing SEC play at 7-1, two games ahead of South Carolina, Georgia and Tennessee. Auburn won the Western Division with a 6-2 SEC mark, one game ahead of LSU. LSU lost to Arkansas in the final weekend, 14-3. Even if the Tigers would have beaten the Razorbacks, Auburn would have won the tie-breaker over LSU due to a 34-17 win earlier in the season.

2001 - Both races go down to the final weekend. Due to game postponements on Sept. 15, games were reschedule for Dec. 1. On that weekend, Tennessee defeated Florida, 34-32, in Gainesville, and LSU defeated Auburn, 27-14, in Baton Rouge, to clinch berths in the SEC Championship Game. The Vols won the East with a 7-1 mark while LSU had a 5-3 mark and tied with Auburn for the West, but won the head-to-head tiebreaker.

2002 - Western division race not finalized until after the final weekend. Georgia clinched the Eastern Division championship on Nov. 16 after defeating Auburn, 24-21, in Auburn. The 7-1 Bulldogs finish one game ahead of Florida, which was 6-2. Arkansas wins the Western Division on the season's final weekend, defeating LSU, 21-20, in Little Rock on Nov. 29. The Razorbacks, LSU Tigers and Auburn Tigers are tied at 5-3 but Arkansas wins the head-to-head tiebreakers.

2003 - Both races decided on final weekend. Tennessee defeats Kentucky, 20-7, to force a three-way tie for Eastern Division championship between Vols, Georgia and Florida. Using tie-breaker involving the BCS standings, Georgia has the highest BCS ranking and has defeated Tennessee (next highest ranking) during regular season to secure SEC Championship Game berth. LSU defeats Arkansas, 55-24, and Ole Miss beats Mississippi State, 31-0, to force a tie for the Western Division championship. LSU's 17-14 win over Ole Miss the week before earns the Tigers the Western Division berth.

2004 - Auburn clinches berth in the SEC Championship Game on Oct. 30, tying the earliest since the game began in 1992 (Alabama, 1993). The Tigers (8-0) finish two games ahead in the standings of second-place LSU (6-2). Tennessee clinches berth as Eastern Division representative with 38-33 win against Vanderbilt on Nov. 20. The Vols (7-1) would win their next game on the following weekend against Kentucky to claim the division title outright. Georgia was second in the Western Division with a 6-2 mark.

2005 - Georgia (6-2) clinched Eastern Division Championship with a 45-13 win over Kentucky on Nov. 19. The Bulldogs finish one full game ahead of South Carolina and Florida in the standings. LSU clinched Western Division title with a 19-17 win over Arkansas on Nov. 25. The Tigers finished tied for the Western Division title (7-1), but defeated Auburn, 20-17, on Oct. 22, to win the tie-breaker.

2006 - Florida (7-1) clinched Eastern Division Championship and berth in the SEC Championship Game on Nov. 4, by defeating Vanderbilt, 25-19. Arkansas clinched the Western Division title and SEC Championship Game berth with a 28-14 win over Mississippi State on Nov. 18.

2007 - LSU (6-2) clinched Western Division berth in the SEC Championship Game on Week 11 after Alabama and Auburn both lose. Tennessee (6-2) gets Eastern Division berth with 52-50 four-overtime victory over Kentucky in Week 13. The Vols win the tie-breaker with Georgia (6-2), defeating the Bulldogs 35-14 in Week 6.

2008 - Alabama (8-0) clinched Western Division berth in SEC Championship Game on Week 11 (Nov. 1) after defeating LSU, 27-21. Florida (7-1) clinched Eastern Division berth in SEC Championship Game on Week 12 (Nov. 8) after defeating Vanderbilt, 42-14.

2009 - Florida (8-0) clinched Eastern Division berth in SEC Championship Game on Week 9 (Oct. 31) after defeating Georgia, 41-17. Alabama (8-0) clinched Western Division berth in SEC Championship Game on Week 11 (Nov. 14) after defeating Mississippi State, 31-3.

2010 - Both spots in the SEC Championship Game were clinched on Week 11 (Nov. 13). Auburn (8-0) clinched Western Division berth with a 49-31 win against Georgia. South Carolina (5-3) clinched Eastern Division berth with a 36-14 win against Florida.

2011 - Georgia (7-1) clinched a berth in the SEC Championship Game in Week 12 (Nov. 19) with a 19-10 win over Kentucky while LSU (8-0) clinched its berth in Week 13 (last weekend of the regular season) with a 41-17 win over Arkansas

2012 - Georgia (7-1) clinched a berth in the SEC Championship Game in Week 11 (Nov. 10) with a 38-0 win over Auburn. Alabama clinched a berth in the SEC Championship Game in Week 13 (Nov. 24) with a 49-0 win over Auburn.

SEC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME RACE RECAP

The earliest a berth has been clinched in the SEC Championship Game is Oct. 30 (Auburn, 2004, & Alabama, 1993).

In 11 of 42 divisional races (counting 2012), a championship game berth has not been decided until the weekend prior to the SEC Championship Game. That occurred in 1997 (Tennessee), 1998 (Mississippi State), 2001 (Tennessee and LSU), 2002 (Arkansas), 2003 (Georgia and LSU), 2005 (LSU), 2007 (Tennessee), 2011 (LSU) and 2012 (Alabama).

SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE ANNOUNCES 2013 FOOTBALL LEGENDS CLASS

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (Sept. 18, 2013) – The Southeastern Conference 2013 Football Legends Class includes 14 former SEC stars who excelled on the gridiron and helped write the rich history of the sport at their respective institutions. The conference is announcing the legends from its Eastern Division schools today and the Western Division schools on Thursday.

This year's class includes All-Americans, All-SEC selections and Academic All-Americans as well as NCAA and SEC record holders. The group represents teams that won National and SEC Championships and are represented in state, school and college football halls of fame.

The class will be honored at the 2013 SEC Football "Weekend of Champions" Dec. 6-7 in Atlanta, Ga. The annual SEC Legends Dinner presented by AT&T will be held Dec. 6 at the Hyatt Regency in Atlanta and the group will also be recognized prior to the SEC Football Championship Game, which will be held at the Georgia Dome on Sat., Dec. 7.

ALABAMA – Marty Lyons, Defensive Tackle, 1975-78

One of the greatest defensive linemen in Alabama history, Marty Lyons played for coach Bear Bryant's Alabama teams from 1975-78. At Alabama, he had career totals of 202 tackles, 6 forced fumbles and 4 fumble recoveries, earning consensus first-team All-America honors as a senior in 1978 when he helped lead the Tide to a national championship. He was a key player in the famous goal line stand in the 1979 Sugar Bowl. Lyons was named All-SEC in 1977 and 1978 and he was selected to the Tide's Team of the Century. His best game came against Auburn in 1978 (16 tackles, 3 quarterback sacks) in a 34-16 win. He was a first round NFL Draft pick of the New York Jets in 1978. Lyons is a member of the State of Alabama Hall of Fame and College Football Hall of Fame.

ARKANSAS – Wayne Martin, Defensive Tackle, 1985-88

A consensus first-team All-American and All-Southwest Conference defensive tackle, Wayne Martin racked up 162 tackles in his Razorback career including 37 tackles for loss (-189) and 25.5 sacks. He helped lead Arkansas to four bowl games and a Southwest Conference Championship in 1988. He still holds the single game and career records for sacks at Arkansas and is tied for third in the school record book for tackles for loss. Following his Razorback career, Martin went on to star for the New Orleans Saints for 11 seasons, playing in 171 games and posting 596 tackles and 82.5 sacks. Martin is a member of the University of Arkansas' All-Century Team, 1980s All-Decade Team and the New Orleans Saints Hall of Fame.

AUBURN – Frank Sanders, Wide Receiver, 1991-94

A four year letter-winner at wide receiver for Auburn from 1991-94, Frank Sanders was named first-team All-America by the Associated Press, the Football Writers of America and Scripps his senior season after leading the SEC in receiving yards per game and breaking Auburn's single-season record for receptions (58). A consensus All-SEC selection as a senior, Sanders finished his Auburn career second in total receptions with 121, receiving yardage with 1,998 and receiving touchdowns with 15. He had a nine-year NFL career from 1995-2003, including eight with the Arizona

Cardinals and one with Baltimore Ravens. A native of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., Sanders had 507 receptions for 6,749 yards and 24 touchdowns during his professional career.

FLORIDA – Wes Chandler, Wide Receiver, 1974-77

A first-team All-American for the Gators in both 1976 and 1977, Wes Chandler is one of the most revered receivers in Florida history, leading the team in receiving three straight years. He hauled in 92 passes in his career, good for 1,963 yards and a then-school record 22 touchdowns. He now sits at No. 8 on the career touchdowns board. He finished his career with the Gators as the highest-scoring non-kicker in Florida's history. He was also an Academic All-American his senior season. Drafted by the New Orleans Saints, he enjoyed an 11-year career in the NFL. He played in four Pro Bowls for the Saints and San Diego Chargers and he was an All-Pro wide receiver for the Chargers in 1982. He went on to a professional and college coaching career.

GEORGIA – Tim Worley, Tailback, 1985-88

As a junior in 1988, Tim Worley became the sixth back in Georgia history to rush for over 1,000 yards in a single season, totaling 1,216 while leading the SEC in rushing. He was only the seventh Bulldog ever to rush for over 2,000 yards in a career with 2,038. His 108 points scored was the second most in a single season, trailing only legendary Herschel Walker's 120 points in 1981. Worley's 18 touchdowns in 1988 were also second best in Bulldog history. As a junior in 1988, Worley was a consensus first team All-America selection and he was taken in the first round of the 1989 NFL Draft by the Pittsburgh Steelers. He played six seasons in the NFL with the Steelers and the Chicago Bears.

KENTUCKY – Wilbur Hackett, Linebacker, 1968-70

Wilbur Hackett was a three-year starting linebacker at Kentucky, earning Sophomore All-SEC honors in 1968, honorable mention All-SEC as a junior and was Kentucky's Co-Most Valuable Player as a senior. One of the pioneers of integration in the Southeastern Conference, in 1969 he became the first African-American team captain in any sport in SEC history. Hackett stayed close to athletics by becoming a baseball umpire and football game official, retiring recently after 15 seasons as an SEC football official. His officiating highlights included three SEC Championship Games, two Rose Bowls and a Fiesta Bowl. He is a member of the University of Kentucky Athletics Hall of Fame and the Kentucky Athletic Hall of Fame.

LSU – Kevin Faulk, Running Back/Return Specialist, 1995-98

Kevin Faulk is LSU's all-time leading rusher and a three-time All-SEC selection in 1996, 1997 and 1998 for the Tigers. After earning SEC Offensive Freshman of the Year honors in 1995, he was named first-team AP All-America as an all-purpose back his sophomore year in 1996 as he led a resurgence of LSU football. He finished his career with 4,557 rushing yards – third in the SEC behind only Georgia's Herschel Walker and Arkansas' Darren McFadden -- and an SEC record 6,833 all-purpose yards. He is still the LSU career record holder in rushing TDs (46) and during his career he rushed for 1,000 or more yards in three seasons. Faulk spent 13 years with New England Patriots and was a member of three Super Bowl winning teams in 2002, 2004 and 2005.

2013 SEC FOOTBALL LEGENDS CLASS

OLE MISS – Jeff Herrod, Linebacker, 1984-87

During his four-year career at Ole Miss, linebacker Jeff Herrod became the school's all-time leader in tackles with 528, while also leading the Rebels in tackles all three years as a full-time starter. A two-time All-SEC selection and a third-team All-America pick, Herrod was named the Defensive MVP in the 1987 Senior Bowl. He had over 1,300 tackles during his 11-year career in the NFL, playing 10 years with the Indianapolis Colts and one year with the Philadelphia Eagles. Even in retirement, he has represented the Colts on several occasions, including the 2012 NFL Draft and the 2012 NFL Kickoff celebration, taking part in NFL Play 60 Youth Clinics. He is a member of the Ole Miss Team of the Century, the Ole Miss Sports Hall of Fame and Athlon Sports All-Time Rebel Team.

MISSISSIPPI STATE – Glen Collins, Defensive Line, 1978-81

Glen Collins was one of Mississippi State's most fierce defensive linemen in the early 1980's. His 1981 campaign landed him in the national spotlight as he led a unit that held 11 opponents to 88 yards rushing per game and 261 yards in total offense per game - both Top 15 nationally. Collins helped the Bulldogs post an 8-4 record that season, including a 10-0 shutout victory in the Hall of Fame Bowl against Kansas. He was named first team All-American by Kodak and The Sporting News, and was a UPI First Team All-SEC choice. He finished his collegiate career by playing in the East-West Shrine Game and the Olympia Gold Bowl. Collins was drafted in the first round of the 1983 NFL Draft by the Cincinnati Bengals and enjoyed a successful seven-year career in pro football.

MISSOURI – Phil Bradley, Quarterback, 1977-80

Phil Bradley was one of the top quarterbacks in Mizzou history and arguably the best two-sport athlete in Tiger annals. A three-time All-Conference pick from 1978-80, he won the Big Eight Offensive Player of the Year award as a senior in 1980. He quarterbacked Mizzou to 23 wins and three bowl games in his final three years and set the Big Eight total offense career record with 6,459. He was a star outfielder on MU baseball teams that won the Big Eight title in 1980 and played in two NCAA Tournaments. Bradley enjoyed an eight-year Major League baseball career and was named to the American League All-Star Team in 1985. He is currently a special assistant for the Major League Baseball Players Association and a volunteer coach for the nationally-ranked Tiger Softball team.

SOUTH CAROLINA – Max Runager, Punter 1974-78

Arguably the best punter in Carolina football history, Max Runager was a three-year starter and team captain in 1978. The strong-legged punter is tied for fourth in school history with a career punting average of 41.1 yards and was selected as the punter on South Carolina's all-time modern era team. Runager was selected to play in the Canadian-American Bowl following his senior season and then was an eighth round selection by the Philadelphia Eagles in the 1979 NFL draft. He spent 11 years in the National Football League with the Eagles, 49ers and Browns and he punted for two Super Bowl teams, the 1980 Eagles and the 1984 49ers. Runager was elected to the University of South Carolina Athletic Hall of Fame in 2013.

TENNESSEE – Inky Johnson, Defensive Back, 2004-06

Inky Johnson played in 23 games for Tennessee from 2004-06 before a career-ending injury cut short a promising career. Johnson started eight games in his career, including six in 2005 and the first two games in 2006. He finished his career with 41 tackles, one sack, 3.5 tackles for loss, 10 pass breakups, one interception, one forced fumble, and one fumble recovery. He opened the 2006 season with six tackles, one TFL, and one PBU in a season-opening win over California, but suffered a career-ending shoulder injury in the subsequent week's win over Air Force. He has since used his story of overcoming adversity and adapting to change to help mentor underprivileged youth in Knoxville and his hometown of Atlanta.

TEXAS A&M – Dat Nguyen, Linebacker, 1995-98

Dat Nguyen was the winner of the 1998 Lombardi Award and Bednarik Award as well as a consensus All-America linebacker at Texas A&M. He was named All-Big 12 three straight years, leading the Aggies and its famed "Wrecking Crew" defense to the 1998 Big 12 Championship by upsetting top-ranked Kansas State and went on to lead A&M to the Sugar Bowl. Nguyen started every game of his Texas A&M career, setting a school record with 51 consecutive starts while collecting a school-record 157 career tackles. He is the only player in school history to lead the team in tackles four consecutive years. He was drafted by the Dallas Cowboys and played from 1999 to 2005, earning All-Pro honors in 2003 while becoming the first Vietnamese-American linebacker in the NFL.

VANDERBILT – Jimmy Williams, Cornerback/Running Back, 1997-2000

One of only three players in Vanderbilt history to return both a punt and kickoff for a touchdown, Jimmy Williams earned All-SEC honors in 1998, his first year as a starting cornerback. In 1997, Williams was a Freshman All-SEC pick as a starting running back who led the Commodores in rushing and receiving. After moving to defense, Williams was among the team's interception leaders three straight years and still ranks among the team's all-time interception leaders, also leading the team in kickoff returns three straight years. Drafted by the Buffalo Bills, he played six years in the NFL with San Francisco and Seattle before an injury forced his retirement. After his playing career, he started the Intercepting Our Youth Foundation to benefit youth in his hometown of Baton Rouge.

THIS IS THE SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE

• Since its formation in 1933, the SEC has directed and organized interscholastic athletic competitions, conducted tournaments and prescribed eligibility rules for student-athletes. The Conference also facilitates and assists its member institutions in maintaining intercollegiate athletic programs compatible with the highest standards of education and competitive sports.

• The Southeastern Conference crowns champions in 21 sports - 12 women's sports and nine men's sports. They include baseball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's cross country, equestrian, football, men's and women's golf, gymnastics, soccer, softball, men's and women's swimming and diving, men's and women's tennis, men's and women's indoor and outdoor track and field, and volleyball.

• In the fall of 2012, the University of Missouri and Texas A&M University became the 13th and 14th members of the Southeastern Conference. It marked the first expansion for the SEC since 1991 and the second-ever increase for the league since its founding in 1933.

• The SEC's mission statement reflects the priorities of the league. "The purpose of the Southeastern Conference is to assist its member institutions in the maintenance of programs of intercollegiate athletics which are compatible with the highest standards of education and competitive sports."

• The Southeastern Conference has developed a database of minority football coaches in NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision and the NCAA Football Championship Subdivision since 2002. The 2012 database contained the names of 527 head and assistant football coaches from all 124 NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision universities and 73 NCAA Football Championship Subdivision institutions. The SEC begins the 2013 football season with two minority head football coaches - James Franklin (Vanderbilt) and Kevin Sumlin (Texas A&M).

ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENTS

• The Southeastern Conference had 39 Capital One Academic All-Americans in 2012-13. The league had 16 student-athletes earn first-team honors. The Capital One Academic All-America Teams are voted on by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA). The 39 student-athletes represent 11 of the SEC 14 schools while nine schools had at least one person on the first-team. Since 2003, the SEC has had 186 student-athletes earn first-team Capital One Academic All-America status.

• The 16 SEC student-athletes who earned Capital One Academic All-America first-team status in 2012-13 were: Florida swimmer Elizabeth Beisel, Alabama softball player Kayla Braud, Arkansas football player Dylan Breeding, LSU track & field athlete Laura Carleton, Tennessee softball player Raven Chavanne, South Carolina baseball player LB Dantzler, Tennessee swimmer Kelsey Floyd, Alabama gymnast Kim Jacob, Alabama football player Barrett Jones, Missouri softball player Jenna Marston, Alabama golfer Stephanie Meadow, Auburn swimmer Kyle Owens, Kentucky men's soccer player Tyler Riggs, Missouri softball player Chelsea Thomas, Florida track & field athlete David Triassi and Alabama golfer Cory Whitsett.

• The SEC had four of its student-athletes earn Capital One Academic All-American of the Year in their respective sports - Florida swimmer Elizabeth Beisel (at-large); Tennessee softball player Raven Chavanne, South Carolina baseball player LB Dantzler and Alabama football player Barrett Jones.

• The Southeastern Conference had 22 of its student-athletes earn NCAA Postgraduate Scholarships in 2012-13. The scholarships are awarded to student-athletes who excel academically and athletically and who are at least in their final year of intercollegiate athletic competition. The SEC NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship recipients are: Kayla Braud, Alabama (Softball); Raven Chavanne, Tennessee (Softball); Austin Cook, Arkansas (Men's Golf); Noel Couch, Georgia (Gymnastics); Stewart Ferguson, Auburn (Men's Swimming & Diving); Kelsey Floyd, Tennessee (Women's Swimming & Diving); Maria Foehse, Alabama (Women's Tennis); Kelsey Horton, Florida (Softball); Henry Janghanel, Kentucky (Rifle); Max Lang, Florida (Men's Track & Field); Jenna Marston, Missouri (Softball); Cameron Martin, Florida (Men's Swimming & Diving); Thomas McCarthy, Kentucky (Baseball); Nathan McCormick, Missouri (Wrestling); Chelsea Oswald, Kentucky (Women's Cross Country); Kyle Owens, Auburn (Men's Swimming & Diving); Alexis Paine, Alabama (Women's Track & Field); Ashley Priess, Alabama (Gymnastics); Hope Robbins, Arkansas (Softball); Indy Roper, Auburn (Equestrian); Ashley Sledge, Alabama (Gymnastics); Max Storms, Missouri (Men's Cross Country).

• The SEC also had two of its student-athletes - Alabama gymnast Ashley Sledge and Texas A&M football player Steven Terrell - earn NCAA Ethnic Minority and Women's Enhancement Scholarships.

• The SEC had two student-athletes awarded the NCAA Today's Top VIII - the only conference with multiple winners. The SEC's recipients were Brooke Pancake, Alabama (Women's Golf) and Wendy Trott, Georgia (Women's Swimming & Diving). The award recognizes eight current student-athletes who will have completed their athletics eligibility for their successes on the fields and courts, in the classroom and in the community.

• The SEC also had five student-athletes earn the NCAA Elite 89 award, which is given to the student-athlete with the highest cumulative GPA at the finals site for each of the NCAA championships. The 2012-13 SEC recipients were: Kim Jacob, Alabama (Gymnastics); Chelsea Oswald, Kentucky (Women's Indoor Track & Field); Brent Sterling, Tennessee (Men's Swimming & Diving); Cory Whitsett, Alabama (Men's Golf); and Emily Zabor, Alabama (Women's Tennis).

• The SEC has had eight student-athletes win the William V. Campbell Trophy given by the National Football Foundation. Since the inaugural award in 1990, the SEC has had more recipients than any other conference. The award, nicknamed the "Academic Heisman" goes to college football's top scholar-athlete. In 2012, Alabama's Barrett Jones was the SEC's eighth recipient of the trophy. In 2009, Florida's Tim Tebow won the honor. LSU's Rudy Niswanger won the honor in 2005, Tennessee's Michael Munoz claimed the award in 2004, Matt Stinchcomb of Georgia in 1998, Tennessee's Peyton Manning in 1997, Florida's Danny Wuerffel in 1996 and Brad Culpepper of Florida in 1991 was the league's first recipient.

• More than 2,300 student-athletes were named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll in 2011-12. Members of the SEC Academic Honor Roll must have a 3.0 grade point average for either the previous academic year or his/her academic career at the SEC institution. The number represents almost half of the student-athletes that competed in the SEC last year.

FOR THE STUDENT-ATHLETE

• Alabama football player Barrett Jones and Kentucky cross country/ track & field athlete Chelsea Oswald were named recipients of the 2012-13 H. Boyd McWhorter Southeastern Conference Scholar-Athletes of the Year Awards. The McWhorter Scholar-Athlete Award is the highest honor a student-athlete can receive in the SEC. Each McWhorter Scholar-Athlete Award recipient receives a $15,000 postgraduate scholarship, while 26 other finalists for the award receive a $7,500 post-graduate scholarship.

• Missouri swimmer Joseph Hladik and Kentucky golfer Megan Moir were named recipients of the 2012-13 Brad Davis SEC Community Service Post-Graduate Scholarship. Each Community Service Leader of the Year receives a $10,000 post-graduate scholarship while 26 other finalists for the award receive a $5,000 post-graduate scholarship.

• The SEC was the first conference in the nation to assemble a Student-Athlete Advisory Committee. Two representatives from each of the SEC member schools are selected to serve on the committee which meets twice a year to discuss issues of concern to the student-athlete.

COMPLIANCE AND EDUCATION

• The 2004 SEC Task Force Committee on Compliance and Enforcement's report of recommendations represents an important step in establishing a new standard of compliance excellence within the Southeastern Conference. Among the recommendations included in this report is how institutions will handle reports of allegations, strengthening the relationship between the league's institutions and the conference office, developing new orientation programs and establishing an annual review of compliance issues.

• The SEC conducts a New Coaches Orientation Program three times a year, which supplements institutional orientation programs and enhance the professional development of coaches. Topics of discussion range from the role of the SEC and NCAA to the role of athletics in higher education.

THIS IS THE SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE

SPORTSMANSHIP

• The SEC has implemented sportsmanship policies meant to strengthen the league's commitment to these principles. The league also developed a sportsmanship statement for its institutions to follow. It states:

"Coaches and student-athletes of a member institution, as well as individuals employed by or associated with that institution, including alumni, fans, patrons and boosters, shall conduct themselves with honesty and good sportsmanship. Their behavior shall at all times reflect the high standards of honor and dignity that characterize participation in the collegiate setting.

"For intercollegiate athletics to promote the character development of participants, to enhance the integrity of higher education and to promote civility in society, coaches, student-athletes and all others associated with these athletics programs and events should adhere to such fundamental values as respect, fairness, civility, honesty and responsibility. These values should be manifested not only in athletics participation but also in the broad spectrum of activities affecting the athletics program.

"It is the responsibility of each member institution to establish policies for sportsmanship and ethical conduct in intercollegiate athletics consistent with the educational mission and goals of the institution. Furthermore, member institutions are responsible for educating on a continuing basis all constituencies about these policies."

• The SEC has an annual Sportsmanship Award that will be awarded to one male and one female student-athlete. Voted on by the league's athletics directors, the award honors student-athletes who, through their actions in the competitive arena of intercollegiate athletics, have demonstrated one or more of the ideals of sportsmanship, including fairness, civility, honesty, unselfishness, respect and responsibility. The recipients of the 2012-13 award were Georgia women's tennis player Maho Kowase (female) and the South Carolina and Tennessee football teams (male).

IN THE COMMUNITY

• The SEC and its member institutions have partnered with the 11-state Special Olympics organizations in the SEC region. The relationship is featured on public service announcements aired on SEC telecasts, and Special Olympics participate in the Dr Pepper SEC FanFare, held in conjunction with the SEC Football and Basketball Championships.

• The SEC and its corporate sponsors host youth clinics each year in conjunction with several conference events, including the football championship game, the men's basketball tournament, the baseball tournament and the soccer tournament. These clinics provide children from host cities the opportunity to receive instruction from SEC and other area coaches.

• The SEC selects a Community Service Team in each of its 21 sports. The Community Service Team features a representative from each institution who has shown a commitment to community service.

SEC NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS HISTORY

• The Southeastern Conference won seven national championships in 2012-13: Football (Alabama), Men's Golf (Alabama); Men's Indoor Track & Field (Arkansas); Men's Outdoor Track & Field (Florida/Texas A&M); Equestrian (Auburn); Gymnastics (Florida); Women's Swimming & Diving (Georgia).

The SEC also a national runner-up finish in six sports including: Baseball (Mississippi State); Equestrian (Georgia); Men's Indoor Track & Field (Florida); Women's Outdoor Track & Field (Texas A&M); Women's Tennis (Texas A&M) and Softball (Tennessee).

• The SEC became the first conference in history to win the national football championship (Florida), the national women's basketball championship (Tennessee) and the national men's basketball championship (Florida) in the same year (2006-07 academic year).

• In its history, the SEC has won 203 national championships, 118 men's and 85 women's titles. Since 2000, the SEC has won 87 national crowns, including 46 men's titles and 41 women's titles.

• In the "big three" men's sports – football, basketball and baseball, the SEC has won 13 national championships during the last seven academic years. The league has won seven consecutive football national championships.

• Since 2006, the SEC has had a national champion in 15 of its 21 sponsored sports – football, men's basketball, baseball, men's indoor track & field, men's outdoor track & field, women's outdoor track & field, women's swimming & diving, gymnastics, women's tennis, men's tennis, men's swimming and diving, equestrian, women's golf, softball and women's basketball.

FOR THE FANS

• For the 32nd straight season, the SEC recorded the largest total football attendance of any conference in the country. The league has led in average attendance during the last 15 consecutive seasons. More than 7.5 million fans attended SEC football games in 2012 while stadiums were filled to 96.2 percent of capacity.

• The SEC had nearly 2.5 million fans attend its home basketball games during the 2012-13 season. In 240 home contests, SEC teams averaged 10,629 fans per game. Kentucky again led the nation in attendance, averaging 23,099 fans per contest. Tennessee was seventh in the nation, averaging 16,635 fans per game.

• Year after year, the SEC is the leader in college baseball attendance. In 2013, for the third consecutive year, the SEC's institutions drew more than 2 million fans, with a nation-leading attendance total of 2.25 million fans. The SEC averaged nearly 5,000 fans per game (4,965) in 2013. The SEC and its member schools own virtually all regular season, conference tournament, NCAA Regional and Super Regional attendance records.

SECU - COMMITMENT TO THE UNIVERSITY ACADEMIC MISSION

• Using its SECU academic initiative, the Southeastern Conference sponsors, supports and promotes collaborative higher education programs and activities involving administrators, faculty and students at its member universities. SECU is led by the president or chancellor of each SEC university and is managed by the chief academic officer. The goals of the SECU initiative include highlighting the endeavors and achievements of SEC faculty and universities; advancing the merit and reputation of SEC universities outside of the traditional SEC region; identifying and preparing future leaders for high-level service in academia; increasing the amount and type of education abroad opportunities available to SEC students; and providing opportunities for collaboration among SEC university personnel.

• The SEC Academic Leadership Development Program seeks to identify, prepare and advance academic leaders for roles within SEC institutions and beyond. It has two components, a university-level development program designed by each institution for its own participants (i.e., fellows), and two, three-day, SEC-wide workshops held on specified campuses for all program participants. It was created in 2008 and has commissioned four cohorts.

• The SEC Faculty Achievement and Professor of the Year Awards recognize faculty with outstanding records in research, scholarship and service. There is one winner per campus and one overall winner for the Conference. All receive an honorarium and memento. The top recipient is honored during the annual SEC Awards Dinner in Destin, Florida.

• The SEC Faculty Travel Grant Program is intended to enhance collaboration that stimulates scholarly initiatives between SEC universities. The program offers faculty members from each SEC university the opportunity to travel to other SEC universities to exchange ideas, develop grant proposals, and conduct research.

• The SEC Symposium is an academic conference-type event intended to address a scholarly issue in an area of strength represented by all SEC universities, and to provide an opportunity to attract leading scholars from other institutions in the United States and abroad. Held in Atlanta, Georgia, this marquee event puts on display the research and innovation of SEC institutions for an audience of academics, government officials, grant funding agents and other stakeholders.
