NCAA Championship Third Round

Sunday, Nov. 18, 2012 • Noon (CT)
Chapel Hill, N.C. • Fetzer Field (5,025)
#11 [3] Baylor (19-1-4)
at #13 [2] North Carolina (12-5-2)

TEAM QUICK NOTES

- At 19-1-4 (875), Baylor’s 2012 squad owns the best record in program history. That mark edges out the 1996 team, which was 17-3-1 (833).

- Overall, BU is unbeaten in its last 20 games dating back to a loss at 15th-ranked Long Beach State on Aug. 26. That is the longest unbeaten streak in program history, besting the previous record of 11 set in 1996.

- The Bears have won eight straight games, since a tie versus Oklahoma State on Oct. 14. The eight-match win streak is the longest in program history, passing the six-straight contests won by the 1998 squad.

- Since the end of the regular season, Baylor is averaging 2.8 goals per contest (14 goals in five games). During the regular season, BU averaged just 2.26 goals per game and only 1.36 goals per match in Big 12 play.

- With no remaining undefeated teams in Division I women’s soccer, Baylor is one of four one-loss teams in the country (BYU, San Diego State, and Stanford).

- The Bears lead the Big 12 in every offensive statistical category: shots (522, 21.75), points (155, 6.46), goals (57), goals per game (2.38), assists (41) and assists per game (1.71).

- BU has outshot its opposition by a 522-160 margin and outscored them 57-13 in its 24 games this fall. The Bears are averaging 21.75 shots per contest with 42.5 percent of those coming on goal.

- On the offensive end, Baylor had the nation’s No. 2 defense coming into the week with a .969 goals against average. The Bears have allowed the fewest goals (13) in the Big 12 in over 2271 minutes of play. BU also leads the Big 12 with 13 shutouts in 24 games, giving them a shutout percentage of .542. The 13 shutouts are a new program-record for most in a single season, besting the mark of 11 achieved in 1998, 2010 and 2011.

- Coming into the weekend, BU was one of only four teams in the country to be in the top 15 in scoring offense (12th, 2.39), goals against average (second, .496) and shutout percentage (15th, .565).

- In the latest release of the national polls, BU is ranked No. 11 by the National Soccer Coaches Association, No. 9 by Soccer America and No. 10 by Soccer Times. In TopDrawerSoccer.com’s projection of the NCAA Championship field, Baylor is No. 6, while ranking No. 9 in the NCAA RPI listings.

NCAA CHAMPIONSHIP QUICK NOTES

- Baylor earned the program’s fourth NCAA Championship bid and its first automatic selection to the tournament, after capturing the 2012 Big 12 Championship on Nov. 4.

- After only making the NCAA Championship field twice in the first 15 years of the program (1998, 1999), Marci Jobson has led BU to back-to-back NCAA Championship appearances and consecutive first-round wins.

- Last season, BU got its first-ever win in NCAA play with a 3-0 victory over Texas State in Waco (Nov. 12, 2011), while this year BU picked up its first NCAA road win in the 3-1 victory over ASU (Nov. 9, 2012).

- The Bears earned their first berth in the NCAA Championship’s third round with the 2-1 overtime victory vs. Georgetown. On Sunday, BU will be looking to avenge last season’s 5-0 loss to North Carolina in the NCAA Championship second round.

MATCH NOTES

LAST TIME OUT
With a golden goal by Dana Larsen in the 93rd-minute, the 11th-ranked Baylor soccer team slipped past No. 14 Georgetown, 2-1, in overtime on Friday at Fetzer Field.

The teams battled to a scoreless draw through 82 minutes of play, but the Hoyas put the Bears on the brink of elimination in the 83rd-minute as Daphne Corboz tallied her 18th-goal of the year.

Baylor recorded the equalizer less than six minutes later when Bri Campos headed a shot past Newins from 12-yards out. With her 11th goal of the year, Larsen moves into a tie for fourth on the all-time Baylor scoring list with 29 goals.

For the game, the Bears outshot the Hoyas 21-5. Gilmore led BU with seven shots, while B. Campos and Larsen each had three chances.

LOOKING AHEAD
If Baylor wins its third-round match, the Bears will advance to the NCAA’s quarterfinals for the first time in program history. BU would face the winner of No. 2 BYU (20-1-1) and No. 12 Marquette (18-2-2). The quarterfinal match will take place at a date, time and location to be determined.

MATCH COVERAGE
Friday’s match vs. North Carolina will have a video stream on GoHeels.com with an audio broadcast by WCHL FM/AM. GoHeels.com will also provide live stats via GameTracker for the match. In-game updates will be available at BaylorFutbol on Twitter.

VS. RANKED OPPONENTS
Baylor faces its fourth ranked opponent of the season on Sunday in No. 13 North Carolina. The Bears picked up their first win vs. a ranked foe this season with Friday’s win over Georgetown. Before that match BU had lost to 15th-ranked Long Beach State, 2-1 (2OT), on Aug. 26, and tied No. 25 West Virginia, 1-1 (2OT), on Oct. 12.

LAST TIME VS. NORTH CAROLINA
The Bears surrendered four goals in the first half in a 5-0 loss to No. 18 North Carolina in the NCAA Championship second round at Elvis G. Pressly Stadium in Gainsville, Fla. on Nov. 18, 2011.

PROFILING THE TAR HEELS
North Carolina enters Sunday’s contest with a 12-5-2 record. The Tar Heels have beaten Radford (2-0) and Illinois (9-2) in the first two rounds to advance to the third round of NCAA Championship play. North Carolina has made the third round in 31 consecutive seasons.

UNC is led by a quartet of girls, Summer Green, Amber Brooks, Kealia Ohai and Maria Lubrano, who all have seven goals and at least 17 points.

Head Coach Anson Dorrance is now in his 34th season as the Tar Heels’ head coach. His teams have an all-time record of 740-49-28 (.923). Under Dorrance, UNC has won 21 national championships, including 20 NCAA Tournament crowns and one AIAW title.

Notaeworthy
- The Bears and Tar Heels have met just twice with UNC taking 5-0 wins in each contest.
- Baylor met North Carolina in the second round of the NCAA Championship last season with UNC claiming the shutout win in Florida.
- When the two teams met in 1998, UNC was ranked No. 1 in the country, while BU was No. 23.
OFFENSIVE SURGE
This year’s squad has already set the program record for shots and corner kicks in a season and is close to shattering more of the program’s offensive records.

BAYLOR CLAIMS SECOND-STRAIGHT NCAA FIRST ROUND VICTORY
Before last season, Baylor had never advanced past the first round of NCAA Championship play, but after getting past Arizona State 3-1 on Friday, Baylor has now made the tournament’s second round in back-to-back seasons.

BIG 12 CHAMPIONSHIP BELONGS TO BEARS
By way of three straight victories at Blossom Soccer Stadium in San Antonio, Texas, the Bears wrapped up their first Big 12 Championship title in program history. BU has now won a pair of Big 12 trophies, after also claiming the 1998 Big 12 regular-season crown. On their way to the title, BU shutout seventh-seeded Oklahoma State, 3-0, dropped No. 3 seed Texas Tech, 2-1 and cruised past eighth-seeded TCU in the finale, 4-1.

UNBEATEN IN BIG 12 PLAY
With a 2-0 victory over TCU on Oct. 26 in Waco, Baylor completed its first unbeaten season of Big 12 soccer since 1998. The Bears’ 5-0-3 record is only the seventh undefeated mark by any Big 12 team in the 17-year history of league play. BU finished second in the league standings, behind 7-0-1 WVU.

STARTING THE SEASON ON THE RIGHT FOOT
In each of the last three seasons, the Bears have opened at least 6-1-1, including an 8-1-1 start to 2012. Prior to 2010, the Bears had only opened up 6-1-1 or better in four out of 14 seasons.

SHARING THE WEALTH
This season, 18 BU players have at least two points, while 17 have at least one goal and 14 have one assist.

SCORING IN BUNCHES
In 2012, Baylor has scored at least three goals in 10 matches. That is the second-most three or more goal games in program history. The 1996 squad had 13 such matches.

BACK-TO-BACK SUCCESSES VS. LONGHORNS
Baylor’s 2-1 double overtime victory over Texas on Oct. 19 gave the Bears consecutive wins over the Longhorns for the first time since the 1996 and 1997 seasons.

SCORING FIRST IN THE POSTSEASON
In four of Baylor’s five postseason matches (three games at the Big 12 Championship and two NCAA contests), the Bears have scored first. During that stretch, BU has six goals in the first 21 minutes of action. BU had only scored eight goals in that time period during the first 19 games of the season.

SCORING LATE AS OF LATE
Twelve of Baylor’s last 25 goals have come in the 80th-minute or later. In the first 12 games of the season, BU only had two goals in the final 10 minutes of regulation or in overtime.
OVERTIME COMMONPLACE FOR THE BEARS
Six of Baylor’s last 14 games have gone to overtime, including five of the last 11. For the sea-son, Baylor has played nine overtime games, going 4-1-4 in those matches. The nine OT matches are a program record for the most in a single season, passing the 2009 squad (7).

JOBSON ORCHESTRATING BAYLOR RESURGENCE
When head coach Marci Jobson arrived in 2008, Baylor had suffered seven consecutive losing sea-son. Now the Bears have been above .500 in each of their last three seasons and reached the NCAA Championship in back-to-back seasons for the first time in program history. In 2011, Baylor picked up its first ever NCAA Championship victory and recorded the second-most victories in program history. Jobson’s 2012 team has already set the program record for wins, while captur-ing a second Big 12 title and the first postseason league crown.

JOBSON BECOMES PROGRAM’S WINNINGEST COACH
With Oct. 23’s 5-0 victory over Houston Baptist, fifth-year head coach Marci Jobson became the winningest coach in program history. Her current record stands at 58-28-17. Jobson’s 58 wins surpass Randy Waldrum’s previous record of 46 posted during his time in Waco from 1996-98.

EARNING DRAWS A HALLMARK OF JOBSON ERA
In Jobson’s four-plus years in Waco, Baylor has recorded 17 ties, while in the previous 12 years of Baylor soccer there were only 17 draws.

HOME SWEET HOME
Baylor is 9-0 at home and has allowed only two goals at Betty Lou Mays Soccer Field this season. The Bears started the 1998 season with an 8-0 home record, before finishing 8-1. Baylor is currently on an 11-match home win streak. The last loss for the Bears at home came on Oct. 21, 2011 versus No. 2 Oklahoma State, 1-0. The current streak is the second longest in program history. During the 1997 and 1998 seasons, BU won 13 straight at home. Since 2010, the Bears are 29-3-3 at home. Head coach Marci Jobson’s complete home record is 38-10-6.

ROAD WARRIORS
This season on the road, Baylor is 6-1-4, which is the most wins on the road since 1999. Under the direction of Jobson, BU is 16-16-10 in road contests. The program’s best season on the road came in 1996 with an 8-1 record.

SENSATIONAL IN SEPTEMBER
In the month of September, Baylor posted an 6-0-2 record. During the month, the Bears outscored their opposition 22-2 and outshot them 183-38. It is only the second time in program history that the Bears have been unbeaten in the ninth month, after also accomplishing the feat in 1996.

OUTSTANDING IN OCTOBER
For a second straight month, BU finished undefeated, compiling a 5-0-2 mark in October. All seven of its matches were against Big 12 foes with six regular-season contests and one Big 12 Championship game. BU tallied 12 goals in the month to four for opponents, while outshouting them 146-53.

CLIMBING THE RPI LADDER
With its success, BU has shot up the NCAA’s RPI rankings. The Bears started at No. 35, then jumped to No. 21, before holding two weeks at No. 15, then moving up to No. 12 and then No. 11. Currently, BU is the top Big 12 team at No. 9. BU is 13-1-4 against teams in the top-100 of the latest RPI listings.

CAPITALIZING ON THE CORNER KICK
The Bears have been very successful this season by scoring off of a set piece. Some of that abil-ity to score on a set piece can be attributed to the Bears’ prowess to earn corner kicks. This sea-son, BU has taken 148 corner kicks as compared to only 74 for its opponents. The 148 corner kicks for the Bears are the most in program history, passing up the previous mark of 135 (2011).

NATIONAL TV EXPOSURE
Baylor made its second and third appearances on national television in program history this year. FSN was on hand to broadcast the finale of the 2012 Big 12 Championship. In that game BU beat TCU, 4-1, to win the Big 12 crown on Nov. 4. On Oct. 14, the Bears earned a 0-0 draw at

TEAM/PLAYER NOTES

Oklahoma State. The contest aired on ESPNU and was the only Big 12 regular season match on the ESPN family of networks. Last season, Baylor defeated Texas, 1-0, on the Longhorn Network.

BEARS EARN SPOT IN TOP 25 FOR FIRST TIME SINCE 1999

During the week of Aug. 20, Baylor was ranked at No. 24 in the National Soccer Coaches Association of America poll. It marked the first time that the Bears had cracked the top 25 in any of the three major polls since November 10, 1999.

BIG 12 COACHES GIVE BAYLOR HIGHEST PRESEASON RANKING EVER

BU was picked to finish third in the Big 12 preseason poll. It is the highest ever ranking for the Baylor program, after previously placing fifth in 2000, the first year the poll was conducted.

BEARS HAVE BUILT ON SUCCESSFUL 2011 CAMPAIGN

Baylor returned 21 players, including seven starters from the 2011 squad that finished with a 15-4-3 record. The 15 wins tied the 1998 Big 12 Championship team for the second-most victories in a season and the squad became the first team in program history to advance past the first round of NCAA play. In total, Baylor returns 95.5 percent (42-of-44) of its goals, 70.3 percent (26-of-37) of its assists and 88.0 percent (110-of-125) of its points from 2011.

DEFENSIVE DEPENDABLES

Five members of Baylor’s defense have played over 1800 minutes this season and started all 24 games. Carlie Davis (2099 min.), Taylor Heatherly (2239 min.), Michelle Kloss (2176 min.), Kat Ludlow (1867 min.) and Selby Polley (1988 min.) have formed a consistent defensive presence for a BU squad that coming into the weekend was second in the country in goals against average (.496). Heatherly has only missed 32 minutes of action all season, while playing the sweeper position. She is already No. 1 in the Baylor record book for most minutes played in a single season passing goalkeeper Dawn Greathouse, who logged 2021:32 minutes in 1999.

SISTER ACT

Bri and Larissa Campos are almost three years apart in age, but together the two sisters have provided a major boost for Baylor’s front line this season. The younger sibling, Bri, has started 21 of 23 games played as a freshman, while tallying three goals and three assists. Older sister, Larissa, has played in 14 games for the Bears with three goals and three assists. In an Oct. 26 win over TCU, the Campos sisters had both goals for BU with Bri scoring the game-winner and Larissa adding some insurance on a penalty kick.

GOALS COMING FROM FIRST RECRUITING CLASS

Head coach Marci Jobson’s first recruiting class is playing a major part in the program’s historic 2012 season. Five players from that class (Larissa Campos, Hanna Gilmore, Michelle Hagen, Dana Larsen and Lisa Sliwinski) have combined to score 34 of the Bears 57 goals this season. That Fab Five also 19 of BU’s 41 assists.

LARSEN SCORING IN BUNCHES, CLIMBING CAREER CHARTS

Senior Dana Larsen leads the team in points (31) goals (11) and assists (9). She tallied a goal in back-to-back-to-back games against Cal State Northridge, Long Beach State and Nebraska earlier in the year. Coming into the season, Larsen ranked seventh on the career goal scoring list, but has moved into a tie for fourth. She is now one of just three Baylor players to score at least 10 goals in a single season twice in a career. Of Larsen’s 11 goals on the season, five have been of the game-winning variety. She now has 11 career game-winning goals, which is third on the BU career list.

SLIWINSKI SCORING SURGE BECOMING HISTORIC

Senior Lisa Sliwinski has eight goals in her last 14 games and has nine on the season. The native of Plano, Texas now ranks tied for fourth on the all-time scoring list at Baylor with 29 goals. She had two goals on Oct. 5 to help BU down TTU 3-2 in double overtime, plus she registered the game-winner vs. Iowa State on Oct. 21.

GILMORE COMING INTO HER OWN AT CRUCIAL TIME
Senior Hanna Gilmore has four goals in her last four games, including a pair of scores in Baylor’s 4-1 victory over TCU on Nov. 4 to claim the Big 12 Championship title. The Spring, Texas product also had an assist in that contest to record Baylor’s first five-point game of the year and the first for a BU player since Dana Larsen had five vs. Missouri on Oct. 14, 2011. With her seven goals this season, Gilmore has moved up to No. 6 on the all-time Baylor career scoring list with 23 goals.

KLOSS LEADS BIG 12 IN GOALS AGAINST AVERAGE
Goalkeeper Michelle Kloss (Houston, Texas) is first among her Big 12 peers with a 0.53 goals against average. The redshirt sophomore has played over 2,185 minutes in goal for Baylor this year, while giving up only 13 scores. The BU defense has helped Kloss to the top of the league by only forcing her to make 52 saves.

BIG 12 ALL-TOURNAMENT TEAM
Prior to the 2012 season, Baylor players had been recognized six times on the Big 12 All-Tournament team. This season, four different players earned the accolade - Hanna Gilmore, Dana Larsen, Kat Ludlow and Lisa Sliwinski.

LARSEN EARNs BIG 12 CHAMPIONSHIP’S OFFENSIVE MVP AWARD
The senior forward had one goal and four assists over three games in San Antonio to capture the event’s Offensive Most Valuable Player Award. She joins Courtney Saunders in 1996 as the only Baylor players to be recognized with an MVP award at the Big 12 Championship.

BEARS LEAD LEAGUE WITH 14 ON ALL-BIG 12 FIRST TEAM
A total of 15 Baylor student-athletes were honored on the Academic All-Big 12 team. Fourteen Bears earned a spot on the first team with two players, Dana Larsen and Alex Wilde, having 4.00 GPAs.
WACO, Texas - The Baylor soccer team notched its first NCAA win in program history, dominating Texas State 3-0 in the opening round of the NCAA Championship. The crowd of 951 was the second largest at Betty Lou Mays Field this season.

Baylor broke the scoreless tie with the game’s first goal in the 24th minute, as Hoffman slipped the ball through the Texas State backline and found Sliwinski for a left-footed shot and near post goal. The Bears doubled its lead in the 58th minute after a left-footed cross from Larsen found a sliding Gilmore on the back post from six yards out for the 2-0 lead. It marked the second goal in as many games for Gilmore, who has six on the year.

BU outshot the Bobcats 15-3, including 9-0 in shots on goal. Baylor earned its 11th clean sheet of the year, while goalkeeper Courtney Seelhorst picked up her 10th solo shutout.

Baylor nearly scored in the 81st minute off a corner kick from Hannah Dismuke yards out in the 67th minute for a 5-0 advantage.

With just under three minutes remaining, the Bears added a final goal for good measure after a header was flicked-on by Sliwinski the found Larsen’s feet for a near post finish. Her 11th goal of the year, she tied Molly Cameron (2000) for the fifth-most in a season by a BU player.

"We will just keep taking it one game at a time and one step at a time," Jobson said. "We have an outstanding opponent up next, but every team left in the tournament is great so we need to be at our best."

North Carolina struck first in the 14th minute, after a clearance bounced off a Baylor defender and to the feet of a UNC player who dished it to Kelly McFarlane for the left-footed shot and near post goal.

The Tar Heels doubled their lead in the 24th minute after a blocked UNC shot came to the foot of Hanna Gilmore, whose clearance hit off her foot and into the back of the net for a 2-0 BU deficit.

The five goals allowed were the most since Oct. 16, 2009 in a 5-0 loss to No. 18 North Carolina in the NCAA Championship second round at Elvis G. Pressly Stadium.

Courtney Seelhorst came up with a huge save on a long shot that was thwarted over the top of the goal on a leaping effort.

On that corner kick, the Tar Heels found the back of the net for the third time off a pass that found Megan Brigman alone on the back post for the easy cleanup and a 3-0 lead.

The Tar Heels notched a fourth goal with five minutes to go in the first half when Taylor Heatherly and Carlie Davis both missed a clearance that allowed Elizabeth Berchanel to run free and score on the far post.

The Bears trailed 4-0 at the half and were outshot 7-2.

"We had a lot of nerves to start the game and just didn’t seem very settled," Jobson said. "We didn’t play well in the first half and North Carolina is a great team that made us pay for every mistake we made."

With 15 wins on the year, the Bears tied the 1998 Big 12 Champion team for the second-most victories in a season and were the first team to advance past the first round of the NCAA Championship in program history.

"I am so proud of what this team accomplished this season," head coach Marci Jobson said. "We didn’t play well in the first half and North Carolina is a great team that made us pay for every mistake we made."

The Bears nearly scored in the 81st minute off a corner kick from Hannah Dismuke that found Alexa Wilde’s head, but was cleared off the line by North Carolina.

Seelhorst made seven saves on the night, the most since making nine at Nebraska on Oct. 16, 2009 in a 5-0 loss to No. 18 North Carolina in the NCAA Championship second round at Elvis G. Pressly Stadium.
