2002 Very Successful for Young Bear Squad

Netters finish season ranked No. 7, with program-best 27-2 record.

What a difference a year makes. After finishing the previous season at 12-12, Matt Knoll's young Baylor tennis squad posted the program's best year as they finished the 2001-02 campaign at 27-2, put together a record-breaking 18-match winning streak, won both the Big 12 regular season championship and tournament and ranked as high as No. 4 nationally throughout the season. In addition, the Bears finished the season ranked No. 7 which matched the program's 2000 final ranking, the highest in the program's history.

Buoyed by an infusion of young talent the Bears, without a senior on the roster, posted notice in the fall that they would be a force to be reckoned with come spring. And, that proved to be true. The Bears started out the spring winning nine straight matches, five of which were against ranked opponents, before losing to then-No. 9 Pepperdine. After that loss, the Bears would reel off a school-record 18 straight wins before seeing their season end in the round of 16 of the NCAA Tournament with a loss to eventual national champion Southern California.

The Bears' reeled off their third 20-win season in Knoll's six years at the program's helm, made their fifth straight NCAA Tournament appearance and won the program's second Big 12 championship. All of this was achieved with a roster of two juniors, four sophomores and two freshmen.

One of the most impressive performances came from freshman Benjamin Becker. Becker, a native of Orscholz, Germany, burst upon the scene in the fall. His impressive fall campaign included making it to the finals of the ITA Indoor Nationals in singles and making it to the quarterfinals of the ITA All-American in doubles. He debuted the spring campaign ranked No. 3 nationally, the highest ranking ever for a Baylor tennis player. He continued to be impressive in the spring earning several honors in addition to posting a 22-4 dual match record which included a 15-match winning streak. He completed the 2001-02 campaign with a 37-9 singles record which featured a 21-8 mark against ranked opponents and ranked No. 11 nationally at season's end. Becker's freshman honors included: All-American, ITA Region VI Rookie of the Year, ITA Region VI Player to Watch, All-Big 12 (singles and doubles), Big 12 Freshman of the Year, Big 12 Player of the Week (twice), Big 12 gold medals at No 1 singles and No. 2 doubles and preseason all-Big 12. In addition, he and doubles partner Zoltan Papp reeled off 15 straight doubles victories and finished the year with a 16-1 doubles mark.

A large part of the team's success can be attributed to the improvement and leadership of junior Zoltan Papp. Coming into the spring season, Papp was penciled in at the No. 4 singles position. However, after working extremely hard recovering from knee surgery the previous season, it took the Budapest, Hungary native only seven matches to settle in at No. 2 singles. In dual match competition, Papp was 23-1 which boasted two separate winning streaks of 11 and 13 matches. He was undefeated in league play at 7-0 and advanced to the round of 32 of the NCAA Tournament. In addition, he was named All-Big 12 in both singles and doubles and won Big 12 gold medals at No. 2 singles and doubles and was Big 12 Player of the Week. Papp finished the season ranked No. 40 nationally.

Four Bears recorded 30 or more singles wins during the 2001-02 campaign. Zoltan Papp led the way

Both players were named Big 12 champions at their respective positions.

Baylor in the Rankings

According to the final Omni Hotels Intercollegiate Tennis Association (ITA) team rankings released Friday, May 31, the Baylor men's tennis team finished the season ranked No. 7 in the country. The No. 7 final ranking ties Baylor's highest final team ranking which was also achieved in 2000.

In the final ITA Top 125 individual rankings released on May 31, three Bears received rankings. Freshman Benjamin Becker finished the season ranked No. 11, Zoltan Papp checked in at No. 40 and Markus Hornung No. 56. Three doubles teams were ranked among the top 60 with Markus Hornung part of all three doubles teams. Hornung and Nathan McGregor are No. 18, Hornung and Reiner Neurohr are No. 44 and Benjamin Becker and Hornung are No. 50.

Trio Earns All-Region Honors

Baylor's men's tennis program received four Intercollegiate Tennis Association (ITA) regional awards following its Big 12 championship season, the ITA announced Monday. Head coach Matt Knoll was named the Region VI Wilson ITA Coach of the Year, and assistant Sam Winterbotham received the Region VI ITA Assistant Coach of the Year honor. Freshman Benjamin Becker was selected the Region VI ITA Rookie Player of the Year and the Region VI ITA Player to Watch.

The three Baylor awardees are all in the running for the ITA's national awards, which will be announced Thurs., May 23 in College Station, from each of the seven regional winners.

Knoll earned his first Regional Coach of the Year honor after guiding the Bears to Big 12 Conference and Big 12 Tournament championships with an undefeated 7-0 mark. In addition, the Bears are ranked No. 4 nationally and have won a school-record 18 straight matches and have posted a school-record 27 victories. In his six seasons at Baylor, Knoll has guided the Bears to five straight NCAA Tournament appearances and two Big 12 championships.

Winterbotham earned regional Assistant Coach of the Year honors in just his second season as a full-time coach at Baylor. Winterbotham is the second Baylor assistant coach to earn the honor. Former Baylor assistant Kevin Kowalik, now head coach at Wichita State, was the region's assistant coach of the year in 1998.

Becker, a freshman from Orscholz, Germany, has been impressive in his first season with the Baylor tennis program. His selection as regional Rookie of the Year and regional Player to Watch marks the first time a Baylor player has snagged those two honors in the same season.

Protecting the Home Court

During the 2002 season, the Bears won all 16 of their home matches. In fact, under head coach Matt Knoll the Bears are 59-16 when playing at home. These include matches at the Baylor Tennis Center, Streich Courts and various indoor courts.
