SPRING GAME - April 10, 2010

Even without QB Robert Griffin III, who was rehabilitating his knee following fall surgery, Baylor showed some offensive potential in its annual Spring Game at the Hicals Complex.

Sophomore quarterback Nick Florence was 20-of-31 for 242 yards and threw TD passes of 66 yards to Terrance Williams and 40 to Josh Gordon as the White team defeated Green, 20-14, before a strong contingent of Baylor fans in the Bears’ spring training finale.

“What we tried to do was spread the ball around as much as we could for 45 plays,” said third-year Baylor head coach Art Briles. “We were just trying to get the ball around to guys that we felt had opportunities to make plays.”

Williams didn’t get a lot of opportunities, but he made the most of one with a 66-yard TD strike from Florence down the right sideline to finish a three-play, 78-yard scoring drive.

After junior college transfer Isaac Williams closed the gap to 10-7 with a five-yard TD run near the right side for the Green team, Florence engineered an 18-play, 76-yard drive that included three fourth-down conversions.

Gordon, who finished with two catches for 53 yards, got behind CB Romie Blaylock for a 40-yard TD catch from Florence that extended the White team’s lead, 17-7.

Redshirt freshman K Aaron Jones booted field goals of 43 and 53 yards and was 2-for-2 on extra points, while redshirt freshman QB Brody Trahan hit freshman receiver Tevin Reese for a 40-yard TD pass for the final points of the day early in the fourth quarter.

Williams led all rushers with 71 yards and one TD on 15 carries (4.7-yard average), while junior transfer Evan Hearn from McMurry picked up 31 yards on seven attempts.

For the Green team, Trahan was 11-of-20 for 91 yards and one TD passing, while freshman Bryce Petty was 10-of-14 for 54 yards and was picked off once by freshman DB Shane Ros.

“I hope you were looking at (the defense) and saying, ‘Boy, those guys are strong, fast, mean and tough,’” Briles said, “because that’s what those guys need to be. They need to be aggressive and physical with a bad temper. That’s what we have to get to, and that’s the way we have to play, because in the Big 12 South if you’re friendly and nice, you’re going to have a long season.”

Leading tacklers were linebackers Elliot Coffey (7) and Antonio Johnson (4) and safeties Prince Kent (5) and Tim Aitchison (4) for the Green; and safety Tyler Pratt (7) and tackle Chris Buford (5) for the White. Junior nose tackle Nicolas Jean-Baptiste had a pair of sacks.

2010 OUTLOOK

The 2010 season marks year three of the Art Briles era at Baylor, and hopes are high in Central Texas that a solid foundation is being laid to foster successful football teams for years to come.

Nowhere is Baylor’s steady improvement under Briles more evident than in the back-to-back recruiting classes his staff put together in 2009 and 2010 — the school’s highest-ranked signing classes in the Big 12 era. The 2010 signing class was ranked 39th nationally by Rivals.com, including a defensive line ranked fifth nationally.

Baylor’s roster includes 47 returning lettermen and 13 scholarship redshirts from 2009, six scholar- ship newcomers added in the spring and a dozen and a half incoming signees reporting in the fall.

“Chemistry,” was Briles’ response when asked for the strengths of his 2010 team. “Along with a high level of hunger. And speed; we’ll be a fast football team that understands a sense of urgency. Our speed is going to be evident.”

Biles pointed to his squad’s improved depth coming out of a productive four weeks of spring drills.

“We want to establish a competitive two-deep,” Briles said, “which I feel like we accomplished at nearly every position. We’re approaching this, but we need to get to the point that we don’t have any drop-off if someone gets injured — it allows us to maintain the level necessary to play in the Big 12 South.”

He added that an emphasis during 2010 spring drills was to improve the squad’s mental toughness.

“This team doesn’t include a starter from 2008 whose ankle injury to first-string tailback Jay Finley, as well as the nagging ailment to 2009 tailback Ivory Wade, that limits him throughout the 2009 season. His numbers during an injury-riddled junior year were 370 yards on 79 attempts (4.7 average).”

“Jay has to be dynamic,” Briles said. “He is a passionate runner who is capable of being that emotion- al player for us.”

Finley is complemented by the bruising running back Terrance Ganaway, who led the team with five rushing TDs after transferring from Houston prior to 2009, and Salubi, an elusive scat-back from Waco who averaged a team-high 6.0 yards per carry and led all running backs with 19 receptions in 2009.

The fullback position will be manned by former defensive lineman Kaeorn Johnson, who played the position during the final games of 2009 but made a permanent switch during the spring. The imposing Johnson (6-1, 295) will be backed up by walk-on redshirt freshman Erik Wolfe.

The RECEIVING CORPS will need to replace its top two wide receivers and starting tight end from 2009, but does return its No. 1 threat in inside receiver Kendall Wright. Wright leads a group of talented young receivers eager to contribute in 2010.

Wright is an explosive playmaker coming off an All-Big 12 season in 2009 in which he caught 66 passes for 740 yards, and coaches are hoping the third-year starter takes another step as a junior.

“Kendall has been really productive the last two years as our leading receiver,” Briles said. “He has to continue to progress as a leader and a play- maker for us.”

The other starting inside position looks to be senior Krys Buerck’s for the taking. The one-time DB had just two receptions last season, but caught 23 as a true freshman in 2007. Also in the rotation at inside receiver is redshirt freshman Darius Jones and true freshman Tevin Reese, a 2009 signee who joined the team for 2010 spring drills.

Eager to fill the vacancies left by departed wide receivers David Gettis and Ernest Smith are sophomores Lanear Sampson and Terrance Williams and redshirt freshman Josh Gordon.

and caught 29 passes en route to being named an All-Big 12 Freshman honoree. “Lanear is steady and solid,” Bries said. “He was dependable all spring.”

Williams caught just three passes last season as a redshirt freshman, but made an impact as the primary return man on special teams. Gordon is a big receiver who earned praise from coaches for his improvement in spring drills.

Also available at receiver are walk-on junior Travis McClain and incoming freshman Antwan Goodley from Midland (Texas) High School. McClain redshirted last year and is expected to be a contributor this season.

DEFENSE

Just six starters return on defense, and fans are hopeful that Baylor can replace several departed stars on that side of the ball. Gone are All-America linebacker Joe Pawelek, All-Big 12 honorees Jason Lamb (DL) and Jordon Lake (FS), as well as five-year veterans Antonio Jones (LB) and Jeremy Williams (S).

“Our defense lost six fifth-year guys,” Bries said, “which is a lot of hours on the field, in the locker room and in study hall. And there’s only way to get experience – to live it. So as the season begins we’ll see a changing of the guard so to speak. People have to step up and be accountable. And we’ve got guys that are anxious and willing to do that.”

The foundation of that leadership will come from four returning starters, seniors Tim Atchison (free safety), Antonio Johnson (linebacker) and “Cousin Phil” Taylor (nose guard) and junior Zac Scotton (end), as well as two new starters, seniors Chris Francis (linebacker) and Byron Landor (safety).

“This defense has to limit big plays,” Bries said. “Our upperclassmen have to lead and produce.”

The DEFENSIVE LINE will benefit from increased depth, where returning starters Taylor (nose guard) and Scotton (defensive end/tackle) lead the way. Taylor made 25 tackles and blocked two kicks while battling turf toe in his first season at Baylor in 2009. Scotton started eight games and made 22 tackles as a sophomore last season.

Playing alongside Taylor inside will be junior Tracy Robertson at tackle, who last season at end led the team with three sacks and had five tackles-for-loss. Bries describes Robertson as a “player who will be dynamic up front for us.”

Other options inside include much-improved junior Nicolas Jean-Baptiste and veteran Chris Buford, as well as Scotton.

Expected to start at end opposite Scotton is third-year sophomore Gary Mason Jr. “Gary is physically gifted and is maturing,” Bries said. “He’s learning to play with emotion.”

Also vying for playing time at end will be redshirt freshman Tevin Elliott and sophomore Jared Edwards. Coaches label Elliott as having “big-play potential” on the line.

A continued strength for Baylor’s D remains its LINEBACKING CORPS, which despite the loss of two five-year players, returns several talented athletes.

“We’ve been fortunate to have solid depth at linebacker the last two or three years and this year is no exception,” Bries said.

Johnson, an All-Big 12 candidate and the team’s leading returning tackler with 77 stops and six tackles-for-loss last season, is back as a third-year starter at outside linebacker. The Waco High School product is a quick, undersized backer and vocal leader.

“Antonio has been a dynamic player for us for the last two years and we expect more of the same,” Bries said.

Manning the other outside backer spot are long-time reserves Elliot Coffey and Earl Patin. Coffey, listed as the starter heading into the fall, is a fourth-year junior who made 35 tackles last season. Patin is a fourth-year senior who made 38 tackles playing linebacker and end last season. Redshirt freshman LeQuince McCall provides depth on the outside.

Veteran reserve Francis and youngster Christ McAllister will replace fourth-year starter Pawelek at middle linebacker. Francis, a Baylor legacy and son of former 10-year NFL veteran James Francis, made 46 tackles as a junior last season and is listed as the starter on the post-spring depth chart. McAllister is a big redshirt freshman (6-2, 240) who was honored last season for his efforts on the scout team and continued to impress coaches during spring drills.

Sophomores Rodney Chadwick and Logan Lanier are likely to see most of their action on special teams.

Baylor’s SECONDARY, more than any other unit on the team, could receive help from true freshmen in order to increase depth and to offset the graduation of both starting safeties and offseason injuries.

Back to man the secondary are returning starters Atchison, a fifth-year senior who after starting all 12 games at cornerback last season is moving back to safety where he played as a freshman in 2007, and sophomore Chance Casey. Also returning are seniors with starting experience Clifton Odom, a four-game starter in 2009 who is expected to start at cornerback opposite Casey, and Landor, a three-game starter last season penciled in as the starting “hero” (strong) safety.

Coaches are looking to Atchison and Landor for leadership in addition to performance from the safety positions. Atchison had 42 tackles and five PBUs last season and Landor, a former JUCO transfer, in his second season, had 46 tackles.

“Bryon really needs to have a good year for us,” Bries said. “He’s a strong leader.”

Casey was named to several All-Big 12 Freshman teams after totaling 36 tackles, two interceptions and four PBUs as a true freshman in 2009.

Odom, son of 13-year NFL vet Cliff Odom, made 33 tackles and a team-high six PBUs in 2009.

Other returnees include junior corner-back Romie Blaylock, who impressed coaches with his play in the spring, and sophomores Hickson, who played 10 games and made 29 tackles as a true freshman last season.

Offseason injuries hit the secondary hard, as veterans Mikail Baker (safety/kick returner) and former starter Antaireis Bryan (cornerback) both missed the spring due to injury.

The coaching staff has youthful options in the form of five 2010 DB signees that were rated the nation’s fifth-best defensive back class by Rivals.com. The quintet, which includes early-enrollee Prince Kent who went through spring drills with the squad, is made up of prep All-America and Waco product Ahmad Dixon, dual footballtrack athlete Tyler Stephenson of Lancaster (Texas) High from Coon Rapids High School in Abline, Texas, and all-state safety from Katy (Texas) High School Sam Holl. A sixth freshman signee termed an “athlete” by recruiting experts, Tuswani Copeland of MacArthur High School in Lawton, Okla., will join the BU secondary.

Dixon, from Midway High School in Hewitt, Texas, is Baylor’s highest-rated recruit in recent memory. He is ranked the nation’s 15th-best signee (all positions) on the ESPN list and a SuperPrep All-American who played in the Under Armour All-American and Army All-American Bowl all-star games. Kent, a 2009 signee at the University of Miami (Fla.) who came to Baylor from Hargrave Military Academy, was listed No. 2 at ’hero’ safety following spring drills.

SPECIAL TEAMS

The majority of specialists return for Baylor, including 2009 honorable mention All-America punter Derek Epperson, placekicker Ben Parks and the team’s top four returners.

Epperson is a fourth-year starter who ranked sixth nationally with a 42.4 average in 2009 and has 38 career punts of 50-plus yards.

Parks split time with departed Dairy Stone on PATs and field goals last season but handled all kickoff. He will battle strong-legged redshirt freshman Aaron Jones for placekicking duties this fall.

Williams ranked third in the Big 12 with a 24.1-yard return average as a redshirt freshman last season, and shared Baylor’s co-Special Teams MVP award.

Baker is expected to be back and healthy to chase the school’s all-time kickoff return records after receiving a sixth season of eligibility from the NCAA. He missed spring drills while recovering from surgery after a season-ending knee injury in the third game of 2009. His 24.8 career return average ranks third all-time at Baylor.

Another option in kick returns may be true freshman Ahmad Dixon.

Punt return duties are expected to be handled by capable senior Krys Buerck, who covered the majority last season, or Williams.
BAYLOR FOOTBALL
PRESEASON NOTES:

RG3 IS BACK

The 2010 season will mark a comeback for Bears quarterback Robert Griffin III, who suffered a well-publicized, season-ending knee injury in the third game of 2009. The good news for Baylor’s program came in November, when the Big 12 Conference approved Griffin’s hardship waiver request, resulting in the 2009 season becoming a redshirt year and three seasons of eligibility retained. So RG3 will be a sophomore in 2010 and expected back healthy in the fall with a surgically repaired knee. The former Freshman All-American (2008) went through his third spring drills this spring and participated in all but tackling/scrimmage situations. “Robert is right on track to be where he needs to be,” head coach Art Briles said following the spring. “We’re excited about him being ready to go in the fall.” The dual-threat quarterback is a former All-American track hurdler who has thrown for 2,572 yards and accounted for 34 touchdowns in 15 career games.

SIX NEWCOMERS ADDED IN SPRING

Baylor added six newcomers during its 2010 spring drills. The six-pack of January enrollees included two mid-year junior college transfers, one early enrollee high schooler and one prep school addition, as well as two members of the 2009 signing class. The junior college transfers are offensive lineman Robert T. Griffin of Navarro College and running back Isaac Williams of El Camino College. Freshman offensive lineman Troy Baker of Waco’s Connally High School graduated in December and freshman safety Prince Kent joined the Bears from Hargrave Military Academy in Chatham, Va. Also new for the spring were 2009 signees quarterback Bryce Petty of Midlothian High School and receiver Tevin Reese of Temple High School, both of whom played for the USA Football junior national team at the World Football Championship in the summer of 2009.

2010 HONORS CANDIDATES

MINIMAL POSITION CHANGES

Compared with recent seasons, minimal positional changes occurred during Baylor’s 2010 spring drills. Only one player switched sides of the ball, as former defensive lineman Kaeron Johnson made a permanent switch to fullback. Four other prominent Bears made slight changes, as senior Tim Atchison returned to safety after two seasons at cornerback, sophomore Willie Jefferson moved from outside receiver to tight end, junior Tracy Robertson moved from defensive end to the interior of the line and junior Philip Blake moved from offensive tackle to the center position.

DEPARTED PLAYERS

Graduated from Baylor’s program are several highly decorated seniors who will be missed on the playing field in 2010. Gone are two All-Americans, center J.D. Walton and linebacker Joe Pawelek, as well as five other All-Big 12 veterans including tight end Justin Akers, offensive lineman James Barnard, wide receiver David Gettis, safety Jordan Lake and defensive lineman Jason Lamb. An additional six Bears who lettered for four seasons (Trey Bryant, Antonio Jones, Sam Sledge, Ernest Smith, Blake Szymanski and Jeremy Williams) have departed.

BAYLOR ROSTER HAS LOCAL FLAVOR

HEAD COACH ART BRILES

The 2010 season marks year three of the Art Briles era at Baylor, and hopes are high in Central Texas that a solid foundation is being laid to foster successful football teams for years to come. Briles assumed Baylor's head coaching post Nov. 28, 2007, ushering in a new era and a new attitude to the storied Bears football program. From his first game on the sidelines in Waco it was quickly evident that the Bears regime was underway at Baylor; from the innovative offense, to the reintroduction of a solid running game, to competitive games and no acceptance of moral victories.

Nowhere is Baylor's steady improvement under Briles more evident than in the back-to-back recruiting classes his staff put together in 2009 and 2010 — the school's highest-ranked signing classes in the Big 12 era. The 2010 signing class was ranked 39th nationally by Rivals.com including a defensive backfield ranked fifth nationally.

After a promising start, the 2009 season suffered injury setbacks in the season's first month, including the season-ending loss of superstar quarterback and face-of-the-program Robert Griffin III in the third game (all told, eight different starters missed games in 2009 due to injury). The Bears remained competitive, but a season that began with a road win over ACC power Wake Forest and the team receiving votes in the AP Top 25 poll ended with a 4-8 record. The Bears notched a second impressive road victory in 2009, upsetting defending Big 12 North champion Missouri 40-32 in Columbia.

Briles' 2008 Bears squad finished with a 4-8 record, but six of eight defeats were at the hands of ranked opponents (four in top 10) and three losses came by a touchdown or less.

Highlights of Briles' first season at Baylor included the emergence of sensational true freshman quarterback Griffin, the Big 12's top newcomer and freshman All-American, a rushing attack that ranked 21st nationally and third in the Big 12 with 195.8 yards per game (2,349 yards, most since 1981) and 29 touchdowns, and a memorable 41-21 home win over Texas A&M.

Baylor's 1.33 turnover margin ranked fourth nationally and junior linebacker Joe Pawelek was ranked nationally in tackles (10.7) and interceptions (.50).

Briles is a proven developer of professional talent, evidenced over the last four NFL drafts where his protégés include the second center selected in 2010 (80th pick J.D. Walton of Baylor), the first lineman selected in 2009 (second overall pick Jason Smith from Baylor), the first receiver selected in 2008 (33rd pick Donnie Avery of Houston) and the third quarterback selected in 2007 (36th pick Kevin Kolb of Houston).

A native of West Texas, Briles became Baylor's 25th head football coach after resurrecting the University of Houston's football program in a five-year stretch from 2003 to 2007.

Briles, who inherited a Houston program just two years removed from an 0-11 season and had won eight total games from 2000 to 2003, posted a 34-28 record and guided UH to four bowl games. He ranks as the program's third-winningest head coach behind College Football Hall of Famer Bill Yeoman (160 wins in 26 seasons) and Clyde Lepley (145 wins in seven seasons).

Briles guided Houston to an 8-4 regular-season record and a Texas Bowl invitation in his final season (he did not coach the Cougars in the bowl game). Coupled with their 10-win 2006 campaign, the Cougars registered consecutive seasons of at least eight victories for the first time since the 1989 (nine) and 1990 (10) campaigns. The 2007 Cougars finished the season ranked fourth nationally in total offense (519.1 ypg) and made college football history by becoming the first program to produce a 300-yard receiver and a 200-yard rusher in the same game.

In 2006, Briles earned Conference USA and Sportexe Division I-A National Coach of the Year honors after guiding the Cougars to a Conference USA title, a Liberty Bowl appearance and the program's first 10-win season since 1990 with a final mark of 10-4.

The Cougars enjoyed the nation's seventh-best turnaround in 2006, a four-game improvement in the win column over their 6-6 mark in 2005. Houston's 2006 C-USA title, just five years removed from a winless 2001 campaign, marked only the fifth in the past 30 seasons that a I-A program went from winless to conference champions.

One of nine finalists for the 2006 Eddie Robinson National Coach of the Year award, Briles' offense led Conference USA and ranked sixth nationally at 439.9 yards per game. Cougar quarterback Kevin Kolb was Conference USA's consensus 2006 Offensive Player of the Year, as 13 Houston student-athletes earned postseason honors from the media and 12 were honored by the league's coaches. Kolb ended his career ranked third in NCAA history for total offense and fourth in passing yards.

Briles' 2005 UH team finished 6-6 overall, led Conference USA in total offense and played in the Fort Worth Bowl, and his 2004 squad was 3-8. His rookie season at UH saw the Cougars make school history; as they finished 7-6 and earned a berth in the 2003 Sheraton Hawai‘i Bowl. He became just the second UH head coach to take Houston to a bowl game in his first season at the helm, joining Yeoman, his college coach. Briles' innovative offense produced a 1,000-yard rusher (Anthony Evans), a 1,000-yard receiver (Brandon Middleton) and a 3,000-yard passer (Kolb) — one of only five Division I-A teams to accomplish that feat.

Briles arrived to Houston from Texas Tech, where he spent three years (2000-02) as the Red Raiders' running backs coach. The Tech ground game flourished under Briles' direction, increasing its production every year and producing a 2001 first-team All-Big 12 performer in Ricky Williams. The Red Raiders won seven or more games each season Briles was with Mike Leach's staff and went bowling every year.

From Hamlin, Briles went to Georgetown [Texas] High School as head coach and athletic director for two seasons (1986-87) before moving to Stephenville in 1988. While coaching in the high school ranks, Briles developed six Division I quarterbacks and had five signal callers throw for over 3,000 yards in a season.

A former wide receiver for the Cougars from 1974 to 1977, Briles was a member of the 1976 Cougar squad that captured the Southwest Conference championship in UH's first season in the league. He later played in the 1977 Cotton Bowl against fifth-ranked Maryland, a game the Cougars won 30-21.

He received a Bachelor of Arts degree from Texas Tech in 1979 and a Masters of Education degree from Abilene Christian in 1984.

A Big Country Athletic Hall of Fame inductee for his West Texas exploits, Briles and his wife, Jan, have three children: Jancy, a graduate of the University of Houston who works in the Dallas Cowboys Public Relations office; Kendal, a Cougar letterman and UH graduate who serves as an assistant coach on his father's Baylor staff; and Staley, a UH graduate. Briles was inducted into the Texas High School Football Hall of Fame in April 2008.

TIM ATCHISON

Fifth-year senior defensive back from nearby Copperas Cove, Texas (former prep teammate of Robert Griffin III and 2010 signee Anthony Gonzalez)... Third-year starter moved from cornerback back to safety (previously played safety as redshirt freshman in 2007) during spring drills... Listed as starting free safety on post-spring depth chart... Veteran with 35 career games played, fourth-most on team heading into 2010... Has made 14 consecutive starts... One of five returning starters on defense, and one of four BU returnees who started all 12 games in 2009.  Measured 10'5" in broad jump... Two-time member of Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll.

2009 (Junior): Started all 12 games at left cornerback as junior in 2009, one of 11 Bears to start every game... Suffered broken hand in fourth game but did not miss a game or a start... Totaled 42 tackles (29 solo), two tackles for loss, one interception and five passes broken up on the season.  Had five tackles and career-first forced fumble in season-opening win at Wake Forest... Suffered broken hand in fourth game vs. Kent State, returned to game with bandage; played and started final eight games with cast... Made three unassisted tackles and first career interception (despite cast on hand) on goal line at Iowa State in sixth game... Tied career high with six tackles vs. Nebraska in eighth game.  Credited with three tackles and two PBUs in upset at Missouri in ninth game.  Again matched career high of six tackles and had one breakup at Texas A&M in 11th game... Moved to cornerback from safety during offseason.

2008 (Sophomore): Played in 11 of 12 games of sophomore season, made three starts... Totaled 31 tackles on the season, 21 solo and 10 assisted... Had three passes broken up... Spring 2009 Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll selection... Played as reserve in season’s first eight games, started three of last four games (last three games played) at left cornerback... Made first career start (left cornerback) in ninth game vs. No. 14 Missouri, made two tackles and two PBUs... Tallied career-high six tackles (all solo) in season-finale at No. 7 Texas Tech... Did not play at Texas due to shoulder injury.

2007 (Redshirt Freshman): Played in every game as redshirt freshman free safety, credited with seven tackles (six solos) and a pass breakup... Totaled a then-career-high two tackles (one solo) vs. Rice to register lone multi-tackle performance of season... Had first career pass breakup vs. Texas Tech... Saw action on 183 total plays, 95 of which were on special teams, to earn first Baylor monogram... Spring Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll member.

2006 (True Freshman): Elected to take a redshirt year as a true freshman free safety.  Dressed for season’s first two games, but did not play and redshirted.

High School: Copperas Cove High School, Copperas Cove, Texas... Ranked as nation’s 42nd-best safety by Rivals.com and No. 90 on Rivals.com's Texas Top 100 list... No. 5 on Waco Tribune-Herald's Central Texas Top 25 list... Defensive MVP of 2005 Waco Tribune-Herald Super Centex team also earned first-team Class 5A all-state honors from both Associated Press and 5A Texas Football.com as well as second-team recognition from Texas Sports Writers Association... 3-star Rivals.com recruit... Registered 147 tackles, six interceptions, three blocked kicks, three fumble recoveries and a forced fumble as a prep senior en route to District 13-5A Defensive Player of Year honors... Returned three of six interceptions for touchdowns and also took a blocked kick into end zone at Iowa State in 2009... Career kickoff return average of 24.8 ranks third in Baylor history... 65 career kick returns ranks third all-time and is one behind school-record 67 by Willie Andrews... Granted sixth season of eligibility after season-ending knee injury in third game of 2009 season (had previously received hardship waiver following injury in 2007)... Did not participate in spring drills... Former receiver moved to defensive backfield prior to 2009 season... Vertical jump measured at 40.5 inches.  Has squatted 580 pounds.

BAYLOR 24, WAKE FOREST 21

BB&T FIELD • WINSTON-SALEM, N.C.

SEPT. 5, 2009 • ATTENDANCE: 30,958

Baylor’s defense forced Wake Forest into three incomplete passes and a sack on a play of the game’s final series, sealing a 24-21 victory in each team’s season opener. It was Baylor’s first road victory in a non-conference game against a BCS opponent since a 1-0 win at North Carolina State in 1995.

The Bears also earned their first victory in a season opener since a 28-23 victory at SMU in 2005. It was Baylor’s first victory in a season opener against a current BCS program since defeating Ole Miss in 1975.

Leading 10-7 at halftime, Baylor took control of the game with a pair of third-quarter touchdowns. The first came on a 37-yard Kendall Wright scamper off a backward screen pass from Robert Griffin III with 13:12 remaining in the third. The Bears outscored Wake Forest 10-0 in the second quarter as Mike Rinfrette scored on a 1-yard run to push UConn’s lead to 27-7. It was his third rushing touchdown of the day.

That 20-point deficit was too much for the Bears to overcome. Robert Griffin scored on a 5-yard run midway through the third quarter, and Connecticut added a 34-yard Dave Teggart field goal on its next possession.

Baylor pulled within striking distance late in the fourth quarter when Griffin scored on a 1-yard run and then connected with Justin Akers on a jump-pass two-point conversion to cut the deficit to 30-22. However, Connecticut recovered the Bears’ onside kick and gained first down to run out the clock.

Connecticut out-gained Baylor 386-382 on the day, including a 235-147 edge on the ground. The Bears, who managed only 11 first-downs on the day, had just 88 yards of offense at 10:49 in the third quarter. Most of that came on Jay Finley’s 72-yard touchdown run midway through the first quarter that gave the Bears a 7-3 lead, their only lead of the day.

Teggart opened the scoring with a 39-yard field goal, capping an 11-play, 55-yard drive for the Huskies on the game’s opening possession. Three plays later, Finley produced the longest run of his career to date on a third-and-four scamper up the middle.

Connecticut recaptured the lead on the first play of the second quarter when Dixon scored on a 1-yard run. Teggart pushed the lead further on his 13-17 with a 34-yard field goal midway through the second quarter.

Dixon finished with 149 yards rushing, the highest total by a Baylor opponent since Connecticut’s Donald Brown rushed for 150 yards against the Bears one year earlier. Jordan Todman added 103 yards rushing for six yards and accounted for 47.7 percent of the Bears’ offense.

Joe Pawelek tallied 21 tackles, a career high and the most by a Baylor linebacker since Mike Singletary had 21 vs. Lamar on Sept. 8, 1979.
Baylor’s highest-scoring game in 67 years ended up being a costly victory. The Bears trounced Northwestern State 25-13, but lost quarterback Robert Griffin III and S/KR Mikkail Baker to season-ending knee injuries.

Griffin sustained his injury on the game’s opening drive but finished the first half. By the time Baylor had its first offensive possession of the second half, the Bears led 47-7; Griffin did not return to the field.

Baker’s injury came on a kickoff return midway through the first half.

Griffin’s injury came when he was stopped on a fourth-and-one rush at the Northwestern State 1-yard touchdown. That was the last lead of the night for Northwestern State.

Baylor scored twice in the final three minutes, three seconds of the first quarter to take the lead, moving ahead on Griffin’s 42-yard pass to Kendall Wright. Early in the second quarter, Griffin connected with Salubi for 105 yards, while Gettis had nine receptions for 85 yards. Salubi posted 76 yards on four rushes, and Wright added 44 yards on four carries for 85 total yards in the game with 36 yards on seven carries.

Third-string quarterback Nick Florence rushed for two touchdowns in his first career start and Baylor won its first game without standout Robert Griffin III, beating Kent State 31-15.

Florence was 19-74 1 TD, Smith 4-30, Gettis 2-2 1 TD. Florence capped an 89-yard drive with his 25-yard touchdown pass, turning into a 44-yard gain.

Salubi’s 45-yard touchdown run gave the Bears a 21-7 halftime lead. Griffin suffered a left knee injury on the opening drive of the second half. He returned to the game after the replay confirm the injury. Griffin was not the only offensive starter to suffer an injury in the second quarter, Griffin connected with Salubi for 105 yards, while Gettis had nine receptions for 85 yards. Salubi posted 76 yards on four rushes, and Wright added 44 yards on four carries for 85 total yards in the game.

Passing for 226 yards and three touchdowns.

Florence scored on his third touchdown of the night. Florence capped an 89-yard drive with his 25-yard touchdown pass, turning into a 44-yard gain.

Salubi’s 45-yard touchdown run gave the Bears a 21-7 halftime lead.

Baylor’s largest margin of victory since a 55-0 win over Missouri in 1973. Baylor eclipsed 100 yards rushing for the seventh consecutive game.

IOWA STATE 24, BAYLOR 10

Jack Trice Stadium • Ames, Iowa
Oct. 17, 2009 • Attendance: 42,253

Iowa State out-rushed Baylor 240-89 en route to a 24-10 victory at Jack Trice Stadium. The Bears suffered their 13th consecutive Big 12 road loss and their 21st straight loss when trailing at halftime.

The Cyclones entered the game as the league’s best rushing team statistically. Meanwhile, the Bears entered the game as the league’s lowest rushing offense.

Those figures held true as Iowa State averaged 5.2 yards per carry and posted the most rushing yards against Baylor since the 2007 season finale.

Four Cyclones tallied at least 40 rushing yards each on the night, led by Alexander Robinson’s 83 yards on 19 totes. Quarterbacks Jerome Tiller and Austin Amos took the game over, with 14 and 74 yards, respectively, and each scored a touchdown. Jeremia Schwartz added 42 yards on eight carries.

Baylor took the game’s first lead on Ben Parks’ 38-yard field goal late in the first quarter. However, the Cyclones scored the game’s next 24 points and took control of the game. During that stretch, Iowa State enjoyed a streak of seven consecutive third-down conversions, going 9-of-11 in the first half. At the same time, the Bears failed on their first seven consecutive third-down conversion attempts.

Arnaud’s 1-yard touchdown run with 13:38 remaining in the second quarter gave Iowa State a lead it would never relinquish. Less than three minutes later, Arnaud connected with Derrick Catlett on a 4-yard touchdown pass that pushed ISU’s lead to 14-3 at the break.

After a Grant Mahoney 45-yard field goal with 12:30 remaining in the third, Tiller capped the Cyclones’ scoring with a 20-yard touchdown run down the right sideline midway through the third.

Baylor finally found the end zone nine seconds before the end of the game. Jerod Monk, a reserve tight end and former high school quarterback, lined up under center and connected with Justin Akers on a 3-yard jump pass for a touchdown.

Blake Szymski finished the game’s 23rd of 38 passing for 223 yards and three interceptions in his first start since the 2007 season finale. He connected with Ernest Smith and Kendall Wright seven times each. Smith finished with 125 yards, the 100th receiving yardage of his career. Baylor finished the game 5-of-14 in third-down conversion attempts; while Iowa State was 12-of-18. The Cyclones subsequently dominated time of possession, holding the ball more than 35 minutes, and ran 25 more offensive plays than did the Bears.

NOTES
• Iowa State leads the all-time series 5-4.
• Baylor has lost 13 consecutive Big 12 road games.
• WR Ernest Smith’s 59-yard reception in the first quarter was the longest of his career.
• Smith had 101 receiving yards in the first half, becoming the first Baylor player to record 100 receiving yards in a half since Dominique Zeigler had 166 yards in the first half against Texas A&M in 2006.

FLOYD CASEY STADIUM • WACO, TEXAS
OCT. 24, 2009 • ATTENDANCE: 38,117

Zac Robinson completed 23 of 27 pass attempts for 250 yards and three touchdowns as 14th-ranked Oklahoma State spoiled Baylor’s homecoming game 34-7 at Floyd Casey Stadium. It was Oklahoma State’s third consecutive victory in the series and 13th in 14 meetings since the inception of the Big 12 Conference in 1996. Baylor suffered its third consecutive loss, failing to reach double digits in the scoring department in each game. Oklahoma State scored the game’s first 34 points, starting with a Dan Bailey 24-yard field goal on its first possession. Robinson connected with Wilson Youman on a 22-yard touchdown pass on the Cowboys’ next drive. Robinson found Dameron Fooks on a 16-yard touchdown pass midway through the second quarter, giving OSU a 17-0 halftime lead. Robinson completed his third touchdown pass of the day to Cooper Bassett from 19 yards out midway through the third quarter. Bailey added a 33-yard field goal on the final play of the third quarter, and Keith Toston scored the game’s first points. After the Bears’ game-opening drive, when Nick Florence connected with David Gettis for a 17-yard touchdown pass. Oklahoma State dominated Baylor on the ground, chewing out as many rushing attempts as the Bears had rushing yards. OSU finished the day with 195 yards on 43 carries, while the Bears managed only 43 yards on 19 totes. Toston paced the attack with 109 yards on 15 carries, and Bear Johnson added 93 yards on 22 tries. Jay Finley was the only Bear to gain more than 10 yards rushing with 31 yards on 10 attempts. Florence finished 21-of-35 for 335 yards with one interception. Ernest Smith was Florence’s favorite target with six catches for 33 yards. Justin Akers added five receptions for 62 yards. Gettis finished with 62 yards on four receptions. Joe Pawelek turned in the 16th double-digit tackle performance of his career, making 10 stops. Elliott Coffey (eight), Chance Casev (seven), Byron Landor (seven) and Mike Hicks (six) all turned in big tackles in the tackles department. Coffey and Landor each had a sack.

TEXAS A&M 38, BAYLOR 3
KYLE FIELD • COLLEGE STATION, TEXAS
NOV. 21, 2009 • ATTENDANCE: 82,106

Baylor was eliminated from bowl contention with a decisive 38-3 defeat at the hands of rival Texas A&M in College Station.

Jerrold Johnson threw for 153 yards and threw two touchdown passes and ran for another score as the Aggies beat Baylor for the ninth straight time at Kyle Field.

Nick Florence completed 21 of 31 passes for 177 yards with two interceptions for the Bears, guaranteed a losing record for the 14th consecutive season.

Following a goaline stand by the Aggies’ defense early in the second quarter, freshman Christine Michelle bustered loose for a 97-yard touchdown run. The Bears drove to the A&M 8-yard line with the Aggies leading 14-3. On third-and-goal, receiver Kendall Wright took the ball from Florence and threw to the end zone, but A&M comebacker Terrence Frederick intercepted.

On second down, Michael burst through a hole and outran Baylor safety Jeremy Williams down the sideline to the end zone.

The Bears threatened again late in the half, but A&M linebacker Kyle Mangan intercepted a Florence pass at the 2-yard-line with 24 seconds left. The Aggies rushed for 287 yards in the first half after breaking several big runs.

Gray had gains of 17 and 42 yards on A&M’s first series, and Johnson threw a 2-yard touchdown pass to Kenny Brown less than four minutes into the game.

Johnson threw a 7-yard TD pass to Jerrod Johnson in the first minute of the fourth quarter. On third-and-8, he later rolled out for a 97-yard touchdown run.

First downs for the Bears were 16 and 15, while A&M’s defense held Baylor to 1-10.

Baylor's goal-line stand held the Red Raiders to a 1-yard sneak. The Red Raiders finished the drive with a 1-yard sneak.

Randy Bullock’s 48-yard field goal early in the third quarter stretched A&M’s lead to 243.

Michael tackled on a 2-yard touchdown run in the first minute of the fourth quarter. Johnson threw a 7-yard TD pass to Ryan Tannehill with 6:55 left. Johnson has 24 touchdown passes this season.
