LAST TIME OUT

OKLAHOMA 90 - TCU 89 // DEC. 30, 2017

FORT WORTH, Texas (AP) Senior Kenrich Williams recorded 22 points and nine rebounds, but No. 10 TCU fell in the Big 12 Conference opener to No. 12 Oklahoma 90-89 Saturday in front of 6,002 at Schollmaier Arena.

OU freshman Trae Young scored 39 points, including the breathtaking free throws with 7.9 seconds left, as the Sooners overcame a 13-point deficit in the second half to end the nation's longest winning streak.

The Horned Frogs (12-0, 0-1 Big 12), with their highest ranking ever, entered their first home game in 20 seasons with both teams ranked on a 17-game winning streak.

Young scored 17 points in the final 9:15 minutes, the biggest when the freshman was fouled by Desmond Bane on a drive to the basket and then made both free throws.

Kameron McGusty added 22 points for the Sooners (12-1, 1-0), including a go-ahead 3-pointer with 22 seconds left after Young missed from long range. Jamuni McNeace grabbed the rebound and fed outside to McGusty.

Williams then scored to put TCU back in front. But he missed another potential game-winner after Young's final free throw.

Bane and Ahmed Nubani both finished with 15 points for the Frogs while Kouat Noi had 14 points with four 3s. Williams and Noj each had nine rebounds.

BIG PICTURE

Oklahoma: Young also had 14 assists, his seventh double-double. The kid from Norman entered the game as the national leader in scoring (28.7) and was 10th in assists (10.4). His fifth 30-point game was also his 11th straight game with at least 20 points - the longest Sooners streak since Stacey King's 11 in a row in 1998-99.

TCU: In front of an eager sellout crowd, the Frogs quickly fell behind 11-0 as a result of a 5-0 run by Oklahoma, which tied the game at 13-13 with 16:50 left in the half. The Sooners led 35-25 at halftime after Young scored 17 points in the final 9:15 minutes, the biggest when the freshman was fouled by Desmond Bane on a drive to the basket and then made both free throws.

Kameron McGusty added 22 points for the Sooners (12-1, 1-0), including a go-ahead 3-pointer with 22 seconds left after Young missed from long range. Jamuni McNeace grabbed the rebound and fed outside to McGusty.

Williams then scored to put TCU back in front. But he missed another potential game-winner after Young's final free throw.

Bane and Ahmed Nubani both finished with 15 points for the Frogs while Kouat Noi had 14 points with four 3s. Williams and Noj each had nine rebounds.

Baylor: With their latest victory over TCU, the Bears have their best-ever record through 25 games overall (20-5) and best through 15 Big 12 games (12-3). McClure started his second straight game in place of suspended Al Freeman, who is out for what the school called a violation of team policy. McClure has 23 points on 9 of 15 shooting in those games.

UP NEXT

Oklahoma plays three of its next four games at home, starting Wednesday night against Oklahoma State.

TCU heads about 85 miles south on Interstate 35 to play at No. 18 Baylor on Tuesday night, then has another big-time Saturday home matchup next weekend against No. 11 Kansas.

LAST MEETING WITH OPPONENT

BAYLOR 79 - TCU 52 // FEB. 11, 2017

WACO, Texas (AP) - Isaiah Austin had 26 points on 12-of-15 shooting and No. 6 Baylor had little trouble with TCU in a 70-52 victory over the Horned Frogs on Saturday.

Baylor (20-3, 9-2 Big 12) never trailed in winning its 14th straight game in the series since the former Southwest Conference rivals were reunited in the Big 12 when TCU moved into the power league four years ago.

Musa Leonte added 17 points for the Bears, and King McClure scored all 13 of his points before halftime.

McClure had back-to-back 3-pointers for Baylor to make it 15-6 during a first-half stretch when TCU (7-4, 6-6) went more than 7 minutes without a field goal. The Bears led 32-17 at halftime.

Jalen Fisher had 18 points for TCU while Kenrich Williams had 10.

When the instate rivals only about 100 miles apart played Jan. 21 in Fort Worth, there were 16 lead changes, with 13 in the second half along with five ties, before Baylor pulled out 62-53 victory. The rematch was tied only once, at 2-2.

TCU: The Frogs shot a season-low 29 percent in the first meeting and struggled shooting against long-limbed Baylor. They were just 6 of 26 (23 percent) from the field in the first half, but did finish 20 of 53. TCU has six Big 12 wins, its most since 1998.

Oklahoma: Young also had 14 assists, his seventh double-double. The kid from Norman entered the game as the national leader in scoring (28.7) and was 10th in assists (10.4). His fifth 30-point game was also his 11th straight game with at least 20 points - the longest Sooners streak since Stacey King's 11 in a row in 1998-99.
