Series Record: First Meeting

BAYLOR HOSTS PRAIRIE VIEW A&M

WACO, Texas - The Baylor soccer team will continue its six game homestand as the Bears (1-2-0) host Prairie View A&M (0-3-0) at 1:00 p.m. CDT on Sunday at Betty Lou Mays Field

Baylor will be facing the Lady Panthers for the first time in program history.

"We are excited about how we performed in our last match," head coach Marci Jobson said. "We are going to continue to just take it one match at a time and keep building."

The Bears are coming off a 3-0 home win over Presbyterian on Aug. 31. Sophomore Lindsey Johnson scored in the second of the game and senior Andi Fagan added a pair of goals in the second half, the first of her career.

The Panthers head into the weekend with an 0-3 record, but will face SMU on Friday before taking on the Bears. Heading into Friday's contest, Prairie View A&M has been outscored 13-1 with losses to Texas College (1-2), Houston Baptist (0-6) and Sam Houston (0-5). The Panthers' lone goal was scored by sophomore forward Angelica Diaz.

Live stats for each game will be made available via www.baylorbears.com by clicking the gametracker link. The match will also be broadcast on baylorbears.com. Heath Nielsen and Kyle Cornish form the Baylor soccer broadcast team as pre-game for all matches will begin approximately 10 minutes before kick-off.

Fans interested in purchasing tickets can do so by calling the Baylor Ticket Office at 254-710-1000.

SCOUTING PRAIRIE VIEW A&M

The Panthers head into the weekend with an 0-3 record, but will face SMU on Friday before taking on the Bears. Heading into Friday's contest, Prairie View A&M has been outscored 13-1 with losses to Texas College (1-2), Houston Baptist (0-6) and Sam Houston (0-5). The Panthers' lone goal was scored by sophomore forward Angelica Diaz.

LAST TIME OUT: BAYLOR BLANKS PRESBYTERIAN

Lindsey Johnson did not want to wait any longer for Baylor's first goal of the season, as the sophomore scored in the second minute of play to help lead the Bears to a 3-0 win over Presbyterian on Aug. 31 at Betty Lou Mays Field.

The game marked the first career win for Jobson, who is in her first season with the Bears.

Baylor got the only goal it would need in the second minute, as freshman Christine Clark sent a corner kick into the center of the box that found Lindsey Johnson rising above the pack to knock in the header for a 1-0 lead.

The Bears finally broke through again in the 80th minute, as senior Andi Fagan received a ball from freshman Staz Salinas and beat the keeper on the far side from 10 yards out for the first goal of her career.

The Salinas-to-Fagan connection would line up again one more time in the 90th minute, as Salinas sent a long ball from mid-field that found the foot of Fagan, who slipped it passed Young for her second goal of the game.

Notes:

- Baylor's 22 shots were the most since taking 25 on Sept. 2, 2007 against Texas State.
- Senior Andi Fagan's two goals were the first of her career.
- Freshman Staz Salinas' two assists were the first of her career.
- Sophomore Lindsey Johnson collected her second career goal and first of the season.
- Head coach Marci Jobson collected her first career win at Baylor University.

FINALLY FOR FAGAN

Senior Andi Fagan played 53 games, and finally, on her 54th game as a Bear, she accomplished it. A goal... two of them to be exact. The Walnut, Calif., native, scored two goals in a 3-0 win over Presbyterian on Aug. 31. Fagan has spent the majority of her career as a midfielder, but has been moved to the forward position in 2008 under first year head coach Marci Jobson.

HOME SWEET HOME

Beginning on Aug. 31, Baylor will play six-straight home games and nine of its next 10 in the friendly confines of Betty Lou Mays Field. The Bears will play its first three conference games at home against Texas A&M, Iowa State and Nebraska.

YOUTH IS BEING SERVED

Baylor welcomes 10 freshmen to the 2008 roster with nine coming from the state of Texas. Christine Clark is the lone player from outside the Lone Star State, coming from Littleton, Colo.

Including redshirt freshman goalkeeper Courtney Seelhorst, 41 percent (11-of-27) of Baylor's roster are freshmen.

I'LL BE MISSING YOU

Baylor has been without two key cogs so far this season. Senior midfielder Amanda McGrath is still rehabbing a knee injury she suffered six games into the 2007 season. The Sugar Land, Texas, native has played in 42 games during her career, scoring eight goals and notching four assists.

Junior midfielder Nicky Smith has also been out of the lineup so far in 2008 due to injury. During her first two seasons, Smith played in 37 of 38 possible games, registering three assists.

BETTY LOU MAYS FIELD

The 2008 season marks the 10th year for the Baylor soccer team at Betty Lou Mays Soccer Field. The former Baylor Soccer Stadium was named during the 2000 season in honor of the late Betty Lou Mays of Amarillo, Texas. Mrs. Mays was the wife of Troy Mays, a 1945 graduate of Baylor; the two were longtime supporters of Baylor Athletics.

Thanks to a generous gift from the Troy Mays Foundation, the Baylor soccer program has seen a number of improvements to Betty Lou Mays Soccer Field, as over $250,000 worth of improvements were made to the Bear's home soccer stadium in 2007.

Through the gift, a gated fence has been placed along the perimeter of the stadium to enclose the soccer field. The fence is supported by a number of brick-laid posts that are similar to those seen around the Baylor campus.

In addition, a brick façade has been placed around the stands and the press box. The improvements give the facility more of a "stadium-feel" and is the latest in a long list of upgrades to Baylor's home soccer facility.

ROAD WOES

The road has not been kind to the Baylor soccer program of late. The Bears have dropped four-straight road games dating back to a loss to Iowa State on Oct. 21, 2007. Baylor's last road win was a 4-0 blasting of Nebraska on Oct. 19, 2007.

BAYLOR SOCCER ANNOUNCES 2008 BROADCAST SCHEDULE

For the third time in program history, Baylor soccer games will be broadcast on BaylorBears.com as audio for the Bears as four contests will be broadcast on BaylorBears.com.

The live, audio feed is free for users; however, interested listeners will have to sign up for a free username and password at baylorbears.com in order to access the broadcast if they do not already have one.

Baylor opens the broadcast season with a home match against Prairie View A&M on Sunday, Sept. 7, at 1:00 p.m. In addition, broadcasts can be heard for contests against UTSA (9/14), Houston (9/21), Texas A&M (9/28), Nebraska (10/5) and Oklahoma (10/19).

Heath Nielsen and Kyle Cornish form the Baylor soccer broadcast team as pre-game for all matches will begin approximately 10 minutes before kick-off.

BAYLOR SOCCER BROADCAST SCHEDULE
