

BAYLOR UNIVERSITY
ATHLETIC PERFORMANCE
CLINIC
SATURDAY, JUNE 7TH

Head Football Coach Art Briles and the Baylor University Department of Athletic Performance would like to invite you to the inaugural Strength & Conditioning Clinic. The clinic will feature two of the most notable names in Strength & Conditioning, Kent Johnston and Lance Walker. The clinic is open to all coaches that complete and submit the attendance application. We look forward to having you come visit our facilities and meet the Baylor University Athletic Performance staff!

Kent Johnston

Kent Johnston has 25 years of experience as a Strength & Conditioning coach. He spent 17 years working as a Strength & Conditioning coach in the NFL. He was voted "Strength & Conditioning Coach of the Year" by the Professional Football Strength & Conditioning Coaches Society in 1997. Kent was the Strength & Conditioning coach at the University of Alabama before opening Young Champions in Waco, TX.

Lance Walker

Lance Walker spent time as a Strength & Conditioning coach for the Dallas Cowboys and with the University of Oklahoma. He was the Director of Performance Training at Integrated Athletic Performance where he helped train and developed rehabilitation programs for professional athletes from various sports. Lance is currently the Director of Performance for the Michael Johnson Performance Center in McKinney, TX.
