2003 Bears Continue to Impress

Netters finish season ranked No. 4, with program-best 28-2 record.

Baylor head coach Matt Knoll continues to take his Baylor tennis program to new heights. In the past two seasons alone his teams have posted the best record in the nation. The Bears were 27-2 in 2002 and finished the 2003 campaign at 28-2, giving the program a 55-4 record over two seasons for a .932 winning percentage. Baylor's two losses this season came at the hands of the two teams that met in the finals of the NCAA Championships, Illinois and Vanderbilt. The Bears finished the 2003 season with the program's highest final ranking, No. 4. Baylor reeled off their fourth 20-win season in the last five years and won a school-record 19 straight matches. Knoll's crew won their second consecutive Big 12 Championship and third in the program's history.

For the second straight season the Bears won both the Big 12 regular season and tournament titles. Knoll also guided the Bears to a sweep of Big 12 postseason honors. Knoll garnered his third Big 12 Coach of the Year honor, Benedikt Dorsch was named both Big 12 Player and Newcomer of the Year and Ivor Lovrak was the league's Freshman of the Year.

A Baylor player has won freshman of the year honors five straight seasons.

The Bears achieved several 'firsts' this season. They were awarded the program's highest NCAA Tournament seed when they received the No. 2 seed this season. Sophomore Benedikt Dorsch won the program's first national title (Omni Indoor National) and advanced to the semifinals of the ITA All-American and the NCAA Singles Championships. Dorsch also received the first No. 1 national ranking for a Baylor player, a position he held for five rankings. In addition, Dorsch became the program's first double All-American, earning the honor in both singles and doubles. Also, the sophomore won a school-record 49 singles matches.

Baylor in the NCAA Tournament...

The Bears made their sixth consecutive appearance in the NCAA Tournament, going in with their highest-ever seed at No. 2. Vanderbilt, the eventual national runnerup, defeated the Bears in the quarterfinals. A team-record four players were selected to participate in the NCAA Singles Championships, senior Zoltan Papp, junior Matias Marin and sophomores Benjamin Becker and Benedikt Dorsch. Dorsch was the No. 2 seed in the singles championships, which earned him automatic All-American honors. He advanced to the finals, falling in the championship match to Amer Delic of Illinois, 6-4, 6-3. Papp wasn't able to play in the tournament due to a broken right hand, Marin was eliminated in the round of 64 and Becker lost in the round of 32. Dorsch and junior Reiner Neurohr were selected for the doubles portion of the tournament and earned all-American honors by advancing to the quarterfinals where they lost in three sets to the eventual national runnerup, Oliver Maiberger and Ryan Redondo of San Diego State.

Protecting the Home Court...

During the 2002 and 2003 seasons, the Bears won all of their home matches. In fact, under head coach Matt Knoll the Bears are 72-16 when playing at home. Last season, thirteen matches were won on the Baylor Tennis Center and while the other three were played at the Ennis Indoor courts. With their victories over UT-Arlington and TCU in the first and second rounds of the NCAA Championships, the Bears' Baylor Tennis Center winning streak now stands at 28.

Coach Knoll Corner...

Under head coach Matt Knoll, the Baylor men's tennis team has enjoyed a level of success in the national arena unlike anything the program had ever seen before. Under Knoll's guidance, Baylor is 142-46 in the last seven years and 114-25 over the past five seasons. Knoll's teams have won 20 or more matches in four of the last five seasons.

The Bears have claimed three Big 12 championships with Knoll as their leader and have gained berths to the NCAA Championships the past six years.

Knoll Named USPTA Texas Division Coach of Year...

Baylor's men's tennis head coach Matt Knoll has been named College Coach of the Year for the Texas Division by the United States Professional Tennis Association (USPTA).

Knoll also serves as Baylor's Director of Intercollegiate Tennis and led the Bears to a 27-2 record and final national ranking of No. 7 last season. Currently Baylor is ranked third nationally.

The purpose of USPTA is to raise the standards of teaching tennis as a profession; to increase interest and awareness in the sport of tennis.

Bears Sweep Big 12 Honors...

Baylor's men's tennis team swept Big 12 Conference individual awards the Big 12 office announced. The individual awards were voted on by the league's head coaches.

Sophomore newcomer Benedikt Dorsch captured Big 12 Player of the Year honors as well as Newcomer of the Year laurels. Ivor Lovrak was named Big 12 Freshman of the Year and for the second straight year, Matt Knoll was named Coach of the Year.

Dorsch, ranked No. 1 nationally in the ITA Omni Hotels singles poll for most of the 2003 season, rolled to a 42-3 record in singles for the 2002-03 season and is 22-2 in dual competition. The transfer from Ludwig-Maximilian University in Germany and a native of Weiden, Germany, set a BU single-season school record with his 42 total singles triumphs to date. Dorsch is the second Baylor player named Big 12 Player of the Year, Johann Jooste earned the honor in 1999. Current Baylor assistant coach Pawel Gajdzik was named the league's newcomer of the year in 1998 and Jorge Aldrete earned the same honor in 1999.

Lovrak, a true freshman from Zagreb, Croatia, roared to 18 consecutive singles wins prior to the NCAA Tournament and has a 36-7 mark in 2002-03. He was 5-0 at No. 6 singles in Big 12 encounters and also played at Nos. 4 and 5 for the Bears this spring. Lovrak is the fourth straight Baylor player to be named the league's freshman of the year. Zoltan Papp earned the award in 2000, Reiner Neurohr in 2001 and Benjamin Becker in 2002.

Bears Claim Second Straight Big 12 Tournament and Regular Season Titles...

It was fitting that senior team leader Zoltan Papp was the one to clinch the match for Baylor in the Bears' 4-0 victory over Oklahoma State in the
