THE BAYLOR SYSTEM IS AMERICA’S TOP OFFENSE

Baylor’s unique, record-breaking system has set the standard for offense in contemporary college football. For three-straight seasons, Baylor has led the nation in both Total Offense (616.2 ypg in 2015, 581.5 ypg 2014, 618.8 ypg 2013) and Scoring (48.1 ppg in 2015, 48.2 ppg 2014, 52.4 ppg 2013), just the second program in NCAA history to do so (first since BYU 1979-81). THE BAYLOR OFFENSE: A unique, up-tempo spread attack with origins in Bill Yeoman’s ‘Houston Veer’ (perhaps most identifiable by wide splits of receivers and a power running game); it’s a balanced offense, not to be confused with more common pass-heavy spread attacks. The Baylor offense is also in use under former Art Briles assistants at Syracuse (head coach Dino Babers), Texas (offensive coordinator Sterlin Gilbert) and Tulsa (Philip Montgomery).

SHOCK ON VERGE OF RUSHING RECORDS

Baylor senior Shock Linwood enters 2016 as the nation’s third-leading active rusher and on the cusp of becoming Baylor’s all-time leader in rushing yards and rushing TDs. [see listing below]
