US Sports Camps is proud to present the 2006 Nike Golf Camp at Baylor University. Nike Jr. Golf Camps have aided in the development of over 80,000 young golfers since 1994. At camp, each junior golfer gains new skills as well as self-confidence to continue improving after camp.

Camp Director

Directing the camp is Baylor University Men's Golf Coach, Greg Priest who is in his 3rd season as coach of the team. Before becoming head coach of Baylor, Greg was an assistant at the University of Texas, Austin where he compiled three national top ten rankings. Prior to his stint at Texas, Priest spent two seasons (1998-2000) as head coach of both the men's and women's golf programs at Sam Houston State University. Priest led the Bearkats to consecutive third-place finishes in the Southland Conference in 1999 and 2000 and seven top-10 team finishes. Before taking the reigns at SHSU, Priest was head coach at Tyler Junior College for two seasons (1996-98) where he was named National Junior College Athletics Association Division II Coach of the National Tournament both seasons. During the Nike Camp, Coach Priest is assisted by a staff of PGA professionals and collegiate players.

First Class Facilities

Beautiful Bear Ridge Golf Club, home to the NIKE Golf Camp at Baylor University, opened in November 2001. Designed by PGA Tour veteran Peter Jacobsen and Jim Hardy, Bear Ridge runs along the ridges atop the Middle and South Bosque Rivers on hilly terrain with several stone-filled streams cutting between large oak trees. Bear Ridge's front nine is scenic, with many quality golf holes, but the back nine is even more striking with several picturesque views.

Camp Description

Junior golfers ages 10-18 will be grouped according to age and ability with a camper to instructor ratio of no more than 5:1. Camp staff will consist of the Baylor University Golf coaching staff, local PGA Professionals and Division I collegiate players, who serve as camp counselors. Golf instruction will focus on improving the camper's swing, short game, putting, and course management.
