GEORGIA SOUTHERN (0-0, 0-0 SUN BELT)

EAGLES

RECENTLY AGAINST THE POWER 5

- The Eagles have fared pretty well against Power 5 teams of late, even pulling off a shocker at Florida to end the 2013 season when still a member of the FCS.
- Four of the Eagles' last seven games against Power 5 schools have been decided by six points or less: a six-point win at Florida (2013), a one-point loss at NCSU (2014), a four-point loss at GT (2014), and a six-point loss in overtime at Georgia (2015).
- Last season, the Eagles dropped an 11-point game at Georgia Tech and led Ole Miss 14-3 before eventually falling by 10 in Oxford.
- Since 2013, GS has played six games against either SEC or ACC teams and has an average point differential of just -4.3 points per game with no loss by more than 11 points.

AGAINST RANKED TEAMS

- The Eagles have played eight games against ranked FBS opponents since 1984 but this will be the first ranked opponent GS will take on as a member of the FBS, which it joined in 2014.
- All eight times the Eagles took on a ranked FBS opponent, the team was ranked in the top 10 of the AP poll.

Year	Opponent	Result	Year	Opponent	Result
1993	at #4 Miami	L, 7-30	2008	at #1 Georgia	L, 21-45
1994	at #3 Miami	L, 0-56	2010	at #10 Georgia	L, 7-29
1996	at #4 Florida	L, 14-62	2011	at #3 Alabama	L, 21-45
2004	at #4 Georgia	L, 29-48	2012	at #5 Georgia	L, 14-45

THE SERIES

- Georgia Southern and Auburn have met just one previous time on the gridiron with the Tigers winning that game 32-17 to open the 1991 season.
- Georgia Southern, then the two-time defending NCAA I-AA National Champions and ranked No. 1 in the country, raced out to a 17-0 lead and led 17-3 at the break. But Auburn's Stan White threw for 236 yards and two touchdowns as the Tigers scored 32 unanswered points.
- That game was played in front of 79,124 fans, still the 10th-largest crowd GS has ever played in front of.

LARGE CROWDS NOTHING NEW FOR GS

- Georgia Southern has played in front of plenty of large crowds as it will on Saturday. The 10 largest crowds the Eagles have ever played in front of were all at SEC venues.

HEAD COACH TYSON SUMMERS

• Tyson Summers is in his second season as the head coach of the Georgia Southern Eagles.

• In his first season as the head coach of the Eagles, GS had seven players named all-conference. Younghoe Koo was named a third-team All-American and the kicker was also named a finalist for the Lou Groza Award.

• A native of Tifton, Georgia, Summers returned home in 2016 from Colorado State, where he served as the Rams' defensive coordinator and safeties coach in 2015. Under his tutelage, the Rams defense ranked 20th in the country in passing defense.

• Prior to his work at CSU, he spent three seasons at UCF, where he served as defensive coordinator in 2014 for a unit that ranked among the best in the nation.

• In his first full season as a defensive coordinator in 2014, Summers guided the top defense in the American Athletic Conference, and one that ranked in the top 10 among FBS schools in total defense (5th, 298.5 ypg), rushing defense (6th, 104.3 ypg), scoring defense (9th, 19.2 ppg) and red zone defense (6th, 71.4%). Summers' defense helped UCF to a 9-4 record, a second consecutive American Athletic Conference title and a berth in the Bitcoin St. Petersburg Bowl.

• Summers was hired at UCF as a defensive assistant coach in 2012, and earned the title of linebackers coach one month later. For the 2014 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl and that spring season, he was named interim defensive coordinator before being promoted to full-time defensive coordinator in April when spring camp concluded.

• He helped call the plays in UCF's upset victory over high-powered Baylor in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl, capping an unforgettable season for the Knights. The win enabled UCF to set a school record with 12 victories overall and achieve a program-high by being ranked No. 10 in the final AP Top 25 Poll.

• In 2012, Summers tutored a group that led UCF to a Conference USA East Division crown, a Beef 'O' Brady's Bowl win and a 10-4 record.

• Summers' tenure at UCF came after a five-year stint at UAB that began in December 2006. He served as the Blazers' linebackers coach and added the roles of safeties coach and co-special teams coordinator in the final season.

• He coached the safeties at GS in 2006 a year after serving as a graduate assistant for Georgia in 2005. That season, the Bulldogs won the SEC title and earned a berth in the Sugar Bowl.

• During the 2004 season, Summers was a G.A. at Troy, which reached the postseason and the Silicon Valley Classic, and in 2003, he helped guide the defensive backs at Presbyterian College. Summers earned his first coaching position at Tift County (Ga.) High where coached the defensive backs in 2002.

• A four-year letterwinner at Presbyterian College, Summers earned preseason All-South Atlantic honors as a linebacker in 1999 and was selected as team captain as a senior. He received his bachelor's degree in political science from PC in 2002.

• Summers is married to the former Beth King, and the couple has three sons, Jake, Walker and Anderson.

WE ARE GEORGIA SOUTHERN

With no disrespect to our colleagues in Atlanta, we are Georgia Southern, not Georgia State. We don't ask for much; heck we think we're pretty easy to deal with. All we really ask is for media covering the Eagles to get our name right. You can call us Georgia Southern, GS or the Eagles, just please don't call us Georgia State!
 - Sincerely, Eagle Nation

GS AT A GLANCE

GETTIN' IT DONE IN THE CLASSROOM

• Of the eight seniors on the 2017 roster, three Eagles are playing the season as college graduates. They are, in alphabetical order: Myles Campbell, Matt Flynn and George Johnson Jr.

• Three more seniors - DeMarcus Godfrey, L.A. Ramsby and Shelby Townsend Jr. - are scheduled to graduate in December and Chris DeLaRosa, Darrius Sapp and Chris Washington are on track to graduate in May 2018.

• In addition, junior RJ Murray is scheduled to graduate in December and juniors Tommy Boynton and Ellis Richardson are slated to graduate in May 2018.

YOUTH IS SERVED

• When the Eagles take the field of the opener against Auburn, they'll be one of the youngest teams in the country with just eight seniors on the roster. The eight seniors (graduates and sixth years included) are the fewest of any FBS per a search of all 130 FBS school's official website.

Georgia Southern	8
Illinois	9
Wake Forest	9
Louisiana-Monroe	10
Wyoming	10

INEXPERIENCED BEHIND CENTER

• While they'll be young at several positions, the inexperience at quarterback is a glaring example of the youth on the Eagles' team. With five signal callers on the roster, junior transfer LaBaron Anthony is the most experienced with two FBS games under his belt. Starter Shai Werts redshirted last season and newcomers Kado Brown, Jaalon Frazier and Ryan Fitzpatrick have yet to see the field in an FBS game.

• In the FBS, only fellow Sun Belt team Texas State has less experience at QB with no appearances or starts on its roster. Seven other FBS schools enter the season with zero FBS starts at the QB position on their roster: Texas State, UAB, Tulsa, Old Dominion, Iowa, Temple and Louisiana.

HISTORY IN THE MAKING

• If redshirt freshman Shai Werts ends up as the Eagles' starting quarterback on Saturday, he'll make history as the third Georgia Southern freshman (true or redshirt) quarterback to start the opening game of the season. Several freshmen have started games at quarterback since the resumption of NCAA football in 1983, but Werts will be the first frosh QB to start the first game of the season behind center since Charles Bostick took the first snap in the 1991 opener (also against Auburn). The only other freshman QB to start the opening game of the season was Hall of Famer Tracy Ham, who started against Central Florida in the 1983 lid-lifter.

• Freshmen to lead the team in passing their first campaign include Tracy Ham (1983; 886 yards), Raymond Gross (1987; 481 yards), Kenny Robinson (1994; 706 yards), and Kevin Ellison (2013; 756 yards), but none of them started the first game of their freshman season at quarterback like Werts is expected to.

HAVE A FIELD(S) DAY

• Junior running back Wesley Fields has been described as a hybrid between former Eagle Matt Breida, who is in camp with the San Francisco 49ers, and senior back L.A. Ramsby. The three of them combined for 4,591 yards and 51 touchdowns in a dynamic backfield the past two seasons, helping the GS rushing attack lead the FBS in 2015. Now with Breida in the NFL, it's Fields' and Ramsby's time to shine.

• A threat to go the distance, on the goal line and in the passing game, Fields had a standout freshman campaign for the Eagles. The Americus, Georgia, native rushed for 682 yards and seven touchdowns on 101 attempts, averaging 6.8 yards per carry. He also had four receptions for 105 yards and one touchdown, including a 60-yard scoring reception against New Mexico State.

• For his efforts, he was named to the All-Sun Belt Newcomer Team and was named the Offensive MVP of the GoDaddy Bowl after rushing for 75 yards and a touchdown while also catching a 17-yard pass in the Eagles' 58-27 win over Bowling Green.

• He has 1,174 rushing yards and 10 touchdowns for his career to go along with 15 catches for 282 yards and four scores.

HOME-GROWN TALENT

• There are 79 players on the Georgia Southern roster who are from the state of Georgia.

WELCOME BACK

• Georgia Southern's offensive line took an unexpected hit in 2016 when Tommy Boynton had to take the season off due a series of concussions he sustained in the spring of 2016. Boynton started all 13 games at right tackle as a true sophomore in 2015 and was expected to lead the line last year.

• With his grandfather suffering from C.T.E., the Jacksonville native contemplated taking a medical disqualification, thus ending his college career. Instead, he ended up using the year as a redshirt season and after improving over the course of the 2016 campaign and regaining his passion for the sport, he decided to return for spring practice and now anchors a young line in 2017.

• He has played in 20 games - starting 13 - and the two years he was on the field, the Eagles led the FBS in rushing yards per game both of those seasons.

I LOVE L.A.

• While a lot of the attention was thrust on Matt Breida and his numbers the past three seasons, L.A. Ramsby was one of the quiet stars of the GS ground game.

• Originally recruited as an option quarterback, the redshirt senior was moved to running back and ran for 691 yards and 12 touchdowns in 2014 as the Eagles led the FBS with an average of 381.1 rushing yards per game.

• His legal name is Alfred Ramsby Jr., but is nicknamed L.A. - for Little Al (his father is Alfred Ramsby Sr.).

• The Cincinnati native scored at least one touchdown in the final 10 games of the 2014 season, and scored a touchdown in the final nine games of 2015. Ramsby has rushed for 1,817 career yards and scored 33 touchdowns thus far, including a team-high eight last year.

OVERCOMING ADVERSITY

• Adversity is a word Todd Bradley doesn't want to hear as he's been through enough over the past 24 months. As a senior in high school, he was diagnosed with Dermatofibrosarcoma Protuberans (DFSP) in his right shoulder. He was going in to have some scar tissue removed when the doctors diagnosed him.

• DFSP is a rare type of cancer, a soft tissue sarcoma that develops in the deep layers of skin cancer. He had several surgeries to remove the mass and then had a skin graft in which they took skin from his groin and placed it on his shoulder.

• The cancer caused him to miss most of his final season, but he was cleared on a Thursday and played the next night, returning for the final five games of his season. He signed with Georgia Southern in February 2016.

• Last year, Bradley was contributing as a true freshman at both linebacker and special teams before suffering a torn ACL in pre-game warmups at Arkansas State. The week before, he posted seven tackles at Western Michigan and was on his way to a big year before the injury.

• After rehabbing all spring, the sophomore is back full speed for the Eagles.

MAKING AN IMPACT

• Campbell, from Duluth, Georgia, is active in the Statesboro community, participating in several reading events at local schools and went to Nicaragua this past spring break as part of Athletes in Action's clean water initiative project. He has been named to the Sun Belt Conference's All-Academic Team every year and graduated in May with a degree in finance.

• The diminutive Campbell - listed at 5-6 - has 514 career receiving yards and four touchdowns and is expected to be the team's starting slot receiver, as well as return specialist on punt and kickoff returns.

WHY ARE THERE SO MANY PLAYERS?

• Freshman long snapper Ryan Langan has never played football when there are 22 players on the field as he played six-man football at Riverside High in Nebraska.

• Langan led the Chargers to three state championships as a long snapper and center, going 32-1 over that three-year stretch.

• He was named first-team all-state at center and second team in the Grand Island Independent as a senior and joined the Eagles as an invited walk-on this fall.

• Six-man is a fast-moving game played on an 80-yard long by 40-yard wide and specifies a 15-yard distance to gain a first down. All six players are eligible to be receivers, including all three required linemen.

• The sport is played by high schools in Texas, Alabama, Florida, Colorado, Idaho, Montana, Nebraska, New Mexico, North Dakota, Kansas and Wyoming, and in parts of Canada as an alternative means for small high schools.

"HOLDING" IT DOWN

• Senior Matt Flynn "holds" down the punting duties for the Eagles, but his performance as the holder the past two seasons has earned him some national accolades as he is a two-time nominee for the Mortell Holder of the Year Award.

• The award was created in 2015 by its first recipient, Peter Mortell. The committee will select the winner using several main criteria including: quality of cadence, fluidity of hands (catch to hold), position of the laces, and post-hold celebrations. In addition, all successful fake field goal attempts are considered.

• During his career at Minnesota, Mortell handled all punting and holding duties over three seasons. Last year's winner was Garrett Moores of Michigan, who is back and looking to repeat as the winner of this prestigious award.

• Flynn was the main holder for Younghoe Koo last season, who missed just one field goal all season en route to being named a finalist for the Lou Groza Award and is now in camp with the Los Angeles Chargers.

QUITE THE ROUNDABOUT JOURNEY

• Junior Ellis Richardson has taken quite the route to get from his home town of Atlanta to Statesboro. Upon graduating from Douglas County High in 2013, where he was a first-team all-region and all-county selection at quarterback, he enrolled at prep school in Virginia. He then transferred to Los Angeles Valley College in the fall of 2014 as a true freshman and then transferred to at Alabama State in the spring of 2015.

• Richardson played in nine games in 2016 at Alabama State, throwing for 739 yards and six touchdowns while rushing for 550 yards and eight scores. After transferring to Georgia Southern last year, he had to sit out per NCAA transfer rules and used it as a redshirt season. In the spring, he was moved to H-Back, which is a hybrid tight end spot in the new GS offense and is one of two main H-Backs expected to see action this season for the Eagles.

- Richardson's father, Chuck, played linebacker at Clemson on the 1981 national championship team and his brother, Chris, played defensive end for Clemson's football team from 2007-2010.

TRENDSETTER IN THE TRAINING ROOM

- Georgia Southern's Brandy Clouse is in elite company as one of nine head athletic trainers for FBS teams who are female. She's also one of just five females nationwide to be the head of the sports medicine department and oversee football.

- Clouse, the Senior Associate AD for Sports Medicine, earned her Bachelor of Science degree in kinesiology/athletic training from Georgia Southern in December 2000. She was elevated to the role of Senior Woman's Administrator (SWA) in 2016, as well.

BREAKING DOWN BARRIERS

- Football operations is a critical position within a staff, a catch-all post that serves as the head coach's right-hand man, or in this case, woman. Cymone George, who handles the role as the Director of Football Operations for the Eagles, is responsible for taking care of all the travel arrangements, meals for the players and staff, and all the day-to-day operations of the football team.

- George is one of just a handful of women to hold the position of director of football operations at an FBS school (130 schools), joining the likes of Danielle Bartelstein (Virginia Tech), Amanda Gilpin (UTSA), Deborah Goldstein (Washington) and Heather Henderson (Florida Atlantic).

RETIRED NUMBERS

- GS has retired two numbers in its football history, No. 3 for Adrian Peterson and No. 8 for Tracy Ham. Both are College Football Hall of Famers and both went to the same high school: Santa Fe in Alachua, Florida.

RUSHING = OUTCOME?

GEORGIA SOUTHERN FOOTBALL TRADITIONS

• Georgia Southern has a rich tradition in the college football world, winning six Division I-AA national titles, but also has traditions that make the program unique.

Yellow School Buses

• When the football program was resurrected in 1981, the team needed a way to travel to practices and games. Operating on a shoestring budget didn't allow for transportation back then, let alone any luxurious travel.

The Bulloch County Board of Education stepped in with a deal the University couldn't refuse: GS would only pay $1 each for two yellow school buses. The football team still uses the buses to this day, taking them to practices and using them on game day, as well.

Beautiful Eagle Creek

• When Georgia Southern resurrected the football program in 1981, traditions and spirit needed resurrection as well. So legendary head football coach Erk Russell created his own. Inspired by the gnat-infested drainage ditch that cut across the field between what was then the team's locker room and practice fields, Russell convinced his players that its stagnant water was actually "Beautiful Eagle Creek," a source of "magical" waters.

Freedom's Flight

• In what has become one of the most popular traditions at GS, "Freedom," a male American Bald Eagle, takes flight before each home football game. Freedom is a Southern Bald Eagle that was found knocked out of the nest in Maitland, Florida. Only weeks old and appearing like a "brown ball of fuzz", it was discovered that the young eagle had an injury to its beak and suffered from an infection. Rushed to the Florida Audubon Center for Birds of Prey, Freedom made a complete recovery from the infection but the injury to the beak was permanent, preventing his release into the wild.

• With the permission of the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, GS acquired Freedom in 2004. Through the Georgia Southern University Center for Wildlife Education and Lamar Q. Ball Jr. Raptor Center, thousands of visitors young and old are embraced by the Power of Freedom.

• Under the supervision of Steve Hein, Director of the Center for Wildlife Education, Freedom is on the sidelines of all GS home games, and select road games.

Block Party

• Last season, Georgia Southern blocked seven kicks in Tyson Summers' first season at the helm of the Eagles. That total was the second-highest in the FBS and tied for the third-most in school history.

All-time Blocks In A Season (GS)

- 2003 - 9
- 2000 - 8
- 1998 - 7
- 2008 - 7
- 2016 - 7

Hiring Successful Coaches

• Since Paul Johnson left Georgia Southern in 2001, the Eagles have had seven head coaches, including head man Tyson Summers. GS has produced some of the brightest names in coaching, including three FBS head coaches:

- Paul Johnson (HC at GS '97-'01; HC at Georgia Tech)
- Mike Sewak (HC at GS '02-'05; OL at Georgia Tech)
- Brian VanGorder (HC at GS '06; former DC at Notre Dame)
- Chris Hatcher (HC at GS '07-'09; HC at Samford)
- Jeff Monken (HC at GS '10-'13; HC at Army)
- Willie Fritz (HC at GS '14-15; HC at Tulane)

THE GAME ON RADIO

• All Georgia Southern football games can be heard throughout Georgia on the Georgia Southern Sports Network through Learfield. Danny Reed (play-by-play), Terry Harvin (analyst) and Russ Brown (sidelines) comprise Georgia Southern football's on-air broadcast crew.

• Georgia Southern games are broadcast on 24 affiliates across the state and can also be heard free of charge on the Internet through GS All-Access. Coverage for all GS football games begins two hours before kickoff with the Citizen Bank Countdown to Kickoff Show.

RETURNING TO THE PLAINS

• Georgia Southern assistant head coach Chad Lunsford spent four years in an administrative position with the Auburn football program, helping the Tigers win a BCS National Championship in 2010. Director of Football Administration Steve Dennis is a former Auburn associate director of athletics.

FREEDOM VS. SPIRIT

• It'll be a battle of the eagles on Saturday as both Auburn's Spirit and Georgia Southern's Freedom will be in the stadium.

• Spirit is the only Bald Eagle that has ever flown in Jordan-Hare Stadium. His first game flight was in 2001. In 1995, Spirit was discovered as an injured fledgling in Florida. He came to Auburn in 1998 and joined the educational collection at the Raptor Center.

• Freedom is a Southern Bald Eagle that was found knocked out of the nest in Maitland, Florida. With the permission of the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, GS acquired Freedom in 2004 and he resides in the University Center for Wildlife Education and Lamar Q. Ball Jr. Raptor Center.

• Both birds have permanently injured beaks, thus preventing their release into the wild.
