

2006 YEAR IN REVIEW: BAYLOR ADVANCES TO BIG 12 CHAMPIONSHIP FOR FIRST TIME SINCE 2001

The 2006 soccer season was defined by the Baylor soccer squad advancing to the Big 12 Conference Championship for the first time since 2001. Along the way, the Bears program picked up a number of exciting victories as well as numerous individual honors as Baylor took its next step towards rebuilding a program that was once one of the most powerful in the league.

The year was defined by solid defensive performances as the Bears held opponents to just 30 goals on the season. Unfortunately for Baylor, offensive woes would once again prevent the Bears from taking the next step. Baylor managed only 15 goals on the season, the lowest total in school history, as the Bears dropped a number of close decisions.

"We could just never find a way to get that big goal," head coach George Van Linder said. "I thought we played really good defensively for most of the year; but, we could not put away enough opportunities. I think we showed, though, that we are really close to breaking through the door."

The season was highlighted by the play of goalie Ashley Noah. The third-year started dazzled in the net for the Bears as she picked up first-team All-Big 12 Conference honors for Baylor. Her selection to the quad marked the first time since 2000 a Baylor soccer player had picked up first-team honors when Dawn Greathouse was named to the squad.

Noah's performance throughout the season was so impressive she enters her senior year needing only 63 saves to break Greathouse's Big 12 Conference record for most saves in her career. For the year, Noah finished third in the conference in saves and second in saves per game.

Noah and the Bears opened the 2006 season with a shutout victory over Northwestern State. Senior's Missy McConnell and Anna Schuch connected for the only goal the Bears would need as Noah picked up the shutout in the net.

Baylor would fall on hard times in their next five contests; however, as the Bears would go winless over the stretch, only managing a tie against Indiana. In the losing streak, Baylor dropped a match to defending national champion Portland on a night the Pilots received their championship rings in front of a crowd of 3,646.

Baylor would respond; however, when the Bears returned home as the squad picked up back-to-back 1-0 victories over UTSA and Samford. Anna Schuch would pick up both goals on the week as Noah picked up the first of her two Big 12 Conference Defensive Player of the Week honors for the back-to-back shutouts.

The Bears would then step into Big 12 Conference play, opening up with in-state rivals Texas and Texas A&M. Baylor put up a strong fight against the Aggies and the Longhorns; however, would eventually drop a pair of tough, one-goal decisions.

Despite the losses, Baylor would even its Big 12 Conference record over the next two matches, cruising to a pair of wins over Iowa State and Missouri. The Bears blanked the Cyclones, 3-0, before traveling to Missouri to shut-out the Tigers by the same score. McConnell led the way for the weekend, scoring a pair of goals as Noah recorded back-to-back shutouts for the second time on the year.

The back-to-back blanking once again earned Noah Big 12 Conference Defensive Player of the Week honors and also earned the junior on the SoccerBuzz National Team of the Week.

Unfortunately, offensive woes would strike the Bears again as Baylor dropped five of its next league games, including a pair of one-goal decisions to Colorado and Kansas as well as an overtime loss to Nebraska.

Baylor managed to get into the Big 12 Conference Championship; however, with a victory over Oklahoma as the Bears would meet regular-season champion Texas A&M. The Aggies proved to be too much for the Bears; however, as Texas A&M claimed a 3-0 win to end the Baylor season.

A number of Bears picked up academic honors on the season as eight players were named to the Academic All-Big 12 Conference team. Andi Fagan, McConnell, Pat Roscovius, Megan Sherrell and Shea Yates earned first-team honors while Jessica Hutton, Amanda McGrath and Rose Zapata picked up second-team accolades.

The selection of McConnell to the academic all-conference squad marked the third time she had earned first-team honors, making her the 11th player in school history to be a three-time academic all-conference selection.

Baylor's loss to the Aggies marked the end of a pair of careers come to a close as McConnell and Schuch, who led the team with five goals apiece, saw their time at Baylor come to an end at the hand of Texas A&M
