

2005 REVIEW

SLOW GAINS

Baylor did not make the postseason in 2005, but few question the Bears showed improvement.

Baby steps.

Maybe it's not the approach head coach Jim Barnes wanted to take when he came to Baylor, but with key injuries taking their toll early in the season, any positives coming out of the 2005 season were welcome.

Even though the squad fell short of its goal of receiving an invitation to the NCAA Tournament, the numbers didn't lie - these Bears were significantly better. The team showed improvement across the board, winning three more matches overall and two more Big 12 Conference matches than in Barnes' first year as it posted a 15-17 mark overall and a 6-14 record in league play to finish ninth.

On paper, the Bears improved in nearly every statistical category, attacking at a higher percentage and averaging more kills, assists, digs and points per game than the previous season with virtually the same roster. The Bears also maintained their dominant presence at the net, averaging 3.05 blocks per game to rank 19th nationally.

The 2005 squad returned all 10 letterwinners from the year before, including all seven starters. The Bears' nucleus consisted of five seniors - setter Emily Huston, outside hitters Kelly Spriggs and Melanie Hamerly, a four-year basketball letter-winner, middle blocker Stella Odion and defensive specialist Maggie Chlebana - and two juniors who were arguably the best players on the team - outside hitter Nicole LeBlanc and middle blocker Desiree Guilliard-Young.

Senior middle blocker Adeline Meira, who led the team in blocks in 2004, had another knee surgery during the summer which would keep her out for the entire season. Then the Bears were dealt a heavy blow in the first week of two-a-days, as freshman Kelsey Smith, who had immediately stepped in and positioned herself as a starter, suffered a season-ending knee injury. That forced Barnes to put more of the offensive load on Spriggs and the inexperienced Hamerly.

If two injuries weren't enough, the biggest loss came during the second game of the first match of the season, when Guilliard-Young slipped on a wet court and suffered a knee injury that sidelined her for the next 14 matches.

The Bears held the fort down early, winning their first five matches for the first time since 2001, before that streak was snapped by 16th-ranked and eventual Final Four participant Tennessee in Knoxville. The Bears limped out of the Comcast Lady Vols Classic with a pair of losses, but still managed to win eight of their first 10, including the conference opener at Texas Tech. The team was 9-3 overall, 1-0 in Big 12 play heading into the rest of the league schedule with some confidence.

There were several highlights during non-conference play as sophomore Amanda Modglin, the Bears' backup setter who filled in for Guilliard-Young, set a Baylor four-game match record with 13 blocks against Northern Arizona, the second-highest total overall in school history. LeBlanc was named to the all-tournament teams at both the Comcast Lady Vols Classic and the Fiesta Bowl, and Odion joined her on the Fiesta Bowl squad.

The Bears then lost six straight during which Guilliard-Young's presence at 100 percent could have been the difference in three of those outcomes in losses to Iowa State, Kansas and Colorado. Spriggs also missed the Iowa State and Kansas matches due to a death in the family. Guilliard-Young saw limited action in the loss at Nebraska and had trouble knocking off the rust in the Bears' five-game loss at Colorado.

Hope rekindled as the Bears won five of their next six, which should have been a six-match win streak, except for a collapse at home against Kansas State. The Bears easily won the first two games 30-23 and 30-21 and were on the verge of sweeping the 20th-ranked Wildcats, leading 22-15 in game three. After robbing Baylor of any momentum, K-State stormed back and handed the Bears another heartbreaking loss.

The deflating loss might have crushed previous Baylor squads, but the Bears bounced back by beating Texas A&M in College Station for the first time since 1992 in what began a four-match win streak to push their record to 14-10 and 5-7 in conference play. During the streak, Baylor bounced Kansas at home and remained undefeated in Ames by pulling out a five-game decision at Iowa State. The win also broke Baylor's seven-match losing streak in Big 12 matches determined in five games dating back to 2003.

The win must have zapped any energy the Bears had left as they won only three games during a seven-match losing streak that followed. The Bears did capture the season finale in five games over Texas Tech, completing their only sweep of another Big 12 team for the season.

Several Bears had outstanding individual efforts and reached career milestones. Guilliard-Young averaged 1.85 blocks per game, which shattered the Baylor record, and would have ranked second nationally had she met the games played requirement. Schramek, who tied a Baylor record with 22 digs in a three-game match against Missouri, averaged 3.43 digs per game and is currently Baylor's career leader in digs per game with 3.42 digs per game.

Stella Odion became the 10th player in Baylor history with 1,000 kills and LeBlanc was not far behind as the 11th. Huston became only the third Bear with 4,000 assists, moved up to second on the service aces list and became Baylor's all-time leader in service aces per game.

2005 Match Recaps

MATCH 1

Baylor 3, Northwestern State 0

Aug. 27, 2005

RUSTON, La. - Baylor junior outside hitter Nicole LeBlanc hit .414 with 15 kills and six digs to lead the Bears to a sweep over Northwestern State in the Bears' season opener at Thomas Assembly Center.

Senior outside hitter Kelly Spriggs added 10 kills, while senior middle blocker Stella Odion hit .467 with nine kills and senior middle blocker Melanie Hamerly added nine kills in her volleyball debut. Senior setter Emily Huston had six kills, 13 digs, 44 assists and three aces, while sophomore libero Kristen Schramek led the Bears with 14 digs. Junior Deja Sweeney had a solid match passing with nine digs.

Baylor jumped out to an 8-4 lead in game two when it received a big scare as junior All-Big 12 middle blocker Desiree Guillard-Young fell to the floor with an apparent knee injury. Humid conditions inside the arena were causing condensation on the floor, which caused her to slip and the match was delayed 20 minutes so the cooling system could help return the air to normal. She was hitting .571 with four kills and no errors when she left the match.

MATCH 4

Baylor 3, McNeese State 0

Sept. 3, 2005

WACO, Texas - Senior middle blocker Stella Odion hit .700 with 16 kills and four blocks as Baylor recorded its fourth straight sweep to start the season against McNeese State as the Bears hosted the Hilton Invitational at the Ferrell Center.

"This morning we played great defensively and it was nice to get our offense going and put both ends together tonight," head coach Jim Barnes said. "Stella and Emily (Huston) were off and on in executing (before today), but they really answered the call. Everyone was passing and serving well. We can beat anybody we play if we have that mentality of hard work and teamwork."

The Bears hit .535 as a team against McNeese State, the second-highest team attacking percentage in school history, behind a .556 performance against Jackson State exactly six years ago to the date.

MATCH 12

Baylor 3, Northern Arizona 1

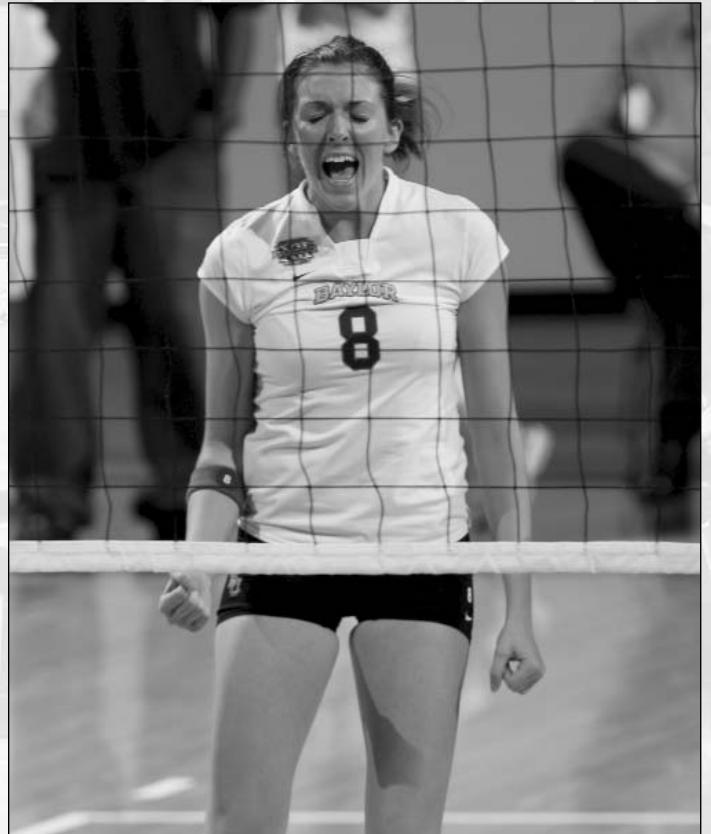

Sept. 17, 2005

FLAGSTAFF, Ariz. - Baylor sophomore middle blocker Amanda Modglin posted 13.0 blocks, the second-highest total in school history and most ever in a four-game match, and added five kills and three aces to lead the Bears to victory over host Northern Arizona and a second-place finish in the Fiesta Bowl Volleyball Tournament at Rolle Activity Center.

Junior outside hitter Nicole LeBlanc led the Bears, hitting .560 with 15 kills, while senior middle blocker Stella Odion hit .520 with 14 kills. Both players were named to the all-tournament team.

Senior outside hitter Kelly Spriggs heated up late in the match and ended up with nine kills, while redshirt freshman Krystle Everett saw her first significant playing time, tallying three kills and a pair of blocks. Senior setter Emily Huston led the Bears with 10 digs, while sophomore libero Kristen Schramek added nine.

MATCH 13

Iowa State 3, Baylor 1

Sept. 21, 2005

WACO, Texas - Baylor junior outside hitter Nicole LeBlanc had a match-high 21 kills and added nine digs, but it couldn't make up for the absence of two starters in the Bears' four-game loss to Iowa State in Big 12 volleyball action at the Ferrell Center.

Already without junior middle blocker Desiree Guillard-Young, who was out with a knee injury, Baylor was also without senior right-side hitter Kelly Spriggs, who had to return home to attend her grandfather's funeral.

Senior outside hitter Melanie Hamerly hit .222 and recorded a career-high 12 kills, while senior middle blocker Stella Odion added 10 kills and four aces. Sophomore middle blocker Amanda Modglin hit .389 with nine kills and four blocks. Sophomore libero Kristen Schramek led the Bears defensively with 18 digs.

MATCH 26

#14 Texas 3, Baylor 1

Nov. 5, 2005

AUSTIN, Texas - Baylor senior outside hitter Kelly Spriggs had a team-high 16 kills to rally the Bears, but a two-game deficit was too much to overcome in a road loss to No. 14 Texas in Big 12 volleyball action at Gregory Gym.

Senior middle blocker Stella Odion and junior outside hitter Nicole LeBlanc each had 12 kills and Odion added eight digs. Junior libero Deja Sweeney paced the Bears defensively with 10 digs. Senior setter Emily Huston had six kills on seven attempts, 48 assists and a season-high five service aces.

Texas hit .298 for the match, while Baylor hit .250, marking the first time in 2005 the Bears lost when hitting .250 or better and only the second time in 12 matches they have lost when having more aces (9-7). The Bears outdug the Longhorns, 37-32, but were outblocked 10.0-9.5.
