Game 13: No. 5 Mizzou Tigers (11-1, 7-1) vs. No. 3 Auburn Tigers (11-1, 7-1)

Dec. 7, 2013 – SEC Championship – Georgia Dome – Atlanta, Ga.

VS

KICKOFF: 3 p.m. CT
STADIUM: Georgia Dome in Atlanta, Ga. Opened in 1992. Capacity of 72,000. FieldTurf.
SERIES HISTORY: Mizzou leads the all-time series vs. Auburn, 1-0, winning 34-17 in the 1973 Sun Bowl.

MIZZOU TO FACE AUBURN FOR 2013 SEC TITLE

► In just its second year in the Southeastern Conference, the No. 5 Missouri Tigers (11-1 overall, 7-1 in SEC action) have reached the SEC Championship Game, and this Saturday, Head Coach Gary Pinkel and his crew will face the No. 3 Auburn Tigers (11-1, 7-1) for all of the marbles in Atlanta, Ga., at the Georgia Dome. Kickoff for the nationally-televised CBS game is set for 3 p.m. (central time)...

► Mizzou is coming off a hard-fought 28-21 win over then-No. 19 Texas A&M and defending Heisman winning QB Johnny Manziel. The Aggies held a 14-7 halftime lead (Mizzou's first halftime deficit of 2013), but the Tigers took control early in the third quarter with two unanswered scores for a 21-14 lead that it carried into the fourth quarter. After Manziel led a masterful 98-yard TD drive to tie the score with 10:43 left in the game, Mizzou turned to Captain Comeback, junior TB Henry Josey, who scampered untouched 57 yards for a touchdown and a 28-21 lead with just 3:34 remaining. The Mizzou defense then got a 3-and-out (its third consecutive 3-and-out of Manziel and company), giving the ball back to the Tiger offense. Taking over with just 2:01 left to reach Atlanta, QB James Franklin navigated two first downs (including a nifty 16-yarder on a bootleg delay to TE Eric Waters) to kill the clock and send Tiger fans into celebration mode...

WITH A TIGER VICTORY, MIZZOU WILL...

- Improve to 102-62 under head coach Gary Pinkel, with the Tiger coach becoming Mizzou's all-time winningest coach. Pinkel is tied in wins with the legendary Don Faurot, who won 101 games (1935-42, 46-56).
- Record 12 wins for the second time ever (2007).
- Claim its first conference championship in football since 1969, when it shared the title with Nebraska.
- Win its first outright conference title since 1960, when Mizzou won the Big Eight under Hall of Fame head coach Dan Devine.
- Improve to 2-0 vs. Auburn after its 34-17 win against the school in the 1973 Sun Bowl.

SERIES HISTORY - MIZZOU VS. AUBURN

- Saturday's Mizzou-Auburn game is just the second all-time meeting between the two programs, with Mizzou winning its 1973 Sun Bowl matchup against Auburn, 34-17, in El Paso, Texas...
- The 1973 Tigers, led by Mizzou's Al Onofrio, finished the season with an 8-4 record, along with an incredible 13-12 win over No. 2 Nebraska (Oct. 13, 1973) to their credit...
- The SEC Championship matchup means that both Tiger teams have only ever faced each other in postseason competition...

MORE TIGER TALK

► Incidentally, Mizzou enters the SEC Championship Game with a better/lower national ranking (No. 5 in the current AP/USA Today/BCS standings), than they received in the 2013 pre-season SEC East Division poll – when the Tigers were picked to finish sixth in the seven-team SEC East. Mizzou’s six-game improvement from its 5-7 record in an injury-plagued 2012 inaugural season in the SEC is the nation’s second-best turnaround this year, behind only Auburn, which is eight games better than its 3-9 record a year ago...

► Mizzou has now won three straight games since suffering its only defeat of 2013 – a 27-24 double overtime loss to current BCS No. 8 South Carolina. In that game, Mizzou was without the services of its starting QB James Franklin (shoulder) and starting CB E.J. Gaines (quad). Gaines, by the way, is coming off a game against Texas A&M in which he locked down All-America WR candidate Mike Evans, holding Evans to just 4 receptions for a career-low 8 yards. The 7-point victory last Saturday over Texas A&M was the smallest margin of victory for Mizzou in 2013. Each of its previous 10 wins had all come by a minimum of 14 points...

THE OTHER TIGERS

► Auburn is coming off one of the more memorable wins in college football history, as they knocked off previous No. 1 and unbeaten Alabama by a 34-28 score last Saturday. The Tigers rallied from a 21-7 deficit to tie the game at 28-all in the final minute, and returned an Alabama missed field goal 100 yards for the winning touchdown at the final gun. Auburn has won its last eight games entering Saturday’s game, following their sole defeat in 2013, a 35-21 setback at LSU on Sept. 21...

► Mizzou and Auburn have played five common opponents in 2013, and they are both a perfect 5-0 against the group. A look at the comparisons to the right...

GARY PINKEL NO STRANGER TO SUCCESS

► While the 2013 Mizzou Tigers are one of the top turnaround teams in the nation, those who follow the program know that Gary Pinkel’s outfit is used to winning at a high level. This marks the fourth time in the last seven seasons that Mizzou has won a conference division title (2007, 2008 and 2010 Big 12 North; 2013 SEC East). Additionally, in all four of those seasons, Mizzou has reached double-digit win totals

NUMBERS TO KNOW

101

Pinkel has won 101 games in his 13-year tenure at Mizzou (2001-present), sharing the title of Mizzou’s all-time winningest coach with Don Faurot. The legendary Tiger coach led Mizzou to 101 wins from 1935-42, 46-56.

12

Mizzou head coach Gary Pinkel has the chance to match the program-best for wins, 12, which his 2007 team hit with its 12-2 record that included a Big 12 North Division title and Cotton Bowl win over Arkansas (38-7).

5-0

Mizzou improved to 5-0 in road games for the first time since the 1979 season. Former HC Warren Powers’ Tigers won at Illinois (9/15, 14-6), at Ole Miss (9/22, W, 33-7), at Colorado (10/20, 13-7), at Iowa State (11/10, 18-9) and at Kansas (11/24, W, 55-7).

42

Mizzou has caused a turnover in 42-straight games, the longest active streak in the BCS. The last time Mizzou didn’t record a takeaway was Oct. 30, 2010 at Nebraska (a 31-17 loss).

38.8/19.4

Mizzou is one of just four teams to rank in the Top 15 nationally in both offensive scoring and defensive scoring. The Tigers’ 38.8 points/game average ranks tied for 14th, while its allowed average of 19.4 ranks 14th.

18

Head coach Gary Pinkel’s squad has 18 interceptions in the 12 games so far this season, a total that ranks first in the SEC and tied for ninth in the nation. Mizzou is averaging a 1.50/INT per game clip (tied for ninth nationally).

236.9

The Tigers’ spread offense, known for its passing proficiency, is averaging 236.9 rushing yards per game, good enough for the No. 2 mark in the SEC behind only Auburn. Mizzou’s average ranks 18th in the nation.

WHERE DOES MIZZOU RANK?

Mizzou ranks highly in several individual and team statistical categories, in both the Southeastern Conference and nationally...

as the Tigers went 12-2 in 2007, 10-4 in 2008, 10-3 in 2010, and of course the current 11-1 mark this year...

► The 2013 Tigers have already made history, as they are just the third MU squad to win 11 games or more in a season. In its previous 122 seasons of football, Mizzou had won 11 games or more only twice – 1960 (11-0 including a loss that was forfeited back to Mizzou by Kansas for using ineligible players) and 2007 (12-2). The current 11 regular-season wins ties with the 2007 team for most regular-season wins in MU history...

► Mizzou's win last Saturday over Texas A&M gave Pinkel his 101st career win at MU, which tied him with Don Faurot for most wins in school history...

BCS RADAR ENGAGED

► Mizzou was placed at No. 5 in the latest Bowl Championship Series standings (Dec. 1) to set a new program-best for consecutive weeks in the system's Top 10 at seven-straight weeks...

► The previous best for Mizzou was a six-week stay in the BCS Top 10 to close the 2007 season, running Oct. 28-Dec. 2 (9, 6, 5, 4, 1, 6)...

► The Tigers have appeared in every BCS poll thus far and stand a fair chance to be mentioned all season long, joining 2007, 2008 and 2010 seasons as campaigns in which Mizzou was ranked in every release of the BCS standings...

HOW THEY GOT HERE

► Mizzou shocked the pre-season critics and reached the 2013 SEC Championship Game after being picked to finish 6th in the SEC East Division race. The Tigers were so far off the radar that they did not receive a single vote in the pre-season Top 25 polls, and the team stayed there after it opened with a pair of solid home wins over Murray State (W, 58-14) and Toledo (W, 38-23). The Tigers were expected to get a big test next when they played at Indiana, but instead they cruised to a comfortable 45-28 road win, and followed by closing the non-conference schedule with a 41-19 workmanlike win over Arkansas State...

► The Tigers entered SEC play with what the pundits thought would be a tough road test at Vanderbilt, a team which defeated Mizzou in Columbia in 2012. But Mizzou ended it early, jumping out to a quick 20-0 lead, and they cruised to a 51-28 win that turned enough heads to get them into the rankings, at No. 25 in the Associated Press poll. That set up a much-anticipated matchup at No. 7 Georgia, which the Tigers passed with flying colors. After trailing 7-0, the Tigers scored 28 of the game's next 31 points to take a 28-10 halftime lead, only to see Georgia close to 28-26 early in the 4th quarter. With all of the momentum going Georgia's way, things got even more bleak when QB James Franklin left the game with a shoulder injury, but redshirt freshman Maty Mauk came off the bench cold and helped lead a pair of 4th-quarter TD drives and the Tiger defense got a pair of turnovers late to claim a signature 41-26 win between the hedges...

► The Georgia win was good news/bad news, as it propelled the Tigers to 6-0 overall, 2-0 in league play, and to No. 14 in the AP poll, but it came at a cost, as Franklin would miss an indefinite period with his shoulder injury, as would senior CB E.J. Gaines, who sustained a quad injury in the 2nd quarter of that game. A three-game home stretch loomed against No. 22 Florida, No. 20 South Carolina and Tennessee. Despite missing both Franklin and Gaines, the Tigers cruised to a solid 36-17 win over Florida in Mauk's first career start. Heartbreak came next as the now fifth-ranked Tigers held a 17-0 lead over South Carolina, only to see Gamecock QB Connor Shaw come off the bench to engineer a prolific comeback which forced overtime. Mizzou scored a TD in the opening OT possession, and had the Gamecocks on the ropes, facing a 4th-and-goal at the 15-yardline. But Shaw struck magic with a TD toss to force a second OT period, and after South Carolina took a 27-24 lead on a field goal, the game ended when Mizzou's field goal attempt by PK Andrew Baggett hit the left upright and bounced away no good...

► Falling from the ranks of the undefeated and to No. 10 in the polls, Mizzou showed great resiliency as good teams do, and they bounced back to post a dominating 31-3 win over Tennessee to close the three-game homestand. Next up was a date at Kentucky, and the Tigers rolled to a 48-17 win to improve to 9-1 and 5-1. Needing wins in its final two games to hold off South Carolina for the Eastern Division crown, that's exactly what the Tigers did, first with a solid 24-10 win at No. 24 Ole Miss, followed by the late-game victory last Saturday against No. 19 Texas A&M...

MIZZOU LOOKING FOR FIRST CONFERENCE TITLE SINCE 1969

► A win Saturday over Auburn would give Mizzou its first conference title since 1969, when Mizzou went 6-1 in the Big Eight and tied for the title with Nebraska (MU won head-to-head tiebreaker with Nebraska that year and played in the Orange Bowl). The last outright conference title for Mizzou came back in 1960, when the Tigers went 6-1 on the field, and 7-0 in the record books, after Kansas forfeited a win over MU due to the use of ineligible players...

- In all, Mizzou has won 12 conference titles in its previous 122 years of football. Here's a quick listing of Mizzou's previous conference championship teams:
- Missouri Valley – 1909, 1913, 1919, 1924, 1925, 1927
- Big Six – 1939, 1941, 1942, 1945
- Big Eight – 1960, 1969

JAMES OUTDUELS JOHNNY

► Senior QB James Franklin had a game to remember in his final appearance at Memorial Stadium/Faurot Field, as he accounted for 313 yards of total offense in leading No. 5 Mizzou to a 28-21 win over No. 19 Texas A&M last Saturday to send the Tigers to Atlanta, Ga., their first-ever SEC Championship Game...

► His passing night included 233 yards and 2 TDs, completing 18-of-28 passes with zero interceptions. Franklin recorded a season-high 80 yards on a season-high 18 attempts, as he personally outdueled reigning Heisman Trophy winner Johnny Manziel, who had 216 yards of total offense on the night...

► Franklin continued his personal undefeated run this season as a starter, as last Saturday's win over Texas A&M moved him to 8-0 this season...

► Franklin's season statistics currently rank very well nationally, including 16th in completion percentage (66.9), 21st in passing efficiency (153.2 rating), and 35th in total offense (262.7 ypg). However, against Kentucky, he came off the bench late to hand the ball off in his first appearance since being injured Oct. 12th at Georgia, and he had zero yards of total offense in that brief outing. If that is blacked out, his per-game total offense average for his eight starts is 295.5, and that would rank him 21st there...

► A healthy Franklin is certainly a nuisance to Mizzou's opponents. In games he has started and finished (not counting games left due to injury), Franklin and the Tigers sport a 22-9 record...

TIGER DEFENSE A MODEL OF CONSISTENCY

► The Mizzou defense enters Saturday's game against the very potent Auburn offense looking to keep its strong play going, as it has allowed a total of 51 points in its last four outings. The Tiger defense is one of just three in the nation that have not given up more than 28 points in any game in 2013. The most points allowed this season by Mizzou has been 28 points, and that was achieved twice previously, by both Indiana and Vanderbilt. Both of those games came on the road for the Tigers, and both ended in comfortable MU wins. The most points scored against Mizzou this season at Faurot Field is 27 by South Carolina, but that came in double overtime, as the Gamecocks ended regulation with 17 points after being shutout for three quarters. Toledo's 23 points against MU in Mizzou's 38-23 win on Sept. 7 stands as the most points scored in regulation by an opponent at Faurot Field this season...

► The other defenses who have allowed a maximum of 28 points in 2013? Stout units from Michigan State and Stanford. Both have allowed 28 points twice this season – just like the Tigers – with Michigan State giving up 28 to Indiana and Nebraska, while the Cardinal have given up 28 to both Arizona State and Washington...

► Mizzou's defense ranks 14th in scoring defense coming into Saturday's game, allowing an average of 19.4 points per contest. In 2012, Mizzou ranked 68th in the NCAA in scoring defense, allowing 28.42 points per contest. The best final national ranking Mizzou has established in scoring defense came just three seasons ago, when the 2010 Tigers ranked sixth in the nation, allowing just 15.17 points per game...

JOSEY DOES HIS THING

► Junior TB Henry Josey topped the 90-yard mark for the second-straight week with his 96 rushing yards and game-winning, 57-yard hurdle and sprint to the end zone to give Mizzou its 28-21 victory over Texas A&M last Saturday. The touchdown, his 13th of the season, ranks him 11th all-time on Mizzou's single-season chart...

► The rush was Josey's eighth running play of 20 yards or more in 2013, as well as his fourth rush of 50 yards or more this season. The Tiger TB has scored on three of those runs (86 at Kentucky, 68 vs. Murray State, 57 vs. Texas A&M)...

► Josey racked up 95 rushing yards in the 24-10 victory at No. 24 Ole Miss (Nov. 23). He left Oxford with two more rushing touchdowns to his credit...

► Josey topped 100 yards for the third time in 2013 and 10th time in his career with 113 yards (11 att.) in the 48-17 win at Kentucky (Nov. 9), powered by the second-longest rush in Missouri's program history. Josey put the game in Lexington on ice with an 86-yard touchdown scamper with 10:00 left in the 4Q, setting the final score...

► Josey ran for a season-high 136 yards in the win vs. No. 22 Florida (Oct. 19). He averaged 7.6 yards per carry against a stout Gator defense which came in ranked 4th in the nation in rush defense, allowing only 83.3 yards on the ground per game...

► This all, of course, comes after it took 659 days for Josey to make his big return to start the 2013 season. He rushed for 113 yards on just 13 carries (8.7 avg.) and one touchdown in Mizzou's season-opening, 58-14 victory over Murray State (Aug. 31)...

► Josey was awarded with a game ball by Mizzou Head Coach Gary Pinkel in the locker room after the Murray State game, and that was the first time ever in Pinkel's 35-year coaching career that he had ever awarded a game ball to an individual...

► His outing vs. Texas A&M increased his career rushing total to 2,556. Josey enters the SEC Championship game ranked No. 6 all-time at Mizzou, and is 51 yards behind No. 5 on the list (Darrell Wallace – 2,607 yards from 1984-87)...

► Josey is ranked 9th in the SEC in rushing (79.3 avg.), and 16th in scoring (7.0 ppg)...

AGGIES GAIN LITTLE ON GAINES

- ▶ Senior CB E.J. Gaines turned in an amazing lock-down coverage performance against Texas A&M superstar WR Mike Evans, as he held Evans to season-low totals of four receptions for just eight yards, which was a key in Mizzou’s stellar defensive effort...
- ▶ Evans came into the game averaging 119.5 yards per outing, with 12 receiving TDs, and his long catch Saturday in Mizzou’s win was just a 10-yarder...
- ▶ Gaines ended the evening with six total tackles, as the Tiger defense held A&M to 21 points and 379 yards of total offense, well below the Aggies’ pre-game averages of 45.6 points and 552.6 yards coming in...
- ▶ Additionally, the senior Tiger earned SEC Co-Defensive Player of the Week for his performance, the second conference weekly honor of his career. Coincidentally enough, Gaines brought home his first weekly honor in 2011 with a 10-tackle, four-PBU performance in Mizzou’s 38-31 OT win at Texas A&M...
- ▶ Gaines ranks fourth in the SEC (31st in the NCAA) with his four INTs to date, and he ranks third on team with his 59 tackles in 2013, despite missing 2.5 games due to injury...

MIZZOU OFFENSE ONE OF THE MOST IMPROVED IN 2013

- ▶ One of the byproducts of the vast array of injuries suffered by Mizzou’s offensive line and quarterback positions in 2012 was an inconsistent offensive unit which struggled to maintain the prowess established since Gary Pinkel’s team became a spread offense in 2005. Just

- ▶ The Tigers rushed for 260 yards in the 24-10 win at No. 24 Ole Miss (Nov. 23) an impressive group performance that included a 95-yard night from junior TB Henry Josey. Junior TB Marcus Murphy rushed for 67 yards, while senior QB James Franklin and sophomore TB Russell Hansbrough added 42 and 32 yards, respectively...

- ▶ The 260-yard rushing total against the Rebels was the 16th time under head coach Gary Pinkel that Mizzou topped 250 rushing yards in a conference game. The Tigers are 14-2 in those games. The results thin out to a pristine 10-0 when the Tigers toe or go beyond the “277-yard threshold”...

- ▶ The Tigers’ 339-yard rushing total in the win over Tennessee (Nov. 2) marked the most rushing yards by a Mizzou team in a conference game since putting 376 rushing yards up against Iowa State on Nov. 29, 2003...

- ▶ The road-grading performance vs. Tennessee from Mizzou’s offensive line was recognized by the SEC following the win, with senior LT Justin Britt earning Offensive Lineman Player of the Week status from the league...

► Mizzou has topped 200 yards rushing 39 times in conference action with Pinkel at the helm. Six of those instances (245 at Vanderbilt, 205 vs. Florida, 339 vs. Tennessee, 223 at Kentucky, 260 at Ole Miss, 225 vs. Texas A&M) have occurred this season...

SUDDEN CHANGE NO PROBLEM FOR MIZZOU DEFENSE

► On the rare occasion when Mizzou's offense turns the ball over (12 total lost in 2013, fifth-lowest in FBS through Nov. 30), the Tiger defense has limited the damage amazingly well, of late. The last five times the MU offense has turned the ball over, Mizzou's defense has allowed zero points. No such instances were added to the Tigers' ledger during action against Texas A&M, as Mizzou committed zero turnovers...

► In those five series, opponents have run a total of 17 plays for a grand total of 14 yards and no points. What's more is that the average starting field position for MU's foes in those five series has been the Mizzou 48-yardline. To the right is a breakdown of MU's defensive stands following the offense's last five turnovers...

► The last time an opponent scored following a Tiger turnover was Florida on Oct. 19, when MU fumbled a punt that the Gators recovered on the MU 24-yardline. The Tigers held Florida to a field goal, limiting the damage to 5 plays, 18 yards and the three points...

► In Mizzou's first four games of the 2013 season, opponents had much more success capitalizing on MU's mistakes, as foes scored 4-of-6 times following Mizzou turnovers, including 3 TDs, 1 FG and 2 punts...

WATCH OUT FOR SAM

► Mizzou's All-American hopeful DE Michael Sam enters the Auburn game leading the SEC and ranking tied for eighth in the nation in QB sacks (10.5 total). He also leads the league in TFLs (1.50 per game/18.0 total), ranking tied for 11th nationally...

► Sam has been named a finalist for both the Bronko Nagurski Trophy (most outstanding defensive player) and Rotary Lombardi Award (lineman of the year). He is a semifinalist for the Walter Camp Player of the Year Award and Chuck Bednarik Award (defensive player of the year), and is on the watch list for the Hendricks Award (defensive end of the year)...

► The high-motor Tiger has found himself routinely double and triple-teamed during Mizzou's four-game winning streak. He added to his sack statistics with a 0.5 sack of 2012 Heisman Trophy winner Johnny Manziel in Mizzou's 28-21 win vs. No. 19 Texas A&M, teaming up with junior DL Matt Hoch for the hit. Sam also recorded a QBH...

► Sam provided a huge game to help key Mizzou's 36-17 win over No. 22 Florida (Oct. 19). He tallied 3.0 sacks on the day (22 yards in loss), and added four tackles in all, to go with one other QB hurry...

► The Tiger was named SEC Defensive Player of the Week for his performance against the Gators, marking the second-straight week a Mizzou player brought home the honor (Kentrell Brothers, at Georgia). The recognition was Sam's third weekly conference honor of the season...

► Sam's outing vs. Florida was his third multi-sack game of 2013. He also had 3.0 sacks in wins over Arkansas State and Vanderbilt earlier in 2013. Though 12 games, Sam has pushed his career sack total to 20.0, fourth all-time at Mizzou...

► Sam also has a knack for finding the ball any way possible, as he picked up a Georgia fumble and returned it 21 yards to break the game open. The touchdown return was his second career score...

INSIDE THE 42-GAME TURNOVER STREAK

- ▶ Mizzou has a 27-15 record in the streak
- ▶ Tigers have gained 3 or more turnovers in 15 of 42 games (14-1 record, only loss to USC '13)
- ▶ Mizzou is +25 overall in turnover margin
- When MU is plus in TO margin: 15-5
- When MU is minus in TO margin: 3-5
- When MU is even in TO margin: 9-5
- When MU is plus 1 in TO margin: 7-3
- When MU is plus 2 in TO margin: 3-2
- When MU is plus 3 in TO margin: 3-0
- When MU is plus 4 in TO margin: 2-0
- When MU is minus 1 in TO margin: 3-3
- When MU is minus 2 in TO margin: 0-0
- When MU is minus 3 in TO margin: 0-2

- ▶ An outstanding play by senior LB Andrew Wilson extended the streak in the Tigers' 48-17 win at Kentucky (Nov. 9). A UK 40-yard pass completion was hunted down by Wilson, who stripped the Wildcat. The fumble was recovered by junior LB Darvin Ruise and Mizzou took over at 7:39 3Q...
- ▶ Mizzou's defense now has 18 interceptions through 11 games (after recording only 7 INTs in 12 games in 2012), and the Tigers are tied for ninth-most in the nation. Mizzou is +15 on the year entering Saturday's game against Auburn – 27 takeaways, 12 turnovers lost). The Tigers' 1.25 margin/game ranks tied for sixth in the nation...

STREAK OF THIEVERY SUPPLEMENTED BY SURE-HANDED TIGERS

- ▶ Mizzou's 28-21 win over No. 19 Texas A&M (Nov. 30) marked the fourth time in SEC play that the Tigers gave zero turnovers to its opponent. The Tigers enter Saturday's game vs. Auburn ranked tied for sixth in the NCAA (first in the SEC) in turnover margin, at +1.25 per game...
- ▶ Head coach Gary Pinkel's squad also allowed zero takeaways to Vanderbilt on Oct. 5 (W, 51-28), at No. 7 Georgia on Oct. 12 (W, 41-26) and vs. Tennessee on Nov. 2 (W, 31-3)...
- ▶ Mizzou's 12 turnovers lost (six INTs, six fumbles) this season ranks tied for fifth nationally and first in the SEC with Alabama...
- ▶ Mizzou has been plus-3 in TO margin in a whopping seven of 12 games in 2013...

SPREADING OUT THE SCORING

- ▶ Mizzou's offense has done an excellent job of distributing the ball, and it can not be more apparent with the number of touchdowns scored. For the first time ever, Mizzou has four players with at least eight TDs (Junior TB Henry Josey 14, sophomore WR Dorial Green-Beckham 10, senior WR L'Damian Washington 10, junior TB Marcus Murphy 9)...
- ▶ The point-scoring frenzies of the 2007 and 2008 seasons saw just three players finish with at least eight touchdowns in both years. Jeremy Maclin (16) Tony Temple (13) and Martin Rucker (8) brought in the points in 2007, with Derrick Washington (19), Maclin (17) and Chase Coffman (10) handling the scoring in 2008...
- ▶ Green-Beckham and Washington rank highly in the SEC with their 10 touchdown catches so far in 2013, standing tied for second in the SEC and tied for 16th nationally...
- ▶ According to Mizzou historian Tom Orf, Washington's 9 career touchdown catches of 20-plus yards ranks fourth in school history behind Tiger greats Danario Alexander (14), Jeremy Maclin (13) and Mel Gray (11)...

THE EASY WAY, OR THE HARD WAY

- ▶ For the first time in program history, Mizzou has beaten three conference opponents on the road who have 7+ wins to their credit. Vanderbilt (51-28), Georgia (41-26) both enter the week with 8-4 records. Ole Miss (24-10) holds a 7-5 mark...

▶ Sam is 1.5 sacks away from becoming Mizzou's all-time single-season leader, with former Tiger Aldon Smith's 11.5 sacks in 2009 currently standing as the top mark...

MIZZOU'S DEFENSE LOOKS TO CONTINUE STREAK OF THIEVERY

▶ Mizzou's nation-leading takeaway steak was extended to 42 games with stout special teams play from redshirt freshmen TB Morgan Steward and CB John Gibson. On a Mizzou punt near the beginning of 2Q action, Steward stripped Texas A&M's punt returner and Gibson fell on the ball to notch the takeaway and give the Tigers the ball at 13:40 2Q...

▶ The last time Mizzou didn't record a takeaway was Oct. 30, 2010 at Nebraska (a 31-17 loss)...

► But even further research from MU historian Tom Orf shows that after Mizzou's 28-21 win vs. No. 19 Texas A&M (Nov. 30), the Tigers have defeated six teams with 7+ wins for only the fourth time in program history. Toledo and Arkansas are also 7-4, who Mizzou dispatched by scores of 38-23 and 41-19, respectively, during non-conference action...

► Pinkel's squad in 2010 also accomplished the feat, winning six games against opponents who finished their seasons with at least seven wins (Illinois, South Dakota State, Miami [Ohio], Texas A&M, Oklahoma and Kansas State)...

► Another victory, this weekend in the SEC Championship against Auburn (11-1), would put the 2013 squad in special territory amongst the top Mizzou teams in program history...

WE FORGOT TO WARN YOU ABOUT EALY

► On one side of Mizzou's starting defensive line is senior DE and postseason awards candidate Michael Sam, a well-established fact. The opposite side is nearly equally as imposing with junior DE Kony Ealy, who made his presence widely known in Mizzou's 48-17 win at Kentucky (Nov. 9) with a 3.0-sack game among six tackles...

► Ealy's 6.5 sacks thus far in 2013 ranks tied for sixth in the SEC, and with Sam at the top of conference with his 10.5, Mizzou makes up two of the league's Top 5 in sacks...

► Keeping opposing quarterbacks on their toes has been one of the finer points of Ealy's game this season, as he leads Mizzou in QB hurries with 14 to his credit...

► Ealy additionally impacts opposing offenses when the ball is in the air. His five pass breakups currently leads the team, and he also made one of the most athletic plays for a defensive lineman in this season of college football. Ealy leapt to deflect an Indiana pass attempt in 2Q action of 45-28 win and came away with an interception instead. The 6-5, 275-pound Tiger took the football back 49 yards for his first career pick and touchdown...

MAUK THROUGH THE AIR AND ON THE GROUND

► Redshirt freshman Maty Mauk can still expect to see snaps with senior QB and co-captain James Franklin back in the lineup for the past two Tiger victories, something Mauk has earned from his performances this season, according to head coach Gary Pinkel...

► The Tiger underclassman QB entered the Ole Miss contest in 2Q action and helped Mizzou's offense tack on a field goal. Mauk completed 3-of-7 passes for 83 yards on the drive, including a 60-yard strike that hit junior WR Bud Sasser in stride on a deep post route. The drive ended with a 33-yard field goal from sophomore PK Andrew Baggett at 7:31 2Q to put Mizzou up 10-0...

► Mauk's excellent play in relief of Franklin continued in the 48-17 win at Kentucky (Nov. 9), with Mauk etching his name into Mizzou's records with five passing touchdowns...

► Mauk's outing tied Mizzou's school record for touchdown passes in a game, a mark only matched by the Tigers' all-time leader in passing and current NFL QB Chase Daniel (who accomplished the feat four times in his Mizzou career)...

► He finished the game with 203 yards passing (17-for-28, 60.7 pct.), 5 TDs (zero INTs), and also tacking on 24 rushing yards...

► Four of the five TD passes went to sophomore WR Dorial Green-Beckham from distances of 8 yards, 7 yards, 22 yards and 7 yards, with a TD toss to junior TB Henry Josey (6 yards) following Mauk's first 7-yard pass to Green-Beckham...

► Mauk posted a 3-1 record as a starter in Franklin's absence. He became the first Mizzou QB since 2011 (James Franklin vs. UNC) to throw and rush for 100 yards in a game with his performance vs. Tennessee (Nov. 2). He ended the night with 163 yards passing and 3 touchdowns (zero interceptions) while he ran for a career-high 114 yards on 13 carries (8.8 avg. per att.)...

► Mauk also came in for a “save” at Georgia in the 4Q of Mizzou’s 41-26 win (Oct. 12), when he replaced the injured Franklin and extended the Tigers’ tenuous 28-26 lead at the time...

► Mauk received his third Freshman Player of the Week recognition from the SEC for his strong play against the Wildcats. The Mizzou underclassman also brought home the honor after the Tigers’ wins over Florida (Oct. 19) and Tennessee (Nov. 2)...

INTERCEPTIONS? MIZZOU HAS THOSE

► Mizzou got back into the interception business vs. Ole Miss (Nov. 23), with senior CB Randy Ponder intercepting Rebel QB Bo Wallace and returning the ball 17 yards at 10:01 1Q. The pickoff was Mizzou’s 18th in 2013, currently the best mark in the SEC (tied for ninth nationally)...

► Missouri recorded three interceptions for three-straight games to start the 2013 season, building a solid base for the 18 the defense has collected. The Tigers have more than doubled last season’s total of just seven INTs...

► Eleven different Tigers have combined for the 18 total interceptions, with senior CB E.J. Gaines leading with four pickoffs. Gaines is also Mizzou’s active career INT leader with seven. His 0.40 per-game INT average is the fourth-best mark in the SEC...

SACK SUCCESS A STORY FOR TIGERS

► Mizzou now has 34.0 QB sacks in its last nine games, an impressive sight, as the Tigers had totaled only 3.0 combined sacks in its first three outings (with all three coming in the opener against Murray State)...

► Mizzou’s 37.0 sacks over its 12 games in 2013 is the top mark in the SEC and ranks tied for No. 4 in the country...

► The Black & Gold got after 2012 Heisman Trophy winner Johnny Manziel and Texas A&M (Nov. 30) to the tune of 2.0 sacks, as well as 1.0 tackle-for-loss by senior LB Andrew Wilson on a designed QB run...

► The Tigers notched 7.0 sacks for the second time this season in its 48-17 win at Kentucky (Nov. 9). This sack spree was also a major factor in Mizzou’s big win at Vanderbilt (Oct. 5). Mizzou’s front four got pressure all night long, and the Tigers ended the game with 7.0 sacks in all – with all of them coming from the line...

► The 7.0 sacks in both the UK and VU wins are the most by Mizzou since they recorded 7.0 in a 30-9 win at Texas A&M on Oct. 16, 2010 against Aggie QB Ryan Tannehill...

► Individually, senior DE Michael Sam ranks first in the SEC, and tied for eighth in the nation, with his 10.5 sacks (0.88 sacks-per-game average). Sam is also the league’s top-ranked performer in tackles-for-loss (18.0) currently, with an average of 1.50 per game, which also ranks him tied for 11th nationally...

DEFENSIVE LINE IS MIZZOU DEFENSE’S ENGINE

► Mizzou’s defensive line continued to pile onto the Tigers’ SEC-leading tackle-for-loss total in the win vs. Texas A&M (Nov. 30), recording 4.0 of a team total of 8.0. The Tiger defense heads into the SEC Championship vs. Auburn with a league-best total of 95.0 (357 yards lost), a mark that ranks tied for fifth nationally...

► The Tigers padded their sack total with 6.0 more in the 48-17 win at Kentucky (Nov. 9). Junior DE Kony Ealy had the latest 3.0-sack game for the Tigers, with juniors Markus Golden and Matt Hoch getting 1.0, along with sophomore DE Shane Ray...

► The Tigers’ defensive linemen have been making plays all season, with 35.0 of Mizzou’s total 37.0 sacks going to their credit. The same is true for total tackles-for-loss, with the D-line recording 66.5 of the 95.0 total...

PINKEL TIED FOR MOST WINS IN MIZZOU HISTORY

► Mizzou Head Coach Gary Pinkel is in his 13th season at MU (23rd overall as a head coach) and touts a career record of 174-99-3 (63.6%)...

► Pinkel, who has led MU to a combined record of 79-37 (68.1%) in the past 9 seasons, and to bowl games in 2003, 2005, 2006, 2007, 2008, 2009, 2010, 2011 and an upcoming 2013 trip, has a 13-season record in Columbia of 101-62 (62.0%). Dating back to the 2005 Independence Bowl win over Steve Spurrier and South Carolina, Pinkel has gone 72-32 in his last 104 games overall (69.2%). MU's win in the 2008 opener against Illinois gave Pinkel his 50th MU win, and he now ranks tied for first on the coaching wins list at MU, with 101, just one win from passing legendary head coach Don Faurot. The win over Kansas in 2010 was the 150th of his career...

► Pinkel is in a select group of Mizzou coaches that includes College Football Hall of Famers Don Faurot and Dan Devine, as well as Warren Powers, to be the only coaches to have an MU record of above .500 (with at least one full season coached) dating all the way back to 1935. Here's a quick look at the top winning coaches in MU history...

MIZZOU COACHING WINS LEADERS

Coach	Wins	# Seasons (Years)	Record	Pct.	# Bowls
Don Faurot	101	19 (1935-42, 46-56)	101-79-10	.558	4
Gary Pinkel	101	13 (2001-Present)	101-62	.620	8
Dan Devine	93	13 (1958-70)	93-37-7	.704	6
Warren Powers	46	7 (1978-84)	46-33-3	.580	5

► In 2007, Pinkel guided the Tigers from unranked in the pre-season to a team which won a school-record 12 games and a final ranking of #4 in the Associated Press Top-25. Mizzou ascended to #1 in the BCS rankings following the regular season, and stood just one half away from playing in the BCS National Championship Game (before Oklahoma pulled away from a halftime tie to win the Big 12 title game). For his efforts in 2007, Pinkel was a finalist for several national coach of the year awards, including the Robinson, Bryant and Munger awards. He was also named the National Coach of the Year by FieldTurf in 2007, and his 8 bowl games is an MU record...

► Pinkel has directed Mizzou to 9 winning seasons (8-5 in 2003, 7-5 in 2005, 8-5 in 2006, 12-2 in 2007, 10-4 in 2008, 8-5 in 2009, 10-3 in 2010, 8-5 in 2011 and 11-1 in 2013), with those representing 9 of MU's 11 winning campaigns dating back to the 1983 season...

► Before this season's SEC Eastern Division title, Mizzou's Big 12 North Division titles won in 2007, 2008 and 2010 represented the only football conference titles of any kind Mizzou had won since 1969 – the last time it claimed a share of the old Big Eight Conference crown. In April of 2011, Pinkel agreed to a two-year contract extension, meaning he'll patrol the Tiger sidelines through the 2017 season...

UNIFORM REPORT

Mizzou Athletics underwent a complete overhaul of its uniforms during the Summer of 2012, as NIKE gave all Tiger sport programs a new look. Naturally, football was the focal point by most people, and the Tigers have benefitted with an exciting look, including many different useable uniform and helmet combinations.

For the fashion-minded, here's how the Tigers have come out in each game:

Murray State – W, 58-14

- Helmet – Oval Tiger
- Jersey/Pants – Black/Black

Toledo – W, 38-23

- Helmet – Oval Tiger
- Jersey/Pants – Anthracite/Gold

Indiana – W, 45-28

- Helmet – Alternate Black Matte/Aluminum
- Jersey/Pants – White/White

Arkansas State – W, 41-19

- Helmet – Oval Tiger
- Jersey/Pants – Black/Black

Vanderbilt – W, 51-28

- Helmet – Oval Tiger
- Jersey/Pants – White/Anthracite

Georgia – W, 41-26

- Helmet – Oval Tiger
- Jersey/Pants – White/Black

Florida – W, 36-17

- Helmet – Alternate Black Matte
- Jersey/Pants – Gold/Black

South Carolina – L, 27-24 (20T)

- Helmet – Alternate Black Matte/Aluminum
- Jersey/Pants – Anthracite/Black

Tennessee – W, 31-3

- Helmet – Oval Tiger
- Jersey/Pants – Black/Gold

Kentucky – W, 48-17

Seven current Tigers have already earned their degrees:

- Justin Britt
- Brayden Burnett
- Max Copeland
- Marvin Foster
- Randy Ponder
- L'Damian Washington
- Andrew Wilson

Nine Tigers are scheduled to graduate in December:

- Donovan Bonner
- Michael Brennan
- Jaleel Clark
- Tyler Davis
- James Franklin
- Kyle Peasel
- Michael Sam
- Eric Waters
- Matt White

Four seniors will graduate in May:

- David Butler
- E.J. Gaines
- Marcus Lucas
- Denzel Martin

MIZZOU-AUBURN CONNECTIONS

Mizzou receivers coach Pat Washington has coached across the country in his 26-year career, including his long-time stint as wide receivers coach at Tennessee from 1995-2005. Auburn associate head coach/recruiting coordinator Rodney Garner coached tight ends for the Vols from 1996-97.

Washington also coached at Mississippi State from 2007-08, with Auburn defensive coordinator Ellis Johnson holding the same position for the Bulldogs in 2007. Auburn co-defensive coordinator/safeties coach Charlie Harbison, cornerbacks coach Melvin Smith and offensive line coach J.B. Grimes also coached in Starkville in 2007.

Additionally, Mizzou's Washington is a former Auburn Tiger (1982-85) who finished his distinguished quarterbacking career for AU with four bowl trips. He was a two-year starter and guided the Tigers to a 17-8 record in those seasons, along with 1984 Liberty Bowl and 1986 Cotton Bowl appearances. Washington was a graduate assistant for AU from 1987-88.

Mizzou senior TE Eric Waters and Auburn senior Nosa Eguae graduated from Summit High School in Mansfield, Texas.

2013 GAME RECAPS

GAME #1 • MIZZOU 58, MURRAY STATE 14
AUG. 31, 2013 • FAUROT FIELD/MEMORIAL STADIUM
COLUMBIA, MO. • 58,038

COLUMBIA, Mo. (AP) - James Franklin threw for 318 yards and three touchdowns before coming out early in the third quarter, helping Missouri take command after early struggles and whip Murray State 58-14 Saturday night in an opener that began in 98-degree heat.

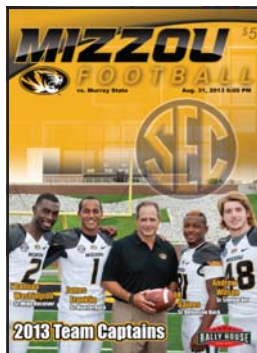

Henry Josey had 113 yards on 13 carries with a 68-yard score in his first game back from a left knee injury that required two surgeries and sidelined him all last season. Russell Hansbrough had 104 yards on eight attempts with a pair of scores for Missouri, coming off a disappointing 5-7 record in its first SEC season.

Maikhail Miller threw three interceptions, two by E.J. Gaines, against a defense that stiffened after allowing two early touchdowns. Murray State faded quickly against its first SEC opponent since 2005.

Franklin was done for the evening after throwing two touchdown passes the first 5:09 after the break, a 37-yarder to Darius White and 4-yarder to L'Damian Washington to make it 44-14.

Josey outran a pair of defenders who had the angle on his burst down the sideline in the third quarter. He received a prolonged ovation during pre-game introductions and again after a 20-yard gain on his first carry. Hansbrough had 101 yards on seven carries and two scores in the rocky first quarter.

Missouri is 10-0 against FCS teams under coach Gary Pinkel, entering with an average score of 50-7, and beat Murray State 47-7 in 2006 in the only other game between the schools. Kansas City Chiefs backup quarterback Chase Daniel made his Missouri debut in that game with five touchdown passes, and attended Saturday night's game.

GAME #2 • MIZZOU 38, TOLEDO 23
SEPT. 7, 2013 • FAUROT FIELD/MEMORIAL STADIUM
COLUMBIA, MO. • 56,785

COLUMBIA, Mo. (AP) - James Franklin made crucial big plays on consecutive scoring drives in the second half and Missouri pulled away from Toledo for a 38-23 victory on Saturday.

Missouri (2-0) led 24-23 after Toledo (0-2) scored its first two touchdowns of the year but Franklin's 21-yard keeper set up Henry Josey's second 1-yard touchdown run of the game which extended Missouri's lead to eight.

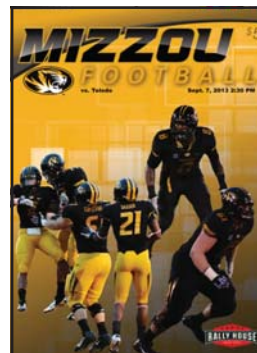

The quarterback later had a 6-yard carry on fourth-and-3 and an 11-yard gain on third-and-9 to set up Marcus Murphy's 8-yard run to conclude the scoring with 10:29 to go.

Missouri coach Gary Pinkel beat the school at which he's a Hall of Famer and the career wins leader with the help of a few goofs by the visitors.

Markus Golden got a gift 70-yard interception return in the third quarter when the ball squirted out of Toledo quarterback Terrance Owens' hands and right into his arms.

Dorial Green-Beckham beat one-on-one coverage from Jordan Martin on a 9-yard touchdown catch with 1:14 to go in the half for a 17-9 lead. Missouri got a big stop in the other end zone to end the half, with Matt White intercepting a pass from Owens that was tipped.

Levi Copeland's 51-yard diving reception at the 7, with three defenders in futile pursuit, set up Josey's first 1-yard run.

2013 GAME RECAPS

GAME #3 • MIZZOU 45, INDIANA 28
SEPT. 21, 2013 • MEMORIAL STADIUM
BLOOMINGTON, IND. • 49,149

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. (AP) - Kony Ealy surprised everyone Saturday night.

With two of the nation's most efficient quarterbacks and two of the nation's top-10 scoring offenses on the same field in Bloomington, Ealy showed the college football world why defense still matters.

The 275-pound defensive end leapt up late in the first half, plucked Nate Sudfeld's throw out of the air and sprinted 49 yards for a score that changed the game and led unbeaten Missouri to a surprisingly easy 45-28 victory at Indiana.

While Tigers fans certainly enjoy seeing touchdowns pile up and all the eye-opening stats, they've also learned to appreciate having one of the nation's most opportunistic defenses.

Ealy's interception extended Missouri's streak of consecutive games with a turnover to 33. It was the second time in two games that a Missouri defensive lineman scored on an interception return, and this time, even the high-scoring Hoosiers couldn't recover.

Missouri (3-0) won in Bloomington for the first time since 1953 and ended an eight-game winless streak against the Hoosiers in the first matchup between these schools since 1992.

Coach Gary Pinkel, who installed this wide-open offense and turnover-hungry defense, won his 93rd game since coming to the school 13 years ago. He is now tied with Dan Devine for the second-most wins in school history, trailing only Don Faurot (101).

And after having a 300-yard passer, two 100-yard runners and a 100-yard rusher for the first time in school history Aug. 31 against Murray State, the Tigers were proficient again against the Hoosiers. This time, James Franklin threw for 343 yards and two touchdowns while running for another score, two receivers topped the 100-yard mark and Russell Hansbrough ran 13 times for 104 yards, closing it out with a late 45-yard TD run.

COLUMBIA, Mo. (AP) — James Franklin orchestrated two lengthy touchdown drives and added another score on the ground in the second half to help Missouri break open a 41-19 win over Arkansas State in wet conditions Saturday night.

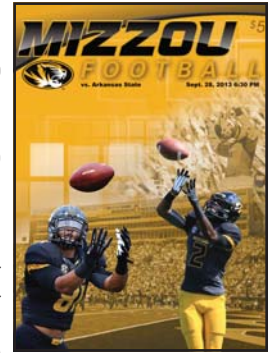

Missouri scored 21 points in the final quarter to finish their nonconference schedule with a 4-0 record.

Franklin led drives of 94 and 87 yards after his team trailed 16-14 with 11:31 remaining in the third quarter. The Tigers failed to convert any of their first four third-down opportunities and only possessed the ball for 9:12 in the first half.

Missouri only ran 25 plays in the opening 30 minutes Saturday, but Franklin got things going in the third quarter with a 13-yard pass to L'Damian Washington on a third down at Missouri's 36-yard-line to keep the team on the field. After Franklin ran for 18 yards to the Arkansas State's 17-yard-line, he found Washington in the corner of the end zone from five yards out for a 20-16 lead.

Missouri held the Red Wolves to a 3-and-out on their subsequent possession before Franklin flipped the ball to Henry Josey for a 1-yard touchdown run with 13:25 remaining for a 27-16 advantage.

Franklin then scampered for a 9-yard score and Marcus Murphy added a 3-yard run after an E.J. Gaines interception to finish the scoring. The Tigers finished with 495 yards of offense, including 239 rushing yards and 256 through the air.

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) - James Franklin threw for four touchdowns and Missouri squashed any doubts about its early season schedule with a 51-28 victory at Vanderbilt Saturday.

The Tigers moved to 5-0 and opened conference play without missing a beat in the program's first trip to Nashville as a member of the SEC.

Franklin guided Missouri on scoring drives on the first six possessions and finished 19-for-28 for 278 yards.

Vanderbilt (3-3, 0-3 SEC) managed to move the ball in the third quarter, the Tigers answered each score.

Henry Josey added two touchdown runs for the Tigers, who recorded 523 yards of total offense.

Vanderbilt wideout Jordan Matthews was held to two catches and eight yards in the first half, but finished with 123 yards receiving and a touchdown to set a school record in both categories.

The 51 points was the most scored against a Vanderbilt team since Florida scored 55 in 2009.

ATHENS, Ga. (AP) - Gary Pinkel said No. 25 Missouri won more than a second straight SEC road game when it upset No. 7 Georgia.

Receiver Bud Sasser threw a 40-yard touchdown pass to L'Damian Washington in the fourth quarter after quarterback James Franklin left with a shoulder injury and Missouri held off Georgia's comeback attempt to beat the short-handed Bulldogs 41-26 on Saturday.

Missouri led by 18 points in the first half before Georgia (4-2, 3-1) cut the lead to 28-26 in the fourth quarter.

The Tigers answered the challenge with two late touchdowns, despite losing Franklin.

Missouri's first road win over a top 10 team since 1981 helped continue the Tigers' recovery from a 5-7 finish in 2012, their first in season in the SEC. The Tigers have scored 38 or more points in each of their six wins, including last week's 51-28 win at Vanderbilt.

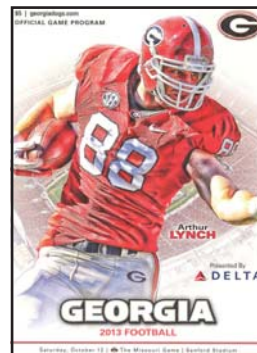

After Franklin was taken to the locker room, Mauk threw a lateral to Sasser, who stopped and tossed a high, deep pass to the end zone for Washington. Washington, who outfought cornerback Damian Swann for the catch, had 115 yards and two touchdowns.

James Ponder's interception of Aaron Murray's pass with 4:25 remaining set up Henry Josey's 7-yard touchdown run to end Georgia's hopes.

Murray threw two interceptions and lost one of Georgia's two fumbles.

After the game, Missouri players ran to edge of the Sanford Stadium hedges and celebrated their biggest SEC win yet with fans in the corner of an end zone.

Franklin scored on a 5-yard run in the first quarter and threw a 16-yard scoring pass to Washington in the second quarter.

COLUMBIA, Mo. (AP) - No James Franklin, no problem. Maty Mauk threw for 295 yards in his first career start and Andrew Baggett converted five field goals to help the No. 14 Tigers defeat No. 22 Florida 36-17 on Saturday and open a two-game lead in the SEC East Division.

With Franklin watching on the sideline in street clothes, Mauk put any doubts to rest about whether he was ready on the first play of the game with a 41-yard pass to L'Damian Washington and then a 20-yard toss to Bud Sasser for a 7-0 lead just 22 seconds in.

Missouri (7-0, 3-0) outgained the Gators 500-151 and became the first conference opponent in 14 games to score at least 21 points against them. The Tigers bullied Florida (4-3, 3-2) at the line of scrimmage, sacking quarterback Tyler Murphy six times and flushing him out of the pocket throughout the game.

The Tigers knocked off their second consecutive ranked opponent for the first time since 1973 and will face No. 11 South Carolina next week at home. The Gamecocks lost at Tennessee 23-21 on Saturday.

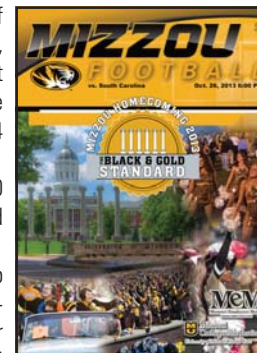

Mauk entered the game having only thrown six passes this season, but three of those came in the final quarter of a 41-26 win at Georgia last week after Franklin suffered a shoulder injury that will keep him out at least two more games. Mauk completed 18 of 36 passes Saturday, including three for 37 yards or more down the sideline.

The 6-foot, 200-pound redshirt freshman capped the scoring with 6:30 remaining on a 17-yard scramble, prompting the 67,124 in attendance to perform the "Gator Chomp."

Murphy thought he had time on some of his missed throws despite absorbing three sacks from SEC-leader Michael Sam and one apiece from Kony Ealy, Matt Hoch and Shane Ray.

The Gators only gained 61 yards in the first half - including nine rushing - but used six runs to drive 70 yards and pull within 23-17 with 46 seconds left in the third quarter. Missouri answered with a 33-yard field goal by Baggett following a 50-yard run by Henry Josey, who ran for 136 yards on 18 carries.

Baggett also converted from 19, 28, 39 and 43 yards to tie the school record in makes in a single game, as Missouri far exceeded the 13 points per game Florida allowed this season entering the matchup, the second-fewest in the SEC. In addition to Mauk's 295 passing yards, the Tigers added 205 on the ground and had 24 first downs.

COLUMBIA, Mo. (AP) – Connor Shaw came off the bench in the second half to lead a 17-point rally, throwing for 201 yards and three touchdowns, and Elliott Fry kicked the go-ahead field goal in the second overtime to help No. 20 South Carolina stun No. 5 Missouri 27-24 on Saturday night.

After Fry put the Gamecocks ahead from 40 yards out, Missouri's Andrew Baggett missed a 24-yard attempt off the left goal post.

Missouri (7-1, 3-1) could have all but locked up the SEC East with a victory, instead South Carolina (6-2, 4-2 SEC) moves to within one game of the Tigers for the division lead, with home games against Mississippi State and Florida remaining.

A sprain left knee kept Shaw from starting, but he entered the game in the third quarter and helped the Gamecocks score the final 17 points of regulation. He also threw a 15-yard touchdown pass on fourth down in the Gamecocks' first overtime to match the Tigers' Marcus Murphy's 1-yard scamper.

Shaw engineered fourth-quarter scoring drives of 65, 69 and 63 yards, and the Gamecocks knotted the score at 17 on a two-yard reception by Nick Jones with 42 seconds remaining. Ellington scored his first touchdown on a 6-yard catch with 12:13 remaining, and Elliott Fry added a 20-yard field goal with 5:03 left.

Mike Davis caught three screen passes on South Carolina's final scoring drive in regulation, partly making up for two fumbles in the first half. The Gamecocks turned the ball over three consecutive times in the second quarter, helping Missouri take a 14-0 halftime lead.

COLUMBIA, Mo. (AP) - Maty Mauk threw three touchdown passes and ran for a score, leading No. 9 (BCS) Missouri's dominant and resilient effort in a 31-3 victory over Tennessee Saturday night.

The Tigers (8-1, 4-1 SEC) responded smartly a week after squandering a 17-point cushion in the fourth quarter of a double-overtime loss to South Carolina.

Missouri forced three turnovers and committed none in Mauk's best game in three starts in place of injured James Franklin. Mauk had 114 yards on 13 carries, and threw touchdown passes to Dorial Green-Beckham, L'Damian Washington and Marcus Lucas in the first half. Franklin (shoulder sprain) warmed up before the game.

Tennessee (4-5, 1-4) is 0-4 on the road, all but one of them blowouts, and fell hopeless behind just like a week earlier when No. 1 Alabama was ahead 35-0 at the break. The Volunteers have lost 19 in a row on the road and mustered only a 51-yard field goal by Matt Palardy in the second quarter.

Freshman quarterback Joshua Dobbs was intercepted twice and lost a fumble in his first career start in place of injured Justin Worley, out indefinitely after thumb surgery. Tennessee was 2 for 13 on third down.

E.J. Gaines and Braylon Webb had interceptions for Missouri and Matt White had a fumble recovery on a strip by Darvin Ruise. Missouri has forced a turnover in 39 consecutive games, the longest streak in the nation.

Dobbs had 101 yards passing and 43 rushing in the first half, dulled by two turnovers.

Washington was alone in the end zone on a 26-yard catch set up by Gaines' team-leading interception to make it 17-0 midway through the second quarter.

GAME #10 • #9 MIZZOU 48, KENTUCKY 17
NOV. 9, 2013 • COMMONWEALTH STADIUM
LEXINGTON, KY. • 55,280

LEXINGTON, Ky. - Maty Mauk threw five touchdown passes, four to Dorial Green-Beckham, and No. 9 Missouri cruised past Kentucky 48-17 on Saturday.

Making his fourth consecutive start in place of the injured James Franklin, the Tigers' redshirt freshman completed 17 of 28 attempts for 203 yards and took full advantage of 6-foot-6 sophomore Green-Beckham, whose TD receptions set a school record.

Mauk added a 6-yard scoring pass to Henry Josey, who also rushed for two TDs, including an 86-yarder.

Missouri (9-1, 5-1 Southeastern Conference) allowed Kentucky (2-7, 0-5) two touchdowns in the third quarter but the Mauk-to-Green-Beckham connection answered both scores with TDs.

The victory helped the Tigers stay a half-game ahead of idle South Carolina (5-2) atop the East division heading into their second bye and gave coach Gary Pinkel his fourth nine-win season in 13 years with Missouri.

Missouri outgained Kentucky just 426-369, but its defense recorded seven sacks and recovered a fumble in handing the Wildcats their 13th straight SEC loss.

Kentucky's only consolation were scores on the opening possessions of both halves. Joe Mansour kicked a 21-yard field goal in the first quarter, while quarterback Jalen Whitlow ran for a 1-yard TD to start the second half.

Missouri came in with one of the SEC's top offenses, averaging 500 yards and nearly 41 points per game. The Tigers were coming off a 502-yard effort in last week's 31-3 rout of Tennessee, when Mauk ran and passed for more than 100 yards each and threw for three TDs.

Mauk ended up matching his season TD total in one game before giving way to Franklin in the fourth quarter, his first action since injuring his shoulder against Georgia.

Green-Beckham had the biggest day, catching seven passes for 100 yards. Josey, meanwhile, finished with 113 yards rushing on 11 carries.

2013 GAME RECAPS

GAME #11 • #8 MIZZOU 24, #24 OLE MISS 10
 NOV. 23, 2013 • VAUGHT-HEMINGWAY STADIUM
 OXFORD, MISS. • 61,168

OXFORD, Miss. (AP) - Henry Josey had two of No. 8 Mizzou's three touchdowns, as the Tigers rolled to a 24-10 win over No. 24 Ole Miss on Saturday night at Vaught-Hemingway Stadium. The win keeps Missouri (10-1, 6-1 SEC) a half-game ahead of South Carolina in the SEC East race, setting up a do-or-die situation next Saturday night in Columbia: If the Tigers beat Texas A&M, Mizzou is headed to Atlanta; if the Aggies win, the Gamecocks are the East representative.

Ole Miss had 1st & goal from the Tiger 7-yard line, but the Mizzou defense drove the Rebels backwards until Bo Wallace's 4th-down attempt fell incomplete. The Tigers took over from their own 13-yard line with 8 minutes, 8 seconds left to play. Thirteen rushes and five first downs later, Missouri had its fourth 10-win season in the last seven years. It was also Gary Pinkel's 100th career win at the University.

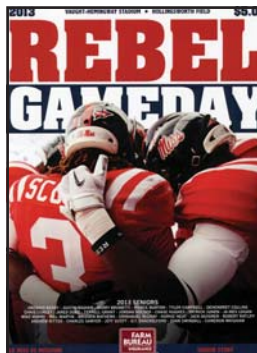

James Franklin completed 12 of 19 passes for 142 yards and an interception in his first start since a shoulder injury caused him to miss four games.

As it has so often this season, the Tigers got on board first. Franklin spearheaded an eight-play, 72-yard drive to begin the game that ended on a 4-yard Josey run.

Randy Ponder picked off Ole Miss QB Bo Wallace on the Rebels' ensuing drive to mark the nation-leading 41st consecutive game with a takeaway for the Tiger defense. Ponder finished the game with four total passes defended after a trio of breakups to go with his fourth career interception.

After Josh Augusta's block of an Andrew Ritter field-goal try kept the Rebels off the board, Andrew Baggett capped a 10-play, 75-yard drive with a 33-yard kick of his own midway through the second half to push the margin to 10-0. The Tigers took a 10-3 lead into the locker room; Mizzou has outscored its seven SEC foes by a 154-29 margin in the first half this season.

The Tigers finished with 485 total yards, including 260 on the ground.

GAME #12 • #5 MIZZOU 28, #19 TEXAS A&M 21
 NOV. 30, 2013 • FAUROT FIELD/MEMORIAL STADIUM
 COLUMBIA, MO. • 67,124

COLUMBIA, Mo. — The score that sealed No. 5 Mizzou's Southeastern Conference Eastern Division crown fittingly came on the legs of junior TB Henry Josey, who sprinted 57 yards to the end zone to put away No. 21 Texas A&M, 28-21, on Saturday night at Faurot Field. Senior QB James Franklin helped his class finish strong in front of their home crowd, as the signal caller passed for 233 yards (18-for-28) and two touchdowns with 80 rushing yards.

The win gives the Tigers (11-1, 7-1 SEC) the outright SEC Eastern Division crown, and a berth the SEC Championship Game against No. 4 Auburn. It also was a significant milestone for head coach Gary Pinkel, as the Tiger leader guided his group to the 101st of his 13-year tenure in Columbia to match legendary head coach Don Faurot, who claimed 101 victories from 1935-42, 46-56.

The Tigers battled the Aggies, headed by 2012 Heisman Trophy winner Johnny Manziel, deep into the fourth quarter, with the visiting squad knotting the game up at 21-21 with 10:43 left the contest. The two teams then played keep-away, both punting twice. Mizzou took over at 4:47 in the fourth quarter and Josey did the rest to continue his remarkable comeback story, crossing the goal line with 3:34 left after his mad dash. The Tiger has now accounted for 951 yards and 13 scores on the ground after returning from his catastrophic 2011 knee injury vs. Texas.

Franklin's night included two impressive touchdown throws, the first to tie the game up in the second quarter. Mizzou yielded at 7-0 advantage to Texas A&M after the first quarter, but a 38-yard strike to sophomore WR Dorial Green-Beckham with 5:16 remaining in the half evened the game.

Mizzou needed to play catch-up again in the third quarter and did more than that, capturing the lead with two impressive scoring drives. The first was on the opening driving of the second half, with the Tigers only needing 2:45 to get a 2-yard scoring run from junior TB Marcus Murphy. The ninth rushing touchdown of the season tied the game again at 14-14 with 12:15 on the third quarter clock.

Franklin's next scoring toss came on an acrobatic leap and snag from senior WR L'Damian Washington at 6:26 in the third quarter. The score kept Mizzou in the lead, 21-14, until the game tightened again the exciting fourth quarter finish. Franklin finished 18-of-28 for 233 yards and two TD's for the Tigers.
