Regional Previews

Women's Preview:

The Arkansas Lady Razorbacks took the 2001 South Central Regional title, and they are the favorite entering the race on Saturday. The Ladybacks, who have taken 10 of the last 12 regional titles, are ranked 10th in the nation in the latest Finishlynx women's cross country rankings. Their last time out, the Arkansas women dominated at the SEC Championships, accumulating 39 points to run away with the title. All eight of the Ladyback competitors finished among the top 20. Christin Wurth and Londa Bevins were the first two finishers in the 6,000-meter race. Adreina Byrd, the 2001 South Central Regional champion, took 11th at the SEC meet.

Texas also has high expectations entering the race. The Longhorns, who took second to the Ladybacks last season, are currently ranked 29th. Led by Talis Apud-Martinez (6th), Texas finished third at the Big 12 Championships, behind third-ranked Colorado and Missouri.

Texas A&M and Baylor were on the heels of the Longhorns at the conference meet, finishing fourth and fifth, respectively. Each team placed an individual among the top 10 in that race as Baylor's Debbie Thornhill took fourth and Melissa Gulli of A&M finished sixth. Both squads are looking for strong performances to guarantee a trip to Terre Haute, Ind. for the NCAA Championships.

The competition in the region is as strong as ever, and several other teams will be striving for an automatic NCAA berth. The Rice women took the top spot at the WAC Championships a few weeks ago, and they enter the race with a regional ranking of fifth. Texas A&M-Corpus Christi, Arkansas-Little Rock, Houston, SMU and Stephen F. Austin are also ranked among the top 10 teams in the region.

The individual race is up for grabs as several women are coming off strong performances at their conference meets.

Men's Preview:

The Arkansas men have dominated the South Central Regional. They are looking for their 14th-consecutive regional crown on Saturday. Ranked second only to Stanford in the latest MONDO men's cross country poll, the Razorbacks are favored to repeat as champions. With four of the first six finishers, Arkansas easily took the SEC Championship earlier this month.

The SMU men are receiving votes in the national poll, and the Mustangs are a step ahead of Texas in the South Central Regional rankings. With all five scoring runners finishing ninth or better, the Mustangs took the WAC title with just 30 points.

Big 12 squads Texas, Texas A&M and Baylor occupy the third thru fifth spots in the regional rankings. The Longhorns and Aggies took second and third at the Big 12 meet, while the Bears came in sixth. All three squads look to push themselves into one of the top two spots to automatically qualify for the NCAA Championships.

The race should be close as Stephen F. Austin and Arkansas-Little Rock, ranked sixth and seventh in the region, are coming off strong performances that led to conference titles. The Lumberjacks raced to the Southland title while the Trojans accumulated only 21 points in taking the Sunbelt crown.

Sam Houston State, Houston and Texas A&M-Corpus Christi have also earned rankings within the region.

Several men have the potential to take the individual title. The race is full of experienced performers and talented newcomers who shined under pressure at their conference meets.
