BC IN GAME 11

Sophomore quarterback Chase Rettig completed 18-of-38 passing attempts for 170 yards and connected with sophomore wide receiver Bobby Swigert for a seven-yard touchdown reception to bring visiting Boston College (3-8) within two points – at 16-14 – with 1:57 left in the fourth quarter, but an ensuing onside kick did not come to fruition for the Eagles as host-and-24th-ranked Notre Dame (8-3) held on for the victory by that score before a sellout crowd of 80,795 fans at Notre Dame Stadium. Swigert and junior tight end Chris Pantale each caught a team-high five passes while junior wide receiver Colin Larmond, Jr., had three receptions to lead a total of eight receivers who caught at least one Rettig pass in the game. Backup quarterback Josh Bordner, inserted after a 21-yard toss from Rettig to Pantale who was tackled at the Notre Dame two-yard line, accounted for BC's first score with 3:04 left in the first half. Senior Ryan Quigley pinned Notre Dame inside its own 12-yard line six times on a season-high nine punts on the day.

MIAMI IN GAME 11

Place-kicker Jake Wieclaw's second field goal of the game, a 36-yarder as time expired gave Miami a 6-3 victory over South Florida. Wieclaw finished a clutch drive that quarterback Jacory Harris kept alive with a couple of crucial third-down conversions. The junior sent the game-winner through the uprights after USF (5-5) used a pair of timeouts to try to rattle the kicker, who earlier had missed on a 41-yard attempt that was tipped. Senior quarterback Jacory Harris completed 27-of-35 passes for 258 yards in the game without an interception, but was sacked six times. The teams exchanged turnovers within the first three plays of the game, and it was 3-3 at the half after Miami settled for Wieclaw's 26-yard field goal at the end of a 16-play, 77-yard drive in the opening quarter and USF got on the board with a 10-play, 49-yard march that set up Maikon Bonani's 42-yard field goal late in the second quarter. The game marked the first that Miami (6-5) was held without a touchdown since a 26-3 loss to No. 5 Florida on Sept. 6, 2008.

55 FLOOD TIP, 27 YEARS AGO

Friday's game between Boston College and Miami at Sun Life Stadium is set to take place 27 years and two days after one of college football's most memorable games and most amazing final plays. Friday, Nov. 23, was the day after Thanksgiving in 1984 at the Orange Bowl on a national-television stage in Miami that Boston College defeated defending national champion Hurricanes on a 47-yard touchdown pass from Doug Flutie to Gerard Phelan that lifted the Eagles to a wild 47-45 victory. One week later, less than 4.5 hours after a 45-10 victory over Holy Cross in Worcester, Mass., Flutie won the Heisman Trophy in New York City.

SERIES INFO

Friday's game marks the 28th meeting all-time between the Eagles and the Hurricanes. Miami holds a 23-4 advantage in the all-time series between the two institutions, including a 14-1 record when playing in Miami. The Hurricanes won 15 consecutive meetings between 1985 and 2006, but the Eagles earned a 28-14 decision when the squads last squared off on Nov. 24, 2007.

FRANK SPAZIANI

GREGORY P. BARBER & FAMILY HEAD FOOTBALL COACH THIRD SEASON

Known simply as “Coach Spaz” by his players, friends and fans, Spaziani was named head football coach in January, 2009.

Years at Boston College: 15 • Overall Record: 19-19

Former Position: Defensive Coordinator since 1999

Family: Wife, Laura; Children, Joseph, Avery and Andrew

He waited his turn. He got his shot. And if his first two seasons as head coach of the Eagles is any indication, it was well worth the wait.

Never forsaking his modest, hard-working, blue-collar roots, Frank Spaziani served as the loyal soldier for so many years before getting the opportunity to take center stage in 2009. When he was named head football coach at Boston College, the room was filled not only with media, but with family and friends from the Athletics Department who were thrilled to see their humble and dry-witted friend, simply known as “Spaz,” be rewarded for a career of loyalty and dedication. The son of first-generation Italian-Americans Joseph and Regina Spaziani grew up in Clark, N.J., and never forgot his roots. The values of hard work, toughness, dedication, humility, loyalty and honesty he learned as a boy have formed the foundation for his coaching philosophy.

His first season as head coach at Boston College required more than a few tough decisions. Although he hit the ground running, but there were more than a few bumps in the road along the way. Senior linebacker and returning co-captain Mike McLaughlin tore his Achilles’ tendon during a routine drill in the spring and was out indefinitely. In May, the entire program was dealt a devastating and sobering blow when its star player, linebacker Mark Herzlich, discovered he had cancer and would be unable to suit up for the 2009 season. The Eagles then lost the only quarterback with any playing experience, leaving the cupboard bare in the team’s most important position. By mid-summer, expectations were low; at the ACC’s Operation Football in July, the league’s media predicted the Eagles would finish dead last in the Atlantic Division. But a funny thing happened on the way to the cellar – the team overachieved. It finished with an 8-5 record, tied for second in the ACC Atlantic Division, and played in its 11th straight bowl game, giving national power USC all it could handle in the third-most-watched bowl game ever televised on ESPN.

Along the way, milestones were achieved and some young superstars emerged. True freshman linebacker Luke Kuechly was named ACC Defensive Rookie of the Year after coming out of nowhere to lead the league in tackles and averaging more tackles-per-game than any rookie since the NCAA began tracking the stat in 2003. Sophomore running back Montel Harris recorded eight 100-yard games and set the BC sophomore rushing record. Senior wide receiver Rich Gunnell and place-kicker Steve Aponavicius added their names to the record books. McLaughlin battled to get back onto the playing field, and off the field, Herzlich waged a very public battle against cancer – and won. And the Eagles continued their proud tradition of achieving in the classroom, becoming one of only six FBS programs in the country to receive a Graduation Success Rate score of 90 or better. “What we accomplished,” Spaziani said, “where we started, all the potholes, all the situations, all the things we had to overcome, it was a testament to the kids and they should be very proud of what they did. To start with no quarterbacks who ever played in a game, no linebackers who ever played in a game, new staff, new coaches, new everything, to finish 8-5 is an accomplishment we should be proud of.”

The 2010 season followed suit. The Eagles began the season 2-5 and were plagued by injuries to key defensive starters Alex Albright, Wes Davis and DeLeon Gause. Midway through the season, 25 of the 44 players on the team’s two-deep were freshmen or sophomores. But led by the nation’s leading tackler (Kuechly) and the ACC’s leading rusher (Harris), the Eagles became the first team in ACC history to win five consecutive games after losing five in a row. In so doing, they became eligible for their 12th consecutive bowl game. The squad led the ACC in total defense and the nation in rushing defense and, with so many young players, made a statement that the program has a bright future ahead. Spaziani’s BC coaching record now stands at 16-10 (Spaziani was credited with BC’s 25-24 win over Navy in the 2006 Meineke Car Care Bowl as he served as Interim Head Coach following the departure of Tom O’Brien).

The 2010 season marked Spaziani’s 14th year on the BC coaching staff, having spent his first two seasons as the Eagles’ running backs coach before serving as defensive coordinator for 10 seasons. Spaziani’s reputation as an outstanding coach, in fact, was built upon a decade of producing one of the toughest defenses in college football. In 2008, the Eagles ranked in the top 10 in the nation in seven defensive categories, including interceptions (first, 26); turnovers gained (second, 36); total defense (fifth, 268.14 ypg.); red zone defense (sixth, 72%); first downs allowed (sixth, 14.71 pg.); rushing defense (seventh, 91.2 ypg.); and pass efficiency defense (98.81). The Eagles advanced to the ACC Championship Game for the second consecutive season. In addition, Herzlich was named ACC Defensive Player of the Year.

In 2007 Spaziani’s defense ranked second in the nation and led the ACC in rushing defense, allowing just 75.5 yards per game. The BC defense also ranked second in the ACC in red zone defense, keeping opponents from scoring nearly 72 percent of the time. Senior free safety Jamie Silva was a consensus All-America first-team selection and was one of three finalists for the 2007 Jim Thorpe Award, which is given to the nation’s top defensive back. Silva was MVP of the 2007 Champs Sports bowl, in which he had two interceptions. Spaziani was part of a staff that led the Eagles to an 11-3 finish, the first BC team to win 11 games since 1940. The 2007 Eagles began the season 8-0 and were ranked No. 2 in the nation in both major polls. The team won the Atlantic Division of the ACC and went on to win an eighth consecutive bowl game, the longest active bowl game winning streak in America. The Eagles finished 10th in the final AP poll, BC’s best finish since the 1984 season.

In 2006, Boston College led the ACC with five defensive touchdowns. The Eagles were third in the ACC in scoring defense and Jo-Lonn Dunbar was named National Defensive Player of the Week when he scored two of BC's three defensive touchdowns vs. Maryland. In 2005, BC led the ACC in rushing defense (90.8 ypg.) and red zone defense (25-39, 64.1%) and were third in scoring defense (15.9 ypg.). The 2004 Eagles were ranked in the top 10 nationally in scoring defense, top 20 in rushing defense and top 25 in pass efficiency defense. In 2003 BC was ranked second in the Big East in total defense and rushing defense. During the 2002 season, the Eagle defense was ranked 13th nationally in passing defense, 25th in pass efficiency defense, 23rd in scoring defense and 37th in total defense.

Spaziani joined the BC coaching staff after three seasons with the Calgary Stampeders of the Canadian Football League. During his time at Calgary, he served two seasons as the defensive coordinator. Prior to his coaching stint at Calgary, he served as the defensive coordinator for two years with the Winnipeg Blue Bombers. Spaziani spent nine years as a member of the Virginia coaching staff, where he was defensive coordinator for his last five seasons in Charlottesville, after having been defensive backs coach for the first four.

Spaziani has been a member of coaching staffs for teams that have reached 22 bowl games, including the 2010 Kraft Fight Hunger Bowl, the 2009 Emerald Bowl, the 2008 Gaylord Hotels Music City Bowl, the 2007 Champs Sports Bowl, the 2006 Meineke Car Care Bowl, the 2005 MPC Computers Bowl, the 2004 Continental Tire Bowl, the 2003 Diamond Walnut San Francisco Bowl (BC), the 2002 Motor City Bowl (BC), the 2001 Music City Bowl (BC), the 2000 Aloha Bowl (BC), the 1999 Insight.com Bowl (BC), the 1990 Sugar Bowl (Virginia), the 1989 Citrus Bowl (Virginia), the 1987 All-American Bowl (Virginia), the 1984 Peach Bowl (Virginia), the 1981 Liberty Bowl (Navy) and the 1980 Garden State Bowl and 1978 Holiday Bowl (Navy).

Spaziani is a 1969 graduate of Penn State, where he was a star defensive end on the Nittany Lions teams that tied Florida State in the 1967 Gator Bowl and defeated Kansas in the 1969 Orange Bowl. He began his coaching career in 1969 as a graduate assistant at Penn State. After three years as an assistant high school coach, he became head coach at Hempstead (N.Y.) High School in 1973, and, a year later, at Raritan (N.J.) High. He joined head coach George Welsh as an offensive assistant at the U.S. Naval Academy in 1975 and went with Welsh from Annapolis to Virginia in 1982.

Frank and his wife, the former Laura Heikel, are the parents of three children, Joseph and twins Avery and Andrew.

BOSTON (AP) - Boston College ended a 15-game losing streak against Miami to head into the Atlantic Coast Conference title game with a victory.

And the 15th-ranked Eagles didn't even need Doug Flutie to do it.

Matt Ryan threw for 369 yards and three touchdowns to lead BC to a 28-14 win, BC's first victory over Miami since the 1984 "Hail Flutie" pass that ended one of the greatest games in college football history.

But they wanted the win, anyway.

"Coach was telling us we didn't want to go in with a flat tire, with a setback," said receiver Rich Gunnell, who caught nine passes for a career-high 135 yards. "We want to go in with all the momentum we can."

The Hurricanes (5-7, 2-6) failed to qualify for a bowl game for the first time in 10 years.

Ryan completed 26 of 43 passes and finished with 28 touchdowns for the season to break the school record Flutie set in '84. Andre Callender ran 15 times for 96 yards and a 45-yard touchdown that made it 28-14 after Miami hung close for most of the game.

The Eagles won 10 regular-season games for the second consecutive season. With a victory next Saturday, they would play in the Orange Bowl - their first-ever appearance in a Bowl Championship Series game.

Kyle Wright completed 23 of 42 passes for 198 yards and two touchdowns, finishing his college career with 478 completions to pass Bernie Kosar and move into third on Miami's all-time list. But Wright also threw an interception and lost a fumble.

BC's turnovers kept it close, and the Hurricanes cut the deficit to 14-7 early in the third on a 23-yard pass to Ryan Hill, one play after Glenn Sharpe intercepted Ryan. Near the end of the quarter, BC got the ball on Wright's fumble, then Ryan fumbled it back two plays later.

Wright led the Hurricanes on an eight-play, 41-yard drive, hitting Sam Shields from the 2 to tie it with 11:44 left in the game.

That's when BC took over the game.

Ryan hit Gunnell on the right sideline and he broke free for a 49-yard gain, then Clarence Megwa laid out for a 22-yard touchdown pass to complete the two-play, 16-second drive that made it 21-14. After Miami went three-and-out, Callender broke through the middle and went 45 yards to the end zone.

"We had some momentum coming back, then they come back and score," Wright said, his eyes watery as he spoke. "Two plays, they take the lead back. It felt like we were going to win. It hurts that we lost."

MIAMI IN GAME 11

Place-kicker Jake Wieclaw's second field goal of the game, a 36-yarder as time expired, gave Miami a 6-3 victory over South Florida. Wieclaw finished a clutch drive that quarterback Jacory Harris kept alive with a couple of crucial third-down conversions. The junior sent the game-winner through the uprights after USF (5-5) used a pair of timeouts to try to rattle the kicker, who earlier had missed on a 41-yard attempt that was tipped. Senior quarterback Jacory Harris completed 27-of-35 passes for 258 yards in the game without an interception, but was sacked six times. The teams exchanged turnovers within the first three plays of the game, and it was 3-3 at the half after Miami settled for Wieclaw's 26-yard field goal at the end of a 16-play, 77-yard drive in the opening quarter and USF got on the board with a 10-play, 49-yard march that set up Maikon Bonani's 42-yard field goal late in the second quarter. The game marked the first that Miami (6-5) was held without a touchdown since a 26-3 loss to No. 5 Florida on Sept. 6, 2008.

EAGLES SECOND IN NATION IN OVERALL GRADUATION SUCCESS RATE

Boston College, along with Duke University, tied for second in the nation for overall Graduation Success Rate (GSR) in all sports among FBS (Football Bowl Subdivision) schools, according to data released by the NCAA on Tuesday, Oct. 25. The 97 percent that both schools registered was second only to Notre Dame's 99 percent. Twenty-one BC sports teams received a perfect GSR score of 100, the most teams with a perfect score of any FBS athletics program in the country. This marked the third consecutive year the Eagles recorded the most perfect scores among their FBS counterparts. In addition, the football team's score of 93 was one of only six FBS programs in the country to receive a score of 90 or better. "We are very proud that our program is among the top three in the nation in terms of graduating our student-athletes," Director of Athletics Gene DeFilippo said. "Congratulations to our student-athletes for a job well done." The 21 Boston College teams that recorded a perfect GSR score of 100 included men's baseball, fencing, golf, skiing, sailing, swimming and tennis along with women's basketball, cross country/track, rowing, fencing, field hockey, golf, ice hockey, sailing, skiing, soccer, softball, swimming, tennis and volleyball. The five FBS institutions that received scores of 90 or better were Notre Dame (97), Duke (93), Northwestern (94), Rice (93), BC (93) and Navy (91). The NCAA developed the Graduation Success Rate as part of its academic reform initiative to more accurately assess the academic success of student-athletes. The rate holds institutions accountable for transfer students unlike the federal graduation rate. The GSR also accounts for midyear enrollees and is calculated for every sport. The most recent Division I Graduation Success Rates are based on the four entering classes from 2001-2002 through 2004-05.

QUIGLEY IS QUIETLY ONE OF THE BEST

Senior punter Ryan Quigley, Boston College's career record holder and single-season record holder (79; 2010) for punts, downed six punts inside Notre Dame's 12-yard line in the team's 16-14 loss on Nov. 19, including five punts downed inside the Irish nine-yard line. Of his six punts inside the 12, three were downed (at the 5, 3 and 12-yard lines) and three were fair caught (at the 6, 8 and 9-yard lines). The 6-foot-3, 188-pound senior finished the game with a season-high nine punts for 369 yards, an average of 41.0 yards per punt, and matched a season long with a 52-yard punt in the first quarter. Quigley, who led the ACC last fall with 26 punts landed inside the 20-yard line, ranked eighth among all punters in college football this fall with 23 punts inside the 20-yard line, including nine punts inside the 10-yard line.

OFFENSIVE SPARK

Six-foot-4, 224-pound redshirt freshman quarterback Josh Bordner, who made his collegiate debut at the quarterback position during the team's final offensive series of the first half against Florida State (Nov. 4), has provided Boston College's offense with an dual threat at the position. Bordner has carried the ball a combined 17 times for 73 yards in the last three games and is averaging 4.3 yards per carry. The Skysville, Md., native, also connected with classmate Bobby Swigert for a 37-yard pass completion against the Seminoles and finished the game with seven rushing attempts for 45 yards and two passing attempts for 27 yards (Bordner's second passing attempt against Florida State was intercepted). In the team's 14-10 home win over NC State (Nov. 12), Bordner carried the ball six times for 21 yards, including a 3-yard touchdown rush on the team's opening drive. He also accounted for Boston College's rushing touchdown – a two-yard plunge – at Notre Dame and finished with four attempts for seven yards.

FIVE PLAYERS SUSTAIN SEASON-ENDING INJURIES

BC TO SEEK MEDICAL HARDSHIP WAIVERS FOR HARRIS, RAMSEY

Boston College announced it will seek medical hardship waivers for senior running back Montel Harris (knee injury) and senior defensive tackle Kaleb Ramsey (foot injury) on Oct. 9. "After speaking with Montel, Kaleb and our medical personnel, we decided to seek hardship waivers for both student-athletes," Coach Frank Spaziani said. "Our doctors have stated their injuries will preclude both from returning for the remainder of this season. Both have expressed a desire to return for an additional year. We will begin the process immediately. This will enable Montel and Kaleb to concentrate on healing from their injuries and, hopefully, return for injury-free senior seasons." The NCAA may grant hardship waivers to student-athletes with season-ending injuries who have appeared in fewer than 30 percent of their team's competitions, with none coming after the midway point of the season.

HARRIS BREAKS BC RUSHING RECORD

Senior running back Montel Harris broke the Boston College all-time rushing record with a 26-yard rush in the fourth quarter of the team's 27-19 loss to Wake Forest, surpassing Derrick Knight who tallied 3,725 yards on the ground from 2000-03. Harris carried the ball 22 times for 108 yards, recording the 22nd 100-yard rushing game of his career and ending the day with 3,734 career yards.

TAILBACK TRIO

Through 10 games this fall, Boston College has featured three different starters at the running back position. Six-foot, 222-pound true sophomore Andre Williams started each of the team's first four games of 2011 and has seven starts in total this fall, while 5-foot-10, 209-pound redshirt sophomore Deuce Finch has three starts – at Clemson (Oct. 8), at Maryland (Oct. 28) and against Florida State (Nov. 4) in 2011. Five-foot-11, 207-pound senior Montel Harris, who missed each of the first three games of the season because of injury, registered one start – against Wake Forest (Oct. 1) before suffering a season-ending injury against the Demon Deacons.

BREAKING RECORDS

Junior All-America linebacker Luke Kuechly registered a game-high 14 tackles against the Irish (Nov. 19) and broke the ACC's career record for tackles (515) formerly held by Clemson's Bubba Brown early in the second quarter. Kuechly has 182 tackles this fall and 523 in his three-year career. He is one takedown shy of breaking his own ACC record for tackles in a season, which he established last year, and one shy of the school's career record set by defensive lineman Stephen Boyd (1991-94).

KUECHLY REACHES DOUBLE DIGIT TACKLES FOR 33rd STRAIGHT GAME

Junior LB Luke Kuechly recorded 14 tackles, including seven solo stops in Boston College's 16-14 loss at Notre Dame on Saturday, reaching 10 or more tackles in a game for the 33rd straight contest. The 6-foot-3, 237-pound junior has 182 tackles, including 96 solo stops, in 11 games this fall. He leads the nation in both total tackles and solo tackles. Kuechly, who broke the school's single-season tackle total with 183 as a sophomore last fall, is one tackle shy of matching the standard he set last fall. Additionally, Kuechly also holds BC's fifth-highest total with 158 tackles as a true freshman in 2009.

CLOSING IN ON BC'S ALL-TIME RECORD

Kuechly enters Friday's game at Miami with 523 tackles in 37 career games, just one tackle shy of Boston College's record of 524 held by former Eagle great Stephen Boyd, who set the standard during his four years at Boston College (1991-94). Boyd is a 1994 Boston College graduate who twice captured All-Big East honors - in 1993 and 1994 - and helped lead the Eagles to three consecutive bowl appearances - the 1993 Hall of Fame Bowl, the 1994 Carquest Bowl and the 1994 Jeep-Eagle Aloha Bowl. He went on to play seven seasons with Detroit in the NFL and ranks third in tackles (773) among all Lions in franchise history. Boyd was a two-time Pro Bowl selection. The Valley Stream, N.Y., native was inducted into BC's Varsity Club Hall of Fame in 2006 and has been recently named one of 12 members to the Atlantic Coast Conference's Class of 2011 Game Legends.

KUECHLY DOES IT ALL

In addition to LB Luke Kuechly's remarkable tackling totals, he also recorded his second interception of the season in Boston College's 28-17 win at Maryland on Oct. 28. Kuechly, who now has six career interceptions in his 37-game career, registered three interceptions during his All-America sophomore season and tallied his first collegiate interception as a freshman against Central Michigan (Oct. 31, 2009). Kuechly, who also sees significant action on Boston College's special teams, has participated in an average of 84.4 plays per game through 11 games in 2011. Kuechly had recorded participation in an amazing 926 total plays. He is the only player on BC's roster that has participated in more than 800 plays through 11 games.

BREAKING DOWN KUECHLY'S CAREER TACKLES

Kuechly has recorded 523 career tackles, including 293 solo tackles, in 37 career games and is averaging 14.1 tackles per game and 7.9 solo tackles per game. All four standards are unmatched among active collegiate football players. The Cincinnati, Ohio, native has registered 10 or more tackles in 34 (of 37) games since making his collegiate debut against Northeastern on Sept. 5, 2009. Of his 523 career tackles, he has registered 306 in 22 games inside the team's home venue (Alumni Stadium) and has tallied 218 in 15 games played on the road or at a neutral site. Kuechly is averaging 13.7 tackles per home contest and 14.5 tackles per away game.

CHESTNUT HILL, Mass. (AP) - Backup Kain Colter threw for 197 yards and ran for 71 more with a touchdown to lead Northwestern to a 24-17 victory over Boston College in the season opener.

Colter completed 17 of 24 passes and Northwestern won for the first time since Dan Persa ruptured his Achilles tendon last Nov. 13. Persa, who had been touted as a Heisman Trophy contender by the school, was a late scratch.

Andre Williams, who replaced the injured Montel Harris, ran 22 times for 114 yards and two touchdowns. Luke Kuechly had 19 tackles, two for a loss, and an interception for BC.

BC brought the ball to the Northwestern 19 with 18 seconds left before a false start moved them back and took 10 seconds off the clock. Chase Rettig was sacked by Vince Browne on the final play and remained on the field for several minutes.

Ifeanyi Momah caught eight passes for 171 yards for the Eagles, but Nathan Freese missed a pair of field goals. Rettig, a sophomore who took over as the starter midway through last season, completed 24 of 44 passes for 375 yards with one interception, but he couldn't find anyone open on the game's final play.

Persa led the nation in completion percentage and total offense last year before he had surgery on a ruptured Achilles tendon Nov. 13; Northwestern lost its final three games, including the TicketCity Bowl. Boston College was without Harris, the Atlantic Coast Conference preseason player of the year.

Neither absence seemed like much of a setback.

Harris' replacement, Andre Williams, broke free for 69 yards on the first play from scrimmage. But BC settled for a field goal, and got nothing on its next trip inside the Northwestern 15 when Freese missed a 31-yard field goal.

The Eagles made it 10-3 when Kuechly intercepted Colter and ran it back to the Wildcats' 3 yard-line. After a penalty, Williams scored on a 6-yard run to give BC the lead.

Colter tied it when he ran it in himself from 3 yards out to complete a 10-play, 80-yard drive just before the half and then led Northwestern on another just like it to start the second. Mike Trumpy scored on a 5-yard run to give the Wildcats a 17-10 lead, and they went up 24-10 on a perfect option pitch from Colter to Adonis Smith with 9:24 left.

Rettig hit Momah for 38 yards to the 2, and two plays later Williams ran it in to make it 24-17 with 6 minutes left. But Northwestern stopped the Eagles on fourth-and-10 with under 3 minutes left, and by the time BC got the ball back there was 1:37 left and they were on their own 36.

After an intentional grounding left the Eagles with third-and-16 from their own 30, Rettig brought them to the Northwestern 19 with 18 seconds left. But there was movement before the snap on the left side of the offensive line, resulting in a 5-yard penalty and a mandatory 10 second runoff from the clock.

With 4 seconds left, Rettig rolled right but could not get rid of the ball before Browne tackled him to end the game.

ORLANDO, Fla. (AP)- Central Florida used a trio of fourth quarter touchdowns and three field goals from kicker Nick Cattoi to top the Eagles 30-3.

The Knights defense was stingy against Boston College, holding them to 141 total yards. The Eagles were only 1 of 12 on third down as quarterback Chase Rettig was sacked three times and intercepted twice.

Rettig finished 10 of 23 passing for 70 yards. Andre Williams, who racked up 122 yards and two touchdowns last week against Northwestern, had only 59 yards 12 carries.

UCF clung to a 9-3 lead throughout the third quarter until Godfrey completed back-to-back passes of 17 and 28 yards in the final minute of the period to get the Knights inside the 5.

Godfrey snuck in from 1-yard out two plays later to put the Knights up 16-3 with 14:51 left in the game.

Rettig was then picked off by A.J. Bouye on the Eagles' ensuing possession, giving the ball right back to the Knights on the Boston College 49.

UCF's offense picked up where it left off, in six plays they got back into the end zone--this time via a 1-yard plunge by Murray--to extend its lead to 23-3 with 9:30 left.

Murray had four carries for 38 yards during the drive, including a 19-yard scamper.

Godfrey added one more 4-yard touchdown rush to provide the final margin.

UCF won time of possession in the first half and took a 9-3 lead into the locker room.

The Knights had the ball for 19:52, compared to 10:08 for the Eagles. Boston College had just four possessions in the half, punting on their final three.

UCF didn't get in the end zone, but did put its extra time to use. The Knights were aggressive from the start, mixing 13 passes into their 37 total plays for the half. The Knights also racked up 100 rushing yards, led by Godfrey's 46 yards on nine carries.

Meanwhile, Cattoi made all three of his field goals from 36, 35 and 32 yards away.

UCF's defense also kept Williams at bay in the opening 30 minutes. His first touch of the night went for 16 yards, but his final seven carries of the half netted 27 yards.

Boston College had a few big plays, but managed only four first downs. Rettig was also a paltry 3 for 8 for 27 yards through the air. He was also sacked twice deep in Eagles' territory to set up a Knights' score.

The Eagles' biggest bright spot of the half came on the defensive side, with linebacker Luke Kuechly posting 10 tackles.

Both teams traded field goals in quickly played first quarter.

Boston College got on the scoreboard first via a 47-yard field goal by Nate Freese. The drive nearly stalled on the UCF 33-yardline, but was kept alive by a fourth down pass play by Rettig to Bobby Swigert.

UCF then answered with a 36-yard boot by Cattoi, capping a 15-play, 49-yard drive that took more than seven minutes.

BOSTON (AP) - Sean Renfree tied a school record with 40 completions and scored the go-ahead touchdown on a 1-yard run with just under 10 minutes left to lead Duke to a 20-19 victory over Boston College in the Atlantic Coast Conference opener for both teams.

BC had an excellent chance to win, but Nate Freese's 23-yard field-goal attempt hit the left upright and bounced back with 43 seconds left. Freese had already made two long field goals.

Duke won for just the second time in its last 11 conference openers.

Renfree threw 52 times for 359 yards and two touchdowns to Conner Vernon. He tied the Duke record of 40 completions set by Thaddeus Lewis in 2009 against North Carolina State.

Duke rallied from a 19-7 deficit late in the first half and went ahead with 9:57 to go. Renfree led the decisive 70-yard drive after the Blue Devils wasted two solid scoring opportunities in the second half - an interception at the BC 3 and a missed 33-yard field goal attempt.

With a first down at the Eagles 4, Anthony Boone was held to no gain and Jamison Crowder gained 3 yards before Renfree just made it into the end zone on a play that was reviewed.

BC scored first on a 31-yard pass from Chase Rettig to Tahj Kimble, ending a 55-yard drive with 5:57 left in the first quarter. It began after Spenser Rositano blocked a punt by Alex King and Will Thompson recovered.

The Eagles made it 10-0 on a 43-yard field goal by Freese with 4:16 gone in the second quarter. Duke cut the lead to 10-7 on a 53-yard pass play from Renfree to Vernon, who caught the ball between two receivers and ran about 30 yards to the end zone. It was Renfree's first scoring pass of the season.

Freese's 47-yard field goal made it 13-7 with 4:03 left in the half. Andre Williams scored on a 7-yard run with 1:21 remaining, but Freese missed the extra point.

Duke then marched 63 yards in just 51 seconds to score on Renfree's 21-yard pass to Vernon and trailed 19-14 at halftime.

BOSTON (AP) -- Boston College linebacker Kevin Pierre-Louis has a number usually worn by running backs. He had a chance to look like one, too.

Pierre-Louis picked up a fumble and ran 96 yards down the middle of the field for a score to help the Boston College Eagles finally smile a bit after their first win of the season, 45-17 over Massachusetts.

"The ball was tipped and we always practice tip drills," said a wide-smiling Pierre-Louis, who wears No. 24. "I was happy to see on the Jumbotron -- (linebacker) Luke Kuechly and a couple of guys behind me. They had my back."

Chase Rettig threw for three touchdowns and Pierre-Louis had one of two TDs returned by BC's linebackers for scores.

Linebacker Nick Clancy had the other fumble return for a score -- 16 yards late in the third quarter -- about 4 minutes before Pierre-Louis.

The Eagles (1-3) were off to their worst start since opening 1991 with four losses under then-coach Tom Coughlin.

"You look for positive reinforcements," BC coach Frank Spaziani said of the win. "A victory is the best re-enforcement you can have."

Leading 38-10, UMass QB Kellen Pagel was hit near the goal line, Pierre-Louis caught the ball in the air and ran down the middle of the field.

Jesse Julmiste had a 100-yard kickoff return for a score for the Minutemen, and Jonathan Hernandez carried 22 times for 80 yards and a TD.

It was the 24th meeting between the schools, dating back to the first in 1899. BC leads 19-5, winning its seventh straight.

Rettig completed 14 of 22 passes for 196 yards with the three TDs and no interceptions. Andre

Williams carried 20 times for 95 yards and last season's Atlantic Coast Conference leading rusher Montel Harris returned from preseason left knee surgery and ran nine times for 27 yards.

Colin Larmond, Jr. had two TD catches -- 36 and 37 yards -- and backup running back Tahj Kimble had a 3-yard run for a score. The Eagles' Hampton Hughes picked off UMass Pagel on the first offensive play of the game, giving BC the ball at UMass' 47. Eleven plays later, Rettig hit tight end Lars Anderson with a 1-yard score to give BC a 7-0 lead.

After a short drive by the Minutemen, the Eagles took over on their own 45 and marched to the UMass' 8 before the stalling. Nate Freese booted a 26-yard field goal, making it 10-0.

BC took over in UMass territory early in the second quarter after a short punt gave them the ball at UMass' 44. Kimball ran in from the 3 five plays later, making it 17-0. Rettig hit Johnathan Coleman for a 24-yard strike on the prior play.

Julmiste took the ensuing kickoff a couple of steps in his own end zone, broke free up the left sideline for his score, making it 17-7. NCAA statistics only list returns of 100 yards despite Julmiste taking the ball back about 102.

But BC struck back on its next offensive series. Rettig hit a wide-open Larmond, Jr. along the left sideline for a 36-yard score, capping a 54-yard drive that took seven plays and increased the lead to 24-7.

The Eagles, coming off a heartbreaking 20-19 loss at home to Duke last week when Freese hit the left upright with a potential game-winning field goal in the closing minute, dominated on the scoreboard, statistics and time of possession in the opening half. The Eagles doubled UMass in total yardage and held the ball nearly 21 minutes to just over nine for the Minutemen.

Brendon Levendgood kicked a 38-yard field goal, cutting BC's lead to 24-10 late in the third quarter.

Larmond Jr.'s second TD of the game -- a leaping 37-yarder in the left side of the end zone -- made it 31-10. Clancy picked up Hernandez's fumble and ran in untouched for a score on the next series.

BOSTON (AP) -- Tanner Price threw a 47-yard TD pass to Chris Givens on Wake Forest's first possession of the second half as the Demon Deacons opened a 15-point lead before holding off Boston College 27-19.

Boston College's Montel Harris carried 22 times for 108 yards, setting the school's all-time rushing record with a 26-yard carry early in the fourth quarter. He currently has 3,735 yards, breaking the mark held by Derrick Knight (2003). Knight had 3,725 career yards.

Boston College's Chase Rettig completed 23 of 47 for 188 yards with a TD pass and an interception, but he was stopped a yard short on a fourth-and-4 run at Wake Forest's 44 with just under two minutes left.

The Demon Deacons, who scored on their opening drive of both halves, held a 24-9 lead early in the final quarter.

Nate Freese kicked four field goals -- three in the opening half -- for the Eagles (1-4, 0-2).

After holding Boston College to a three-and-out on the first drive of the second half, Price hit Givens on a short pass and he broke free down the left sideline for a 47-yard score, leaping over an attempted tackle by Spenser Rositano near the 5 before going into the end zone to make it 24-9.

The Eagles appeared to be ready to get closer, but Harris fumbled at the Demon Deacons' 5 to end the ensuing drive. They picked off a pass and took over at Wake's 45 on the next possession, but Rettig threw a deep pass into good coverage and was picked by Cyhl Quarles at the 5.

After coming up empty three times after good field position, Boston College converted on the next try when Rettig's 2-yard toss to Alex Amidon capped a 41-yard drive and cut it to 24-16. Harris set up the score with his record-breaking 26-yard carry, but he left the game briefly after injuring his left knee.

Boston College moved to Wake's 10 before the drive stalled with 6 minutes left. Freese's 32-yarder cut it to 24-19.

The Demon Deacons needed a big play and Price delivered. On a third-and-15 from his own 15 with just over five minutes left, Price hit Terence Davis on a 44-yard pass along the right sideline. On the next play, Michael Campanaro hit Givens for 36 yards, setting up Jimmy Newman's 22-yard field goal that made it 27-19 with 2:59 left.

Wake Forest took the opening kickoff and marched 74 yards on 11 plays, with Harris capping it on a 2-yard run to make it 7-0. Price was 4 of 5 on the drive for 57 yards.

Rettig completed his first pass of the game -- on Boston College's first offensive play -- for 34 yards to Colin Larmond Jr. but connected on just 5 of his next 11 for only 32 yards. Wake Forest pressured him up the middle a lot and he had trouble getting the ball to receivers deep down field.

With the help of Wake Forest's offside penalty, Boston College cut it to 7-3 on Freese's 36-yard field goal. He had missed wide left on a 47-yard attempt, but the penalty helped prolong the drive for the Eagles. Boston College's Harris converted on a fourth-and-1 run on the next play.

Newman's 22-yard field goal made it 10-3. Freese's 45-yarder cut it to 10-6 on the ensuing possession.

But the Demon Deacons went 73 yards in 12 plays on the following possession, with Brandon Pendergrass' 1-yard run making it 17-6. Price completed all five attempts for 45 yards. Pendergrass set up the score with a 12-yard run to the 2 and scored the play after Boston College was whistled for an offside penalty.

Freese hit a career-best 52-yard field goal in the closing minute of the first half.

CLEMSON, S.C. (AP) - Tajh Boyd threw for a touchdown and ran for another before leaving No. 8 Clemson's 36-14 victory Saturday over Boston College with a hip injury that raised concerns about how long the Tigers could stay undefeated without him.

The severity of Boyd's injury wasn't immediately known. He came in leading the Atlantic Coast Conference in total offense and has been the catalyst for the Tigers' first 6-0 start in 11 years.

Clemson (3-0 ACC) got five field goals from Chandler Catanzaro and 117 yards and a touchdown from tailback Andre Ellington to put away Boston College (1-5, 0-3).

The Eagles played without ACC preseason player of the year Montel Harris, who aggravated a knee injury in last week's loss to Wake Forest.

Boyd, a sophomore, had thrown for 200 yards or more each game this year and was on his way to a third 300-yard performance when, with Clemson ahead 23-7, he was hit by Boston College defensive end Max Holloway. Boyd tried to get up but rolled back to the ground as coaches, teammates and trainers surrounded him. Death Valley, 78,000 strong for homecoming, was silent as Boyd remained on the ground.

He was finally carried off the field, his left leg held above the turf. He was taken to the locker room for X-rays and Clemson announced he had a hip injury.

Boston College tried to catch Clemson groggy after Boyd's departure, Chase Rettig's 24-yard pass to Bobby Swigert cutting the lead to 26-14. The Tigers, though, found their footing and fast-paced attack under freshman backup Cole Stoudt, the son of longtime NFL quarterback Cliff Stoudt. Catanzaro added a 47-yard field goal and Ellington broke out for a 36-yard touchdown run on fourth-and-1 to seal the victory.

The Eagles have had their successes at Death Valley -- they've won two of the three times they've played here since joining the ACC in 2005 -- but were without injured star Harris and his backup, Andre Williams. Harris had rushed for over 100 yards a week ago against Wake Forest, but re-aggravated a knee injury that kept him out of all but two games this season. Williams didn't play because of an ankle injury.

When Boston College finally scored on Rolandan Finch's 20-yard touchdown run with 1:55 to go, Clemson followed with a 65-yard drive that concluded with Catanzaro's 18-yard field goal for a 23-7 halftime lead.

BLACKSBURG, Va. (AP) - David Wilson didn't even wait to get to the locker room at halftime before finding running backs coach Shane Beamer and giving him a simple message.

"We need to run the ball more," Wilson said he told the head coach's son.

The coaches agreed. When Wilson gave the Hokies the lead with a 42-yard touchdown run on their first possession of the second half, No. 16 Virginia Tech had finally found its offensive rhythm and was on its way to a 30-14 victory against surprisingly stubborn Boston College.

"I was like, 'Let's run the ball,'" said Wilson, who had just six carries for 21 yards in the first half but finished with 17 for 134. "I felt like we were getting away from what we do."

Logan Thomas took over after Wilson's long run gave the Hokies a 13-7 lead. He hit Marcus Davis for a 20-yard touchdown, and then ran in from the 1, giving the Hokies a 27-7 lead.

The Hokies (7-1, 3-1 Atlantic Coast Conference) won their third in a row, all games in which Thomas has scored at least one touchdown on the ground and through the air.

The Eagles' first touchdown drive covered just 35 yards on their opening series after a shanked punt, and their last - 72 yards in 11 plays - came in the fourth quarter with the Hokies leading 27-7.

"Once we got inside the 50, we stalled," Eagles quarterback Chase Rettig said. He accounted for both scores, running two yards for the first and hitting Chris Pantale for a 7-yard TD.

Eagles linebacker Luke Kuechly, who had 19 tackles to stay on pace for an NCAA record, said the attention to getting Wilson involved after halftime highlighted his potential.

The Hokies had plenty of trouble in the first half, managing just a pair of field goals.

After Wilson softened things up with his long run - Thomas rolled right with him, then made an option pitch to Wilson once defenders closed in - Thomas was able to get going, too. He was 10 for 11 for 126 yards after halftime, and 22 for 36 overall for 268 yards.

The Eagles mounted their first real drive after Wilson scored, but on first-and-10 from the Hokies' 22, Tariq Edwards intercepted Rettig's pass at the 11, and Tech drove again.

Two runs by Wilson covered the first 20 yards, and Thomas had a 29-yard completion to Danny Coale before throwing one up for Davis to go get in the end zone on the next play. The 6-foot-4 Davis easily came down with the ball despite close coverage by 6-1 cornerback Donnie Fletcher.

The Eagles struck quickly after holding the Hokies to a three-and-out on their opening series, with the help of a 9-yard punt by Michael Branthover that set them up at the Tech 35.

On second-and-12, Rettig hit Colin Larmond for 35 yards, then ran it in on the next play. Rettig finished 13 for 30 for 181 yards. He was sacked four times.

"Rettig made some nice plays early and later on he made some nice plays, but there was a lot of pressure on his," Eagles coach Frank Spaziani said. "When you are back and people are in your face right away, it's not good and it affects your decision-making, obviously."

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) - Rolandan Finch ran for 243 yards and two touchdowns, and Boston College defeated Maryland 28-17 for its first Atlantic Coast Conference victory of the season.

Finch, a sophomore, never before broke the 100-yard mark and had run for 266 yards in six games before Saturday. He had 152 yards rushing at halftime, finished with a career-high 39 carries and had a team-leading two catches for seven yards.

Finch is filling in for standout senior Montel Harris, who's out for the year with a knee injury.

Linebacker Luke Kuechly had 12 tackles and an interception to help Boston College (2-6, 1-4) snap a three-game skid.

Maryland (2-6, 1-4) coach Randy Edsall started C.J. Brown at quarterback, then switched to Danny O'Brien in the second quarter. Both threw an interception, and neither moved the offense until O'Brien threw a 55-yard touchdown pass to Adrian Coxson with 6:39 left.

That made it 21-10, and after a failed onside kick, Finch scored his second touchdown to clinch it.

Brown went 2 for 6 for 14 yards, and O'Brien completed 14 of 35 passes for 165 yards, including 141 in the fourth quarter.

Maryland got off to a miserable start, beginning when Nick Ferrara bounced the opening kickoff out of bounds. Boston College needed only six plays to cover the 60 yards, the last five on runs by Finch for 7, 5, 9, 8 and 18 yards.

Brown threw an errant pitch on the Terrapins' first offensive play, but he recovered the loose ball and got a field goal out of the drive.

Maryland's next possession ended when Sean Sylvia intercepted a deflected pass, and two plays later wide receiver Alex Amidon scored on a 21-yard touchdown run for a 14-3 lead.

After a Maryland punt, Boston College mounted an 80-yard drive that ended with a 3-yard touchdown run by Andre Williams.

CHESTNUT HILL (AP) - Chase Rettig completed 11 of 18 passes with one touchdown in the Eagles' 38-7 loss to Florida State on Thursday night.

Florida State's EJ Manuel threw for one touchdown and ran for another as Florida State opened a 28-point halftime lead that the Eagles couldn't recover from.

With their fourth straight win, the Seminoles (6-3, 4-2 Atlantic Coast Conference) qualified for a bowl game for an NCAA-best 30th consecutive year.

Boston College (2-7, 1-5), which had gone to a bowl game for 12 straight years, was guaranteed its first losing season since 1998 and was eliminated from bowl contention.

Manuel completed 12-of-16 passes for 180 yards and ran 16 times for 37 yards. Devonta Freeman ran for 62 yards and two touchdowns, and Nick O'Leary caught three passes for 87 yards.

Rettig split time with freshman Josh Bordner after the first six drives resulted in five punts and a fumble. Bordner was 1-of-2 for 37 yards, and he ran seven times for 45 yards.

Manuel did most of the damage in a dominant first half, when Florida State scored on three consecutive possessions. With 4:51 to play in the second quarter, the Seminoles led 28-0; they had outgained BC 214 yards to 16 and held the Eagles without a first down.

Bordner came into the game and, sharing time with Rettig on the drive, led BC 74 yards to the Florida State 1 before Rolandan Finch fumbled.

Finch, a former fourth-stringer who had 243 yards against Maryland last week, had two fumbles in the game while gaining 59 yards on 28 carries.

Luke Kuechly had 20 tackles - 12 solo - for Boston College, his 31st straight game with 10 or more.

Manuel threw for 321 yards and two touchdowns last week in a 34-0 victory over North Carolina State - the Seminoles' fourth consecutive game with more than 425 yards of total offense. Against BC they had 307.

Florida State failed to get a first down on its first possession, but it got the ball back on the BC 2 when Anthony McCloud knocked the ball free from Finch and Smith fell on it. Two plays and a penalty later, Manuel hit Bert Reed for an 8-yard touchdown pass.

The Seminoles scored early in the second quarter on Freeman's 12-yard run and, after another BC three-and-out, Manuel completed a 58-yard pass to O'Leary before taking it in himself from 1 yard out to make it 21-0. After another BC three-and-out, Freeman marched Florida State down the field before scoring from the 3 to give the Seminoles a 28-0 lead.

Bordner entered the game for BC and, on his first snap, ran 25 yards for the Eagles' first first down of the game. From the Seminoles' 39 he hit Bobby Swigert on a 37-yard completion that brought the ball to the 2.

But Finch was stuffed for a 1-yard gain on first-and-goal, and on second down he lost the ball on his way to the line of scrimmage.

CHESTNUT HILL (AP) - Starting quarterback Chase Rettig threw for a touchdown, backup Josh Bordnerran for a score and Boston College held on for a 14-10 win over North Carolina State on Nov. 12.

Rettig completed 9-of-13 attempts for 118 yards, and Andre Williams carried 18 times for 61 yards.

Mike Glennon completed 28-of-40 passes for 220 yards and James Washington had a 3-yard TD run for the Wolfpack (5-5, 2-4), who moved deep into BC's territory in the closing minutes before Glennon's pass was tipped at the line and fell to the ground on a fourth-and-5 play with 1:10 left.

NC State needs to win both of its final games to become bowl eligible because it has two wins over FCS schools. The Wolfpack hosts No. 9 Clemson and Maryland to close the season.

Wolfpack corner back David Amerson extended a school-record with his NCAA-leading 10th interception in the first half. NC State held BC to minus-2 yards of total offense in the second half.

Boston College linebacker Luke Kuechly had 18 tackles - nine in the final 13 minutes - for his 32nd straight game with double digits in tackles. He entered the game leading the nation with 150 after leading the nation with 183 last year.

The Eagles led 14-3 at halftime.

North Carolina State started at its own 18 with 13 1/2 minutes left in the game and marched down to the Eagles' 23 before Donnie Fletcher picked off Glennon's pass in the end zone.

Boston College took the opening kickoff and marched right down the field in five plays, grabbing a 7-0 lead when backup quarterback Bordner scored on a 3-yard run off an option play. The score came two plays after Rettig hit Alex Amidon with a 41-yard pass along the left sideline, moving the ball to the Wolfpack's nine.

NC State, coming off a shutout win over rival North Carolina last week, drove 61 yards in 13 plays on its first possession before the drive stalled and Niklas Sade kicked a 32-yard field goal. Glennon completed 7 of 8 passes for 60 yards with the only incompletaion a drop by T.J. Graham.

The Wolfpack had four first downs on their first drive of the game, but only had three more until midway into the final quarter.

The Eagles improved their lead to 14-3 late in the first half on Rettig's 17-yard TD pass to Colin Larmond Jr. BC started with good field position after Wil Baumann's 24-yard punt gave them the ball at their own 41. Rettig completed consecutive passes for a combined 23 yards and Williams carried six times - mostly up the middle - for 16 yards.

Except for the final possession - which was a one-play kneel down to end the half - BC went into NC State territory each time it had the ball in the first half.

Washington's scoring run cut it to 14-10 midway into the third quarter. On a third-and-4 from the Eagles' 38, Glennon lofted a pass to tight end Quinton Payton that dropped in between four defenders.

Late in the first half, a fan wearing a No. 40 BC jersey ran onto the field from the student section toward the line of scrimmage. Wolfpack offensive tackle Rob Crisp knocked the male intruder to the ground with his right arm before he got up and was taken off the field by security.

NOTRE DAME, Ind. (AP) - Jonas Gray rushed for a touchdown, David Ruffer kicked three field goals and No. 24 Notre Dame recovered an onside kick with just under 2 minutes to play to hold off Boston College 16-14 last Saturday.

Ruffer had field goals of 40, 41 and 27 yards for the Irish (8-3), who matched their victory total from last year with their fourth straight win. But it was a costly victory, too, with Gray leaving in the third quarter with what looked to be a knee injury. Gray, who was enjoying a breakout year after a lackluster first three seasons, had extended his scoring streak to eight games with a 26-yard run on the opening drive of the game.

The Eagles struggled to get anything going offensively for most of the second half, with Chase Rettig throwing 10 incompletions in a row at one point. But Rettig got on track just in time to make things interesting, finding Chris Pantale for a 21-yard gain and throwing a 17-yarder to Rolandan Finch as the Eagles advanced to the Notre Dame 16 with about 3 minutes to play. A pass interference call on Zeke Motta moved Boston College to the 2 and, after a false start and an incomplection, Rettig connected with Bobby Swigert for a 7-yard score.

Boston College (3-8) went for the onside kick, but Robby Toma recovered it and Notre Dame ran the clock down to just eight seconds. The Eagles got the ball back and lateraled several times before Irish linebacker Troy Niklas made the final tackle around the Boston College

15 to end the game. Notre Dame has beaten Boston College three years in a row after losing six straight.

Eagles linebacker Luke Kuechly was credited with 14 tackles, leaving him one shy of the Boston College career record. The junior did set the ACC record with 523 career tackles.

Notre Dame looked as if it was going to have an easy afternoon when it marched 80 yards on its opening drive, capped by Gray's rumble through the Boston College defense. But the Irish offense stalled twice just outside the Boston College red zone, and Tommy Rees was picked off around midfield on another drive. Rees finished 24-of-39 for 256 yards.

Cierre Wood had 98 yards for Notre Dame, giving him 1,001 for the season. Michael Floyd had 10 catches for 92 yards in his final game at Notre Dame Stadium.
