

MEALS AND MEAL MONEY— FLOW CHART

Is this a game day?

Yes, it is a game day.

HOME Games

For a home game during a Vacation day when the dining halls are closed: You can use either the regular home game rule or this second option.

Home Game rule during the academic year or during a vacation day when the dining halls are open.

All student-athletes can receive three meals a day provided by Baylor or they may receive per diem instead of the meals. The daily per diem rate per the Business Office is $35 (The current per diem rate is $8 for breakfast; $10 for lunch; and $17 for dinner.)

Additional Meal:

► Since this is a vacation period, student-athletes can receive a 4th meal but it has to be an actual meal. No per diem for the 4th meal.

No post-game meal money can be given using this option.

NCAA 16.5.2 (e)(1)

Meals can be provided at Baylor's discretion (starting the evening before the competition).

NO PER DIEM!

Meal money cannot be issue in place of a meal for a home game during the academic year.

Post Game Meal:

Either a post-game meal or $15 may be provided after a home game.

NCAA 16.5.2(d)(2)

AWAY Games

Pick one of these two options for the road trip. The option you pick is applied to the entire road trip.

Away Game Option (Per Diem)

► All student-athletes can receive three meals a day provided by Baylor or they may receive per diem instead of the meals. The daily per diem rate per the Business Office is $35 (The current per diem rate is $8 for breakfast; $10 for lunch; and $17 for dinner.)

Pre-Game or Post-Game Meal:

► Additionally, Baylor could provide either a pregame or a post-game meal. Keep in mind that $15 instead of a post-game meal can be given.

NCAA 16.8.1.2.3
NCAA 16.5.2.(d)(3)(i)

Away Game Option (No Per Diem)

► All student-athletes can receive meals provided at Baylor's discretion from the time they report for travel until they arrive back in Waco and released.

No Meal Money:

► No per diem can be given under this option.

► No $15 in post-game meal money may be given under this option.

NCAA 16.5.2 (d)(3)(ii)

Is it the night before a home game?

Meals can be issued at Baylor's discretion starting the evening before a home game

(No meal money!)

NCAA 16.5.2(d)(2)

Is it a travel day for an away game?

Meals or meal money can be issued once student-athletes report for travel for an away game.

NCAA 16.5.2(d)(3)

No, it is not a game day.

Is it an official vacation period day in which:

- (1) Student-athletes are required to practice?
- (2) The dining halls are closed?

If yes to both, then all student-athletes who are required to be present for practice or competition can receive three meals a day provided by Baylor or they may receive per diem instead of the meals. The daily per diem rate per the Business Office is $35 (The current per diem rate is $8 for breakfast; $10 for lunch; and $17 for dinner.)

Additional Meal:

► An additional meal (not money) can be provided during each day they are required to stay on campus.

NCAA 16.5.2(e)(1)

If the situation meets none of these exceptions, can meals or meal money be provided?

No meals or meal money can be provided to the team.

SNACK MONEY???

Question: Can we give snacks or snack money out?

Answer: No snack money can ever be given out. The only permissible snacks are fruits, nuts, and bagels. Anything else counts as a meal. NCAA 16.5.2 (b)
