PRESEASON NOTEBOOK

BAYLOR AMONG NATION’S ELITE
Baylor is coming off a school-record 30 wins and its second Elite Eight Appearance in the last three seasons. The Bears are one of only six programs nationally (Butler, Kansas, Kentucky, Florida, North Carolina) to have played in two Elite Eights since 2010, and both times the Bears were eliminated by the eventual national champions.

BEARS RETURN ENTIRE BACKCOURT, ADD DEPTH
Baylor returns all five members of its 2011-12 backcourt, including senior All-America candidate Pierre Jackson. The Bears also welcome back sharpshooting junior Brady Heslip, who started 37 games last season, as well as senior point guard A.J. Walton, who has 52 career starts in his first three seasons at Baylor. Junior Gary Franklin returns after playing in 27 games off the bench in his first season on campus, and sophomore Deuce Bello returns with 30 games of experience.

The Bears welcome added depth to the backcourt with the addition of freshman L.J. Rose. Rose was a consensus top-75 national recruit who hails from Houston, Texas.

BIG SHOES TO FILL IN FRONTCOURT
While the Bears have a wealth of backcourt experience returning, there will be new faces seeing plenty of playing time in the frontcourt. Baylor lost five forwards, including a program-record three NBA Draft selections. Perry Jones III, Quincy Acy and Quincy Miller were all chosen in June’s draft, and the Bears lost Anthony Jones and Fred Ellis to graduation. Those five players combined to make 114 starts and play 3,700 minutes a season ago.

Fourth-year junior Cory Jefferson and fifth-year senior J’Mison Morgan are the Bears’ only returning frontcourt players with significant experience. Jefferson has played in 55 games and made one career start, while Morgan, who sat out last season as a redshirt, played all 31 games and made 14 starts as a junior in 2010-11.

Freshmen in the mix for playing time include Isaiah Austin, Rico Gather, Taurean Prince and Chad Rykhoek. Also returning are senior Jacob Neubert and sophomore Logan Lowery, who redshirted last season after transferring from Centenary.

Austin was a consensus top-5 national recruit from Arlington, while Gather was a top-50 recruit and Rykhoek was ranked in the Rivals150. Prince was a late addition to the signing class who was ranked as the No. 7 recruit in Texas by TexasHoops.com.

POSTSEASON SUCCESS
Baylor’s 10-3 postseason record over the past four seasons is the Big 12 Conference’s best mark. The Bears’ 10 postseason wins are one behind league-leader Kansas (11-4). Baylor went 4-1 and advanced to the NIT Championship game in 2009, and the Bears went 3-1 on their way to the NCAA Tournament South Regional Final in both 2010 and 2012.

PROGRAM-RECORD THREE PLAYERS DRAFTED
A program-record three Baylor players were selected in the 2012 NBA Draft. That total tied for third-most nationally behind only Kentucky and North Carolina. Perry Jones III (28th pick; Oklahoma City Thunder), Quincy Acy (37th pick; Toronto Raptors) and Quincy Miller (38th pick; Denver Nuggets) were all selected.

Preseason Notes

Preseason Notebook

Bears Coming Off School-record 30-win Season

Baylor is coming off a school-record 30 wins in 2011-12, marking the second time in the last three seasons Scott Drew’s team has broken Baylor’s single-season wins record. The Bears won a then-school-record 28 games on their way to the NCAA Tournament Elite Eight in 2009-10.

Baylor’s 2011-12 squad also established a school record with 12 Big 12 Conference wins, and it advanced to the Big 12 Championship title game for the second time in school history. Drew became the first coach in program history to lead the Bears to four postseason appearances (2008, 2010, 2012 NCAA Tournaments, 2009 NIT).

Another Nationally-Ranked Signing Class

Baylor’s five-player 2012 signing class is ranked among the nation’s top-5 by numerous publications. The class of Isaiah Austin, Rico Gathers, L.J. Rose, Chad Rykhoek and Taurean Prince is ranked No. 4 by Scout.com, No. 5 by both ESPN and MaxPreps.com and No. 6 by Rivals.com.

Drew’s last four recruiting classes have all been ranked in ESPN’s top 25 nationally. The 2009 class was ranked 21st, 2010 was picked 22nd, 2011 was tabbed 18th, and 2012 set a program-best as the nation’s No. 5 ranked recruiting class.

Top-50 Recruits Heading To Waco

Austin is ranked No. 3 by both ESPN and Scout.com, No. 4 by Rivals.com, and No. 5 by both 247Sports.com and MaxPreps.com. Gathers is ranked No. 34 by Scout.com, No. 36 by ESPN, No. 57 by Rivals.com, No. 41 by 247Sports.com and No. 42 by MaxPreps.com. Additionally, 2012 signee L.J. Rose is ranked as high as No. 61 nationally (Scout.com).

Three ESPN Big Monday Appearances

Baylor will be featured three times on the ESPN Big Monday platform for the 2012-13 season. The Bears will play multiple Big Monday games for the fourth time in the last five seasons, and this marks the first time the Bears have three Big Monday games scheduled.

Baylor’s first Big Monday game is at Kansas on Jan. 14. The Bears then return home to host Oklahoma State on Jan. 21 in the front end of an MLK Day doubleheader, marking the fourth time ESPN Big Monday has been at the Ferrell Center.

Baylor’s third Big Monday game is March 4 at Texas.

Baylor is 2-5 all-time in ESPN Big Monday contests. Four of those contests have come against the Jayhawks; Baylor and Texas will be playing on Big Monday for the third time.

Acy Heads To NBA With Degree

Quincy Acy received his bachelor’s degree from Baylor in May, completing his undergraduate studies one month before being selected by the Toronto Raptors in the 2012 NBA Draft. Acy became the 22nd (current of former) player to graduate from Baylor in the Scott Drew era, joining: Matt Sayman (2004); Robbie McKenzie (2004); Ryan Pryor (2005); Tommy Swanson (2006); Kevin Shipman (2008); Tim Bush (2007); Patrick Fields (2007); Richard Hurd (2008); Mark Shepherd (2008); Mamadou Diene (2008); Kevin Rogers (2009); Curtis Jerrells (2009); Henry Duget (2009); David Wesley (2009); Delbert Simpson (2009); Twyone Carter (2010); Josh Lomers (2010); Aaron Bruce (2010); Fred Ellis (2010); Terry Black (2011); Ziジー Udeh (2011) and Ancy (2012).

Additionally, Anthony Jones has completed his Baylor coursework and will receive his degree in an commencement ceremonies in December.

National Exposure

Baylor will play at least 20 regular-season games on the ESPN family of networks in 2012-13, increasing the number of ESPN appearances to 80 in the last six seasons (84 in the Scott Drew era).

The Bears also have three games scheduled for the Big 12 Network, and there will likely be additional games added to the TV schedule, including the Bear’s Dec. 1 game at Kentucky. Baylor tied a program record with 34 televised games last season, posting a 26-8 record in those contests. The Bears also played 34 TV games in 2008-09.

Jackson In Line For 1,000-point Club

Pierre Jackson enters the 2012-13 season on pace to become the 26th 1,000-point scorer in school history. Jackson, who scored 523 points in his first season in Waco last year, needs 477 points to become the eighth 1,000-point scorer in the Scott Drew era, joining Aaron Bruce, Curtis Jerrells, Henry Duget, Kevin Rogers, LaceDarius Dunn, Twyone Carter and Quincy Acy.

If Jackson joins the 1,000-point club, he would be the third player in program history to reach the milestone despite playing only two seasons in Waco. Vinnie Johnson (1977-79) and William Chatman (1986-87) both accomplished the feat during two-year careers, though LaceDarius Dunn (2007-11) and Terry Teagle (1978-82) both reached the milestone during the second year of their four-year careers.

Heslip Among Elite 3-Point Shooters

Junior guard Brady Heslip established a school record for best 3-point field goal percentage among players with at least 200 attempts when he nailed 45.9 percent of his treys last season. Heslip ranks third all-time in career 3FG percentage at Baylor (min. 150 attempts), while Pierre Jackson ranks fourth at 40.8 percent.

20 Wins In Four Of Last Five Seasons

Head coach Scott Drew has led Baylor to 20 wins in four of the last five seasons, averaging 24.2 wins per season since the start of the 2007-08 season. The program had only three 20-win seasons prior to Drew’s arrival.

Over the last five seasons, Drew has become the only coach in program history to lead the Bears to four postseason appearances, and he’s guided the Bears to a school-record 10 postseason wins. The Bears’ 10-3 post season record is the Big 12’s best over the last five years.

Draw Second on All-Time Wins List

With a school-record 30 wins last season, head coach Scott Drew moved into second place on Baylor’s all-time wins list with 157 career victories.

Drew needs 44 more wins to tie Bill Henderson for the all-time wins lead. Henderson coached the Bears to a 201-239 record in his 19 seasons leading the team from 1941 through 1961 — Henderson didn’t coach the Bears during the 1943-44 season and resumed head coaching duties with six games remaining in the 1944-45 season.

Drew’s .559 career winning percentage (157-124) ranks fourth in program history, and that number is the best of any coach with more than three seasons at the helm.

Winningest Class In Program History

Baylor’s 2012-13 three-member senior class left as the winningest group in program history, Quincy Acy, Fred Ellis and Anthony Jones combined to win exactly 100 games in their four seasons on campus, and all three graduated. They led the Bears to 24, 26, 18 and 30 wins, respectively, in their four seasons together.

A.J. Walton is the only four-year senior on the 2012-13 squad. He can break the school record by leading the Bears to 25 wins this season.

Trio Travels With Athletes in Action

Three members of Baylor’s 2012 Elite Eight men’s basketball team embarked on a two-week competitive tour May 26-June 10 in Germany and Poland with Athletes In Action. Brady Heslip and Deuce Bello were two of the 11 NCAA Division I student-athletes selected for the trip and were coached by Baylor Director of Operations Tim Maloney.

Bears Ranked Throughout 2011-12 Season

For the first time in program history, Baylor was ranked in every weekly AP and coaches poll throughout the 2011-12 season. The Bears never dropped below 14th in either poll, and they reached as high as No. 3 in both polls on Jan. 16.

Baylor’s previous record for most consecutive weeks in the AP Top 25 was set at 10 straight polls during the 2008-09 season. Prior to the 2011-12 season, the Bears had played only 33 games in program history while ranked in both polls.

The Bears more than doubled the total from the program’s first 105 seasons, playing all 38 games during the 2011-12 season while ranked in both polls.

The Bears have been ranked for a total of 51 weeks throughout their 106-year history, and 48 of those weeks have come in the last five seasons.

2011-12 Was The Year of The Bear

Baylor set a NCAA record with unprecedented success across the four major sports last season. The Bears combined to go 129-28 in football, men’s and women’s basketball and baseball. Not only was that an NCAA record for most wins and highest winning percentage, it was also 41 wins more than the next closest Big 12 programs (Oklahoma and Texas A&M).

Those four sports combined to go 45-7 against in-state teams, with men’s basketball posting a perfect 10-0 record against Texas rivals.

Baylor’s 30 wins between football and men’s and women’s basketball also set a national record, and the teams combined on a 40-game winning streak from Nov. 1 through Jan. 16. That streak included men’s basketball’s school-record 17-0 start to the 2011-12 season.

Ncaa Tournament Success

Baylor is 6-3 in three NCAA Championship appearances under Scott Drew. The Bears snapped a 20-year drought when they advanced to the 2009 NCAA Tournament before losing a first-round game to Purdue, but two years later they came back to win three games and advance to the 2010 Elite Eight, marking the first program’s first NCAA Tournament wins since 1950. The Bears matched that performance with three wins and another Elite Eight berth in 2012.

Success Against Historic Rivals

Baylor went a perfect 10-0 against former Big 12 South Division members in 2011-12. The Bears swept Oklahoma and Oklahoma State for the first time in program history, they swept Texas and Texas A&M in the same season for the first time since 1970-71, and BU swept Texas, Texas A&M and Texas Tech in the same season for the first time ever.

Ferrell Center Records

Baylor established program records for total home attendance (134,541) and per-game average (7,914) in 2011-12. It marked the sixth straight season more than 100,000 fans came through the Ferrell Center doors after having only two such years in the arena’s first 18 seasons.

The Ferrell Advantage

Baylor is 44-7 at home in the last three seasons, winning a Ferrell Center-record 15 home games in both 2009-10 and 2010-11 and 14 games in 2011-12. Baylor is 70-16 in the last five seasons at home, boasting an impressive .814 winning percentage.
On Aug. 22, 2003, Scott Drew assumed Baylor's head coaching position and took over one of college basketball's most daunting rebuilding projects ever. From 2007-12, Baylor rose to national prominence with Drew leading the team to four 20-win seasons, four postseason appearances and a Big 12-best and school-record 10 postseason wins. The Bears advanced to the NCAA Tournament Elite Eight in two of the last three seasons, made the 2009 NIT championship game and played in the 2008 NCAA Tournament, marking their first NCAA Tournament appearance since 1988.

Drew completed his 10th season as a Division I head coach in 2011-12, when he led the Bears to a school-record 30 wins and the 2012 NCAA Tournament South Regional Final — making the Bears one of only six programs nationally with two Elite Eight appearances in the last three seasons. For the first time in program history, the Bears were ranked throughout the 2011-12 season, reaching as high as No. 3 and never dropping lower than 14th in the AP or coaches polls.

A program-record three players were selected in the 2012 NBA Draft. Perry Jones III, Quincy Acy and Quincy Miller gave the Bears the nation's third-most draftees, trailing only Kentucky and North Carolina.

Baylor's 10-3 postseason record over the last four seasons is the Big 12's best, as the Bears went 3-1 on their way to the Elite Eight in both the 2010 and 2012 NCAA Tournaments, and Drew led Baylor to four wins en route to the 2009 NIT title game. In 2009-10, Drew guided the Bears to then-school records for overall (28), Big 12 (11) and home (15) victories.

Drew is the only coach to guide Baylor to four postseason appearances and 10 postseason wins. His teams have averaged 24.2 wins over the last five seasons, giving Baylor five straight winning campaigns for the first time since 1966-67 through 1972-73. Drew has compiled a 177-135 overall record with a 157-124 mark in nine seasons at Baylor.

JOINING THE NATION'S ELITE

Drew's program reached new heights in 2011-12, when the Bears advanced to their second Elite Eight in the last three seasons and had a program-record three players selected in the 2012 NBA Draft. The trio of seniors on that team led the winningest class in program history, as Fred Ellis,ACY and Anthony Jones led Baylor to 100 wins in their four seasons together. The 2011-12 Bears established school records for overall (30) and Big 12 Conference (12) wins, and they were ranked as high as No. 3 nationally after sprinting to the best start in school history (17-0).

Headlined by Jones III, Baylor's 2010 recruiting class ranked No. 22 nationally by ESPN. Pj3 earned multiple freshman All-American honors, leading the Bears to an 18-13 mark. Baylor's consensus top-20 recruiting class of 2011 featured high school teammates Miller and Deuce Bello, and Drew's 2012 class, which featured three top-75 national recruits including consensus top-5 Isaiah Austin, was ranked No. 4 nationally. Drew has now brought eight top-50 recruits to Baylor in the last six seasons.

In 2010-11, senior LaceDarius Dunn became only the third player in program history to earn first-team All-Big 12 honors after becoming the Baylor and Big 12 all-time leading scorer. Dunn finished his stellar college career with 2,285 points and 388 3-point field goals.

Drew's task of rebuilding the Baylor men's basketball program reached a historic milestone during the 2009-10 season as the Bears advanced to the Elite Eight for the first time in the NCAA Tournament's modern era. Entering the season, the Bears were picked 10th in the Big 12 Preseason Coaches' Poll after a trip to the 2009 NIT championship game. Behind All-Americans Tweety Carter, Dunn and Ekpe Udoh, Baylor won a then-school-record 28 games, including a school-best 11 Big 12 games. The Bears tied for second in the Big 12 standings — their best conference finish since 1988.

Baylor was ranked in the AP Top 25 poll for a then-school-record 10 consecutive weeks and concluded the 2009-10 season ranked 10th in the final ESPN/USA TODAY Coaches poll and 19th in the final AP Top 25 — marking the first time Baylor was ranked in either season-ending poll.
THE PROGRAM'S FUTURE FOUNDATION

Drew began his overhaul in 2003 when he took over a program decimated by tragedy, player departures, a depleted roster and NCAA restrictions. He slowly and methodically turned the program around by recruiting a solid foundation of talented high school players that, after earning valuable playing experience early in their careers, brought wins to Baylor as upperclassmen under Drew.

Drew’s recruiting success (three of his first four classes were rated among the top 20 nationally), particularly under less-than-ideal circumstances, stocked the program with top-100 national prospects and provided optimism to Bears fans.

Long considered a top-level national recruiter, Drew’s reputation was upheld immediately upon his arrival in Waco when his first three Baylor recruiting classes were rated 10th, 11th and 17th, respectively, in the nation — widely considered Baylor’s top consecutive recruiting classes to that point. The three-player 2007 class, while not ranked among the nation’s top 20, did include the school’s highest-ranked recruit in memory — Dunn, ranked 24th nationally by Scout.com.

In his first season in 2003-04, Drew inherited a team with half the allotted scholarship players and he added a handful of walk-ons. The team — which was summarily dismissed by all preseason prognosticators as having no chance to be competitive and perhaps finish winless — surprised everyone by winning eight games, including three Big 12 Conference contests.

Drew and his overachieving Bears finished the season 8-21 and won over Baylor fans and basketball fans alike with their scrappy play and no-quit attitudes. The team exceeded all expectations and Drew was praised for his efforts and mentioned in Big 12 Coach of the Year discussions.

In his second season Drew took the court with the nation’s most inexperienced team (one returning scholarship player). The 2004-05 Bears fought their way to a better record than the previous season, 9-19, including an impressive 73-72 road win at Purdue.

In his third season, Drew’s 2005-06 Bears overcame perhaps their biggest challenge to date, when despite being banned from playing any non-conference games (due to violations of the previous coaching staff), Drew’s very young Baylor squad defied the odds and won four Big 12 games (matching its conference win total from the previous two seasons) and finished the abbreviated season 4-13. The Bears played through the early season handicap and made news in the latter half of the season with noticeably improved play, evidenced by wins in two of the final four games (two losses by a combined seven points) and wins in four of their final five home contests.

Drew’s 2006-07 squad showed glimpses of the success to come, when a team loaded with freshmen and sophomores played a full schedule and with a full allotment of scholarships for the first time in four seasons and posted a 15-16 record — Baylor’s most wins in six years. The Bears finished the season with three wins in their final six games, including the school’s first victory in a Big 12 Championship game since 2001.

PRIOR TO BAYLOR

Success in the basketball world runs strong in the Drew family — from Scott and brother Bryce (former NBA player and current Valpo head coach) to father Homer (former head coach at Valpo).

Drew came to Baylor after a decade of coaching at Valparaiso, the final year as head coach. He led the 2002-03 Crusaders to a 20-11 record and into the NIT, Valpo earned the Mid-Continent Conference regular season championship with a 12-2 league record.

The previous nine seasons, Drew served as an assistant at Valpo under his father, the legendary Homer Drew. He was promoted to associate head coach for the 2001-02 season. Drew coached his father’s 200th win at Valpo (against Oakland on Jan. 27, 2001) when Homer was ill.

In 10 seasons at Valpo, Scott Drew helped lead the program to six NCAA Tournament berths, including the magical 1997-98 squad that shocked the nation by advancing to the Sweet 16. Valpo made five straight NCAA appearances from 1996 to 2000.

The younger Drew was responsible for three national top-20 recruiting classes during his last five years at Valpo.

Drew was named the 1998-99 National Recruiter of the Year by Court Vision and helped produce what HoopScoop.com named the nation’s sixth-best recruiting class in 2001 (per average talent), the 13th-best in 1999 (per average talent) and the 27th-best in 2003 (per average talent), a class that included three top-100 national recruits.

Drew was part of the coaching staff that led Valpo to nine straight Mid-Con championships, including dual regular season and tournament titles in 1994-95, 1995-96, 1996-97, 1997-98, 1998-99 and 2001-02. The Crusaders were regular season champs in 2000-01 and 2002-03, and won the conference tournament in 2000.

Drew was the driving force behind Valpo’s international pipeline that produced more than 10 players from Europe, Africa and South America from 1995 to 2003. He has European coaching experience, having served as head coach of the Athletes In Action team which toured Croatia and Bosnia in the summer of 1997. In August 1995, Drew assisted the AIA team that traveled to Germany, Macedonia, Bulgaria and Greece.

PERSONAL

Drew is a former first vice president for the NABC Assistant Coaches Committee and previously served on the National Invitation Tournament advisory committee.

A 1993 graduate of Butler University with a Bachelor of Liberal Arts degree, Drew earned a master’s degree from Valparaiso in 1994. Drew worked with Butler’s men’s basketball program from 1991-93.

Drew and his wife Kelly are the parents of one daughter, Mackenzie, and two sons, Peyton and Brody.
