Bears claim program's first league title.

Head coach Joey Scrivano, in his first season at the helm of the Baylor women's program, guided the team to its first-ever Big 12 Conference title in 2003. The Bears, finished the 2003 season ranked No. 37 nationally, they completed Big 12 play with a program-best 9-2 record.

Baylor's women's tennis team made their seventh NCAA Tournament appearance in eight years in 2003. The Bears had appeared in six straight before missing the tournament in 2002. After falling to No. 19 Clemson in the first round of the NCAA Tournament, the Bears are 3-7 in NCAA Tournament play in seven trips to the Championships.

Scrivano and his team accomplished all of this with a squad that had no singles player ranked higher than 89 from February on and no doubles teams ranked at any time throughout the season. Vida Mulec, the team's lone senior, was ranked No. 45 in preseason rankings but had fallen out of the rankings by the time the next rankings came out on Feb. 26. She achieved a 2003-high when she was No. 89 in the April 9th ranking. Mulec ended her Baylor career ranked No. 103 nationally.
