No. 5 Baylor Hosts NCAA Regional Tournament

Bears enter tournament as fifth seed.

WACO, Texas - Baylor's No. 5 women's tennis team will host for the second time in program history the NCAA Regional tournament on Friday and Saturday. The Bears enter the tournament as the fifth seed of the 64 teams invited. On Friday at 6 p.m., Baylor (25-3) will play Texas Southern (16-7) in the first round. The match marks the first meeting between the two programs. This is the ninth season that Baylor has been invited to the NCAA tournament.

Along with Baylor and Texas Southern, the Bear's regional bracket also includes No. 22 Arizona State and conference rival No. 32 Texas A&M. The Sun Devils and Aggies face off at 3 p.m. Friday afternoon in their first round match.

Last year Baylor's regional matches were played in Provo, Utah, has Brigham Young played host for the first two rounds. The Bears defeated Niagara 4-0 in the first round and Brigham Young 4-1 in the second round. In the Sweet 16 match in Athens, Georgia, Baylor fell to then-ranked No. 2 Florida 4-2.

All regional matches are being played at the Baylor Tennis Center. The regional championship is scheduled for 5 p.m. Saturday evening.

Baylor Notes...

- Of the Bears 25 regular season matches, Baylor played 19 teams ranked in the nation's top 65, including eight ranked in the nation's top 15. Additionally, only six teams on Baylor's schedule were unranked.
- At the Big 12 Championship, Baylor picked up three wins and its first post-season conference title.
- BU won its third regular-season Big 12 title in 2006. The other two were won in 2003 (shared with Texas A&M) and in 2006.
- Baylor posted its second-ever undefeated Big 12 season with an 11-0 mark. The first undefeated conference schedule was earned last season.
- The women's tennis team is 57-14 in its three-year history at the Baylor Tennis Center.
- Setting a program record, five Baylor players were ranked at the same time (April 4, 2006) in the Intercollegiate Tennis Association's polls: No. 4 Zuzana Zemenova, No. 11 Zuzana Cerna, No. 101 Klara Zrustova, No. 104 Daniela Covello, and No. 120 Iva Mihaylova.
- For the first time in school history, six players have posted 20-win seasons: Zuzana Cerna (43), Klara Zrustova (31), Daniela Covello (31), Zuzana Krchnakova (30), Zuzana Zemenova (29) and Iva Mihaylova (28).
- Junior Zuzana Cerna became Baylor's winningest singles player in a season as she tallied 40 wins in 2006 to pass former Bear Jahnvi Parekh (43 wins).
- Baylor is undefeated (15-0) on the season when winning the doubles point. The Bears' three losses this spring have come in matches when Baylor did not earn the doubles point.
- BU has blanked six teams this season, all of which were ranked in the top 60.
- BU has swept all six singles courts nine times this season, which includes a five-match streak in which the Bears did not lose a singles match.

Numbers by Court...

- In singles this season, BU is 23-5 at No. 1, 27-1 at No. 2, 22-6 at No. 3, 22-4 at No. 4, 15-10 at No. 5 and 20-6 at No. 6.
- Baylor has won 20 straight matches at No. 2 singles. All wins were earned by Zuzana Cerna who began the streak on March 17. In fact, Baylor's only loss at No. 2 was on March 14 against Pepperdine.

Head Coach Joey Scrivano...

Baylor's head coach Joey Scrivano is taking his women's tennis team into its second-straight Big 12 Championship as the No. 1 seed. For the second-straight year, Baylor has finished its regular season undefeated. With 2006's Big 12 title, Scrivano has now led his team to claim three conference titles (2003, 2005, 2006) in the four years Scrivano has been at Baylor. In the Big 12 Championship, Baylor claimed its first post-season conference title. After the win, Scrivano was named the 2006 Big 12 Coach of the Year by the conference office. In May, Scrivano was named ITA Southwest Region Coach of the Year.

In the 2005 NCAA tournament, Baylor cruised to the round of 16 before losing to No. 2 Florida, 4-2. At the NCAA individual championships, Scrivano coached then-freshman Zuzana Zemenova to an NCAA singles national championship.

Scrivano has a career record of 126-49 which includes his three year stint at the University of South Alabama (60-18). While at South Alabama he led the program to three straight NCAA Tournament appearances in three years including a quarterfinals finish in 2000. Scrivano has now guided teams to five NCAA Tournaments in six seasons.

Baylor in the Rankings...

The most recent Intercollegiate Tennis Association rankings were released Tuesday, April 25. Nationally as a team, the Bears remain ranked No. 5, the program's highest ranking in Baylor history.

In the ITA's first spring rankings, Baylor sat at No. 9 in early January. The Bears bounced around the top 20 with their lowest ranking coming in the end of February when ITA placed them at No. 16. Since mid-March, Baylor steadily climbed the charts to eventually the program's highest team ranking in history, No. 5. The Bears have ranked No. 5 for three-straight weeks.

As individuals, Baylor broke another school record when on April 4 five players were ranked nationally, ranging from third to 120th in the nation.
