WEEKLY PRESS CONFERENCE: Ole Miss holds its weekly fall press conference each Monday of the regular season at 11:15 a.m. CT in the Burns Team Meeting Room at the Manning Center, which is adjacent to Vaught-Hemingway Stadium/Hollingsworth Field. Various Ole Miss coaches and staff will take the podium first and will be followed by Coach Hugh Freeze at approximately 11:30 a.m. Members of the media unable to attend the Monday press conference may participate via the telephone beginning at 11:30 a.m.

PRACTICES: Viewing is permitted for approved media for select portions of practice on Tuesdays during the season. If you do not regularly attend practices, please contact Media Relations prior to your visit for exact details on times and location. Media are forbidden from reporting (e.g. tweeting, blogging, etc.) on anything related to practice until after the post-practice interviews. This includes media who leave practice early. Videographers and photographers must use tight shots and no formations. On available days, video is permitted for individual drills only, and media will be alerted which portions of practice (including stretch) are available for video. Use of footage from practices must be limited to three minutes per day. If you have not previously attended practices, please contact the media relations office for prior approval and daily alerts on practice locations and times.

AUDIO/VIDEO RESTRICTIONS: Press conferences, media opportunities, practices and any form of competition may not be broadcast live, including Periscope and related media, without prior consent of the athletics department. Audio/video use of content from press conferences and media opportunities is limited to five minutes per individual (coach or student-athlete) per day, and use of footage from practices is limited to three minutes per day. This includes content attained via FTP, which should be credited to Ole Miss Athletics. Ole Miss offers free FTP downloads of game highlights and interviews with coaches and players for television stations to use during regularly scheduled news/sportscasts. To access the Ole Miss FTP site, please contact Ole Miss Sports Productions at 662-915-3407 or micah@olemiss.edu.

WEEKDAY PARKING: Parking permits are required for everyone on campus Monday through Friday between 7:30 a.m. and 5 p.m. Media that plan to regularly attend practices, press conferences and other on-campus events may purchase a Vendor Permit from Campus Parking (www.olemiss.edu/parking), which is good for the full academic year. Those without parking permits are advised to park in a metered spot in the east lot of the Manning Center and feed the meter. Media without a parking permit may also contact Danny Blanton at dblanton@olemiss.edu prior to each visit to secure a free day pass. Day passes are also available for $3 online to print at <http://www.olemiss.edu/parking/visitors.html> or at a welcome booth on University Avenue in front of the Thad Cochran Research Center, which accepts cash, checks and credit cards. Please note that vendor and day passes are not applicable for gameday parking.

WORKING CREDENTIALS: To request game credentials, go to Ole Miss' online credentialing site: www.sportssystem.com/OleMiss. Credential requests must be made by the sports director of each media outlet and are limited to those media who will be attending the game in a working capacity. Media must approve the SEC Media Policy before requesting credentials. Media credentials are allotted on the following basis: (1) daily newspapers; (2) network affiliate television stations; (3) websites whose primary purpose is to gather and disseminate news and who have an affiliation with a nationally recognized media entity/network; (4) magazines, weekly newspapers and non-broadcast radio stations. PHOTOGRAPHERS: Per NCAA rule, images or likeness of current student-athletes may not be sold, distributed or used for commercial purposes.

MEDIA GATE: Media will enter through Gate 6 on the west side of the stadium beginning three and a half (3.5) hours prior to kickoff. The media will-call table will be located there, and photographers will exchange their photo ticket for an armband at this location.

GAMEDAY PARKING: Gameday media parking is located in two locations: 1) new garage; and 2) lot near Tad Smith Coliseum. Media should check their pass to indicate for which lot they are designated. Passes marked MEDIA are for the garage, and each pass is for a specific numbered parking spot. Cars parked in the wrong spot will be towed. Passes marked TAD SMITH MEDIA are for a lot located west of Tad Smith Coliseum.

GAMEDAY DRIVING DIRECTIONS: Media traveling to campus should take the Chucky Mullins Drive exit off of Highway 6 and travel north toward the 4-way stop. Those with MEDIA parking passes for the garage should turn right onto Hill Drive, and those with TAD SMITH MEDIA passes should continue straight on Chucky Mullins Drive. Both lots are located on the right side of their respective streets.

LAST FIVE GAMES AGAINST AUBURN

November 1, 2014 • Oxford, Miss. • #3 Auburn 35, #4 Ole Miss 31: The No. 4 Ole Miss football team played a hard-fought game against No. 3 Auburn, but two fumbles near the Auburn goal line in the fourth quarter proved to be too costly to overcome and the Rebels lost 35-31. Trailing by four with less than two minutes to play, wide receiver Laquon Treadwell caught a pass down the middle. Dragging a defender, Treadwell fought his way toward the goal line, but had his ankle rolled over and fumbled into the end zone, and the Tigers recovered the ball. Bo Wallace completed 28-of-40 passes for 339 yards and two touchdowns, and ran for another 61 yards and one touchdown on 14 rushes.

October 5, 2013 • Auburn, Ala. • Auburn 30, #24 Ole Miss 22: Ole Miss had a chance late in the fourth quarter down one possession against Auburn, but the comeback fell short, as the Tigers held on for a 30-22 win at Jordan-Hare Stadium. Ole Miss was held to only three field goals before Bo Wallace threw a 49-yard touchdown pass to Donte Moncrief in the third quarter.

October 13, 2012 • Oxford, Miss. • Ole Miss 41, Auburn 20: Ole Miss coach Hugh Freeze received a Gatorade bath and the Ole Miss faithful stood and cheered the team on in appreciation. After 16 long games, the Rebels finally snapped their Southeastern Conference losing skid with a 41-20 win over Auburn on Homecoming at Vaught-Hemingway Stadium.

October 29, 2011 • Auburn, Ala. • #23 Auburn 41, Ole Miss 23: Senior running back Brandon Bolden rushed for a season-high 114 yards on 13 carries and two touchdowns, but Ole Miss fell to No. 23 Auburn 41-23 at Jordan-Hare Stadium.

October 30, 2010 • Oxford, Miss. • #1 Auburn 51, Ole Miss 31: Freshman Jeff Scott rushed for 134 yards and a touchdown and junior Brandon Bolden added two more rushing scores, but Ole Miss fell to the top-ranked Auburn Tigers 51-31. Cam Newton caught a touchdown pass, to go with the two TD passes he threw, and Mike Dyer ran for 180 yards for Auburn.

OLE MISS HEAD COACH HUGH FREEZE

Hugh Freeze (Southern Miss, 1992) is in his fourth season at the Ole Miss helm. He inherited a team that went 2-10 and winless in SEC games in 2011 and has led the Rebels to three straight bowl games, including a berth in one of the inaugural "New Year's Six" bowls last season. A 2014 finalist for the Bear Bryant Award and Dodd Trophy, Freeze owns a 30-17 mark in Oxford and a career record of 60-24. His .638 winning percentage at Ole Miss is the third-best of any Rebel coach in the last 100 years. He was named the University's 37th head football coach on Dec. 5, 2011, coming to Oxford after one year as head coach at Arkansas State where he led the Red Wolves to a 10-2 season and the 2011 Sun Belt Conference title and was tabbed Sun Belt Coach of the Year. It is his second stint at Ole Miss, as he was a member of the Rebel coaching staff from 2005-07, including the final two seasons as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator with two of the top classes in school history.

AUBURN HEAD COACH GUS MALZAHN

Gus Malzahn (Henderson State, 1990) is in his third season as the Auburn head coach. He owns a 24-10 record as the Tigers' head man and a 33-13 mark in four seasons as a college head coach overall. Last year he directed Auburn to an 8-5 record and a berth in the Outback Bowl. In 2013, he led the Tigers to one of the biggest turnarounds in NCAA history, guiding them all the way to the BCS national championship game, which they lost 34-31 to Florida State. Auburn was SEC champion and Malzahn earned numerous SEC and national coach of the year honors. The previous year, Auburn had gone 3-9 overall and winless in SEC games. Prior to taking the Auburn job, Malzahn had a 9-3 record (and Sun Belt Conference title) in one season at Arkansas State. Malzahn was the Broyles Award winner when he was offensive coordinator for Auburn's national championship team in 2010. He has also served as offensive coordinator at Tulsa and Arkansas since joining the college ranks after a decorated high school coaching career in Arkansas.

AUBURN SCOUTING REPORT

Auburn is 4-3 overall and 1-3 in conference play entering this week's game with Ole Miss. The Tigers are coming off a heartbreaking 54-46 loss at Arkansas in four overtimes. The SEC media's preseason pick to win the league title, Auburn has had trouble stopping opponents, giving up a league-worst 29.7 points per outing and allowing a league-worst 430.6 yards per game. Auburn has been good on third downs offensively, leading the SEC with a 46.7 conversion percentage. Sophomore RB Peyton Barber has been a bright spot for the Tigers. He ranks sixth in the SEC with 110.0 rushing yards per game and third with 12 touchdowns.

- The Rebels' 665 yards vs. New Mexico State are second-most in a game in school history, while the 662 vs. UT Martin rank third and 607 vs. Fresno State rank eighth all-time.
- The team's 440 passing yards against Memphis established a school record.
- The Rebels scored 43+ points in three straight games for the first time in school history.

- Ole Miss scored 50+ points in back-to-back games for the first time in school history.
- First SEC team to score 70+ in consecutive games since Florida in 1994.

- Ole Miss ranks second in the SEC and tied for ninth nationally with 11 interceptions.
- The Rebels forced five turnovers in the 43-37 win at No. 2 Alabama and three in the 23-3 win over No. 15 Texas A&M.

DOMINANT DEFENSE VERSUS AGGIES

Ole Miss held the high-flying Texas A&M offense to season lows in points (3) and yards (192). They were the lowest totals for the Aggies since their 59-0 defeat at Alabama last year. It was the best defensive effort for Ole Miss since limiting Tennessee to three points and 191 total yards last season. The Landshark defense forced three A&M turnovers, limited them to 12 first downs, 6-of-20 on third-down tries and not once allowing A&M to reach the red zone. The second half was particularly dominating, holding the Aggies to 66 total yards (44 passing, 22 rushing), six first downs and no points.

DEGREES IN HAND

- The Rebels' most frequent Halloween opponent is LSU ... The Tigers enjoy a 3-2-1 edge in these games.
- The 1959 Halloween meeting between Ole Miss and LSU is one of college football's most memorable games, as LSU's Billy Cannon returned a fourth-quarter punt 89 yards for a TD in a 7-3 Tiger win ... VAUGHT-HEMINGWAY STADIUM EXPANSION AND RENOVATIONS

A number of renovations, expansions and improvements are underway for Vaught-Hemingway Stadium/Hollingsworth Field as part of the Forward Together capital campaign (that has also helped create the new Pavilion at Ole Miss for basketball).

PHASE 1: Completed for this season are renovations to the south end zone that have added 770 club seats, 30 new luxury suites and a new ribbon board. The west suites and press box also received a fresh refinishing.

PHASE 2: When the 2016 season begins, the north end zone will be enclosed, bringing stadium capacity to 64,038. New video boards and sound system will be installed. A new plaza and bell tower on the north side of the stadium will give Ole Miss Football an exciting new "front door." A green space will extend the Walk of Champions from The Grove to the new plaza. The south end zone will have a new field-level club area.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING

"Offensively they have weapons and a quarterback that can get them all over the field in many different ways. Been putting up lots of points and you can see why on tape."

-Kevin Sumlin, Texas A&M Head Coach (Oct. 20)

"Obviously Treadwell is healthy and a big playmaker for them. He's very explosive. They have plenty of guys on the outside that can exploit you if you're not in the right spot."

-Justin Fuente, Memphis Head Coach (Oct. 12)

"Hugh Freeze knew he was taking a chance with (Chad) Kelly, but so far everything is coming up aces for both of them in Oxford. He's a very confident quarterback. He has confidence in his arm and arguably the best wide receiver group in all of college football."

-Todd Blackledge, ESPN (Oct. 3)

"Robert Nkemdiche is the best player in the SEC. He looks like Ndamukong Suh."

-Mike Greenberg, ESPN (Sept. 21)

"It's almost like this is an expectation. There's a different vibe from Ole Miss with Hugh Freeze now that he's been here and been able to establish himself with some recruiting classes. They came in here expecting to win ... This isn't just 'wow they just beat Alabama in Tuscaloosa,' this kind of win brings this football team together and they become a serious contender in the west of the SEC."

-Kirk Herbstreit, ESPN (Sept. 19)

"Chad Kelly was playing in his first SEC game, but it was hard to tell. The nephew of Hall of Famer Jim Kelly showcased a powerful arm and no fear in throwing for 341 yards and three touchdowns – with zero interceptions."

Pat Forde, Yahoo! Sports (Sept. 19)

"I thought they played a really good game and have a really good team. I think they deserved to win this game, and they outplayed us."

-Nick Saban, Alabama Head Coach (Sept. 19)

"This kid (Robert) Nkemdiche for Ole Miss is a beast. Alabama can't do anything with him. Don't know for sure, but he's looking like a Top-2 pick"

-Stephen A. Smith, ESPN (Sept. 19)

"Last year everybody got over the fact that (Ole Miss) beat Alabama, but if they do it again this year the conversation needs to start about where Hugh Freeze is taking this program."

-Marcus Spears, SEC Network (Sept. 14)

"Kelly has been great for Ole Miss. They have looked better than anyone in the SEC so far as a total team. Here comes 'Bama."

-Booger McFarland, SEC Network (Sept. 13)

SPORTS ILLUSTRATED COVER

For the second straight year, Ole Miss was featured on the cover of Sports Illustrated after a win over Alabama. The Sept. 23 issue shows a jubilant Trae Elston after the senior safety's interception of Alabama quarterback Cooper Bateman in the Rebels' 43-37 win, their first in Tuscaloosa since 1988. It's the sixth time Ole Miss has been featured on the national cover of the iconic magazine. The others:

- Oct. 8, 2014: Ole Miss receivers celebrating a 23-17 win over then-No. 1 Alabama.
- Aug. 12, 2009: College football preview edition featured Rebel QB Jevan Snead and center Daverin Geraldts and ranked Ole Miss No. 6 in its preseason top 10.
- Sept. 30, 2008: Rebel DE Greg Hardy tackling Florida QB Tim Tebow during the Rebels' 31-30 upset over the No. 4 Gators, who would go on to win the national title.
- Sept. 14, 1970: Archie Manning, "Idol of Ole Miss"
- Sept. 24, 1962: College football preview showcased the Rebelettes.

- Ole Miss has now sold out of football season tickets for three straight seasons - 50,386 in 2013 and 51,316 in 2014.
- The Vaught-Hemingway season attendance record has been broken each of the last two years, with 430,829 fans watching Ole Miss play a year ago.
- Six of Ole Miss' seven home games last year were sellouts.

FIRST 100 YEARS OF VAUGHT-HEMINGWAY STADIUM

Ole Miss is celebrating the first 100 years of Vaught-Hemingway Stadium this season. The longtime home of Ole Miss Football began its life in 1915 when students helped build the first grandstands. The stadium's permanent foundation was a three-year, federally funded project from 1939-41. Stadium capacity was originally listed at 24,000. It will top 64,000 next season after the enclosure of the north end zone. The Rebels boast an all-time record of 262-93-8 (.733 winning percentage) at Vaught-Hemingway.

LANDSHARK

At Ole Miss, "Landshark" is a term adopted by the Rebel football team's defensive unit. As part of that identity, defensive players will celebrate big plays by putting a hand to their forehead in the shape of a shark fin. A battle cry of "fins up" also contributes to the players' persona.

With the popularity of both the players and the "Landshark" celebration, Ole Miss student-athletes from other sports have even performed the hand gesture as a tribute to their fellow Rebels on the football team.

Roots of the "Landshark" at Ole Miss date back to 2008. After four straight losing seasons, the Rebel football team returned to national prominence with a 9-4 record and a victory over 7th-ranked Texas Tech in the Cotton Bowl. Leading the charge was a defensive squad that ranked fourth in the nation in rushing defense and included All-Americans Peria Jerry and Greg Hardy and eventual All-SEC standout Jerrell Powe.

The term "Landshark" originated that season from senior linebacker Tony Fein, an Army veteran who served a one-year tour in the Iraq War before arriving in Oxford. A two-year letterman after transferring from Scottsdale (Ariz.) Community College, Fein was the 2008 recipient of the Pat Tillman Award by the Military Order of the Purple Heart. Fein passed away in October 2009, but his legacy at Ole Miss continues through the "Landshark."

HOTTY TODDY

The popular Ole Miss cheer goes like this:

*Are You Ready?
Hell Yeah! Damn Right!
Hotty Toddy, Gosh Almighty,
Who The Hell Are We? Hey!
Flim Flam, Bim Bam
Ole Miss By Damn!*

AUBURN NOTES

@COACHHUGHFREEZE

Hugh Freeze refers to his tenure at Ole Miss as a “journey.” Suffice it to say the journey has moved at a quicker pace than even Freeze could have imagined.

A Mississippi native, inspirational leader and one of the nation’s top rising coaches, Freeze was the first choice to return championships to Ole Miss Football and was introduced as the Rebels’ 37th head coach on December 5, 2011.

In the time since Freeze inherited a team coming off a two-win season and 14 straight Southeastern Conference losses, the Rebels have made three straight bowl appearances and won more games in each season.

He is the first coach in school history to guide the Rebels to a bowl game in each of his first three seasons.

Among the accomplishments in Freeze’s first three years: 24-15 record; two bowl wins; 22 weeks ranked in the nation’s top 25; at least one win over every other SEC West team; three straight top-15 ranked recruiting classes; three straight Vaught-Hemingway Stadium season ticket sellouts and season attendance records; 77 graduated players.

The foundation that was laid in 2012 and 2013 led the way for a memorable campaign last year. Ole Miss played in the very first of the inaugural New Year’s Six bowl games - the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl vs. TCU. The Rebels got there on the strength of the nation’s No. 1 scoring defense (16.0 ppg allowed) and wins over four 10-win teams (Alabama, Boise State, Memphis, Mississippi State) and three conference champions (Alabama, Boise State, Memphis). Freeze led Ole Miss to its most regular-season wins over ranked teams since 1969 and its highest national ranking (No. 3) since 1964.

A 2014 finalist for the Bear Bryant Award and Dodd Trophy, Freeze seems to get the most out of his players every game by emphasizing the importance of playing for the love of teammates instead of self. His leadership has also seen a rise in the team’s grade point average and involvement in service opportunities both locally and abroad, such as spring break mission trips to Panama and Haiti.

The Rebels’ 8-5 record after defeating Georgia Tech 25-17 in the 2013 Music City Bowl gave Ole Miss consecutive winning campaigns for the first time since the 2008-09 seasons. For his efforts, Freeze was named the 2013 FCA Grant Teaff Coach of the Year.

A month after the Rebels capped off a 7-6 season in 2012 with a 38-17 win over Pittsburgh in the BBVA Compass Bowl, Ole Miss was the talk of National Signing Day when Freeze and Co. landed a consensus top-10 class that was ranked as high as No. 2 by 247Sports and No. 5 by ESPN - the highest recorded signing class rankings in school history.

Freeze, a noted speaker and recruiter throughout his career, has enjoyed success at nearly every coaching level over the past 20 years, from high school to NAIA to FBS, and each stop has featured a high-scoring offense and the ability to motivate young people. Before returning to Oxford, the former Ole Miss assistant experienced a record-setting run at Arkansas State.

With Freeze as head coach in 2011, the Red Wolves captured the Sun Belt Conference championship and became just the third school in Sun Belt history to finish undefeated in league play with a perfect 8-0 mark. In the best debut season ever by an A-State head coach, Freeze became just the 14th FBS first-year head coach to win 10 regular season games. The Sun Belt Coach of the Year also returned ASU to a bowl game for the first time since 2005. Prior to his arrival at Arkansas State, Freeze compiled a 20-5 record over the 2008 and 2009 seasons at the helm of the Lambuth University football program.

LAST MEETING: #3 AUBURN 35, #4 OLE MISS 31

Game #9 • Nov. 1, 2014
Attendance: 62,090 • Vaught-Hemingway Stadium • Oxford, Miss.

OXFORD, Miss. - The No. 4 Ole Miss football team played a hard-fought game against No. 3 Auburn on Saturday at Vaught-Hemingway Stadium, but two fumbles on the Auburn 1-yard line in the fourth quarter proved to be too costly to overcome and the Rebels lost 35-31.

Trailing by four with less than two minutes to play, sophomore wide receiver Laquon Treadwell caught a pass down the middle and broke for the end zone. Dragging a defender, Treadwell fought his way toward the goal line, but had his ankle rolled over and fumbled into the end zone, and the Tigers (7-1, 4-1 Southeastern Conference) recovered the ball. The play left the crowd of 62,090 in stone silence and the Rebels' hopes of victory shaken.

Ole Miss got the ball back with 35 seconds remaining, but couldn't advance the ball in the waning seconds.

Treadwell, a preseason first team All-SEC selection, finished the night with a career-high 10 receptions for 103 yards and one touchdown. The complete extent of his injury was not known immediately following the game, but Freeze did say it was definitely a fracture.

Though marred by 19 penalties, the game was highly entertaining as the two sides traded leads throughout the second half.

Ole Miss (7-2, 4-2 SEC) senior quarterback Bo Wallace completed 28-of-40 passes for 341 yards and two touchdowns, and ran for another 56 yards and one touchdown on 14 rushes. In total, the Rebels accumulated 492 yards, while the Tigers had 507 — the most by an Ole Miss opponent all season.

In addition to Treadwell's 103 yards receiving, sophomore tight end Evan Engram (123 yards, one touchdown) and senior Vince Sanders (105 yards) also topped the century mark. It is the first time Ole Miss has had three receivers top 100 yards in the same game in the Freeze era.

The two teams exchanged leads three times during the second half, but a 6-yard run by Cameron Artis-Payne with 10:23 to go in the game proved to be the game-winner.

LAST GAME: #23 OLE MISS 23, #15 TEXAS A&M 3

Game #8 • Oct. 24, 2015
Attendance: 60,674 • Vaught-Hemingway Stadium • Oxford, Miss.

OXFORD, Miss. -- The swarming Rebel 'D' limited Texas A&M to just 192 yards of total offense and three points, as No. 23 Ole Miss knocked off the No. 15-ranked Aggies 23-3 in front of a sellout crowd of 60,674 at Vaught-Hemingway Stadium.

Ole Miss harassed Aggie quarterback Kyle Allen all night, holding him to 12-of-34 passing for just 88 yards and one pick. Allen missed on 14-straight passes over the second and third quarters, and was sacked one time. Texas A&M was just 6-of-20 on third down and rushed 27 times for only 58 yards.

Ole Miss got on the scoreboard in the first quarter after Kelly capped a 79-yard scoring drive with a 7-yard touchdown pass to tight end Evan Engram that put the Rebels up 7-0 with 2:33 to go in the opening frame. Engram posted four receptions for 35 yards and a score and passed Jim Poole for the most career receiving yards by a tight end in school history with 1,126 yards.

Sophomore Gary Wunderlich added a 41-yard field goal minutes into the second quarter that put Ole Miss up 10-0. On the ensuing Texas A&M possession, senior C.J. Johnson forced an Aggie fumble and recovered it at the Texas A&M 33-yard line and Wunderlich added another field goal, this time from 30 yards out, to give the Rebels a 13-0 lead midway through second quarter.

Ole Miss looked to gain control of the game in the second quarter after Kelly found Quincy Adebayo wide open over the middle for a 47-yard TD strike, but the play was called back due to a chop block. Aggie defensive end Miles Garrett then batted Kelly's next pass up in the air and intercepted it to set A&M up at the Ole Miss 33. The Rebel defense stiffened and held Texas A&M to a 44-yard field goal that pulled the Aggies within 13-3 with 2:27 left in the half.

After turnovers on three straight plays with under two minutes to go in the half — an A&M muffed punt, an Ole Miss fumble and an A&M interception — Wunderlich kicked his third field goal of the half from 20 yards out to give the Rebels a 16-3 halftime lead.

The Rebels put the Aggies away early in the third frame when Kelly hit Laquon Treadwell for a 58-yard touchdown bomb that put Ole Miss up 23-3 with 9:16 left in the quarter. Treadwell finished the game with five catches for 102 yards and a touchdown, his seventh career 100-yard receiving game.
